TWO REARE FIRED

PRIVATE SECRETARY BROWN AND CAPT. C. HILL ARE NOW PRIVATE CITIZENS

STILES JONES APPOINTED AS PRIVATE SECRETARY

Other Changes Are Looked for in the Police Department, as It Is the Opinion of the Present Acting Mayor to Remove All Offensive Partisans of Ames' Administration.

Acting Mayor Fred M. Powers was a busy man again yesterday straightening out some of the kinks that yet exist in the Ames administration.

When Col. Fred Ames left the city on his leave of absence, the mayor appointed Capt. Hill to act as his private secretary, which position he held until the return of Col. Ames.

As soon as Capt. Hill was relieved by Col. Ames, he and Capt. Fitchette took the train for West Baden, where they were instrumental in the overthrow of Supt. Ames.

It is understood from good authority that the present grand jury is backing the acting mayor in his determination to rid the city of the offensive partisans of the Ames administration.

MAYOR AMES MAY RETURN. Acting Superintendent Gatchell Makes Changes in Police Department.

There is a rumor afloat that Mayor Ames will return to Minneapolis on Tuesday, and it is thought that if he does he will bring with him his old-time staff.

There were several changes made by Acting Superintendent Gatchell yesterday. Joseph Schutta, a plain clothes man, who was on duty at the East Side station, was taken from the East Side station and sent to the East Side station as plain clothes.

George Harvey has been transferred from the South Side station to the East Side station, where he is paired off with his old mate Louis Honsan.

Capt. Coffin, who had charge of the mounted force, has been unseated and reduced to the rank of lieutenant.

These changes have all been recommended to the acting mayor, and no doubt they will be approved.

COL. AMES WANTS DELAY. He Files Affidavit of Prejudice Against Judge Simpson.

Col. Ames appeared before Judge Simpson yesterday on telegraphic assurance that Victor Welch, and withdrew his plea of not guilty to the indictments charging him with bribery and extortion in order to introduce a demurrer to the indictment on the following grounds:

First—That more than one offense is charged in the indictment.

Second—That the facts stated in said indictment do not constitute a public offense.

Third—That the second indictment is insufficient in that the same is not direct and certain as regards the particular circumstances of the offense charged, which are not necessary to constitute a complete offense.

Mr. Welch said that he would not argue these points, as the same had been argued and passed upon in the former trial of Col. Ames.

Judge Simpson then overruled the demurrer. Mr. Welch then moved for a continuance of the case until the next term of court, and asked for information which Judge was to hear the case.

Judge Simpson informed him that he feet of the burning building, and had the fire once started in that building it would have spread rapidly to other property.

When the chief arrived on the scene a general alarm was turned in, and after deluging the burning building with water, it was soon gotten under control.

There was great danger of the adjoining lumber yards being ignited from sparks and embers blown by the strong breeze from the burning building, and it required active work on the part of the fire department to prevent a serious conflagration in the several blocks of lumber piled in the immediate vicinity.

While Mr. McVoy was unable to tell just how much damage was done or how much insurance was being paid, the dry kiln, yet he was confident that $10,000 would be a fair estimate, and that it was fully covered by insurance.

RACE TRACK FIGURES. WHAT ROBERT BONNER SAID ABOUT TWO-MINUTE HORSE

To Make a Mile in This Time a Horse Must Beat the Record Made by Maud S by Three Hundred and Fifty Feet.

When Robert Bonner was asked, in 1891, why he believed no horse could ever trot a mile in 2:00, he replied: "Such a feat, which they have got to do to make a mile in 2:00, the horse must beat Maud S more than 350 feet."

Mr. Bonner's estimate of the actual case brings out forcibly the meaning of every advance in the trotting horse's speed.

When the record of the relative speed of the record breakers shows that Cresceus, the champion of today, would beat Maud S 700 feet in trotting a mile, assuming that both traveled the same distance at their best recorded rate of speed.

It is a matter of fact that the speed of the record breakers shows that Cresceus, the champion of today, would beat Maud S 700 feet in trotting a mile, assuming that both traveled the same distance at their best recorded rate of speed.
