

Brookfield Farm Sausage

Pure pork, seasoned with the finest spices, and perfect in every sausage way—is for sale by the following Arbogast, L., 201 West Seventh St.

Bordwell, C. C. & Co., 128 University Av.
Chapman, R. B., 678 Selby Ave.
Crooks Hill Grocery and Meat Company, Grand Ave. and Adams St.
Ehrmantraut, C. J., 319 Western Ave.
Eisenmenger Bros., 603 Western Ave.
Eisenmenger Bros., 516 Rice St.
Eisenmenger Meat Co., 465 Wabasha St.
Friedman Bros., 425 Wabasha St.
Hill Market, 182 Western Ave.

Meyer, Henry, Collins and De Soto, Michael Bros., Seventh and Wabasha Sts.
People's Provision Co., 419 Wabasha St.
Rappe & Co., C. F., 547 Mississippi St.
Schoch, Andrew, Grocery Co., Seventh and Broadway.
Schoch, G. & Co., 7th and St. Peter Sts.
Schroeder, H., 173 Western Ave.
Stoungard, Julius, 325 Prior Ave.
Varca, R. R. & Co., 4th and Cedar Sts.

City News.

Governor Grants Requisition—The govern- ment's office yesterday granted a requisition for the return of W. H. Lee, now in Mississippi, to Indiana. Lee is charged with grand larceny at Terre Haute.

Would Amend Food Law—Among the recommendations to be made to the legis- lature at the coming session is one from the dairy and food commission that the law be so amended as to provide a penalty for selling impure white wine, fruit or beef vinegar. The commission also wants a law relative to the use of preservatives in meats and sausage.

Stationary Engineers' Ball—The National Association of Stationary Engineers will give a vaudeville entertainment and ball at the Capital City, I. O. O. F. hall, Seventh and Walnut streets, Thanksgiving night. The programme will consist of one-act comedy entitled "Reformer and Reformed," a wrestling match be- tween A. H. Heston and H. Berger, besides many other features.

Charity Ball Tickets.—To enable those who have not yet pur- chased tickets for the Charity Ball, an opportunity is given to a limited number to purchase them at the music stores of W. J. Dyer & Bro., Howard, Farwell & Co.

MILLION DOLLAR COMPANY IS FORMED

Sugar Beet Harvester Concern Is Or- ganized in Minneapolis.

The International Sugar Beet Harvester company of Minneapolis incorporated yesterday. The capital stock is $1,000,000, the shares being $50 each.
The incorporators and officers are Charles Convery, president and manager; R. G. Munroe, vice president; L. E. Utley, secretary and treasurer, and Edward Stouff, all of Minneapolis.
The highest amount of indebtedness which the corporation can assume is $1,000,000.

Deposit your savings with the Security Trust Company, New York Life Bldg.

YERXA

Fresh Strawberries for Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving shopping made easy—everything in table supplies you want is here—everything of best quality—everything lower priced than anywhere else.

- | | | |
|------------------------------------|---|-----------|
| Oysters | In bulk or shell, fresh from Baltimore. | |
| Mixed Nuts | Choice assortment, per pound. | 12c |
| Mixed Nuts | Very best assortment of best new nuts, pound. | 16c | | Edam Cheeses | Very best ones, each. | 8c | | Currents | Thanksgiving Currants, cleaned, per 1-lb. package. | 79c | | Table Raisins | Of all kinds. We would call your attention to our new imported Table Raisins at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 35c and 40c. | 43c |
| Cooking Raisins | 1-lb. packages, all seeded weight, per pound. | 12c |
| Walnuts | Short weight, per pound. | 15 to 18c |
| 10 lbs Sweet Potatoes for | | 25c |
| 8 heads of Lettuce for | | 20c |
| Kiefer Pears, per peck | | 19c | | Fancy Grapes | All kinds in prime condition. | |
| Fancy Oranges | We have sweet Sonora Mediterranean and Florida sets. | |
| Fancy Bananas, per dozen. | 10c to 15c | |
| Pure Cider, per gallon | | 25c |
| 16 gallon-barrels Cider, pure, for | | $2.50 | | Cranberries | We have the best cranberries in this city; our metallic bells per quart. | 14c |
| Apples | Fancy Cranberries, per quart. | 10c |
| Turkeys! Turkeys! | GRAND APPLE SALE. All varieties, any price you wish to pay by the barrel, by the bushel or by the peck. | |

Joint City Council Disposes of a Job That Is a Source of Much Worry

Patrick McHugh was elected expert city printer at a meeting of the joint city council meeting on printing yesterday afternoon. There were two other candidates, Aid. Otto Rohland presented the name of John Gleason and Aid. J. J. Moriarty the name of A. E.
Trudeau, but they obtained only a vote each.

Neither Party Gets Judgment.

Herman Gherke, a farmer residing near St. Paul, whose story of a West-erned onion which did not grow right, brought tears to the eyes of Justice Hoff, and who complained that his carrots grew too big to put in a bushel basket, has lost his suit against the Smith Fruit company. Justice Hoff divided the case in half by holding that the carrots and onions had nothing to do with the present action, and with more than Solomon's judgment divided the case in half by holding that the Smith Fruit company should get nothing for counter claim.

DAIRY.

Extra Fine Creamery Butter, per lb.	30c
Extra Fine Cream Cheese, per lb.	30c
Fancy Erick Cheese, per lb.	12c
Good Swiss Cheese, per lb.	15c
Fancy Limburger Cheese, per lb.	15c

F. R. YERXA & CO.

SEVENTH AND CEDAR STS.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MUST HUSTLE

MARION LAWRENCE ADDRESSES
RAMSEY COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS

GIVES THE MEMBERS
SOME TERSE ADVICE

Says That the Present Method Is All Milk and Water, and Declares That Theological Seminaries Should Embrace Sunday School Teachers' Chair and Grant Diplomas.

"It is my firm belief that every theological seminary in the land will soon embrace in its faculty a distinct Sunday school teachers' chair. Then, as it should be now, the degree S. S. T. will carry with it as much dignity as a D.
D. When that time comes the Sunday school will be a factor in church work." In a heart-to-heart talk with the members of the Ramsey County Sunday School Teachers' association, at the House of Hope church, last night, Marion Lawrence, of Toledo, Ohio, whose fame as a Sunday school worker is national, told them that if the Sunday schools of the United States are to prosper the teachers must be provided with diplomas and the schools organized on a business basis.

Sunday School Must Go After Business

"The present method of conducting Sunday schools," said Mr. Lawrence, spiritually, "will never accomplish anything. It is all milk and water. Like a bank or any other institution, the Sun-

HANKSGIVING ICECREAMS

ICES
PUNCHES
SHERBETS
FROZEN
EGG NOG
ETC., ETC.

NEAPOLITAN BRICK
NUT CREAMS
FRUIT CREAMS
TUTTI FRUTTI
BISQUE MACARON

Leave orders early, as Thanksgiving is a big Ice Cream Day.

MILTON DAIRY CO.,
Cor. 9th and Wabasha Sts.

ple may not agree with me, but I believe it is better to save one boy than one man. Save a man or a woman and you save only one soul; save a boy or a girl and you save a whole multiplication table. The one has a future, the other has run his race."

Mr. Lawrence's remarks, terse and pertinent at all times, carried convic-

HALF A CENTURY ON THE STAGE

J. H. STODDART, THE VETERAN ACTOR, RELATES SOME INTER-ESTING REMINISCENCES

HOS TROD THE BOARDS
FOR FIFTY-FOUR YEARS

Made His Debut at the Early Age of Five Years in Glasgow—Says His Highest Ideal of Life Is Stock Farming—Enjoyed Personal Acquaintance With Horace Greeley.

"A simple man, perhaps, but good as gold and true as steel." —Eugene Field.

J. H. Stoddart is at the Metropolitan for forty years. Mr. Stoddart has been actively before the eyes of the American public. For fifty years he has trod the boards almost unceasingly.

He is one of the oldest actors on the American boards today.

Yesterday afternoon, in his parlors at the Ryan, Mr. Stoddart received a Globe representative in a homelike, unassuming manner. One look into the kindly eye, one grasp of the warm, firm hand is sufficient to convince the most skeptical of the sincerity of J. H.
Stoddart.

"Yes," he said, "I suppose that, considering the long and arduous nature of my life's work, I am the oldest actor on the American stage today. For forty years I have ministered to the wants of fun and tragedy-loving public of New York city and taken thousands of leading roles, to say nothing of the minor parts.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will probably exceed in social splendor and financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and it is not possible to give too much credit for this success to the tireless energy with which Theodore L. Schurmeir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow committeemen, Charles L. Greene, Richard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner, Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

profusely, especially on the stage and in the reception room.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

Altogether the 1902 charity ball will
probably exceed in social splendor and
financial success the twenty-six charity balls which have gone before, and
it is not possible to give too much
credit for this success to the tireless
energy with which Theodore L. Schur-
meir, the chairman of the management committee, and his fellow com-
mitteemen, Charles L. Greene, Rich-
ard Gordon, Wm. J. Lightner,
Daniel R. Noyes, Hiram F. Stevens and
other men and women who have worked to make this the most brilliant charity ball ever given in St. Paul.

The Plymouth Men's Overcoats

We have taken a great deal of pains with our fine Overcoats this fall. They possess the traits of the best tailored clothing, because only experienced and thorough tailors make them. Shape and smartness only result from careful, painstaking skillful handwork. The finer grade of Plymouth Overcoat cannot be distinguished from custom made. Prices range from $50 down to $10.

At $15, Overcoats of excellent dark Oxford Cheviots, hand-tailored throughout and cut both in medium and full lengths. Many are lined with venetian, but the majority have fine serge lining. They make a most satisfactory garment.

Our $10 Overcoats are made in the latest as well as the conservative styles—all wool and serviceable materials are used. They will not disappoint you.

At $20, Imported Cheviot Overcoats, made of a very striking, yet thoroughly fashionable Scotch fabric. Cut full and 50 inches long. Are lined with fancy worsted and have satin yoke.

Full Dress Suits and Tuxedos, made of unfinished worsteds, vicunas and French crepe. Silk-lined and faced to the edge. Price, $25 to $45. Prince Albert Suits, made of unfinished worsteds, chevots and clay worsted. Price, $15 to $25.

Extra Trousers, in all the fashionable Scotch effects, as well as an excellent assortment of worsted. Price, $3 to $7.

Why Not Be Thankful in a New Hat?

If you have $2 to purchase a hat with. We will give you the best hat $2 will purchase, whether it is a Derby or Soft Hat. We have both, new shapes, stylish shapes, and Hats that will become you, and sure to please. Plymouth Registered and Imperial Derbys at $2—the very newest and latest blocks.

Sole agents for Knox Hats, Opera, Silk and Stiff Hats.

Men's Furnishings.

A suggestion for Thanksgiving: A new tie, a pair of gloves, or a handsome neat-figured shirt. Therefore we make these few special items for Wednesday.

Shirts—Positively the best made, of the best material and in the newest patterns; our own make guaranteed in every way. $1

Gloves—The Kennedy heavy weight dogskin or the D. & F. Light weight dress Glove in the newest shades, extra special, per pair. $1

Neckwear—Our Ties always are the best, good silks, handsome new patterns, and for Wednesday we offer a special line of James R. Kleser Barthele silk French four-in-hands, made from his $1 silks. 50c

The Plymouth Clothing House, Seventh and Robert.

MERRY MOURNERS GO WEST

Chinese Escort on the Way to Canton With Body of Wong Han Lee.

The Soo coast train carried a merry party of mourners bound from Chicago to Canton, China yesterday morning. In the express car was a huge sarcophagus hermetically sealed. The inner case of lead, the second of teak and the third of iron, was the body of the age of the Ptolemies, being large enough to hold a baby elephant and carved in ornate designs of dragons, tigers and hogs.

The occupant of this medieval casket is the late Wong Han Lee, of Chicago, erstwhile laundromatist and lately silk merchant. He died in the Windy City on Nov. 10. Wong Lee is said to have been one of the wealthiest Chinamen in the present West. The coffin which he is making his last voyage was imported by him from China fifteen years ago, and it is declared to have cost $4,000. It is in the Chicago emporium of its owner.

Accompanying the remains are Hop Lee, John Ah Fung and Haung Lung, the former a brother, and the others late business associates of the deceased. The parents of the dead Chinaman are buried in a cemetery that forms part of the outskirts of Canton, and the intention is to inter him beside the bones of his ancestors.

The Chinese travelers have government permits to leave the country and return, their papers bearing each the photograph of the man to whom it is issued.

The Chinese escort travels in state, having sections in the drawing room car, where they began a little rubber at cards before the train pulled out. All were evidently elated at the prospect of seeing China once more, and their replies to questions as to the wealth of the dead man, how it would be disposed of, etc., elicited the statement that much of it would be used in properly renovating the graves of Lee's ancestors. Answers to all queries concerning the deceased were given with a joyful air, which seemed to suggest that even as a corpse he was mighty lucky to be on the way home.

was buried as though it were yesterday—all New York was as though some fearful calamity had overtaken the place. And there it was, as though some fearful plague had fallen from the skies. Every store and saloon in the city was dark and tight—an air of general desolation over all.

Never Desired to Star.
"No, I never had any desire to feature myself. Friends and managers often came to me and asked me about it, but I was satisfied to remain in the metropolis and be near my little country place that I love so well. And then my wife's death about ten years ago, after forty years of the happiest married life possible, broke me all up; and it was several years before I could apply myself to work with anything like the oldtime vigor. Anyway I was never one who ached after the lucre—all I wanted, ever, was a good time with my folks and a comfortable living. And surely the desire of my heart has been fulfilled!

About my wife? Her name was Mattie Phillips—she was the singing lady in the stock company at Wall-lack's when I joined in '64. We were married the second season.

Likes His Present Role Best.
"How do I like my present role? It's one of the finest I ever had. Perhaps I am a little prejudiced, perhaps I think that of the stars of the present, but I like Scotchmen and the play and its author are both intensely Scotch. A great many people, who have taken a dislike to the book on account of its ponderous dialect, are fearful about going to see the play, thinking they would not be able to understand it. I knew of the American antipathy to the dialect part, and I have eliminated it to no considerable extent."

When the reporter arose to go the venerable actor arose with as sprightly an air as though he were living again "the brave days when I was twenty-one." "Goodby, young man, goodby. I hope to see you again some time; but if I do not my wrost wish for you is that you will live to be as old as I and be a James Gordon Bennett. Yes, air, goodby."

A wonderful man is J. H. Stoddart. He is not only a great actor, but he is a philosopher—he has learned the lesson of life. Surely, at some time, he must have climbed Parnassus and snatched from the altar of the gods a glimpse of the Promethean fire; and he did not linger by the wayside nor let it grow cold; but with the sacred flame he kindled the earthly hearts of the sons of men to gladden their hearts, and make them better for having known him.

Is Sent to Rochester.
Miss Estelle Young, formerly a school teacher, was yesterday committed to the Rochester hospital for the insane by the probate court. She is but twenty-one years old, and has taught school at St. Anthony, Young man, goodby. I hope to see you again some time; but if I do not my wrost wish for you is that you will live to be as old as I and be a James Gordon Bennett. Yes, air, goodby."

SOCIETY FUNCTION DUE TONIGHT

Temple Is Beautified for the Charity Ball and Success Is Sure.

D. R. NOYES.

Masonic temple has for several days been in the hands of decorators and carpenters and is now ready for the charity ball tonight, or at least nearly so, for all except a few details, which will be completed this morning, as in reading the program, the new boxes which have been temporarily erected add greatly to the attractiveness of the hall. There are now thirteen boxes in all, and these, filled with parties of handsomely gowned women, will be one of the most brilliant features of the evening.

The main hall and the blue room will be used for dancing and Danz's orchestra, stationed behind a screen of palms on a platform erected at the back of the stage will play for the dance. From 9 until 10 there will be a promenade and reception, the dancing beginning at 10 o'clock. Up stairs

HIRAM E. STEVENS.