

The Newest Things In

FURS

As usual, we are showing all the advanced styles in Furs. We will be pleased to see visitors to the State Fair and show them the very latest designs in Jackets, Collars, Colettes, Sets, Muffs, etc.

Chas. A. Albrecht, 364 Wabasha Street.

EAST ST. PAUL.

The marriage of Miss Aneta Angler and Mr. Frederick J. Jones was solemnized Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Sacred Heart church. Rev. Father George Perdomo officiated. Miss Aneta is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones of St. Paul.

Miss Martha Flink, of Sims street, entertained at a coffee Sunday afternoon for G. W. Bjorkquist and bride, of Moorhead. Miss Minnie Lundquist assisted. Musical selections were given by Lawrence Elmquist.

The Odds and Ends Society of Gustavus Adolphus church will be entertained tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Emma Anderson, on Jessamine street.

A surprise was given Miss Connie Cronquist Thursday evening in honor of her twelfth birthday by a number of her friends. A musical programme was given.

The Young People's Society of St. James' Episcopal church was entertained last evening by Miss Daisy White on Jenks street.

Mrs. J. A. Van Housen and Miss Ethel Van Housen entertained at a party at the home of Mrs. J. A. Morton, of Case street, who returned to Chicago.

The Misses Bertha Merritt, Ethel Parker and Clyde Parker, of Brainerd, were guests of Mrs. Carrie Dittmar, the first of the week.

Mrs. Cavanaugh, of Reaney street, entertained at a party at the home of Mrs. B. L. E. Ladies' Auxiliary Thursday evening at an ice cream social.

Miss Mertie Hulquist, of Jamestown, N. Y., who has been a guest of Miss Minnie Lundquist, has gone to Brainerd.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Welch, of Bloomington, Ill., will be the guests of Mrs. S. L. Smith, of Lookout Place, next week.

The Loyal Blue Enclave club will be entertained next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Garity on Burr street.

Mrs. Charles M. Astum, of Morris, is entertaining the Misses Bertha and May Parkins, of William.

Mrs. Wivette, of Cambridge, and Mrs. Selma Wivette, of Cambridge, are guests of Mrs. O. Sahlberg.

Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Welch, of Bloomington, Ill., will be the guests of Mrs. S. L. Smith, of Lookout Place, next week.

Mrs. Philo, of Red Wing, is a guest of Mrs. F. C. Spates, of Fauquier street, byerlan church, at Lake Minnetonka.

Mrs. A. McKay, of Altoona, Wis., has been visiting East St. Paul friends.

Miss Margaret McCarthy, of Payne avenue, has gone to Barnesville.

The Misses Katie and Mammie Bauer have returned from Fergus Falls.

Mrs. McCauley, of Lafayette avenue, has returned from Fergus Falls.

Mrs. A. Astum, of Sims street, is entertaining Mrs. S. A. Farnsworth, of Case street.

Mrs. Frank Kelly, of Greenbrier avenue, has returned from Michigan.

Miss Lucy Bolton, of The Portland, has returned from Fergus Falls.

Mrs. J. M. Cauloch is entertaining Miss Cook, of Sioux Falls.

Mrs. J. Keating, of Altoona, Wis., is visiting Mrs. S. A. Farnsworth, of Case street.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Levine have returned from Alexandria.

Miss Hulda Lundquist, of Sims street, is in Cambridge.

Miss Addie Cleveland has returned from Bayfield, Wis.

Miss Nellie Morton, of Case street, has gone to Alexandria.

Mrs. A. Berg and family are at Grass Lake and Mora, Minn.

In spite of the fact that September is usually a warm month—and more than likely to be this year—still the summer season is practically at an end on the first day of September. Many of those who have country homes at Bear and others of the surrounding lakes, enjoy autumn better than the summer, but the little party there is—and it has been very little this year—stops in September, and plans are being made for autumn and winter in town.

Many of the White Bear people will come in this week, and from now on the houses will steadily be deserted and closed, although several families, particularly at Dellwood, White Bear, and Thursday Mrs. Gillette gave an informal picnic luncheon on the lawn in honor of her guest, in which the guests were confined largely to the cottagers at Dellwood, including the children.

A pleasant party that started for Mackinac the other day in a private car to escape a visitation of hay fever, consisted of Mrs. and Mrs. Sammie Stickle, and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. McNeil V. Seymour and one child, and the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams, of Crocus Hill. Mr. Alexander Horn, of Pleasant avenue, has gone to Livingston, Mont., to visit his brother, Mr. Harry Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Mills Hayes, of Nina avenue, who are spending the summer at the Hotel del Otero, at Spring Park, Minnetonka, have gone to Cumberland, Wis., to stay a week with Mrs.

Sardou's "A Scrap of Paper" will be presented Friday evening at Martin's hall by the Metropolitan dramatic club. The cast includes Georgia Boringer, Eva Jacobson, Anna Grant, Rost and Fay Newton, Messrs. Wesley Ross and Harry Howard, Edward Henry, Harry Bosell and Bert Hendrickson.

The Ladies' Social Union of St. Paul's Universal Church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. J. Followay, 1050 Hague avenue.

The Women's Veteran Relief union will give a party Wednesday evening, Sept. 10, at the Metropolitan hotel. They also give a dancing party Thursday evening, Sept. 11, in Old Fellows hall.

The Verona dramatic club, which was recently organized, have opened a club room in the Bradley building, and are now rehearsing, which is to be presented in a few weeks.

St. Paul Court No. 853 Court of Honor, will give an ice cream social and dance on Harriet island Saturday evening, Sept. 13.

There will be a meeting of the Sacred Thirst Total Abstinence society this afternoon at 9 o'clock in Cretin hall.

Court St. Paul, Independent Order of Foresters, No. 241, will give a lawn social Tuesday evening on the grounds of St. Merriam on University avenue and Cedar street, at 7 o'clock.

The St. Paul District of Women's Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist churches will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. S. B. Johnson, on Holly avenue.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the People's Church will hold a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the new church.

The Dayton's Bluff History class will hold an open door meeting tomorrow afternoon at Minnehaha park. Mrs. Hayward will have charge of the programme.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the new church.

Mrs. Ida McManus, of Portland avenue, will entertain the Hamilton Whist club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

C. Farrington, of Buffalo, at the Farrington home on Pleasant avenue, has been the occasion of some gaiety in their honor. Mrs. Winter-Smith, of Portland avenue, gave a very pretty luncheon for Mrs. Farrington on Thursday afternoon at the Country club, entertaining a dozen young married women and girls. Last evening Judge and Mrs. Jaggard, of South Exchange street, who have just returned from their camp on the St. Croix, gave a small and informal dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Farrington, who will leave today for Buffalo.

Mrs. Jane Wheaton has been spending a week with Mrs. Arthur J. Gillette at Dellwood, White Bear, and Thursday Mrs. Gillette gave an informal picnic luncheon on the lawn in honor of her guest, in which the guests were confined largely to the cottagers at Dellwood, including the children.

A pleasant party that started for Mackinac the other day in a private car to escape a visitation of hay fever, consisted of Mrs. and Mrs. Sammie Stickle, and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. McNeil V. Seymour and one child, and the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams, of Crocus Hill. Mr. Alexander Horn, of Pleasant avenue, has gone to Livingston, Mont., to visit his brother, Mr. Harry Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Mills Hayes, of Nina avenue, who are spending the summer at the Hotel del Otero, at Spring Park, Minnetonka, have gone to Cumberland, Wis., to stay a week with Mrs.

Sardou's "A Scrap of Paper" will be presented Friday evening at Martin's hall by the Metropolitan dramatic club. The cast includes Georgia Boringer, Eva Jacobson, Anna Grant, Rost and Fay Newton, Messrs. Wesley Ross and Harry Howard, Edward Henry, Harry Bosell and Bert Hendrickson.

The Ladies' Social Union of St. Paul's Universal Church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. J. Followay, 1050 Hague avenue.

The Women's Veteran Relief union will give a party Wednesday evening, Sept. 10, at the Metropolitan hotel. They also give a dancing party Thursday evening, Sept. 11, in Old Fellows hall.

The Verona dramatic club, which was recently organized, have opened a club room in the Bradley building, and are now rehearsing, which is to be presented in a few weeks.

St. Paul Court No. 853 Court of Honor, will give an ice cream social and dance on Harriet island Saturday evening, Sept. 13.

There will be a meeting of the Sacred Thirst Total Abstinence society this afternoon at 9 o'clock in Cretin hall.

Court St. Paul, Independent Order of Foresters, No. 241, will give a lawn social Tuesday evening on the grounds of St. Merriam on University avenue and Cedar street, at 7 o'clock.

The St. Paul District of Women's Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist churches will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. S. B. Johnson, on Holly avenue.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the People's Church will hold a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the new church.

The Dayton's Bluff History class will hold an open door meeting tomorrow afternoon at Minnehaha park. Mrs. Hayward will have charge of the programme.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the new church.

Mrs. Ida McManus, of Portland avenue, will entertain the Hamilton Whist club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Seely, of Spelling avenue, Hamline, entertained informally for them, Friday night they were the guests of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Paul J. Ruth, of Iglehart street. Monday night they were guests of the St. Paul seminary at dinner.

Mrs. William Hamm, of Cable avenue, will give an informal euchre party tomorrow afternoon for her sisters, the Misses Minnie, Nellie and Mrs. Mueller, of Cable avenue, will also entertain for the Misses Scheffer at cards Tuesday afternoon. They will be the guests of honor at a card party to be given by Miss Frendersgast, of St. Peter street, Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Vittum, of Goodrich avenue, entertained informally for Mrs. Lela Bred, of Chicago, Thursday evening, the guests being mostly former pupils of the Goodrich school. The guests were Mrs. Jessica De Wolfe, of New York, who is visiting in the city; Lewis Shaw, Mrs. Josephine Kalm, Mrs. Alice Monfort, Miss Josephine Carr, Miss Robbins and Miss Shaw. Mrs. Bred was also entertained by Mrs. Bred and Mrs. G. E. Morrison, of Bedford street, and Mrs. G. E. Morrison, of Bedford street, and Mrs. G. E. Morrison, of Bedford street, and Mrs. G. E. Morrison, of Bedford street.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Levitt, at 421 Dayton avenue.

Sardou's "A Scrap of Paper" will be presented Friday evening at Martin's hall by the Metropolitan dramatic club. The cast includes Georgia Boringer, Eva Jacobson, Anna Grant, Rost and Fay Newton, Messrs. Wesley Ross and Harry Howard, Edward Henry, Harry Bosell and Bert Hendrickson.

The Ladies' Social Union of St. Paul's Universal Church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. J. Followay, 1050 Hague avenue.

The Women's Veteran Relief union will give a party Wednesday evening, Sept. 10, at the Metropolitan hotel. They also give a dancing party Thursday evening, Sept. 11, in Old Fellows hall.

The Verona dramatic club, which was recently organized, have opened a club room in the Bradley building, and are now rehearsing, which is to be presented in a few weeks.

St. Paul Court No. 853 Court of Honor, will give an ice cream social and dance on Harriet island Saturday evening, Sept. 13.

There will be a meeting of the Sacred Thirst Total Abstinence society this afternoon at 9 o'clock in Cretin hall.

Court St. Paul, Independent Order of Foresters, No. 241, will give a lawn social Tuesday evening on the grounds of St. Merriam on University avenue and Cedar street, at 7 o'clock.

The St. Paul District of Women's Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist churches will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. S. B. Johnson, on Holly avenue.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the People's Church will hold a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the new church.

The Dayton's Bluff History class will hold an open door meeting tomorrow afternoon at Minnehaha park. Mrs. Hayward will have charge of the programme.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the new church.

Mrs. Ida McManus, of Portland avenue, will entertain the Hamilton Whist club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow, who has been living in Colorado Springs for two years on account of poor health, will arrive in St. Paul on Tuesday, to make a month's visit at her home in this city. She will return to Colorado Springs for the winter.

Neb., are visiting Mrs. Luther L. Thomas, of 643 Iglehart street. Miss Emily Tierney, of Minneapolis, and Miss Reta Clancy, of the Umattila, Ashland avenue, are spending a week at Peranda, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Goodkind, of St. Albans street, returned yesterday from the East after a two weeks' visit in Duluth. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hemminghouse, of Dayton avenue, has returned from an extended visit in New York city. Miss Edith Elliott, who has been spending the summer in Chicago and Detroit, returned home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Hebl, of 386 Grove street, will leave for Norfolk, Va., Tuesday evening. Miss Jennie Wisner, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. J. G. Wardwell, of Highland Place. Miss Rose Shannon and her sister, Miss Kittie, returned from New York yesterday. Miss Anna Landin, of Chicago, is the guest of Miss Ellen Nelson, 288 West Fillmore avenue. Rabid Manner, of Helena, Mont., is the guest of Rabbi Kypins, Holly avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gutterman, of Dayton avenue, have gone for a month's visit. Miss Clara W. A. Blackman, of 15 East Central avenue, has returned from Lake Minnetonka. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Peet, of Dayton avenue, have returned from Les Cheneaux, Mich. Mrs. B. R. Stanton, of Ashland avenue, has returned from a visit in New York. Miss Marie Jonstad, of the Buckingham, will leave for Seattle today. Miss Dean, of Summit avenue, is visiting in Chicago. Mrs. William R. Sproat and the Misses Sproat, of Dayton avenue, have returned from East Clare. Mrs. John Koenigsmann will leave Tuesday for Atkin, Minn. Miss Hannah Meyer has returned from Chicago.

The Misses Pansy and Nellie O'Brien, of West George street, gave a card party Tuesday afternoon. Prizes at progressive clubs were won by Miss Margaret Carroll, Mrs. A. Osmond, Mrs. Miss Eva Bear, Terrace Council No. 1940, Royal Arcanum, will hold an ice cream social and dance at the home of Mrs. J. G. Wardwell, at their hall, South Wabasha and Colorado streets. Mr. T. Murphy and daughter, Miss Letitia Murphy, of Greenwood, Ill., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Concord street, returned. Mrs. Frank Whitmore, of East Congress street, entertained a company of twelve at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Rose White, of Chicago. Mrs. Kalbach and daughter, Miss Talie Kalbach, of Chicago, who have been visiting Miss Rose Cole, of Clinton avenue, returned home. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McIntire, of the Clinton, here at the home of Mrs. M. and Mrs. M. J. Erwin, of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Randall, of East Winfield street, entertained Mr. William Skiff, of Mason City, Iowa, during the past week.

An ice cream social was given Tuesday evening on Prescott street by the Ladies' Society of the English Lutheran Church. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Taylor, of Butte, Mont., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Griffin, of Cherokee avenue, returned home. The Daughters of Erin, Division No. 4, gave an entertaining party Friday evening at Wittick's hall, State and Noble streets. Mrs. Irish and two daughters, of East Congress street, have returned from a visit in Winnipeg, Can., and Fargo, N. D. Mrs. G. Bent and Mrs. C. L. Woodbury, of Waseca, Minn., were guests of Mrs. C. Resler, of Bidwell street, last week. Mrs. D. Galvin and daughter Margaret, of East Winfield street, have returned from a visit at Fargo, N. D. Mrs. Babcock and daughter Bernice, of East Winfield street, returned from a visit with relatives in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, of East Congress street, entertained Mr. J. Kelley, of Indiana, during the past week. Miss Nettie Boston and Miss Edna Bevans, of West Congress street, have returned from a visit at Forest Lake. Miss Edith Pearson, of West Delos street, has returned from a two months' visit at Chicago, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. J. Guertin, of Cherokee avenue, have returned from a visit in Ireland, Can. Miss Craig, of Winona, Minn., the guest of Mrs. Husdick, of Livingston avenue, has returned home. Mrs. E. Heimback, Mrs. O. S. Boston and Mrs. Mangier have gone for a trip on the great lakes. Mr. and Mrs. William Tenvorde, of Bidwell street, are entertaining Mrs. J. J. Barvorde, of St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. F. Moosbrugger and children, of West Sixth street, have returned from Forest Lake. Mrs. S. Branton, of Concord street, is entertaining her family, Mrs. Angeline Norton, of Clayton, Minn. Mrs. W. J. Dean, of East Winfield street, has returned from a visit at Eau Claire, Wis. J. M. Hawthorne and sister, Miss Minnie Hawthorne, of Prescott street, have gone East. Miss Bertha Raknes, of Avoca, Minn., is the guest of Miss Kittie Galvin, of East Winfield street, this week. Mrs. Thomas, of West Isabel street, has returned from Coney Island, Waco, Tex. Mrs. Edna Self, of East Isabel street, returned from a visit in New Richmond, Wis. Miss Nellie Miller, of Bancroft street, has returned from a six weeks' visit in Seattle, Wash. Mrs. W. Elliott, of Duluth, Minn., the guest of Mrs. D. W. Sitts, of State street, has returned. Miss Lizette Camden, of East Winfield street, is visiting relatives at Oelwein, Iowa. Miss Mayme O'Grady, of State street, has returned from a visit at Taylor's Falls. Miss Ada Woodbury, of East Congress street, has returned from a visit at River Falls, Wis. Miss Emma Mapple, of Belvidere street, has returned from a visit at Highwood, Minn. Miss Anna Mitchell, of East Robie street, has gone for a trip on the great lakes. Mr. and Mrs. Evans, of East Congress street, have returned from a visit in South Dakota. Mrs. Keller, of Cato, Wis., was the guest of Mrs. Keck, of Bidwell street, last week. Mrs. Fisher, of Concord street, is entertaining Mrs. Bongardner, of Fairbault, Minn. Mrs. E. Belden and daughter Hattie, of South Robert street, are visiting at Red Wing. Mr. and Mrs. Talboys, of East Isabel street, are visiting at Iron Range, Minn. Mrs. Otto Sanders, of Prescott street, will return this week from California. Mrs. M. J. Miller, of Mount Hope avenue, is at Mahomed for a ten-day outing. Miss Katie Glosier, of South Wabasha street, has returned from Riceville, Iowa. Miss Hall, of East Winfield street, is visiting relatives at Seattle, Wash. Miss Kittie Galvin, of East Winfield street, returned from Belle Plaine, Minn. Miss Martha Harnish, of Concord street, has returned from Lake Minnetonka. Mrs. Ruby, of East Congress street, is visiting at Madison, Wis. Mrs. Lou Koenigsmann, of East Isabel street, is visiting at Perham, Minn. Miss Nina Babcock, of Concord street, has returned from Coney Island. Mrs. Miller, of Concord street, returned from a visit at Crookston, Minn. Miss Maude Meyers, of East Congress street, has returned from Belle Plaine, Minn. Miss Nellie Hesslin, of Colorado street, has sailed for Europe. Miss Ada Miller, of Concord street, is at Lake City, Minn.

Mrs. Sever Westby and Mrs. R. E. McCleary entertained Thursday afternoon at the former's home on East Fourth street for Mrs. J. G. Wardwell and Mrs. L. Schroeder, of Guttenberg, Iowa, and Mrs. Nellie Walker, of Janesville, Minn. Cards were played at four tables. A number of friends gave a surprise party Wednesday evening for Mrs. A. P. Rotter, of Hudson, Wis. There were about thirty guests, scores at cards being made by Mrs. E. Griswold, Mrs. Edw. Shute and Mrs. Gus Wilder. The Tuesday Afternoon Card club was entertained last week by Mrs. E. J. Miller, of East Fifth street. The honors were awarded to Mrs. H. F. Stock and Mrs. J. F. Lawrence. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Sever Westby, of East Fourth street. Mrs. Harry Springer, of East Fourth street, entertained Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lillie Walker, of Janesville, Minn. The evening was given by Mrs. J. F. Lawrence. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Sever Westby, of East Fourth street. Mrs. Harry Springer, of East Fourth street, entertained Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lillie Walker, of Janesville, Minn. The evening was given by Mrs. J. F. Lawrence. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Sever Westby, of East Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Brant entertained last Saturday evening at the home of the birthday of Mr. Brant's father, Samuel Brant, of East Seventh street. Mrs. William Hamm, of Cable avenue, will entertain at euchre tomorrow afternoon at her home, on James and Martha and Irma Scheffer, of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Freeman have returned from a two weeks' visit at home to their friends Oct. 1 at 523 Fifth avenue southeast, Minneapolis. Mrs. J. G. Wardwell, of East Congress street, visited Mrs. Schroeder's sister