FLORODORA MAN HAS WEIRD BIRTHDAY PARTY

"Pleasant Time is Had" By Members of Various Theatrical Companies.

Michael Coyne, the man who makes all the flowers, foliage, and other pretty things that beautify "Florodora," in other words, the "property man" of the show, experienced his—tenth birthday anniversary yesterday.

Mr. Coyne says it doesn't make any difference how many preceding birthdays he has had as long as he was determined to celebrate this one by giving a midnight supper to the entire company. His intimate friends say it was his 10th birthday, and Mr. Coyne let it go at that, as was useless to deny the charge. In view of his acquaintance with many members of the corps de ballet since the days of their youth.

The midnight supper was served at Fleisner's cafe, on Minnesota street. Not only were all the members of the "Florodora" company present, but the guests likewise included a goodly representation of the "Wizard of Oz" company, now playing in Minneapolis, and of Mason & Mason's organization at the Grand. Mr. Coyne officiated as master of ceremonies.

After the Thespians had discussed a tempting menu, an impromptu entertainment was provided by the guests. It was not exactly the kind that people are accustomed to see on the stage. It was far more spontaneous and far more enjoyable than many a cut and dried performance.

For instance, Messrs. Bowers and Curtis did a Dutch dialect stunt that would have made the Rogers brothers turn green, and Miss Moline executed a serpentine dance wonderful to behold. Miss Eleanor Falk, (Lady Holyrood) sang coon songs; Messrs. Whitbread and S. Howard Hull contributed vocal duets, and T. Rooney, the electrician of the company, vastly diverted all with his eccentric singing and dancing.

This is the second birthday Mr. Coyne has had within a fortnight or so. The first one happened while the company was playing in Milwaukee. Birthday parties are becoming quite popular in the "Florodora" company.

PROMISES COMMITTEE ON LICENSE TO TREAD STRAIGHT AND NARROW PATH

SHAKES HANDS WITH REV. DAVID MORGAN

No Evidence is Adduced at Hearing to Show That License Should be Revoked, but it is Agreed That William Ought to "Cut Out the Booze."

"Aunt the booze," cried Willie T., "It's me to use the hose."
"But all's not lost I still am free To show the job some do."

The reformation of B. Twombly, saloonkeeper, is assured. He has promised the assembly committee on license to indefinitely postpone the revocation of his license, and the investigation looking toward that end. Twombly, with a decidedly funeral expression, quietly attended, in keeping with the occasion, was in attendance at the meeting and readily agreed to the conditions imposed.

The meeting opened with an aggressive effort on the part of Assemblyman Arnold, who demanded adjournment that a proper investigation might be had. He wanted Chief O'Connor, Capt. Clark and Detective Frazer, all of the police force, summoned and a regular court of inquiry established, but he was alone in the demand. His motion even failed to obtain a second, and only received his own vote when put by the chairman, Assemblyman Van Slyke. This motion included a postponement of one week and he followed it with another setting next Monday at the time, but, like the first, Arnold was alone in supporting it.

Assemblyman Doran, who was the author of the motion exacting a promise from Twombly to do better in the future, said he had consulted Chief O'Connor and that he was averse to appearing before a committee.

Chief is Charitable.

"He told me," said Mr. Doran, "that Twombly had never given him any trouble except when he was drinking, which was only of late. If Twombly could be induced to straighten up and close his back rooms, he was of the opinion that everything would be straight. Mr. O'Connor did not think that anything would be gained by the revocation of the license. He advocated postponement of the investigation and the execution of a promise from Twombly to obey the laws.

The fact that there had been a fight,

MR. DORAN THOUGHT, WAS NO REASON THAT THE LICENSE SHOULD BE REVOKED.

"I have known of this saloon for nearly seven years," remarked Mr. Doran, "and as far as I can find there are no violations of the law standing against it. Let's give him a chance."

Calls it Gallery Play.

Throughout it all, however, Arnold refused to be pacified, contending that public opinion held the saloon to be in bad repute, and it would do no harm to investigate it. People, he said, could be made to testify.

"Do you know anything about the place?" pointedly asked Mr. Van Slyke.

"No more than from general reputation," was Mr. Arnold's reply.

"Well, there are a whole lot like you, they simply speak from hearsay," was Mr. Van Slyke's remark. "That there may have been trouble in Twombly's place I don't deny, but I think the most of the talk about the whole thing has been gallery play. I stand on this question as I have from the first. If Twombly will run his place orderly, then I will not vote to revoke his license. He can do it," concluded Mr. Van Slyke.

Assemblyman Rosen was of the same opinion. He saw nothing to be gained by postponement or an investigation, and when Mr. Doran presented his good behavior resolution promptly voted for it. Assemblyman Van Slyke did likewise and the matter was passed up.

Promises to Be Good.

Twombly and his attorney, Harry Weiss, were in attendance, and at the conclusion of the discussion came forward from the rear of the hall where they sat and gave a promise to do better in the future, Weiss doing the talking for his client.

Mr. Twombly shook hands with the committee, including Mr. Arnold, and extended the same salutation when Rev. David Morgan pressed forward to talk to him.

Assembly Indorses Action.

At the meeting of the assembly last night Assemblyman Arnold made another effort to have action on Twombly's license postponed in order that a further investigation might be made, but he was compelled to accept defeat. Assemblyman Has lent his aid, but the two were alone when the vote was taken.

Doran, in presenting the report of the committee, repeated the talk with Chief O'Connor, in which that official said Twombly was one of a square men in St. Paul when sober. In further support of the resolution refusing to revoke, Van Slyke said that in a conversation with Rev. David Morgan at the close of the meeting that gentleman had fully indorsed the course taken, as he believed Mr. Twombly would be better.

STREET RAILWAY COMPANIES WILL BE RAISED SOME MILLIONS

AUTHORITIES AGREE ON $2,500,000 ADDITION

State Equalizers Will Fix Assessment of St. Paul and Minneapolis Public Service Corporations After Hearing Arguments—Twin City Figures Receive Much Attention.

The state board of equalization will listen to the representatives and attorneys for the public service corporations of the Twin Cities today.

It is pretty well understood that the members of the board, or a majority of them, are in favor of a "substantial raise" in the assessments of the corporations, especially of the St. Paul Street Railway company. Last year the assessment for that St. Paul company was fixed by the state board at $1,956,566, and the returns for this year made by the assessor is just $1 more than the assessment last year.

State Auditor Dunn, who has had several sessions with the committee on the matter, has convinced the members of the committee as well as the members of the board that a raise of $2,500,000 would not be out of the way and not in the least exorbitant. As an argument for the raise the state auditor points out that the St. Paul company is now paying on a valuation $150,000 less than during the last year of the Lind administration and that since that date the business of the company has increased at least 50 per cent.

The further argument is made as to the reason for a raise in the assessment for the St. Paul company by the figures of the Minneapolis company.

Increase in Minneapolis.

Last year the Minneapolis Street Railway company was assessed by the state for $2,683,410, while this year the assessment is increased $211,655 by the Minneapolis assessor. If the valuation of the property of the company in Minneapolis will stand a $200,000 raise the contention of the members of the board of equalization is that the St. Paul company certainly should be given more than a $1 "boost."

The total assessment for the Twin City Rapid Transit company, which operates the three systems in Minneapolis and Stillwater, is $4,972,951, as against $4,729,551 last year.

According to the report for 1901 the company is capitalized for $28,906,525, and of this sum $15,000,000 is in common stock, which paid a 4 per cent dividend last year. The preferred stock amounts to $2,000,000 and paid last year 7 per cent dividends. The funded debt is $10,888,000, bearing 5, 6 and 7 per cent and a floating debt of $8,625,000.

State Auditor Dunn and some of the members of the state board take the position that the company should pay at least 50 per cent of its capital stock, and it is possible that this will be insisted on.

Gas and Electric Figures.

The St. Paul and Minneapolis Gas companies and the Minneapolis General Electric company are also to have their assessments raised. The Minneapolis Gas company is assessed at $500,000, capitalized at $700,000, and pays 8 per cent dividends. The actual value of the stock is estimated at double its face value and the $2,900,000 of 6 per cent bonds issued by the company is claimed to be worth $3,000,000.

The Minneapolis General Electric company paid last year an assessment of $400,819, but this year the assessment was raised by the county board to $569,930. Data has been laid before the committee from the state board showing that the total capitalization of the company is $3,500,000 and it is claimed that the company should be assessed at $1,920,000.

The St. Paul Gas company is assessed this year at $675,000, but as the market value of its stock is nearly $2,000,000 it is contended that the company should pay at least $1,500,000.

The state board has been awaiting the return of Gov. Van Sant to the city before taking up the franchise assessments and as the governor is scheduled to arrive this morning the game will be proceeded with.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

TO STOCKHOLDERS IN

THE ST. PAUL AND SUNSET OIL COMPANY

The Directors of the Company have ordered an advance in the price of Development Stock, and in accord with their action, the price of shares advanced to 35 cents per share on October 1st. This advance on our stock was occasioned by advices from the Superintendent at our property, giving us reason to believe that the development work has reached such a stage as to increase the actual value of the stock fully 40 per cent over the original cost—to stockholders. The reports from the wells are gratifying, and in view of rapid and satisfactory progress, the directors authorize a sale of only a limited amount of stock at 35 cents per share. Another advance to at least 50 cents per share will probably be ordered within the next 30 days, and the stock of the Company may be entirely withdrawn from the market before that time. The sale of stock during the past 10 days has been greater than anticipated. Hundreds of investors in all walks of life have become stockholders in the Company.

We make no impossible claims. We can prove to any man that every statement we make is true.

BRIEFLY, OUR PROPOSITION IS THIS:

The St. Paul & Sunset Oil Co.

owns its immense tract of proven oil land—without a penny of incumbrance. The property is located in the most wonderful and richest oil-producing sections in the world, in the famous Sunset District of Kern County, California. Other Oil Companies in Kern County have paid hundreds of thousands of dollars in dividends—and today their stock cannot be bought at any price. These other companies in many instances have less property—and in some cases are only lessors, not owning their own refinery, tanks, lines, etc. THE ST. PAUL & SUNSET OIL CO. will erect their own Refinery, build immense storage tanks, erect necessary pipe lines, purchase new approved machinery, etc., all for their own property. The company employs the most successful and experienced oil well drillers in California. The manager is an old and experienced oil man who has been connected with large California companies. The officers are all successful and reliable business men, who are investors—the same as every other stockholder. And the company, with plenty of ready capital, proposes to make the St. Paul & Sunset Oil Company a leader in the field and to develop their property to the fullest extent that money and brains will permit.

Good Reasons Why Poor and Rich Should Invest:

In the stock of the St. Paul & Sunset Oil company: More fortunes have been made in oil than in any other business. Consider the immense amount of money the Standard Oil company has made for its fortunate stockholders. The California oil companies have done even better in proportion to their capitalization than the Standard Oil company. Here is what $100.00 has accomplished for those who invested that amount in the following California companies in the beginning of their career:

Home Whittier returned 1,000 on an investment of $100.00.
Kirk returned 2,200 on an investment of $100.00.
Peeters returned 1,800 on an investment of $100.00.
Dillon returned 2,500 on an investment of $100.00.
New York returned 30,000 on an investment of $100.00.
Union returned 150,000 on an investment of $100.00.
Home returned 60,000 on an investment of $100.00.

There is no reason in the world why the St. Paul & Sunset Oil company's holdings and property, when developed and handled, should not bring like returns.
