VEZUELA AND STOCKS FORMER STILL AFFECTS THE LATTER UNFAVORABLY

Traders Continue to Find Difficulty in Inducing Prices to Move—Weakness of Pennsylvania an Unsettling Influence—Evidence of a Declining Tendency in Money Rates.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The difficulty in inducing prices to move still confronted the traders in stocks today as it has in increasing degree all through the week. The Venezuelan difficulty still has a depressing influence upon trading, and there was some disposition to couple the prompt signing of the Panama canal treaty with that question. Prices advanced, however, after the opening because of the announced decision of the Washington committee that the German action in Venezuela did not constitute a material representation by that government. The weakness of Pennsylvania is the unsettling influence and led to active selling movements which were only temporarily checked by the bank statement. The closing was easy and with some quotations at the lowest.

The selling of Pennsylvania seemed to be due to the news of the borrowing of $40,000,000 by the company. The fact that this loan for six months was negotiated at 4 1/2 per cent, compared with 5 per cent and a liberal commission paid by the Lake Shore for the same purpose, was pointed as an evidence of a declining tendency of money rates, but speculative operators were inclined to see in the raising of the rate an increase in the supply of capital available, and engaged by continued large syndicate operations, rather than to be left free to change hands. The moderate loan expansion policy, the view of the Pennsylvania loan operation was an agreeable surprise to the traders and prompted the recovery which was again likely to occur. The dealings in bonds have not been important and prices have fluctuated narrowly in sympathy with stocks. United States 3 1/2 registered bonds 104 and the 5s have advanced 1/4 on call during the week.

WHEAT & CO. MAY OPTION REACHES 82 5-8 AND CLOSES AT AN ADVANCE

Quiet Opening Soon Followed by a Restoration of the Confidence of the Longs and a Good Rise—Armour Does More Buying—Corn and Oats Firm and Higher.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—A new high mark was recorded on May wheat today, the top notch being reached at 82 5/8. The market was active during the close was 7-8 and 3-4 higher and the close was 1-4 and 3-8 higher and oats were 1-4 and 3-8 higher and oats were 1-4 and 3-8 higher.

Wheat opened quiet compared with the time the outlook was for a sharp decline, but the confidence of the long was restored and a good advance was made. There was continued buying by the leading long, which was helped materially by the decidedly bullish reports from France and an advance equal to 1 cent at Paris. Cables were barely steady, but the market and the weather was favorable. May opened unchanged to 1-4 higher at 81 1/2 to 82 1/2.

Provisions. The market for provisions was quiet today. Pork was 1-4 higher, lard was 1-4 higher, and beef was 1-4 higher.
