Strain in the Relations Between Them Intensified Considerably

British Government Refuses to Give Satisfaction in the Ban Righ Affair

TRINIDAD GOVERNMENT SAYS BLOCKADE IS NULL AND VOID

President Castro Thinks the British Are Encouraging the Revolution—He Takes a Bold Stand Because He Believes England Doesn't Want to Run Afoul of the United States.

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, Nov. 20.

The strain in the relations between Great Britain and Venezuela already great, has been intensified by the refusal of the British government to give satisfaction in the Ban Righ affair, and by the publication by the government of Trinidad of the decree announcing that the blockade of the Orinoco river ports, declared by the Venezuelan government, is null and of no effect. The Trinidad government has also failed to recognize the presidential proclamation made the day following the flight of Gen. Matos, and President Castro regards this omission as further evidence that the British are encouraging the revolution. Mr. Haggard, the British minister at Caracas, reiterated a few days ago to the Venezuelan government that Great Britain did not hold herself liable for the action of the Ban Righ, that she continues perfectly neutral and that as an indication of her conciliatory attitude she refused to permit the Ban Righ to quit at Trinidad.

Castro Demands Satisfaction.

This statement is not acceptable to President Castro, who insists on having satisfaction.

The organ of the Venezuelan government publishes the aforementioned decree of the Trinidad government and bitterly attacks Great Britain on that score. It says that Trinidad has been the headquarters of Gen. Matos' revolution, that men and ammunition have been sent from that island, and that Great Britain has incited and prejudiced the world against President Castro. The journal declares that the blockade is effective and that British vessels will be seized if they violate it. In diplomatic circles it is understood that Great Britain would release her ships by force and that this was one of the purposes of the recently reported entrance of one of her warships into the Orinoco. Germany is upholding Great Britain and is threatening a rupture of relations with Venezuela, but no action has yet been taken.

Bowen Stays Out.

CARACAS, Nov. 20.—An effort is being made by the European diplomats to persuade the American minister, Mr. Bowen, to join in a declaration that the blockade of the Orinoco river is ineffective, which is the position taken up by Germany, France and Italy, as well as Great Britain. Mr. Bowen has given a discreet refusal and is avoiding the question with a view not to jeopardize American interests and to leave the hands of the Washington government free. Secretary of Legation W. W. Russell, in his report on the recent trip of the United States gunboat Marietta up the Orinoco, says that the blockade is not effective.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT PREPARING TO GIVE IRISHMEN IRISH LANDS

Special Cable to The Globe.

DUBLIN, Nov. 20.—Authoritative information has been received as to the character of the land bill the government will introduce next year. It is certain that the new measure will provide for the expropriation of Irish landlords and for the purchase of their interests by tenants with the aid of funds advanced by the state, repayable in installments. This measure will not be compulsory, but inducements will be offered landlords such as will promote sales almost as freely as if it contained compulsory clauses. The bill, too, will not be wholly destitute of the principle of

CORNERING THE POTATO CROP

Armour & Co. Getting Their Hands on All There Is in the Northwest.

Special to The Globe. CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Agents of Armour & Co. have been busy at work and have almost completed arrangements by which the entire control of the potato crop of the Northwest will be in the hands of that firm. Whole train loads of potatoes are already standing on the sidings throughout Minnesota and Michigan awaiting introduction to the cold storage warehouses of the firm. A jump to 60 cents a bushel is expected by Dec. 15.

Henry Fawcett, a traveling man of Rock Island, is the authority for the statement. He says he met several representatives of the Armours in Michigan and Minnesota last week who are buying all potatoes offered at 16 and 17 cents a bushel. These men told him they had orders to make contracts as rapidly as possible as it is intended to advance the price to 60 cents a bushel by Dec. 15.

FATALLY SLUGGED AND ROBBED

Ed Maxham, of St. Paul, Dying of Injuries Received at Winona.

Special to The Globe. WINONA, Minn., Nov. 20.—Ed Maxham, of St. Paul, aged forty years, was slugged on the street here tonight and received injuries from which he is dying. He was robbed of $400 in cash and a valuable gold watch.

Jack Bingham, a local tough, it is charged, did the job, and as a result of clever work by the police he has been arrested and is behind the bars.

Maxham arrived in Winona from St. Paul a few days ago with a good-sized roll of bills, the result of his summer's work. He was around resorts of the city tonight, early in the evening and at one of them asked change for a $50 bill which he exhibited. Bingham was in the place at the time and when Maxham left he followed him out into another resort.

At this place he drank with Maxham and they left the place together and had gone but a short distance, when, without warning, Bingham struck Maxham several blows across the head with a sharp instrument. Large gashes were cut in his face and the back of his head was pounded into a pulp.

The force of the blow knocked Maxham over a fence into a vacant lot ten feet below. Bingham pounced upon his victim and robbed him of the money and watch. Maxham was knocked senseless and did not come to for some time. Then he crawled to a restaurant nearby and told of the deed.

The police were notified and Capt. McCaffery and Sergeant Kling went to the scene. They obtained a clew as to who had been with Maxham during the evening and a search was begun for Bingham. The officers went to Bingham's home and were refused admittance. Capt. McCaffery forced his way in, and after going through several rooms, found Bingham hiding under his bed. He was pulled out and taken to the police station.

Maxham was given medical attendance and was removed to the hospital. He was taken to the police station and identified Bingham as the man who slugged him and stole the money.

Maxham is a carpenter by trade and has resided in St. Paul for two years. Bingham is a riverman, and is a son of Leg Bingham, who has local charge of Gov. Van Sant's steamers on the river.

MONEY IN WHEAT.

100 PER CENT OR MORE TO BE MADE ON INVESTMENTS

Shrewd Speculators See Great Possibilities for Profit in the Grain Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The best posted and most conservative grain men in New York and Chicago are unanimous in the opinion that the time is ripe for a substantial advance in the price of wheat; and the increased activity in the market for the past few days shows that they are acting on their opinion.

Many articles have been published supporting these opinions, the best and most comprehensive, however, is a letter just issued by the well known house of William M. Townsend & Bro., Produce Exchange building, New York, which is a recognized authority on the consumption, production and distribution of wheat. Many reasons are advanced by them for higher prices, and altogether they form a logical and most convincing argument; they also present facts of so startling a nature as to cause extreme restlessness among the buyers on grain.

The letter is issued for free distribution, and can be had on application.

THEIR LUNGS BLACK AS ANTHRACITE

TESTIMONY ON THE DANGER OF THE COAL MINER'S OCCUPATION

SPIT COAL DUST FIFTEEN YEARS AFTER LEAVING MINES

Testimony of Physicians Before the Commission at Scranton Shows That the Miner's Work is Unhealthy and Shortens Life—A Reverend Author in an Embarrassing Position.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 20.—The economic and sociological features of the anthracite coal industry and the effect that employment in and about the mines has upon the health of the mine workers were the principal subjects brought before the arbitration commission today by the attorneys of each side to the controversy.

The session brought out much expert testimony on the question of the health of the mine workers. Three physicians who have practiced in Scranton or Wilkesbarre took the stand for the miners, and testified that the occupation of a mine worker was very unhealthy and shortened his life. Dr. Frank P. Lenahan, of Wilkesbarre, who says he has had a long experience among mine workers, testified that fully 90 per cent of the men who work in the mines are anemic. Their health is impoverished and their general condition is below par, thus decreasing their earning powers.

The principal physical ailments which he testified were suffered by the miners, the physician said, were the mine's asthma, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatia.

LUNGS BLACK AS COAL.

The miner's asthma comes from coal dust, powder smoke and vitiated air. Dr. John O'Mally, of Scranton, said that at post-mortems he had seen miners' lungs as black as anthracite itself, and Dr. Lenahan testified that he had personal knowledge of a man coughing up coal dust nine years after he had left the mines. He said he had information that a man had coughed up coal dust fifteen years after he had left the mines. "It was also stated that the miner's lungs who resided in the age of fifty years are afflicted with some form of rheumatism."

The cross-examination of Rev. Peter Roberts ended shortly after the noon recess. Copious extracts from his book were read and placed on record.

Simon P. Wolverson, counsel for the Reading company, read much of the matter pertaining to violence in the 1900 strike, and also read articles written by Roberts during the late contest in which he described in strong language the acts of violence, intimidation and boycotting committed during that suspension. His articles spoke of some of these acts as "brutal outrages" and he also branded the union's action in calling out the steam men in June as "foolhardy."

Author Explains.

In explaining his articles Roberts said that he did not wish to imply that the organization was responsible for all the lawlessness committed. The preacher said yesterday that newspaper accounts exaggerated the amount of lawlessness in the coal regions, so that Mr. Wolverson's reading of Dr. Roberts' description of serious acts of violence and boycotting afforded much amusement.

Roberts gave it his opinion that attempts to have non-union men form separate organizations were unjustified by parties opposed to organized labor.

On Mr. Wolverson attempting to show carelessness of the miners' contributors materially to the danger of his occupation, Chairman Gray interposed with the remark that a margin of carelessness incident to human nature must be taken into account when estimating the danger of any hazardous occupation.

GERMANY SENDING US A NEW FUEL

Manufacturers of Machinery for Making Briquettes to Be Introduced in United States.

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—The manufacturers of machinery for compressing coal waste and lignite into the fuel called "briquettes" of which enormous quantities are used in Germany, have organized a syndicate for promoting the export of this machinery to the United States and have sent an engineer to America to explain to mine owners how to make efficient use of the cost of plants and to describe the process of manufacture. The syndicate is importing samples of American coal waste and lignite to analyze them and test the machines with them.

During the recent coal strike in the United States "briquette" dealers here arranged to send 10,000 tons to New York. Before cargo space could be engaged the strike was ended.

CARRIE AGAIN ON EXHIBITION

Berates Vanderbilt Women for Overdressing, Scolds Proprietor of Cafe and Is Ejected From Horse Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Carrie Nation created a sensation at the horse show today. She harangued the great gathering on the evils of overdressing, attempted to break a bottle of champagne and finally was ejected from the building by the police.

Mrs. Nation entered the garden quietly and took a seat in the tier. She had been there only a few minutes when her gaze rested on the box where some members of the Vanderbilt family were sitting. She studied her programme and then descended to the promenade. Stationing herself in front of the Vanderbilt box, she delivered a tirade on overdressing. In the box were seated Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Reginald Vanderbilt and Miss Nicholson.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt was leaning against the rail of the promenade and did not see Mrs. Nation approach.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourselves," the woman screamed at them, "for wearing such disgraceful clothes. Take them off at once and attire yourselves more modestly."

Alfred G. Vanderbilt hastily left his position at the rail and coming over to where Mrs. Nation was standing and wiping her forehead with a handkerchief, he whispered something in her ear and pushed her away. The outburst of the woman attracted a great crowd of people and the occupants in the Vanderbilt box evidently were much embarrassed.

Mrs. Nation then turned her attention to other boxes. Finally she started for the cafe, where she bore down on a party of men who were drinking wine. Mrs. Nation seized the bottle and glaring at the men, shouted:

"Young men, don't drink such filthy stuff. You are going straight to hell. Where is the man who sells this stuff? Show him to me and I will tell him what I think of him."

Mrs. Nation's request was speedily granted by the sudden appearance of M. Ville Figue, the caterer at the garden. "Get out of this horrible business!" she shouted at him. "You are also going to hell and ruining the bodies and souls of men. You are dragging them down with you. Shame on you! Shame on you!"

The Frenchman, however, ran to Mrs. Nation and rescued the bottle which she had repeatedly brandished in the air to emphasize her remarks. Then he pushed her out of the door. Here the police took hold of the Kansas reformer and forced her out of the building.

STRUNG UP ON A TELEGRAPH POLE

KENTUCKY NEGRO IS LYNCHED BY ANGRY FARMERS IN INDIANA

HE HAD ASSAULTED TWO WHITE WOMEN

Fully Identified by Both Victims and the Husband of One of the Latter Leads the Mob—The Governor Orders Out Militia, but It Is Too Late.

SULLIVAN, Ind., Nov. 20.—James Dillard, the Kentucky negro who criminally assaulted Mrs. Mary Davis, of Sullivan county, on Tuesday last, was hanged to a telegraph pole one mile east of John Lennon's farm tonight by a mob.

Dillard was captured at Lawrenceville, Ill., late yesterday, after a battle with the town marshals, in which the negro was shot three times and severely wounded. He was then taken to Robinson, Ill., for safe keeping. John Lennon, husband of one of the women who had been assaulted by the negro, with a party of friends went to Lawrenceville last night and identified him as the woman's assailant. Late this afternoon the negro was brought to Sullivan in a wagon by the sheriff and his deputies to be taken before the sheriff and his deputies attempted to steal into town with his prisoner, but a mob of forty or fifty farmers, heavily armed, took the prisoner away from them and started the investigation themselves.

The Prisoner Identified. The negro was taken to the home of Mrs. Davis, where he was identified, and then the mob started with the negro for the farm of John Lennon, ten miles away. The mob in the meantime had swelled to enormous proportions. The negro was identified by Mrs. Lennon. The crowd then started back to Sullivan with the prisoner, but one mile east of the Lennon farm a rope was thrown over the arm of a telegraph pole and the trembling wretch was quickly jerked into the air.

The governor had ordered out the Vincennes militia company to protect the negro, but his instructions were received too late. After hanging the negro the mob quietly dispersed. It was composed mostly of farmers, but was largely augmented by citizens of Sullivan, Oaktown and other towns of this county.

It was learned late tonight that the negro who had previously given his name as James Dillard and his home as Kentucky, just before he was hanged, told members of the mob that his true name was George Moore and that he lived in Indianapolis.

SOCIALISTS LACK 400

They Come Within That Many Votes of Controlling Federation of Labor

TOTAL VOTE OVER 9,000

President Gompers Leads in Annual Squelching of Socialism

HE IS EXONERATED OF THE CHARGES OF SHAFFER

Latter Denies Ever Having Preferred Such Charges and the Question of Veracity is Forthwith Raised Between the Amalgamated President and a Delegate.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 20.—The Socialists came within 400 votes of securing the control of the convention of the American Federation of Labor today. The struggle lasted almost the entire day and a number of able speeches were made on both sides, notably those of D. A. Hayes, James Duncan and President Gompers against the Socialists, and Victor Berger, Max Hayes and W. B. Wilson, of the resolution introduced by Delegate Berger and amended by Delegate Wilson in a manner acceptable to Berger.

The debate lasted until 6 o'clock in the evening, when a roll call showed 4,744 votes against the amendment of Mr. Wilson and 4,344 in favor of it. The miners voted solidly in favor of the amendment. No business was transacted in the convention other than that of debate and the report of the committee on the resignation of Gompers-Shaffer trouble.

Gompers is Cleared. President Gompers has been completely exonerated of the charges of infidelity to the principles of trades unionism said to have been made by Theodore J. Shaffer, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers. The special committee which conducted the investigation reported to that effect today. The charges against Mr. Gompers fell flat. The committee reported that when Mr. Shaffer appeared before it he declared that he had not at any time, either in writing or otherwise, made any charges against Mr. Gompers of infidelity to trades unionism, nor did he desire to before the committee.

P. J. Sheridan, who brought up in the convention the resolution which resulted in the investigation was also at the hearing and was asked if it was true that Mr. Shaffer had made any charges before the last convention of the Iron, Steel and Tin Workers against Mr. Gompers, and he replied that he had. Mr. Shaffer denied it. Mr. Sheridan offered to read the minutes of the meeting at which the charges were said by him to have been made.

Mr. Shaffer Spars. Mr. Shaffer objected to this, because the minutes were those of a secret meeting and if read by Mr. Sheridan it would involve him in trouble with his own organization for divulging the inner workings of the convention. The convention decided that the question of veracity between Mr. Shaffer and Mr. Sheridan was something with which it had nothing to do, and there being no charges against Mr. Gompers, there was nothing to do but return a finding to that effect that Mr. Gompers was completely exonerated. This was done and the report was adopted by the convention.

For the time being, at least, all opposition to the election of President Gompers has died out. Since the return of the report.

"DEMOCRATIC PARTY" ADDED TO POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS IN PHILIPPINES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—"The Democratic Party" is the latest addition to the political organizations in the Philippines, according to advices received at the war department. Prominent Filipinos have identified themselves with the party, among them Gen. Lukban, who organized and led the insurgents on the island of Samar and who was in command of the insurgents at the time of the Balangiga massacre.

The new party will demand a modification of the present administration in the Philippines so as to afford a greater degree of self-government; the immediate establishment of two legislative chambers, both chambers to be elected in accordance with suffrage laws as they obtain in this country; and that the acts passed by the two chambers shall become laws without further action.

It is said that Gen. Lukban may establish a newspaper which will advocate the principles of the new party.
