

IN THE CAPITALS OF EUROPE

News and Gossip of Interest on This Side of the Atlantic.

ROME, Nov. 22.—Just before Dr. Lippini, the famous physician, was operated on for appendicitis, the holy father entered the sick room and said to him: "Have confidence in your science and arm yourself with fortitude—the medicine you constantly prescribed for myself. With courage and confidence I assure you, you will get over it." The operation was a complete success. Dr. Mazzoni, who performed it, said to your correspondent: "I am sure that the pope's encouraging words did as much for the patient as I did myself, backed by the teachings of science. As to the holy father, he is and continues to be a wonder. There is no man so old and so healthy in body and mind. If Leo had lived 200 years ago, his mental activity would have been regarded as nothing short of miraculous. He is everywhere in the Vatican, watches everything, knows everything, takes the responsibility for everything. He does everything himself, his ministers are but tools in his hand. And nothing of any consequence happens in the world, that does not interest him, nothing for which he is not prepared. If Leo were a great Mundane monarch, with the power of Germany or Russia behind him, he would dictate laws to all the world and the world would submit. I am quite certain. Such a man as the holy father on the throne, solves the problems of the day; he would revolutionize the world in a political and social sense."

Marriage Annulment Fees Abolished. The pope has ordered the three Vatican congregations, "Sanctum Officium," the "Concilium" and the "Propaganda," to discontinue charging fees for the annulling of marriages. This will deprive the church of a large and increasing income, but his holiness has discovered that permission to charge "costs" for the annulling of marriages is now being used for the purpose of blackmail. The holy father learned the true state of things when he got information that the Prince of Monaco was charged $400,000 for annulling the marriage of his daughter with Lady Mary Douglas Hamilton, while Lady Mary's second husband, Prince Francis, had to pay 100,000 francs for permission to marry her.

"Allied With the Devil." ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 22.—The provincial press is up in arms against the American minister, Mr. Schlegel, Bob Lenz, and his fellow artist, Miss Eleanor, who are doing the stunt made famous by the late Prof. Hermann in Russia. They maintain that the show of sincerity that Bob and Eleanor are leagued with the devil, basing their assertion on the report of the representative of the Russian government, Nasari, of Nischni-Novgorod. The bishop, it is said, sent a "responsible" man to take in the show, and the representative of the Russian government could not do the stunts they do unless they were aided by "unclean and evil spirits." How Bob Lawrence, the American, works under the instructions of and in harmony with the hereditary enemy of all mankind I don't know," says the bishop's representative. "But I vow and declare that his art is not of this world and that the devil himself must be his partner."

Romans Already Knew Aluminum. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—Prof. Mommsen, the American chemist, has discovered since 1827, is mentioned by the Roman natural historian, Plinius, who reports that the Emperor Thierius had a Roman chemist who had discovered aluminum out of clay, as he feared that the new metal "as good as silver, but far more useful," might cause a fall in the value of the established precious metals.

Editor Kicked from Reichstag. MAGDEBURG, Nov. 22.—The Socialists have already opened the campaign for sending Editor Albert Schickel back to the reichstag and city council, where he was an honored member until a sort of George Ade fable, printed in his paper, degraded him in his character as a legislator and caused him to be expelled into jail for three years. The fable he printed, but did not write, was interpreted by a sur on the Kaiser's second son, Eitel Fritz. While in prison the editor was forced to associate day and night with murderers and highwaymen and the very means of work, cleaning and broom-making, was reserved for him. He was waited on by a maid in the jail by over 10,000 people, who cheered him as he walked out, a sick and broken man. The Liberals have united with the Socialists to send Editor Schmidt's rehabilitation as a national and municipal legislator.

Danish Nobility Dying Out. COPENHAGEN, Nov. 22.—The Danish nobility once very numerous, is fast dying out. The noble families have been productive of female issue only for the last twenty or thirty years. Within the next few years, therefore, more families will die out, according to present prospects. The physical deterioration of the aristocracy is equalled by its mental decline. Denmark has only one noble-born general and the lower house of her parliament is entirely made up of commoners, while the upper house has only a few nobles among sixty-two, five of whom were

A GOOD SAMARITAN. Being Helped Himself Wishes to Help Others. The papers were never so filled with advertisements of remedies, and you cure every known disease as they are today; these are invariably accompanied by letters from people, testifying in the strongest terms to the value and merit of the particular preparation advertised; but because so much is claimed for the medicine, it has come to the point where one who has regarded such testimonials as pure "fakes" and made up of whole cloth. We are glad, however, to vouch for the reliability of the following from Mr. William Lichtenwarter, proprietor of the largest printing house in Canton, Ohio, regarding the Pyramid Pile Cure, for which nothing is claimed except that it will cure any and every form of Piles.

For several months past I have received so many inquiries from sufferers asking if my testimonial is authentic, that I am inclined to send in a bill to you for $17,000 francs. It is now two years since I was last troubled, and my rectum is as clear and clean as any man who never had piles, although I suffered with protruding, bleeding and internal piles for twenty-seven years. I will not attempt to detail the story I am now telling, but happy to say I believe I am cured, after two years of evidence.

What will cure one man will sometimes not cure another; whether it be the Pyramid Pile Cure that cured me, I cannot say; but I have been free from piles for two years after using your treatment. I have suffered to draw their own conclusions. I will answer any communication that a sufferer may ask, and will refer to any business house, bank or manufacturer of Canton, Ohio, concerning my identity, among whom I have lived for forty-eight years.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., upon receipt of price.

Drop this firm a card saying for their little book describing the cause and cure of piles.

Four-Year-Old Chaffeur. MADRID, Nov. 22.—The four-year-old son of the Duke of Santa Masura, who used to astonish promoters by his extraordinary horsemanship, is now attracting attention as a chaffeur in a twenty-four-horse power automobile. He has a professional assistant for emergencies, but will not permit to be driven by anyone else.

Leopold Discovered by Royal Relatives. VIENNA, Nov. 22.—Countess Lonyay, the former crown princess of Austria, is much fretted by her royal relatives, all of whom pay her ceremonial visits at her hotel in order to show appointed by the king. There is not a single anecdote among the ministers of state of leading politicians. No More Reindeer Meat for Germany. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—The commission on duties decided that after April next year, when the new meat law goes into effect, reindeer meat can no longer be imported from Norway except in bulk; the whole animal. As it would not pay to do that, the Germans will have to increase their quarters for relief from the increasing meat scarcity.

Count Goertz. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—It is whispered at court that Count Goertz, husband of the Countess, who was famous for Lenbach's portrait, will succeed Hochberg as intendant general of the royal theaters.

Henry's Latest Traveling Adventures. BONN, Nov. 22.—On Friday Prince Henry arrived unannounced on Castle Rheinstein, long after midnight, his automobile having again broken down. Himself and adjutant were on foot, accompanied by a peasant boy who carried their valises, and the warden of the palace was very wrath and disturbed. "If you don't go away instantly I'll send my dogs on you," cried the warden from a window.

"But we must have lodgings for the night," cried the prince. "I'll be right with you," cried the warden; "this is no inn for tramp bicyclists."

"Come by wheel—we are automobilists." "Automobilists or bicyclists makes no difference—we have no room for tramps," cried the official. Now Henry got mad. "Open instantly," he commanded—"instantly, I say, or you will presently find yourself without a head."

The warden then thought he recognized the voice and consented, though with ill grace, to come down and have a look at the strangers. Five minutes later a lantern was placed against the peep-hole in the gate, and the warden, recognizing his mistake, by the course, the official nearly broke his back scraping and bowing, but one of his dogs retorted temerity enough to Henry's shouts.

Duke Took Tire-Woman's Savings. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—Anna Milewsky's suit against the duke of Schleswig, the empress's brother, for restitution of $3,000 marks, which his highest representative took away from her in Cairo, was postponed the moment the testimony got damaging to Schleswig. It was his wife, the Princess Amalie Milewsky, while confidential companion to the late Princess Amalie of Schleswig, kept her highness out of her own purse whenever the duke's remittances were late in materializing, which happened quite frequently. The duke was bound by the courts to pay the princess $3,700 per year, which was all the income she had, but his highness paid only in dribs and drabs, and often the amounts were not paid at all. The princess's diary, submitted to the court, showed. A year or so ago Princess Amalie died in Cairo and the duke sent his adjutant to close up her affairs. The adjutant found in the princess's treasury 18,000 marks supplied by Anna, and at once confiscated them, despite the princess's protests. The money was used to give her late highness a splendid burial. At this point the court adjourned sine die, the inference being that the duke thought of getting too hot for Schleswig. Anna Milewsky was beggared by the duke's high-handed proceedings and is suing as a pauper.

Russia Uses Turks Unconventionally. MADRID, Nov. 22.—The government will exert every energy to make the cortes pass the bill of the minister of justice, which muzzles the press. The bill provides that the government measures must not be published or criticized except when, and in the form, furnished by the minister of police.

Duke of Abruzzos Writes Book. MILAN, Nov. 22.—The Ippoli Publishing house is about to issue "My North Pole Expedition," by the Duke of the Abruzzos, a volume of 600 pages with many illustrations. The advance sheets show the duke to be the master of an easy style, of much wit and power of observation. Important scientific information is interspersed with pleasant sketches of travel. The duke gets $100,000 for his book, which he will give over to the poor.

Balloons Investigating Volcanoes. PARIS, Nov. 22.—A number of enthusiastic aeronauts propose to travel to the French West Indies and spend a year in observing Mont Pelee and other volcanoes. They think an anchored balloon would be most useful for extensive observation.

Worked With Mexican "Shinplasters." BERLIN, Nov. 22.—Augustinus Botto, of Guatemala, was sentenced to jail for three years for his part in jewelry stores with worthless South American paper money, passing it for greenbacks. After his term in the prison he was sent to the United States, where he was arrested by Queen Wilhelmina's bailiffs and later on to the Belgian authorities, as he was the same fraud in Belgium and Holland.

Six Months for Duelling Professor. ROTSTOCK, Nov. 22.—Prof. Binder, of this university, was sentenced to six months for fighting a duel with Gen. Peensky. Both men perforated the air with bullets three times, but did no damage to each other. The general appeared as witness, but was not punished.

Mrs. White Honored Like Husband. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—The wife of Ambassador White is receiving many tokens of affection and esteem from German societies all over the country. She is almost in daily receipt of resolutions of regret at her departure and will carry away a great many valuable souvenirs. The American Woman's club presented Mrs. White with a beautiful address illuminated in water colors, giving scenes from the Thiergarten, the Queen Louise monument and Rossow Island. The American church also honored Mrs. White by a banquet and address. Mrs. White has prepared a valuable paper on the cathedrals of Germany, England and France and on their architects.

Schwab Outbids Kaiser and Morgan. ROME, Nov. 22.—Mr. Schwab has bought Rembrandt's portrait of Admiral Tromb, outbidding the Kaiser 200,000 francs and Mr. Morgan 50,000. The painting is done on wood and measures 53x27 inches. Some time ago it was sold in Paris for 17,000 francs.

Wage of Street Car Conductor. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—The government proposes to tax the "drink-money" received by street car conductors from passengers who are humane enough to try and keep them from starving. The conductors' protest says that their gratuities are absolutely necessary to keep them alive, as the salary is only $21.25 a month. The Berlin street cars are among the greatest money-makers in Germany.

Four-Year-Old Chaffeur. MADRID, Nov. 22.—The four-year-old son of the Duke of Santa Masura, who used to astonish promoters by his extraordinary horsemanship, is now attracting attention as a chaffeur in a twenty-four-horse power automobile. He has a professional assistant for emergencies, but will not permit to be driven by anyone else.

Leopold Discovered by Royal Relatives. VIENNA, Nov. 22.—Countess Lonyay, the former crown princess of Austria, is much fretted by her royal relatives, all of whom pay her ceremonial visits at her hotel in order to show

Watch Our Cloak Department Tomorrow For Matchless Bargains. 92-94-96 E. 7th St. and 412-414-416 Minnesota St. In Their New Annex. Kennedy, McLeod, McArthur Co.

DAILY the throngs of busy shoppers at the Popular New Store is proof of our ability to supply them with a complete line of high-grade merchandise at matchless prices.

COATS! COATS! COATS!

Ladies' Misses' and Children's Correct Outer Attire. Visit our Cloak and Suit Department before purchasing your outer apparel. Our styles are the latest, our workmanship the best and prices as low as can be consistently asked for high-class garments.

We are offering a line of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Suits. The styles are half tight-fitting Norfolk and fitted effects; cloths are Venetian, Storm Serge and Cheviot. The Jackets are all either lined with silk or satin. To close this surplus stock quickly we have marked these Suits down to a price that will suit everybody. A careful examination of the line will convince you we are right.

Ladies' Monte Carlo Coats, made of all-wool kersey, in black and castor; inverted box plait and slit seam, lined throughout with guaranteed satin; would be bargains at $18.50. Our price for tomorrow $13.95

Ladies' Monte Carlo Coats, made of all-wool kersey, in black and castor; inverted box plait and slit seam, lined throughout with guaranteed satin; would be bargains at $18.50. Our price for tomorrow $10.00

We have made Children's Jackets and Coats a "Specialty" and are prepared to show you the best line of such garments ever shown in St. Paul. We have them of every style, and prices to suit everybody. And a look at the complete line will convince you that we are right.

Misses' Jackets, either box or fitted back, made of heavy all-wool material; coat or storm collar, all sizes. These are regular $5.50 goods; for tomorrow $3.50

Children's Jackets, a nobby line, made with cape and trimmed with fancy braid and fur, full line of colors and sizes. Why pay others $4.87? Our price for tomorrow $3.48

Great Silk Skirt Sale.

The balance of our Sample line of Silk Dress Skirts which we offer for Monday, at less than manufacturer's cost, it remains for you to take advantage of these low prices.

$35.00 Skirts $25.00 $21.00 Skirts $16.50 $32.50 Skirts $22.50 $18.00 Skirts $11.95 $25.00 Skirts $15.00 $15.00 Skirts $9.50 $22.00 Skirts $12.50 $12.00 Skirts $7.95

Outing Flannel Gowns. 100 dozen Ladies' Outing Flannel Gowns; made of the best quality tealized down Outing Flannel, trimmed in torchon lace and fancy braid; very long and wide. Why pay $3? Our price, 69c

200 dozen Children's Gowns, made of good quality Outing Flannel; double yoke; rolling collar; sizes, 1 to 14 years; good value, 65c. Our price 49c

Domestic Dept. Interesting news from this department for tomorrow. There are many 5 cases extra heavy white Outing Flannel, none better anywhere, at 10c. Our special price, per yard 7c

Quilts and Blankets. 5 cases Silkline covered Quilts; you know the quality is all right. For tomorrow 89c

3 cases Mottled Blankets, an extra heavy large size, worth $1.39; for tomorrow, per pair, 1.39

Handkerchief Dept. 500 dozen Ladies' Fancy Embroidered and Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs; all new and dainty patterns; very fine and sheer; worth up to 19c; special for tomorrow 10c

Toys! Toys! Toys! Visit our new and up-to-date Toy and Doll Department in our new Basement Annex. No old shopworn goods—all new, just from the manufacturers. Come and bring the little ones with you.

WINTER UNDERWEAR.

We have made special efforts to procure for our patrons the best Underwear values. 200 dozen Women's Vests and Pants, in Egyptian cotton, fleeced, lined, silk taped. Why pay 35c. Tomorrow, our price, each 19c

Women's Combination Suits, neatly trimmed, 50c kind, tomorrow, per suit 39c

Women's black Australian Wool Tights, why pay $1.25. Tomorrow we say, a pair 98c

Women's Vests and Pants, 50c kind, heavy fleeced-lined, sale price, each 39c

Women's heavy white cotton Corset Covers long sleeves, 39c kind, sale price 23c

Linen Department.

Monday for your bargains in linens for Thanksgiving. HEMSTITCHED SET—3-yd. cloth, with 12 hemstitched 20-inch napkins to match; good value at $2.50. Special for Monday 7.50

TABLE DAMASK—72-in. bleached and unbleached Damask, heavy weight, open borders, good value at $1.25. Special 98c

NAPKINS—Double Satin Damask Napkins, 24-inch extra heavy, Irish make, good value at $5.00. Special, per dozen 3.75

Waists! Waists! Waists!

Ladies' Flannel Waists—Made of good quality flannel, new box-plaited fronts, and trimmed with large pearl buttons; sizes and good assortment of colors. Regular $2.48. For Monday $1.69

Ladies' Flannel Waists, made with tucked fronts; trimmed with little buttons. Would be a bargain at $2.25. For Monday $1.48

Another lot of those beautiful Metal Velvet Waists just received. A large assortment to select from. Cheap at $2.98. For Monday $2.25

EVERY DAY

We are adding new goods to our general line of Toilet Goods. New Brushes, New Mirrors, New Pocket Books. And several other new lines. Do not forget us. PARKER, Fifth & Wabasha.

Paul, is now able to attend his labors again after an illness of several months.

General Orders No. 22, recently issued by Adj. Gen. Libbey, announce the resignation of Capt. W. W. Kinne, Company D, Third Infantry, Zumbrota, and the promotion of First Lieutenant Edgar F. Davis to be captain, and Second Lieutenant C. O. Bonham to be first lieutenant. First Lieutenant and

The members of Merwin M. Carlton club, which was organized and revived its regular meeting last Wednesday evening, and entertained members of Archie Patterson camp, of Minneapolis. An excellent program for the evening's entertainment was enjoyed by all. It was decided to give a dance in the Armory on the evening of Dec 1, and the members of Co. C, and the county jail in default of payment. His fine was $3 and the law provides for the commitment of one day in jail for each $2 fine.

Corporal R. W. (Buck) Stevenson, Co. D, has been promoted and removed from the city. He has accepted a position on the road, and will hereafter have headquarters in Omaha. He is one of the old members of Co. C, very popular. Capt. Conrad has not decided on who shall fill the vacancy, but it is most probable that non-com. A. Co. G. will hereafter be required to pass an examination.

Co. G-1, of Red Wing, has organized an athletic association with Capt. O. M. Nordly as manager and instructor. Sergeant Fred Seebach is president, Sergeant Charles Stockwell vice president and Corporal Hobart secretary for the evening's entertainment was enjoyed by all. The object is to create a greater interest in athletic sports and hopes are entertained of securing contests with other companies in the state. An indoor baseball team will be selected and a match game with one of the St. Paul companies will occur early in December.

Lieut. W. L. Wallace, Co. D-3, Northfield, has resigned under pressure, and the company will soon meet to elect two lieutenants, as First Lieut. P. A. DeFord has resigned this city and resigned his commission.

High Art. "That seems to be a castle or a house of some kind," observed the visitor at the exhibition, peering up at a painting near the ceiling, "and the name of it is on the bottom of the frame, but I can't make it out at this distance." "It is a picture of the picture, which happened to be standing near you," remarked the luckless painter of the picture, who happened to be standing near you. —Chicago Tribune.

The oldest United States soldier is declared to be O. Overton, of Los Angeles, Cal., who is now 105 years old. He served in the Black Hawk war, the Mexican war and the Civil war. Mr. Overton is a native of Pennsylvania. He walked three miles in the last 5. R. parade at Los Angeles.—Kansas City Journal.

50 Pianos

At a Great Sacrifice. During the remodeling of the Baudenbach building, 50 fine upright pianos were marred by being pushed up against the other, and we offer them for the week beginning Monday, Nov. 24, at SACRIFICE PRICES. We have almost every known make. If you want a fine piano at low price, don't lose this opportunity.

Call or write for special prices. RAUDENBACH'S 50 PIANOS SIXTH ST. PETER AND MARKET ST. Raudenbach Building, St. Paul, Minn.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.

The report that Gov. S. R. Van Sant is trying to humiliate his unhappy daughter, Emperor Francis Joseph visited Stephany twice in state, causing the official Gazette to record his coming and going, and the king of Greece, the sister of Emperor William and other princes have paid their respects to poor Stephany.

The Belgian Liberal parties will unite in calling down King Leopold for his cruelty to his daughter. The chamber says he has no right to forbid her using the title of Belgian princess, as the title was conferred upon her by the people and the constitution, not the king.

Kaiser Sued for Price of a Pig. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—A citizen of Staaken is suing the Kaiser for the price of a boar which his majesty's hunting party drove into the petting school, whereupon the Kaiser killed him. The hunters took away the boar pig against the owner's protest, claiming that the boar was a property of the Kaiser, and that the law of the hunt.

Why Hay's Note Found No Backing. BERLIN, Nov. 22.—It is now quite apparent that the note which Hay passed to the Kaiser, and which the Kaiser found no backing in Germany and Austria. Dr. Placzek, a well known attorney in Berlin, said that the note was a bluff, and that the Kaiser was engaged in a systematic Jew-hunt; every foreign Jew it can find in Poland is invariably ordered to quit the country. The advance Jews are weekly transported from the city of Posen alone.

Hungary Also Jew-Baiting. BUDAPEST, Nov. 22.—The president of the ministry advocates the formation of a frontier guard to keep foreign Jews out of the country. Hereafter such will be transported wherever sent. Rumanian Jews are expected to be sought for and now in jail as there is no other place for them, seeing that Rumania refuses to take them back.

He Found It. One of the most distinguished of Washington clergymen was seen the other day walking unceremoniously through the northwest, just south of the entrance to the Soldiers' home. He held a slip of paper in his hand, looked at it every while with a puzzled expression on his face and then turned to stare absently at the open fields all about him. A mounted policeman rode up to him after a little and asked: "Can I help you, sir?"

"Mabve," answered the venerable doctor. "I'm looking for a house up in this neighborhood somewhere," and with that he handed his slip of paper to the officer. It is No. 216 First street. To guide me I've written after the number that the house is on First street, near the corner of Ninth. But I don't see how there can be any corner of First and Ninth streets.

The policeman was as much puzzled as the clergyman. A letter carrier who passed just at that time was accordingly called into the consultation. The three were studying over the address, when the minister folded the paper with a strange, faint smile and began to walk back toward the city.

"Have you found the house?" asked the letter carrier, catching step with the clergyman. "No, I haven't found the house," was the answer. "I find that the address I had written down is the twenty-eighth verse of the chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians."—Washington Star.

Paradise of Gum Chewers. It is asserted that more gum is manufactured and consumed in Cleveland than in any other city in the world, and that the greatest manufacturers of chewing gum are numbered among its merchant princes. They find it difficult to spend their incomes. But Chicago can claim the second place, and the best judges estimate that Chicago people use about a ton of gum a day—that is, 2,000 boxes containing 200,000 pieces and costing $2,000. That is a very small expenditure on the amount of pleasure and good that is derived from the habit, for while gum chewing may not be refined or elegant, it is considered very healthful. It aids digestion, prevents dyspepsia, cures indigestion, concentrates the mind, and induces meditation.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Adj.-Gen. E. D. Libbey.

of the many improvements at camp, and before another two years have passed he hopes to have all the improvements completed. The most praiseworthy improvement of the past year was the erection of a new headquarters for the National Guard, a bath house and the building of a 1,000-yard range. All of these have tended to create a greater efficiency in the National Guard. There are still many improvements needed, and in all probability a larger appropriation will be asked from the governing legislature.

"I'm looking for a house up in this neighborhood somewhere," and with that he handed his slip of paper to the officer. It is No. 216 First street. To guide me I've written after the number that the house is on First street, near the corner of Ninth. But I don't see how there can be any corner of First and Ninth streets.

The policeman was as much puzzled as the clergyman. A letter carrier who passed just at that time was accordingly called into the consultation. The three were studying over the address, when the minister folded the paper with a strange, faint smile and began to walk back toward the city.

"Have you found the house?" asked the letter carrier, catching step with the clergyman. "No, I haven't found the house," was the answer. "I find that the address I had written down is the twenty-eighth verse of the chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians."—Washington Star.

Paradise of Gum Chewers. It is asserted that more gum is manufactured and consumed in Cleveland than in any other city in the world, and that the greatest manufacturers of chewing gum are numbered among its merchant princes. They find it difficult to spend their incomes. But Chicago can claim the second place, and the best judges estimate that Chicago people use about a ton of gum a day—that is, 2,000 boxes containing 200,000 pieces and costing $2,000. That is a very small expenditure on the amount of pleasure and good that is derived from the habit, for while gum chewing may not be refined or elegant, it is considered very healthful. It aids digestion, prevents dyspepsia, cures indigestion, concentrates the mind, and induces meditation.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Your Christmas Present

How have you arranged to make your wife, sweetheart or daughter happy for Christmas? There is nothing that pleases a lady like stylish Furs—our display is praised by those who have seen them—many have bought, you better look the matter up right now. Call at once while there is a perfect assortment.

The complete supply of Vol. 1 of the Rebellion records has been exhausted and the coming legislature will be asked to authorize the printing of further copies. The adjutant general says that the demand for the first volume, as it contains a complete roster of Minnesota volunteers in the Rebellion.

The annual meeting of the officers of the National Guard will be held in the state capital on Wednesday, Dec. 27. Officers desiring to be present will be furnished with transportation, but no pay for time in attendance will be allowed. Maj. H. V. Eya, of Duluth, is president of the as-of the many improvements at camp, and before another two years have passed he hopes to have all the improvements completed. The most praiseworthy improvement of the past year was the erection of a new headquarters for the National Guard, a bath house and the building of a 1,000-yard range. All of these have tended to create a greater efficiency in the National Guard. There are still many improvements needed, and in all probability a larger appropriation will be asked from the governing legislature.

Adj.-Gen. E. D. Libbey.

"I'm looking for a house up in this neighborhood somewhere," and with that he handed his slip of paper to the officer. It is No. 216 First street. To guide me I've written after the number that the house is on First street, near the corner of Ninth. But I don't see how there can be any corner of First and Ninth streets.

The policeman was as much puzzled as the clergyman. A letter carrier who passed just at that time was accordingly called into the consultation. The three were studying over the address, when the minister folded the paper with a strange, faint smile and began to walk back toward the city.

"Have you found the house?" asked the letter carrier, catching step with the clergyman. "No, I haven't found the house," was the answer. "I find that the address I had written down is the twenty-eighth verse of the chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians."—Washington Star.

Paradise of Gum Chewers. It is asserted that more gum is manufactured and consumed in Cleveland than in any other city in the world, and that the greatest manufacturers of chewing gum are numbered among its merchant princes. They find it difficult to spend their incomes. But Chicago can claim the second place, and the best judges estimate that Chicago people use about a ton of gum a day—that is, 2,000 boxes containing 200,000 pieces and costing $2,000. That is a very small expenditure on the amount of pleasure and good that is derived from the habit, for while gum chewing may not be refined or elegant, it is considered very healthful. It aids digestion, prevents dyspepsia, cures indigestion, concentrates the mind, and induces meditation.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Adj.-Gen. E. D. Libbey.

of the many improvements at camp, and before another two years have passed he hopes to have all the improvements completed. The most praiseworthy improvement of the past year was the erection of a new headquarters for the National Guard, a bath house and the building of a 1,000-yard range. All of these have tended to create a greater efficiency in the National Guard. There are still many improvements needed, and in all probability a larger appropriation will be asked from the governing legislature.

"I'm looking for a house up in this neighborhood somewhere," and with that he handed his slip of paper to the officer. It is No. 216 First street. To guide me I've written after the number that the house is on First street, near the corner of Ninth. But I don't see how there can be any corner of First and Ninth streets.

The policeman was as much puzzled as the clergyman. A letter carrier who passed just at that time was accordingly called into the consultation. The three were studying over the address, when the minister folded the paper with a strange, faint smile and began to walk back toward the city.

"Have you found the house?" asked the letter carrier, catching step with the clergyman. "No, I haven't found the house," was the answer. "I find that the address I had written down is the twenty-eighth verse of the chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians."—Washington Star.

Paradise of Gum Chewers. It is asserted that more gum is manufactured and consumed in Cleveland than in any other city in the world, and that the greatest manufacturers of chewing gum are numbered among its merchant princes. They find it difficult to spend their incomes. But Chicago can claim the second place, and the best judges estimate that Chicago people use about a ton of gum a day—that is, 2,000 boxes containing 200,000 pieces and costing $2,000. That is a very small expenditure on the amount of pleasure and good that is derived from the habit, for while gum chewing may not be refined or elegant, it is considered very healthful. It aids digestion, prevents dyspepsia, cures indigestion, concentrates the mind, and induces meditation.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Adj.-Gen. E. D. Libbey.

of the many improvements at camp, and before another two years have passed he hopes to have all the improvements completed. The most praiseworthy improvement of the past year was the erection of a new headquarters for the National Guard, a bath house and the building of a 1,000-yard range. All of these have tended to create a greater efficiency in the National Guard. There are still many improvements needed, and in all probability a larger appropriation will be asked from the governing legislature.

"I'm looking for a house up in this neighborhood somewhere," and with that he handed his slip of paper to the officer. It is No. 216 First street. To guide me I've written after the number that the house is on First street, near the corner of Ninth. But I don't see how there can be any corner of First and Ninth streets.

The policeman was as much puzzled as the clergyman. A letter carrier who passed just at that time was accordingly called into the consultation. The three were studying over the address, when the minister folded the paper with a strange, faint smile and began to walk back toward the city.

"Have you found the house?" asked the letter carrier, catching step with the clergyman. "No, I haven't found the house," was the answer. "I find that the address I had written down is the twenty-eighth verse of the chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians."—Washington Star.

Paradise of Gum Chewers. It is asserted that more gum is manufactured and consumed in Cleveland than in any other