A WARNING TO CRIMINALS.

The sentences dealt out by Judge Brill to the three noted criminals, O'Malley, Sterling and Trimble, will receive the hearty approval of the community. It is the most effective sequel that could have been offered to the brilliant work of the St. Paul police department in securing the arrest of these criminals and advancing the evidence necessary to their conviction.

MINNEAPOLIS HAS OFFERED TO OPEN A FIELD FOR THE OPERATIONS OF CRIMINALS OF ALL KINDS FOR SO LONG A PERIOD THAT ST. PAUL MUST NECESSARILY HAVE ATTRACTED THE ATTENTION OF THE CRIMINAL FRATERNITY AS OFFERING ALSO AN ACCEPTABLE FIELD OF OPERATION.

Minneapolis has offered to open a field for the operations of criminals of all kinds for so long a period that St. Paul must necessarily have attracted the attention of the criminal fraternity as offering also an acceptable field of operation. This series of crimes was the first in a long time. Its complete failure and the terrible punishment which followed to all engaged in it are certain to result in giving St. Paul substantial immunity from the visits of criminals, at least until the present incident is forgotten among them.

THE PUBLIC THANKS ARE DUE TO EVERY PUBLIC SERVANT ASSOCIATED WITH THE CAPTURE, CONVICTION AND PUNISHMENT OF THESE MEN. TOO MUCH CANNOT BE SAID FOR THE COURAGEOUS AND DEVOTED CONDUCT OF DETECTIVES FRAZER AND DALY IN CONNECTION WITH THE CAPTURE. THEY SHOWED THEIR WORTHINESS AND THE WORTHINESS OF THE SERVICE IN WHICH THEY ARE ENGAGED. IT IS CHIEF O'CONNOR'S ABILITY TO SELECT SUCH MEN AS HIS AIDES WHICH MAY BE REGARDED AS ONE OF THE CHIEF INGREDIENTS IN HIS RECOGNIZED GREAT ABILITY AS A POLICE ADMINISTRATOR.

THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH SERVICE AS THE DEPARTMENT GIVES TO THIS CITY INVOLVES THE PERMANENT WELL-BEING OF THE COMMUNITY. ITS CONTINUOUS SUSTAINMENT BY SUCCESSFUL PROSECUTION AND BY THE FULL RECOGNITION BY THE JUDICIARY WILL, NO DOUBT, BE CONTINUED, AND WILL REMAIN THE SUREST GUARANTEE WHICH THE PEOPLE CAN HAVE OF THE PROTECTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY AND THE PREVALENCE OF LAW AND ORDER IN THE COMMUNITY IN THE FUTURE.

POSTOFFICE FRAUDS.

The recommendations of the report of the third assistant postmaster general, so far as they relate to the misuse of the national mails for the conveyance of matter as newspaper literature which bears no true relation to the newspaper industry, are entitled to public support. The evil in regard to second class mail matter has been steadily growing until many of the publications which are now able to secure entry as second class mail at a not maintain even a reasonable pretense of being anything more than advertising bulletins. The devices, too, which are resorted to by the publishers of such matter, and which are referred to in the report, have been effective in dispensing entirely with the character of newspapers in many of those cases. The premium plan operates only to secure to certain publishers the privilege of sending their matter through the mail at four cents per pound, thus depriving the government in each case of the amount represented by the difference between the rate of four cents per pound and one-half cent per ounce.

The so-called magazines have perhaps been the chief offenders in this regard. The literature to which they are thus in great measure enabled to give currency represents a serious imposition upon the literary and intellectual life of the country. The average cheap magazine is almost as injurious in its effects as the cheap novel and has a decided tendency to produce intellectual degradation and inanity. The recommendation of the assistant postmaster that a separate rate should be established for literature of this character ought to be taken up at once and the country be rid at the earliest moment of the literary and intellectual incubus which they represent.

No legitimate newspaper publisher will raise the slightest objection to the most rigid enforcement of the provisions of the law in regard to second class matter. Hahcock and Payne has each withdrawn with more or less grace from the speaker's contest. Now is Dalzell's time to get on the protectionist band wagon. He does not appear to have made himself offensively partisan on the subject of the tariff, and if he is prompt to take advantage of his opportunity he may succeed in landing at least somewhere on the ways and means committee.

KING OSCAR'S DECISION.

The text of the decision of King Oscar, of Sweden, in the Samoan controversy makes very interesting reading. We injected ourselves into the affairs of Samoa without any warrant to be found for our action either in international law or in our own constitutional institutions. We avowed ourselves as being determined to preserve the autonomy of Samoa. The first immediate result of our determination affecting our own material interests is to be seen in King Oscar's decision. We have, indeed, paid dear for our whistle. We have not protected the autonomy of Samoa. We have simply presided at the transfer of the control of the islands politically and territorially to Germany, and we are now told that we must pay the political piper.

Our conduct invited the decision that has been given. Its reasonableness or unreasonableness is not a subject of discussion at this time. The extreme German view of the relative rights of the United States and Germany is said to be presented through the decision. That may be so. And it may be, too, that that extreme German view is the just view. We are certainly not in a position to contest the latter proposition.

There are only two conclusions that may be drawn from the decision in this case that possess any substantial interest or value to this people. Whether they are to be heeded or not, they establish satisfactorily, first, the wisdom of the warning contained in Washington's farewell address against entangling alliances, and second, that when we as a people engage with European nations in the arbitration of disputed national questions we will do well to see to it that the tribunal of arbitration can be regarded as looking upon the contentions of a republican commonwealth at least with toleration.

PANAMA FEARS THAT BOGOTA WILL TAKE THE ENTIRE AMOUNT YIELDED BY THE UNITED STATES FOR CANAL CONCESSIONS. THE FEAR IS QUITE NATURAL. PANAMA NEED ONLY ASK WHAT IT WOULD DO ITSELF IN A LIKE SITUATION TO PROPHESY PRETTY CLOSELY TO WHAT BOGOTA WILL DO IF IT CAN.

COHEN'S CONVINCING PLEA.

The acceptance of Cohen's plea of guilty to the charge of extortion in Minneapolis may be regarded as a successful termination of the criminal prosecutions inaugurated against the police representatives of the Ames administration. The conviction of Gardner established legally his character as a criminal go-between. Cohen's plea follows this up by a like establishment of his character as Gardner's successor in the immoral traffic. Gardner represented Mayor Ames, Cohen represented Superintendent Ames. There may be some possible doubt of Gardner's guilt, since it has not been settled by final judicial action, there can be none of Cohen's guilt under his own admission.

THE CONVICTION OF ONE OF THESE MEN AND THE AVOIDED GUILT OF THE OTHER POSSESSES NO SIGNIFICANCE EXCEPT IN THAT IT REVERTS BACK TO THE TWO LEADING OFFICIALS WHOM THEY AVOIDED REPRESENTED. GARDNER DID NOT OPERATE ON HIS OWN ACCOUNT, NEITHER DID COHEN. THE GUILT OF THE TWO BEING ACCEPTED, THE GUILT OF THE AMES BROTHERS PASSES BEYOND FURTHER DISCUSSION.

SUPERINTENDENT AMES STANDS CONVICTED BY A JURY OF ANOTHER PHASE OF THE CRIME TO WHICH COHEN PLEADS GUILTY. MAYOR AMES REMAINS UNDER INDICTMENT AND MAY BE TRIED. IF THE ONE BROTHER IS GUILTY SO IN ALL HUMAN PROBABILITY IS THE OTHER. THE ONE BROTHER STANDS CONVICTED AND MAY BE SENTENCED, LIKE THE OTHER CRIMINALS OF THE AMES ADMINISTRATION, TO IMPRISONMENT. THE QUESTION NATURALLY ARISES UNDER THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES WHETHER IT IS CONSISTENT WITH EQUAL AND EXACT JUSTICE THAT THE OTHER BROTHER AMES SHOULD BE ASSURED IMMUNITY FROM FURTHER PROSECUTION. THE EVIDENCE NECESSARY TO CONVICTION MAY NOT BE AS AVAILABLE IN THE CASE OF THE MAYOR AS IT WAS IN THE CASE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT. HE IS AN OLD AND BROKEN-DOWN MAN AND PRACTICALLY AN OUTCAST FROM HIS OWN HOME AND THE HOME OF HIS FAMILY.

IT IS A QUESTION SIMPLY OF SOUND PUBLIC POLICY WHETHER MAYOR AMES SHOULD BE PURSUED BY THE CRIMINAL AUTHORITIES AS ZEALOUSLY AS HIS BROTHER HAS BEEN

and as have been the minor criminals of his administration. The question is evidently one which may be left entirely to the good sense and discretion of the incoming administration of Mayor Haynes, unless, indeed, the present prosecuting officials shall think proper to revive Mayor Ames' prosecution.

If Secretary Chamberlain in his speech on his forthcoming trip to South Africa had given more attention to telling the world what the object of his trip was and less to elucidating the condition of his domestic affairs, the ordinary American newspaper reader would be just as much pleased.

WHAT IT MEANS.

The election of Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, as speaker, may now be accepted as virtually an accomplished fact. There never really was any doubt of such a result. The withdrawal of Payne, of New York, and Baebcock, of Wisconsin, leaves the field clear to Cannon, who may be regarded as the administration candidate, and whose career has shown him to be the protectionist candidate. The choice of Cannon may be accepted as the decisive political fact going to establish the control of the next congress and of the executive by high tariff influences. Tariff revision, if it could ever have been regarded as a reality, has received its final blow. Not only tariff revision, but reciprocity descends into the mine which the people have laid beneath their own prosperity through their action in the congressional elections.

The country will now be treated to the sham remedy of a tariff commission, and the trusts will meet the issue of their own regulation by maintaining before a complacent public sentiment the absurd remedy of a constitutional amendment. It is as well that it should be so. There can be no misunderstanding in the future. The people will be given the amplest opportunity to reaffirm high protection, to condone the trusts, to perpetuate the unconstitutional policy of colonial possessions and to promote the destruction of all lines of state control incident to the establishment of national centralization.

IT IS OF NO MOMENT NOW TO RECALL THE FACTS THAT THE ADMINISTRATION MAJORITIES IN NEW YORK, MASSACHUSETTS, PENNSYLVANIA, CONNECTICUT AND OTHER STATES HAVE BEEN CUT DOWN FAR BELOW THE FIGURES OF 1900. THAT CIRCUMSTANCE, EVIDENTLY, DOES NOT ENTER INTO THE CASE. THE PROTECTIONIST NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION REGARDS ITSELF AS INDORSER, AND THE COUNTRY MUST TAKE ALL THE CONSEQUENCES OF SEEING THE OBJECTIONABLE COURSES OF NATIONAL POLICY PURSUED DURING THE PAST SIX YEARS MAINTAINED TO THE END. THE RESULT OF THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION OF 1902 MUST BE LOOKED TO NOW TO DETERMINE THE QUESTION WHETHER THE FULL CONSEQUENCES OF SUCH A POLICY WILL BE RATIFIED BY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

IT IS NO DOUBT UNIVERSALLY CONCEDED THAT THE SOCIALISTS ARE DESPERATE PEOPLE. SOMETIMES, HOWEVER, THEY DO NOT SEEM TO BE QUITE AS DESPERATE AS AT OTHERS, AS, FOR INSTANCE, THEIR PROPOSAL THAT THE FRENCH CHAMBER OF DEPUTES SHOULD CHANGE ITS NAME TO THE CHAMBER OF THE SOCIALISTS, AND THAT THE FRENCH LEGISLATURE SHOULD BE COMPOSED OF MEMBERS OF THE BROTHERHOOD OF CARPENTERS AND JOINERS IN AS HIS REPRESENTATIVE IN THE PROPOSED ARBITRATION FAIRLY INDICATES THAT SHAFER'S LATEST PUBLIC APPEARANCE WILL BE IN FAVOR OF THE SOCIALISTS.

THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE JAPANESE FEET IN AMERICAN WATERS WILL HEREAFTER BE AT THE BRITISH PORT OF ESQUIMAULT. CONSIDERING THAT SO MANY OF THESE HOUSEBOATS BELONG TO THE AMERICAN PARTY TO THE ANGLIO-JAPANESE TREATY, WOULD IT NOT BE WELL FOR OUR NATIONAL PRIDE TO PROCEED TO REMOVE SOME OF THEM TO THE PORT OF ESQUIMAULT? LUKE WRIGHT IS WELCOMED HOME

Memphis Goes Wild Over the Visitation of the Governor. The return of Gen. Luke Wright after three years' absence from his native city was a memorable event for the citizens of Memphis. The governor's train arrived at 7 o'clock. A committee escorted the general and his party, which was composed of himself and members of the family, to the depot. The general was met by a large number of his friends and was escorted to his residence on James street.

Somewhere about the mouth of Chippewa creek, New York, hidden beneath the baffling blue of the river, Lawrence, rests several kegs of gold and silver. Right in the heart of the portion of the majestic river where the summer visitors colonize the banks, treasure has lain for four-score and ten years, undisturbed perhaps for the reason that those who were acquainted with the facts have hoped to find the ones to secure the fortune without the necessity of a division, but all efforts have so far been unsuccessful, and the gold rests where it was dropped overboard by the American patriot, Samuel Patterson, in the war of 1812, says the New York Tribune. The incidents surrounding the deposit of this treasure there constitute one of the most exciting pages of the history of the country, and the tale here given is as it has been handed down to the descendants of the principal actor in the little tragedy.

ESCAPED FROM THE BRITISH.

When the second war with Great Britain broke out Mr. Patterson's sympathy was with his native country, but his location and care of his family compelled him to remain silent. Then the English authorities began enlisting the Canadians and Indians, and upon being approached Patterson declined to join them. An effort to compel him to enter the ranks of the British army led to the discovery that he was an American citizen, and his property was promptly confiscated. Taking his family and for the purpose of escaping, he sought to escape being impressed into service. Securing a small dugout he embarked with his wife and children, and after a long and perilous voyage brought them into Chippewa bay, where on the banks of a small creek he built a rude house for their habitation.

TREASURE IN A RIVER

BANK ROBBERS' BOOTY OF LAST WAR WITH BRITAIN

Somewhere about the mouth of Chippewa creek, New York, hidden beneath the baffling blue of the river, Lawrence, rests several kegs of gold and silver. NEVER FOUND THE GOLD

His companions lay still in the boat until it had drifted out of danger, when they manned the oars and started back home. They reached Chippewa bay about daylight, finding the body of their leader home to his family. His death was kept as secret as possible and he was buried hurriedly, so that no one would suspect the body to claim the reward. His companions then began to search for the hidden gold and for many a day they dug in the banks and pulled for the dredged river bottom and explored the bay without success, and from that day to this it is not known to have been found. Patterson knew that he had one time to make a systematic search,
