ns in Overcoats Shiver Through the Afternoon - Chech Pitches Steady Ball and Has Good Support-New Toledo Players Show Well-Ladies' Day Today.

Games Today.

Toledo at St. Paul. Columbus at Minneapolis. Indianapolis at Milwaukee. Louisville at Kansas City.

Between shivers the 253 portion of the enthusiastic populace watched the game from the raw hands from Toledo. Score, 5 to 2. Through it all the terrifying yawn in charge of the department passed through the stands selling drinks "cold as ice and guaranteed to freeze three miles this side South Africa."

South Africa. This helped some, the condition of the score saved the terrifying yawn.

Though the Saints refused to overlook a good thing, R. Gilks, traveling manager of the Charles Strobel brothers, deserves great credit for arranging in time to fill the St. Paul engagement. In a moment of quiet, Strobel recklessly turned adrift Hans Kleinow and mostly everything else that looked like a ball player. The fit temper started work about twenty minutes before departure for the west and R. Gilks looked a disappointed man.

Wearing an armless shirt, Lefty Mock was seized with a violent chill at the get-away and before the southpaw covered, the Saints had counted two.

Mock passed J. Hurley in the sixth and stolen bases, a fielder's choice and single gave the Saints the lead again.

In the eighth, a base and two safe throws added two more. The Hens got to on in the part of the ninth, but there was nothing doing. Score: St. Paul, 4; Toledo, 2.

Notes of the Game. Ladies' day this afternoon. Ned Egan made his first at home appearance in the uniform of a Saint.

Egan played a fast fielding game and showed strong with the stick. His determination to fight for every point will land him a regular berth in fast company.

The Saints play the second game of the series with Toledo this afternoon.

Mitchell, one of the players picked up when Kleinow and the other players were dropped, showed strong in the game. His capture of Chech's long drive to left in the eighth was one of the real features of the day.

Mock and Salm, though down at the bottom of the Toledo batting list, corrected the first four hits registered by the Hens.

Manager Mike Kelley was too ill to leave his hotel, and Charlie Ferguson worked at the first bag. Ferguson played the corner far ahead of several of the first sackers who have appeared here this season.

It was too cold for a ball game, and the fans refused to turn out. The darkness ones hugged themselves in their overcoats and tried to hold out until the finish.

Umpire Frank Figgemeer turned up with the opening of the game. Figgemeer had the prize job of the day. While the players had a chance to mount and keep warm, the ump was compelled to stand either at the slab or back of the pitcher, and his face looked as blue as his uniform at the finish.

It was Huggins' busy afternoon with the stick. Huggins had three chances at bat and in the three faced out a single, a double and a triple.

Marcus played a fast game at short. His one-handed stop of Cogswell's line drive, that was marked a long hit, stopped scoring in the sixth, and was another of the few feature plays.

With a winning team Pitcher Mock would make Altrick, the proud one, P. Flaherty and the other admired ones hurry.

Columbus Gets Winning Run. Yeager's error in the seventh allowed Columbus to secure the winning run at Minneapolis yesterday.

BIG FRENCHMAN FIGHTING DEL- EPHANTY FOR FIRST HONORS

Records of National and American Leagues - Cy Young and Chesbro Lead Twirlers - Bill Phillips Drops Behind Beaumont-Hartsel Fast on Base.

With the American league batsmen the fight for leadership is now between Napoleon Lajoie and Ed Delahanty. The big Frenchman has been lifting his average during the past two weeks, and Delahanty has been plugging along in grand style. Six points separate the two hard hitters. Charlie Hickman is third and Pat Dougherty fourth.

Hartsel still leads the league in stolen bases, and Fultz in the number of runs recorded. Bill Bradley has collected the most hits, having more than Lave Cross. Cleveland now leads in team batting.

Chalmers continues to hold the leadership of the twirlers, and Waddell comes right along in second place. Bernhard, of Cleveland, is third, and Tom Donohue, of St. Louis, fourth. The individual batting base running and pitching, and the club batting records of the leaders are as follows:
