POINTS TO CORNISH

Sensational Testimony in the Trial of Roland B. Molineux

IT HELPS HIM GREATLY

Highly Important Evidence as to the Famous Poison Package

WOMAN THROWS LIGHT UPON HIM WHO MAILED IT

She Saw a Man She Thinks Was Cornish Standing Before Her in Line in the Postoffice, Holding the Package in His Hand—Testimony That Molineux Did Not Write the Address.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The greatest sensation in the second trial of Roland B. Molineux, charged with the murder of Mrs. Adams, came late today, when Mrs. Hannah Stephenson, the wife of a Brooklyn policeman, was called to the stand by the defense and testified positively that Molineux was not the man who mailed the now famous poison package at the general postoffice on the evening of Dec. 23, 1898. Then the witness partly identified Harry Cornish, Knickerbocker, who was asked to stand up in court, as the man whom she saw standing in front of her in the line at the postoffice and holding in his hand a package addressed to "Mr. Harry Cornish, Knickerbocker." That was all she saw.

Her identification of Cornish was not positive, she said she looked very much like the man, but hesitated before replying affirmatively, when asked if she did not think he was the man. The witness carefully read the movements on the evening of Dec. 23 and her reasons for not appearing at the first trial were given in detail.

The prosecution, on cross-examination, brought out the fact that Mrs. Stephenson had suffered from attacks of nervous prostration within the last two years, and had carefully read the details of the former trial. The questions of the assistant attorney tended to show that an effort would be made to prove insanity or delusion under hysteria.

Alibi for Cornish. It is also probable that an effort will be made to prove an alibi for Cornish.

The witness, under questions by the prosecution, said there were three stamps on the package, and when shown the wrapper, with five stamps on it in two rows, said she might have overlooked the lower row. Mrs. Stephenson was on the stand when court adjourned for the day.

Other witnesses were handwriting experts, who all testified that Molineux did not write the address on the poison package. A clerk in a drug store testified that he had sold bromo seltzer to Cornish; also to Mrs. Rogers. Miss Miller, the clerk in the store where the bottleholder was purchased, testified that she sold the holder late in the evening. Her evidence was corroborated by a man who was in the store at the time. The prosecution has held that the holder was purchased early in the afternoon. Miss Miller positively swore that the man who bought the holder was not Molineux.

The trial will be continued tomorrow.

JOE CANNON TO BE THE NEXT SPEAKER

This Is the Way the Politicians in Washington Are Figuring It Out.

Special to The Globe.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—It is almost universally conceded among politicians here that Joseph G. Cannon will be the next speaker of the house of representatives. Chairman Babcock, of the national committee, would like to be speaker, but he has not yet decided to announce his candidacy. Cannon, in the opinion of several members of the committee, will have enough pledges in three weeks to insure his election.

With the elevation of Cannon will come the promotion of Hemenway and Overstreet, of Indiana. Littlefield, of Maine, is to be given a good place on some committee in recognition of his services, but it seems hardly within the range of possibility that he will be elected speaker. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, also is a candidate for speaker, but has no strength to speak of outside of his state delegation.

WATER POWER FROM A MOUNTAIN GLACIER

Tacoma and Seattle to Be Supplied With Electrical Energy by Novel Manner.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 6.—Engineers are being sent from this city to Tacoma and Seattle to begin work on a project which has for its chief aim the harnessing of the waters of the Puyallup glacier on Mount Tacoma, Wash., for commercial purposes. It is claimed that if successful this will be the first instance where glacial waters have been used directly to provide power. Stone & Webster, of Boston, who have installed a great many street railways in all parts of the country, are undertaking the work in order to provide the cities of Tacoma and Seattle with electric light and power.

The plan is to construct from the glacier a flume fourteen miles long through which a head of water will flow sufficient to generate 50,000 horsepower. The water in running through the flume will drop 600 feet and through penstocks will be diverted into turbines connected with electric generators. A three-phase alternating current will be transmitted at high voltage to Tacoma and Seattle.

PIONEER TAKEN AWAY

MRS. MARY JOSEPHINE LARPEUR DIES AT HER HOME AT A RIPE OLD AGE

WIFE OF A. L. LARPEUR JOINS SILENT MAJORITY

Death Comes in Her Seventy-Ninth Year—Married to Mr. Larpenieur in This City in the Year 1845—Host of Relatives Mourn Her Loss.

Mrs. Mary Josephine Larpenieur, wife of A. L. Larpenieur and the first white woman married in St. Paul, died at 7:50 o'clock last evening at the family residence, Dale and Rondo streets, at the age of seventy-eight years. Had Mrs. Larpenieur lived until a month from today, she would have celebrated the fifty-seventh anniversary of her wedding. She is survived by her husband and ten grown children, all of whom are married, and in the Twin Cities a host of grandchildren survive her.

Although death had been approaching Mrs. Larpenieur for two years, when it came it brought much sadness from the fact that it is the first to occur in the immense family. Mrs. Larpenieur was a sister of Bartley Presley, a prominent St. Louis German, and came to St. Paul from that city in 1845. The same year she was married to Mr. Larpenieur, who had come to this city from Baltimore in 1843.

Great Aid to Historians.

Their marriage was an event of note in the settlement and from that time Mrs. Larpenieur has been identified with the numerous historical incidents which have crowded themselves into the archives of St. Paul. Her memory of occurrences was exceedingly clear and she has for generations proved of valuable aid to historians who desired to chronicle accurately the growth of the community from an incipient village to its present greatness. Mrs. Larpenieur had been a devout Catholic all her life and until lately regularly attended services at the Cathedral. She was a member of the Territorial Pioneers, an organization in which she was intensely interested.

Two years ago she contracted a severe cold and owing to her advanced age it was impossible for her to rid herself of it. Gradually the ailment increased its hold on her enfeebled system until her demise last night.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made, but it is certain that it will be one of the largest ever seen in St. Paul, as Mrs. Larpenieur's friends were legion and many old residents will mourn her passing.

She is survived by ten married children. They are in order of age: Mrs. James Harrison, S. B. Larpenieur, Mrs. M. E. Briggs, Mrs. Stella Steiger, A. L. Larpenieur Jr., Mrs. John E. Sutter, of New York; Mrs. T. S. Smith, of Hancock, Mich.; George A. Larpenieur, Willis A. Larpenieur and Paul Larpenieur, of Minneapolis.

BOUND NOT TO HAVE A COLORED TEACHER

Wow, Wiot and Wumpus in a Chicago School Room and Policemen Are Helpless.

Special to The Globe.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Cries of derision intermingled with catcalls and jeers, greeted William Hedges, principal of the Andrew Jackson school, today. Two policemen attempted to prevent the outburst, but the presence of the blue-coats had no terrors for the 200 or more boys and girls and they continued to express themselves as they pleased.

A full-fledged "strike" is on in Room No. 3 and nearly fifty of the pupils paraded the streets in the neighborhood of the school and made known to everyone that they would not return until their grievance is righted. The trouble originated several days ago when Miss Julie Brown, a colored teacher, appeared in the school to take the place of Miss Jane McKeon, who had been suspended. The children held an indignation meeting during the recess hour today and decided that they would make matters unpleasant for the new teacher.

Upon their return to the room a soft voice coming from seemingly nowhere sang a derisive song. The rebellious boys were joined by the girls and soon a scene of general disorder was manifested. Principal Hedges heard the commotion and hurried to No. 3. He failed to restore order and when the room was dismissed at noon every boy and girl made a vow that no colored woman could teach them and that they would only return upon the re-establishment of Miss McKeon.

The situation became alarming. Windows were broken and the sides of the school building were splashed with mud. Stones were thrown at the windows and nearly a score were shattered by the apparently angry youths. Several policemen were sent to the scene. The strikers sought refuge in every known hiding place in the neighborhood and no arrests were made.

PHONOGRAPH MAKES MUSIC AT A FUNERAL

Experiment of a Kansas Preacher, Who Is So Pleased That He Will Keep It Up

Special to The Globe.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 6.—There was an innovation at the funeral of Daniel P. Williams, an old resident, yesterday afternoon. Music to accompany the religious services was furnished by phonograph. Rev. Samuel Pearson, pastor of the First Congregational church, was called on to conduct services at the home of the dead, and on learning that no choir had been provided took along a phonograph. "The Holy City" and "Jesus as Thou Wilt" were rendered. This created some surprise among the relatives and friends of the dead, but they seemed entirely satisfied.

Mr. Pearson said today that he was well pleased with the success of his phonograph in connection with funeral services and he would use it in the future where there was no objection and it would come in with propriety. He stated also that he favored using the phonograph to furnish sacred music in sick rooms and that he would frequently do so.

MARRIED ON BOARD A RAILWAY TRAIN

How an Illinois Couple Complied With a Section of Missouri Law.

Special to The Globe.

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 6.—Lloyd Roberts and Miss Blanche Gillman, Pleasant Hill, Ill., were married on a Chicago & Alton train running into this city last night. They had secured a license in Pike county, Illinois, and, not knowing that the ceremony must be performed in the same county where it was issued, under the law of Illinois, they went to Greene county to be married by Rev. William Orr.

When they learned of their mistake they took the minister and boarded a west-bound train and when the coaches passed over the line in Pike county they arose in their seats and were married in the presence of the passengers, who were invited from the other coaches by the conductor to witness the unique ceremony.

CASH FOR MARRIAGE

HOW A GERMAN BARON PROCURED CASH FOR SEARCH FOR AMERICAN HEIRESS

SYNDICATE WHOSE INVESTMENT DID NOT PAN OUT WELL

Members Accused by the Nobleman of Attempted Blackmail and an Interesting State of Affairs Is Revealed in Court—And the Name of the Baron Is Almost Munchausen.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—The relations of Baron Burchard von Muenchhausen with the so-called marriage syndicate which financed his journey to the United States in 1898 to obtain a rich wife have been made public through a prosecution for blackmail brought by the baron against Hermann Pincus, Moritz Mendelsohn and Adolf Mendelsohn, tradesmen, who were members of the syndicate. The trial has just come to its close. Baron von Muenchhausen is a member of a famous German family which dates from 1587.

The testimony showed that an ex-convict named Eisler, living in Stuttgart, telegraphed to Frau von Quitzow, a noblewoman residing in Berlin, who undertakes to obtain wealthy wives for army officers, saying that if she had a titled officer on active service for an American fortune of $7,500,000 to let him know. Frau von Quitzow put Eisler in communication with Baron von Muenchhausen, who is a lieutenant in the Prussian artillery. The baron, according to statements made in court, agreed to give Eisler 5 per cent of the money if he succeeded in his wed, in the event of the marriage taking place, and he signed conditional bills for $375,000. On these bills Eisler raised money in Berlin from a numerous group of persons which included Pincus and the two Mendelsohns, and Baron von Muenchhausen had to reckon with the cash with which he paid the expenses of his journey to the United States.

Lady's Maid Fails.

Eisler's partner in this adventure was a lady's maid who had been formerly in the service of the rich American woman referred to by Eisler. She preceded the baron to the United States to negotiate the marriage, but her efforts were not successful. The name of the heiress in question was not disclosed in court. Baron von Muenchhausen did make the acquaintance while in the United States of Martha Washington Beckel, a widow of moderate wealth, whom, according to the German papers, he married Dec. 23, 1898. Since his marriage the baron has been living with his wife on his estate near Schwobler, Hanover.

His return to Germany Baron von Muenchhausen had to reckon with the Muenchhausens and to Pincus and the Mendelsohns, who surrendered his paper on the receipt of comparatively small sums. Baron von Muenchhausen afterwards accused these men of blackmail, and the matter was thus brought into court. The baron and the Mendelsohns were acquitted of the charge.

EIGHT MEN DROWNED ON THE NOME BEACH

Vessels Driven Ashore and Every Lighter Wrecked in a Hard Storm.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—No less than eight men were drowned, three vessels driven ashore and practically every lighter on the Nome beach wrecked in a storm that commenced on Tuesday, Oct. 14, and continued through the day. The facts are supplied by Purser Robertson, of the Ohio, who arrived today. The known dead are:

FRANK KELLY, GEORGE ROBERTSON, GEORGE BLEITH, SAM JOSEPHSON.

A dozen or more people thrown in the surf were rescued by the life-saving crews. The schooner Louise, the steamer Elk and the launch Fleetwing were among the larger craft wrecked on the beach. In each instance the crews were rescued or managed to reach the shore. The storm caused the water to back up in the Snake river and Dry creek and the Dry creek bridge was washed away.

RECLASSIFICATION OF WHOLE DEPARTMENTAL SERVICE

This Is Recommended in the Annual Report of Civil Service Commission.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—In its annual report the civil service commission urges that congress provide for the reclassification of the entire departmental service. The commission says that until such reclassification is made it does not feel justified in attempting to enforce any uniform system of regulations for promotions in the civil service. It urges that each department adopt a system of promotion of its own, including examinations where advisable which would best meet changes within the department.

TWO RECEIVERSHIPS ARE ON IN BOSTON

One of the Concerns Involved Is Charged With Carrying on Business to Defraud.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 6.—Receivers were appointed by Judge Colt, in the United States court, today for the variously named concerns which centered around Frederick E. Betts and John M. Fisher, and which, it is claimed, were used to carry on a stock brokerage business to defraud.

John K. Berry was the receiver appointed for Charles B. Hyland & Co., J. C. Morgan & Co., the Hallette & Blackford company, J. M. Fisher & Co. and the Bankers' and Manufacturers' Mercantile agency, and Chester A. Reed for the Cobb-Everett Investment company.

The counsel for Betts, who was recently convicted of using the mails to defraud, filed exceptions today to the ruling of the court during the trial.

It has been decided to wind up the business of Noyes Bros., one of the largest men's furnishing concerns in this city, and receivers were appointed today by Judge Lowell, of the United States district court. The firm was unable to reach a satisfactory agreement with several creditors and today after bankruptcy proceedings had been brought, petitions for receivers were filed. The court acted at once and appointed James L. Hathaway and Jeremiah Smith Jr., both of Boston, and Plummer C. Springs, of Braintree.

EVEN RED INDIANS VOTED REPUBLICAN

Elections Held on Reservations in New York and Some of the Candidates Are Wonderously Named.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Tuesday was an important day in the Cattaraugus and Allegany reservations in Western New York, the Indians holding their election. They used the blanket ballot. The Allegany reservation Indians voted at the council house in Cold Springs, while the Indians of the Cattaraugus reservation voted at the council house in Versailles. A bitter contest was on between the Democratic and Republican factions of the tribes. Elijah Turkey was the Democratic candidate for president, while Frank Paterson, Republican, was a candidate for re-election.

The election resulted in a triumph for the Republican ticket. On both reservations 400 votes were cast. Paterson was a winner by 40 majority. Eli T. Jimison was elected clerk and William Hoag treasurer. Republican councilors, surrogates, peace-makers, poor-masters, chief marshal and police marshals were elected, although by narrow margins. Feeling ran high over the election, but there was no disorder of any kind. The Indians are leisured and require at least ten days to canvass the vote.

Among the candidates were found the names of Seneca Purser, Philo Nephew, Salom Grouse, Philip Fatty, Willie Abram, Lew Twogins, Quiliter Jimerson, Solomon Mayne, Jim Crow, Jacob Haltown, Joselyn Warrior (a candidate for peace-maker), Casper Twogins, Sydney Kenjersckerty, Lewis Longmeyer, Frank Tallichief, Bailey Parker, Delos Kettle and other names of tribal significance.

APOSTLE SMOOT SAYS, SAYS HE

Mormon Aspirant for the Senate Fences Skillfully When Questioned on Polygamy.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 6.—The Telegram prints an interview with Apostle Fred Smoot, of the Mormon church, candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Rawlins, Democrat.

"Is it true," was asked Mr. Smoot, "that you have secured the permission of the church to make the race for the senatorship?"

"I have received the individual permission of my associates. The church has nothing to do with it."

"What are your views on polygamy?"

"The church is living strictly in accordance with the manifesto and I voted for and approved the same."

"Have you ever practiced or countenanced polygamy?"

"I have never practiced polygamy."

"Did you believe in polygamy before the manifesto was issued?"

"As an American citizen I claim the right to believe as I please so long as it does not interfere with the rights of any other citizen."

"Are not some of the apostles still practicing polygamy?"

"That is a matter of which I know nothing."

"What are your views on the action of congress in refusing to seat B. H. Roberts?"

"I think Mr. Roberts should have been seated first and tried later."

CHICANE IN NEW YORK

Election Laws Said to Have Been Violated by Republicans Up the State

RETURNS ARE BURNED

Law Provides That They Shall Be Kept on Hand for Six Months

DEMOCRATS DETERMINED JUSTICE SHALL BE DONE

Chairman of the Democratic State Committee Gives Out a Statement Showing the Attitude of That Body—State Canvassing Board Composed Entirely of Republicans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Chairman Frank Campbell, of the Democratic state committee, Secretary Mason and Elliott Danforth were in conference this evening. Mr. Campbell afterwards issued the following statement of the position of the state committee upon the results of the election:

"After having carefully examined the returns gathered by John A. Mason, secretary of the Democratic state committee, as filed in the several county clerks' offices in the different counties of the state, before the Democracy ticket, which has on it the name of Bird S. Coler for governor, 'This will materially reduce this apparent plurality.'"

"We claim the election by a safe majority of John Cunneen, as attorney general, and the re-election of John Clinton, chief of the court of appeals."

"We have reliable information of thousands of defective ballots having been cast, and in certain districts where the returns were strongly Republican the ballots were burned by the inspectors, immediately after they were counted, which is a direct violation of law, as they should be kept six months by the proper officials before they should be destroyed. These facts and all others will be thoroughly investigated by representatives of the party who will appear before the canvassing boards in all the counties of the state, on next Tuesday, to see that an honest count is had, and until that time the actual result cannot be stated."

Coler Thanks Murphy.

Bird S. Coler, the recent Democratic candidate for governor, has sent the following letter of thanks to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall:

"Accept my sincere thanks for the effort put forth by the Tammany Hall organization as regards the splendid results achieved. I shall always feel that the interests of the party are fully protected in the hands of an organization that is at the present time keeping in such close touch with the needs of the community and its varied interests. Again thanking and congratulating you as well upon the magnificence of the triumph achieved last Tuesday, I remain, etc."

Gov. Odell filed his statement of election expenses at Albany today. It consists of one item, $10,000, which was contributed to the Republican state committee for campaign purposes.

DEADLOCK IN COLORADO.

Democrats Can Prevent the Election of a Republican Senator.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 6.—The Republican leaders say that, including the Arapahoe county members, there will be 36 Republicans and 29 Democrats in the house, and 22 Democrats and 13 Republicans in the senate. These figures give the Democrats a majority on joint ballot, and with their large majority in the senate, they claim they can frustrate any attempt to accomplish the election of a Republican as United States senator by unseating Democratic members elected for the house.

On application of attorneys for the Arapahoe county Republican committee, District Judge Johnson today issued a writ of attachment for County Clerk Julius Achile, who is charged with having disregarded an order of the court, which enjoined him from certifying about 100 names on the registration lists, which, it was alleged, were fictitious and fraudulent. Mr. Achile was placed under bond.

One candidate on the Democratic state ticket was successful, Mrs. Helen T. Greenfeld being elected superintendent of public instruction by a plurality of 2,400.

Of the Democratic representatives, fourteen are from this (Arapahoe) county, and their seats will be con-
