

NEW YORK THEATERS

THE ONLY WAY, WITH HARVEY AS STAR, OPENS AT HERALD SQUARE

CHAUNCEY ALCOTT SINGS AT FOURTEENTH STREET

Lucretia Ryley's New Play, 'An American Invasion,' Successfully Produced at the Bijou—Resume of Theatrical News, Productions, Managers' Plans and Current Gossip of the Gotham Footlights.

Special to The Globe. NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Not only are all the regular theaters running on schedule, with the exception of the Manhattan, which is being fixed up for Mrs. Fiske's advent in 'Mary of Magdala,' but Mrs. Osborn's new play, 'The Only Way,' has been opened and is drawing immense audiences to the Bijou.

Another late new metropolitan production is 'The Silver Slipper,' which succeeds 'Sally in Our Alley,' at the Broadway. This immense spectacular aggregation is put on under the management of Charles Frohman, and with a most elaborate cast.

Chauncey Alcott has arrived at the Fourteenth Street theater with 'Old Limerick Town.' This popular actor was enthusiastically received and will make a stay of several weeks at the Fourteenth Street.

Lucretia Ryley's new play, 'An American Invasion,' has been successfully produced at the Bijou. The story is written around certain situations in the life of an American engineer, located in Calcutta.

Mrs. Osborn's new playhouse for the smart set has opened with a musical comedy by Rupert Hughes and Sifford Waters and a satire on 'Iris,' written by Joseph Higham.

Clouet Enthusiastically Received. Chauncey Alcott has arrived at the Fourteenth Street theater with 'Old Limerick Town.'

Piner's latest play has become the talk of the town and is the chief topic of discussion everywhere, really it is a Miss Harner's triumph in the title role has proved to be the dramatic sensation of the season.

Most critical audiences continue to pack the Belasco theater to its doors, and the same wild demonstrations of enthusiasm are seen night after night just as during Mrs. Carter's 200 performances of the part last year.

'The Two Schools,' which is enjoying a prosperous stay at the Madison Square theater, will remain there until Nov. 16.

'The Eternal City' will be produced at the Victoria, under the management of Liebler & Co., Nov. 17. Its rehearsal is under way.

IT IS DOUBTFUL If Local Applications Alone Ever Cured a Case of Catarrh.

Most remedies for the treatment of catarrh are in the form of sprays, inhalers, powders, washes or ointments, all purely local applications and many of them often give temporary relief, but the reason none of them ever really cure chronic catarrh is because catarrh is not a local disease and it cannot be cured simply by treating the local symptoms.

Moreover the more serious forms of catarrh, like that of the bronchial tubes, cannot be reached at all by local applications and the fact that they do not, demonstrates to the head very soon involves the bronchial tubes, stomach and liver, demonstrates that the disease is a blood disease, constitutional malady and not at all a local disease.

To really cure catarrh the system must be cleansed from catarrhal poison by an internal remedy which acts effectively upon the blood and liver. The success of a catarrh remedy, like Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, is because it drives out of the system, through natural channels, the mucus which collects in the mucous lining of the nose, throat and trachea and is freed from the excessive mucus which collects and causes the hacking, spitting and gagging, because the excessive secretion is not furnished from healthy blood.

caption in Washington and other cities have been such as to justify the highest hopes of this remarkable performance. Telegrams of 'The Honor of the Humble,' Harriet Fiske's new play to be produced under the same management, in which James O'Neill's impersonation of the character of Rurik the Serf promises to prove a sensation.

Charles Frohman has arranged to have E. H. Sothern play an extended engagement covering three months this season at the Garden theater. Mr. Sothern expects to fill in his time with runs of both 'Hamlet' and 'If I Were King.'

Henrietta Crossman's popularity in New York was strikingly illustrated last Saturday night, Oct. 11. It had rained hard all day and toward evening the storm settled into a driving deluge, yet despite the fury of the weather every seat in Wallace's theater was sold long before the curtain went up on 'The Sword of the King,' and hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admittance to the playhouse. Ticket sellers at the theater

Special to The Globe. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The recent dramatic declination of Speaker David B. Henderson, of Iowa, to accept renomination as a candidate for congress, has injected into the approaching congressional elections a new issue and a new interest. To Representative Henderson, who has been a representative of his standing, in being appointed by Speaker Reed a member of the committee of appropriations.

Like Mr. Cannon he is a strong Middle West possibility for the speakership, and in the event of the former being made speaker, Mr. Hemenway would probably be taken care of by being given the chairmanship of the appropriation committee.

The son of a York town Baptist minister, he began his political career as a Maine assemblyman in 1885, being soon chosen the speaker of the Maine legislature. He was elected a delegate at large to the national Republican convention in 1899.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

TOGA OF THE SPEAKER

MANY CANDIDATES ARE ANXIOUS TO FILL THE SHOES OF D. B. HENDERSON

MOST PROMINENT ONES IN THE FIELD DESCRIBED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The recent dramatic declination of Speaker David B. Henderson, of Iowa, to accept renomination as a candidate for congress, has injected into the approaching congressional elections a new issue and a new interest. To Representative Henderson, who has been a representative of his standing, in being appointed by Speaker Reed a member of the committee of appropriations.

Like Mr. Cannon he is a strong Middle West possibility for the speakership, and in the event of the former being made speaker, Mr. Hemenway would probably be taken care of by being given the chairmanship of the appropriation committee.

The son of a York town Baptist minister, he began his political career as a Maine assemblyman in 1885, being soon chosen the speaker of the Maine legislature. He was elected a delegate at large to the national Republican convention in 1899.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

He is said to be even more radical than the speaker, and is a strong advocate of the extension of suffrage to the colored people. He is a member of the House of Representatives, and is a member of the House of Representatives.

JUDICIOUS ECONOMY

Impels buying at this great store—excellence of quality, low prices and absolute truthfulness in advertising force their way into the public's confidence, and accounts for the ever increasing volume of trade, which far exceeds any record of previous years.

low a few of our good things for next week.

ODD CHAIRS MARKED DOWN TO CLOSE OUT. Came and leather seat, some with arms, suitable for bed-room library or dining room. Well worn double what they cost this sale. Present marked down prices range from $1.25 to $9.00.

THIS WEEK ONE-THIRD OFF. Portieres. Special Prices This Week.

Special Lot to close odd tables that cannot be duplicated.

SMITH & FARWELL CO. ST. PAUL'S LEADING HOUSE FURNISHERS. Sixth and Minnesota Streets.

ONLY SURVIVOR OF THE BIG HORN MASSACRE. Canteen Steward Brummell Was With Custer When the Battle Took Place.

CHICKAMAUGA, Oct. 25.—The Seventh cavalry, at Chickamauga park, can boast of having the only survivor of the famous Custer massacre in the person of Canteen Steward Brummell.

MAN'S VOICE RETURNS WITH MOON'S ECLIPSE. Washington Negro Thinks Its Restoration Connected With Recent Phenomenon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25.—Howard Merriman, an aged colored man who is an employee of the treasury department, asserts that his voice was restored by the eclipse of the moon.

THIS REMEDY IS SURE TO GIVE SATISFACTION. ELY'S CREAM BALM.

ELY'S CREAM BALM. ELY'S CREAM BALM.

ELY'S CREAM BALM. ELY'S CREAM BALM.

ELY'S CREAM BALM. ELY'S CREAM BALM.

ELY'S CREAM BALM. ELY'S CREAM BALM.

Advertisement for Smith & Farwell Co. featuring 'Judicious Economy' and 'Impels buying at this great store'. Includes a list of 'ODD CHAIRS MARKED DOWN TO CLOSE OUT' and 'Portieres. Special Prices This Week.' Also features an illustration of a woman sitting in a chair.

Senator Accused of Keeping Will. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Senator Francis Lane, husband of the late Mrs. Lucille Blackburn Lane, the beautiful daughter of Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky. These developments may affect the disposition of Mr. Lane's $50,000 estate and reveal a motive for his dramatic suicide.

ONLY SURVIVOR OF THE BIG HORN MASSACRE. Canteen Steward Brummell Was With Custer When the Battle Took Place.

MAN'S VOICE RETURNS WITH MOON'S ECLIPSE. Washington Negro Thinks Its Restoration Connected With Recent Phenomenon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25.—Howard Merriman, an aged colored man who is an employee of the treasury department, asserts that his voice was restored by the eclipse of the moon.

Advertisement for Treadwell Shoe Co. featuring 'TREADWELL SHOE CO. 129-31 EAST SEVENTH ST. BETWEEN JACKSON & ROBERT'. Includes a list of shoe prices and a list of 'Monday Specials'.

DEFECTIVE PAGE