LAND COMMISSIONER
HERMANN IN ST. PAUL
Probably by Mistake, He Advertises Sale of Pine on School Lands.
United States Land Commissioner Hermann, of Washington, D. C., passed through the city yesterday on his way to Oregon where he will spend a short vacation. Commissioner Hermann was in the city but a few hours, and during that time called on Surveyor General Eli S. Warner and looked over the local office. He left last evening for the West, but expects to return to Washington in a few days, and will then spend several days in the city. In connection with the visit of Commissioner Hermann to the city, Deputy State Auditor Iverson called attention to an advertisement in a Duluth paper over the signature of the land commissioner. The advertisement announced that bids will be received and opened at the United States land office at Crookston, March 3, 1902, for the sale of pine on sections of the Red Lake and White Earth Indian reservations. Among the tracts for which bids will be received are townships 143, 144, 145, 146, north range 27.
Deputy Auditor Iverson is of the opinion that there must be some mistake, as in each of the townships Minnesota has two sections of school lands, and the state official was in hopes that Commissioner Hermann would remain long enough in the city to enable him to secure an explanation.
Auditor Dunn is at present out of the city, but a copy of the advertisement will be mailed to him and his attention called to the matter. The officials in the state auditor's office have been under the impression that the law passed during the last week of congress provided for the sale of pine on the Red Lake and Leech Lake reservations, but not on the White Earth reservation.

COMES TO LIFE AGAIN
ST. PAUL BOARD OF TRADE, INACTIVE FOR YEARS, RE-OPENS TOMORROW
FACILITIES FOR TRADING IN THE COARSE GRAINS
Innovation Will Be Adopted by Trading in Hay for Future Delivery—Authorized Inspector of Hay Has Also Been Employed—Rooms in Germania Life Building.

The St. Paul Board of Trade, organized in 1880, but for many years past inactive as an association, has been reorganized and tomorrow will resume the operation of its market in rooms recently fitted up for the purpose, in the Germania Life building.
The purpose of the board, for the present at least, is principally to afford its members facilities for trading in hay and the coarser grains, particularly corn and wheat, and the arrangements for business within its scope will be most complete. At this time, however, there will be no trading in wheat. Heretofore the St. Paul grain dealers have been compelled to do their trading in Minneapolis or through the Minneapolis brokers, but now the business of this city in that line has grown to such volume as to warrant, if not demand, a local market. There are now in this city four jobbers of grain and three grain elevators, with a fourth in prospect. For the purpose of re-establishing the St. Paul Board of Trade, the grain men and the produce and fruit commission men have combined and L. J. Hart has been appointed as secretary of the board. The board rooms are on the ground floor of the Minnesota street front of the Germania Life Insurance building, and, although not large, are equipped with every convenience for the purpose for which they are intended. There are now sixty-seven active members of the organization, and the following new members were elected yesterday: C. W. Staehle, St. Paul Flour and Feed company; A. Nippolt, Brings & Co.; R. W. Green and J. F. Jagger. This membership includes about forty-five merchants of this city who make a specialty of feed and the coarse grains.
Futures in Hay.
One entirely novel feature to be introduced by the board will be the trading in hay for future delivery, which has never been systematically practiced in any similar body. The adoption of this plan by the St. Paul board has, however, dawned upon necessity, since it has been found that inconvenience frequently arises from the fact that all of the local dealers have to come out of hay at the same time, and none is to be obtained on short notice. One of the largest blackboards in the rooms has been ruled and prepared for daily quotations on No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100. The board will also employ a regularly authorized inspector of hay for this city, which will be a great advantage in bringing shipments to this market, as heretofore there has been no regulated inspection, and shipper and dealer have been compelled to fight out their own differences as to grade, which led to much trouble among some of the shippers for the Chicago market, where there was regularly established inspection. The inspector of hay who has been appointed by the board is C. J. Whitridge.
Daily Report of Cars.
There will be posted in the board rooms each day the number of cars received of hay, oats, corn and bran.
The St. Paul Board of Trade was originally organized in 1880, one year before the organization of the Minneapolis board, and for many years its membership comprised the foremost business men of the city, not only among those who dealt in grain, feed and produce, but in all lines of trade and industry. For some years, however, it has not been actively conducted.

MANY ARE READY TO SERVE THE COUNTY
Seven Candidates File Their Nomination Papers With County Auditor.
Seven more filed for nominations with the county auditor yesterday, and of these five aspire for nomination as county commissioners.
The first to file yesterday was M. K. Prendergast, who wants the Democratic nomination for register of deeds.
William D. Preston is well known in St. Paul, and lives at 408 Ashland avenue.
Andrew Berg, living at 657 East Lawson street, would like to be representative from the Thirty-third senatorial district, comprising the First and Second wards. He is a Republican.
Frank Kelly, of the Eighth ward, filed as a Democratic candidate for county commissioner. Mr. Kelly was born in the ward forty-seven years ago, and has lived there ever since. He is a musician by profession, and popular with all who know him.
John Bohmert, living at Collins and Brady streets, in the First ward, also filed for county commissioner. Mr. Bohmert is at present pound master, and is a well known Democrat.
Still another to file for the county board was P. N. Kirk, who aspires for the nomination on the Republican ticket. Mr. Kirk was formerly a deputy sheriff under Chappel.
Nicholas Pottgieser walked into the county auditor's office about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and paid $10 for the privilege of being among those seeking the nomination for county commissioners on the Republican ticket. Mr. Pottgieser has been a resident of the Paul for the past forty-eight years, and was a member of the board of county commissioners twenty years ago. He lives in the Fourth ward, and is a member of the board of public works during Mayor Kiefer's administration.

WANT HELP FROM CITY

PROPERTY OWNERS TO CALL ON CONFERENCE COMMITTEE
Demand That City at Large Help Out in Paving Streets Whose Intersections Are Numerous—Requests for Aid Will Be Made From Many Parts of the City.
The consideration of requests for appropriations to take care of street intersections, where such are numerous on streets to be paved, threatens to constitute a goodly portion of the conference committee's work when it meets in November to prepare the annual budget.
Ald. Bantz, it is understood, will ask for $30,000 for care of street intersections on University avenue, while half that amount will be demanded by Ald. Buschman for the street intersections on East Seventh street, from Hope to Atlantic. Last year when this street was up for paving and a contract placed, a small appropriation was asked from the general fund, but it was refused. The contract for the macadamizing of the street was lost on a technicality.
Residents along Como avenue and Front street, anticipating the paving of that thoroughfare, will also ask for an appropriation, while similar requests are expected from Maria avenue, West Seventh, from Tuscarora to Fort Snelling; Rice, from Maryland to the city limits, and a number of others. All of these streets are up for paving.

STATE PRINTER IS BUSY

C. C. WHITNEY PREPARING FOR PRIMARY ELECTIONS
Instructions Have to Be Mailed to County Auditors and Official Papers—Ballots Must Be Placed Before Voters in First Two Weeks of September.
The primary election law and the preparation of instructions to state auditors and official papers of the printer in the state are giving State Printer Whitney plenty to do just at present. The law requires the printing in the official paper of each county during the first two weeks in September copies of the official ballots to be voted at the primary election. In counties where there are several party candidates, a sample of each ballot must be printed, even if there is but one candidate of the party on the ticket.
In counties where there are six party candidates that number of ballots must be printed, and while this will cause considerable trouble to the county officials, it will be a fine thing for the voters.

MANAGER SINGER HAS STRONG ATTRactions

Season at the Star Theater Opens Aug. 31—High-Class Burlesque.
The Star Theater will open its regular season Aug. 31, and Manager M. A. Singer, who has just returned from a summer vacation trip to the East, promises the patrons of the house a better class of attractions than ever before. In explanation of this prediction he said yesterday:
"Heretofore, the Twin Cities have formed a part of a Western circuit which was circumscribed in extent and therefore in the class of attraction which could be secured. Now the managers of burlesque theaters all over the country have formed themselves into a general circuit and as a consequence only the best equipped attractions will be booked and they will go over the entire circuit."
By this arrangement St. Paul and Minneapolis will get the same class of burlesque entertainment as New York, Chicago, St. Louis and the other Eastern cities.

DE MORAS' ASSASSINS.

Death and Imprisonment Meted Out to the Murderers.
TUNIS, Aug. 9.—The trial of the assassins of the Marquis de Moras, at Susa, near here, resulted today in the condemning to death of El Kheir and the sentencing of Hamma Cheikh to twenty years' imprisonment.
It will be remembered that the marquis was the owner of the world renowned diamonds, for whom the greatest imitation diamonds ever produced were made.
The De Mora diamonds can be found only at 13 East Seventh, St. Paul. All other dealers in the Twin Cities are imitators. For particulars call at once at the De Mora Diamond Parlor.

OMAHA ROAD MAKES GOOD TIME IN GRADING

Fillmore Avenue Job May Be Finished Next Week—Spur Track Laid.
The Omaha railroad expects to have the grading of Fillmore avenue, in the vicinity of its new West side terminals, practically completed by the end of next week. In order to hasten the improvement the company has laid a spur track the entire length of the street, and on this is run the gravel cars.
There are three blocks in all to grade, and this the company has filled to a depth of three feet in less than two days. The operation of the steam grader and the plow that the company has pressed into service are quite a novelty to the crowds that gather.
Real Estate Men on a Jaunt.

CORONATION SERVICE IN A LOCAL CHURCH

Congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd Hears an Address by Rev. Dr. Pope.
Owing to the inclement weather the attendance at the coronation services at the Church of the Good Shepherd last night was small. Rev. William C. Pope, pastor of the church, conducted the services, assisted by Revs. Fridham, Shurt and Father Maryon. The latter is filling Dr. Wright's pulpit at St. Paul's church.
Dr. Pope gave the address of the evening, in which he spoke of the great event of the English people and described the coronation ceremonies graphically. He spoke words of praise for England and said that he was good enough an American to afford to feel kindly toward Great Britain.
He spoke of the devotion of the English people to their sovereign and said it was a trait that might be followed by all nations with good results. His address was short, but full of interest. Among the hymns of the evening was the national hymn of England, "God, Save the King," which was sung by the choir and congregation.
