VOL. XXVI.-No. 46.

SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 15, 1903.—TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

IN THE ST. PAUL MORNING FIELD THE GLOBE HAS A LONG LEAD.

CIRCULATION BOOKS OPEN TO ALL INTERESTED.

A MACNIFICENT OPENING

King and Queen Will Do the Business in Person—Most Gorgeous State Ceremonial, With a Revival of Court Glitter.

(Copyright, 1903, by Central News and Press Exchange.) Special Cable to The Globe.

LONDON, Feb. 14.-It is now practically certain that the kirg, accompanied by the queen, will in person open the third session of his first parliament on Tuesday, Feb. 17, with all the pagenatry and ceremonial which movement of prices there is. generally characterize the interesting LOCALoccasion. The picturesque function take place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and in order to perform it their majesties will be conveyed from Buckingham palace to the house of legislature in the gorgeous state coach, resplendant in gilt and color, and the royal crown glittering above its rounded roof. The coach, will, of course, be drawn by the eight cream-colored ponies which always excite popular admiration Five other carriages will make up the procession, four of them drawn by six bays, and owl car measure for purposes of delay. the fifth, containing the master of the SPORTING-horse, by six blacks. The cortege will include several members of the royal household and be attended by an escort of life guards. The Brigade of Guards and other fine regiments will line the route along the mall, through Horse Guards parade, and straight down Parliament street. It is expected that the Prince and Princess of Wales will drive to Westminster independently. Given favorable weather, the spectacle will unquestionably be witnessed by large and enthusiastic crowds. At Victoria Tower.

On alighting at the Victoria tower their majesties will be received by the great officers of state and conducted to their respective robing rooms. Pursuivants, heralds, gentlemen ushers. equarries and grooms-in-waiting lead the way. Conspicuous positions are assigned to the premier, the lord chancellor and the lord chamberlain, while inent minister. The king and queen follow, the rear being brought up by the royal household, pages of honor and officers of the gentlemen-at-arms and the yeomen of the guard. His majesty having donned his parliamentary robes of crimson silk velvet, fringed with gold lace and powdered ermine, the procession will be reform-

The imperial crown will be carried the Marquis of Winchester, by hereditary right, bearing the cap of maintenance immediately before his majestyand alongside the sword of state. The cortege passes through the royal gallery, where space is found for nearly 1,000 privileged spectators to watch the royal progress to the house of

A Distinguished Company.

There a brilliant throng will await the coming of the sovereign and his lords, save that about the throne, will be filled by a distinguished company. upon the floor of the house are the judges of the high court, wearing their state robes of scarlet and full-bottom wigs. Behind the bishops sit the diplomatic corps. Peeresses occupy the back benches, their dresses and jewels adding to the beauty of the scene. As the procession enters the assemblage rises to its feet, and remains standing while the king ascends the throne, and the queen occupies the chair of state. All the great officers stand in their allotted places. Princes who are peers sit on the dukes' benches, those who are not being accommodated with chairs near the epis-

Amid these surroundings the king, through the lord great chamberlain, will command Black Rod "to let the commons know it is his majesty's pleasure that they attend him immediately in the house of peers. Black Rod goes at once to the door of the lower chamber, striking it thrice with his wand of office. On the portals being thrown open he advances to the table, makes three obeisances to the

"Mr. Speaker: The king commands this honoroble house to attend his majesty immediately in the house of

Thereupon he withdraws, still making obeisances, and not turning his as the assault goes, I know nothing back upon the house until he reaches the bar. Straightaway the speaker and the faithful commons proceed to the upper chamber, and the king reads the speech from the throne, the document being placed in the royal hands by the royal chancellor, kneeling. The message to parliament delivered, their majesties retire, and the ceremony terminates. Both houses adjourn until 4 o'clock, when the work of the session

In view of the opening of parliament by the king, a public rehearsal of the state procession took place yesterday morning, but, owing to the early hour the spectacle was not witnessed by a large crowd. The experiment was conducted by Capt. Nicholas, of the Royal

Weather for St. Paul and Vicinity-

DOMESTIC-American roadmakers close convention at Detroit, after making important recommendations.

Judge Grosscup, of Chicago, says antitrust measures before congress are no

Inmate of Kansas insane asylum is murdered and two attendants are arrested

o Austria die in New York. Minnesota legislators leave St. Louis for nome. Minnesota's site is, next to Missouri's, best on exposition grounds.

Mr. Bryan again declares he will not again be a candidate for president. WASHINGTON-

Tams Bixby is appointed chairman of Senate committee decides to recom repeal of land laws. Mr. Carnegie offers to pay Germany's $360,000 demand if Venezuela desires it. Allies order blockade raised.

BUSINESS-Wheat is only grain to close higher. Duliness prevails in all pits. Stock trading approaches downright stagnation, with no significance in what

Thomas D. O'Brien announces his withdrawal from the contest for corpora-tion attorney, leaving the field clear to James C. Michael. Large quantities of anthracite coal are due to reach St. Paul this week. County commissioners will ask the legislature for an appropriation to pay their carriage bills.

Mrs. Bridget Ryan, a pioneer settler, dies at her home at the age of seventy-

An attempt may be made to amend

New York police arrest managers of turf investment companies. Manager Delaney declares Jeffries is eady to fight any man in the world. Columbus ball team threatens to fight for services of Shortstop Clingman.

ment company, passes through Kansas on way to Mexico. Chicago university athletes win their door track meet with Illinois

E. J. Arnold, of St. Louis Turf Invest-

Milwaukee restores trains on branch

LEGISLATOR ASSAULTED AND MAY LOSE AN EYE

Companion of Senator Hanna's Son Denies That He Did It.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 14.-John H. Winder, general manager of the Kanawha & Hocking Coal com-peny; Dan Hanna, son of Senator Mark Hanna, and others are charged with assaulting Dr. W. G. Caldwell, a member of the legislature from Ohio county here this morning early while county, here this morning early while the latter was going home from the legislative ball in a cab. The other men had been at a club during the night, so it is charged. They were on their way to the Kanawha & Michigan depot and wanted a hack. They halled the hack in which Representative Caldwell was riding and attempted to enter it. Dr. Caldwell protested and said the hack was his. Winder, Clark and Hanna are said to have entered the hack, and it is charged that Wind-er dealt Dr. Caldwell a hard blow in the face, rendering him unconscious. Representative Caldwell was thrown out of the hack and the others took charge of it. Dr. Caldwell was picked up by friends and taken to the hotel in a content condition. in a serious condition.

Winder, Hanna and others left for Columbus, Ohio. A warrant for their arrest was sworn out by Dr. Caldwell Va., but the men got across into Ohio without being apprehended. The affair has caused a very great sensation here, and it is said that a requisition will be made on other states for return of all the parties implicated. Representative Caldwell is resting well under the care of physicians. He was badly hurt and may lose one eye. It is announced that the friends of Winder in the coal business here secured the countermanding of the mes-sages for the arrest of the parties. The warrants were sworn out by Capt. J. B. White. Winder represents the interests of J. P. Morgan in Ohio and West Virginia, and all the coal operators here pleaded to have the order of arrest rescinded. It is said that Caldwell's friends will offer a resolution in the house of delegates inquiring into the reasons for the Kanawha company officials countermanding the order for service of the warrants. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 14.—Messrs.

Winder and Hanna arrived here at 2:45 p. m. Mr. Winder was shown the press telegram, and denied the story in toto. He said that he had not been at a banquet in Charleston and had not seen the man alleged to have been assaulted. Dan Hanna told practically the same story as Winder. As to Cald-well, he stated that he did not see him at Charlston and was not at a banque

"They evidently got our party mixed with another," said Hanna. "As far Hanna and party left for Cleveland.

BISHOP MESSMER FOR THE ST. LOUIS COADJUTORSHIP

Report That Wisconsin Prelate Will Get

the Appointment. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 14.-A special to the Globe-Democrat from Rome has a report that Mgr. Messmer, of Green Bay, Wis., that Mgr. Messmer, of Green Bay, Wis., will be the pope's selection for the coadjutorship of the archdiocese of St. Louis. The message is not substantiated by any new developments, and it is not expected that anything positive in the matter will be known until Easter time, Bishop Messmer's name stood third on the list at the election of the priests who constitute the voting college early in January. The first name was that of H, P. Dunne, of Dallas, Tex., and the second Bishop Glennon, of Kansas City.

PARLIAMENTTO HAVE DAY'S NEWS SUMMARIZED | CARNEGIE OFFERS TO PAY GERMANY $

Says He Will Put Up $360,-000 if Venezuela Wishes It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.-Governed by the spirit in which Herbert M. Bowen has conducted the peace negotiations at Washington with the allies and anxious that his mission should succeed, Andrew Carnegie, upon hearing of Germany's action in demanding a cash payment of 1.718,000 bolivars instead of the £5,500 previously promised her, sent the following message to Mr. Bowen, dated Feb. 12 "I shall be glad to hand you over at once $360,000 to meet the German demand if Venezuela desires it."

This fact became known tonight after the last of the addenda to the peace protocols had been signed at the British embassy. Mr. Carnegie, it is said, has been watching the negotiations with close interest. The message was sent as soon as the news of Germany's demand was published.

Mr. Bowen dispatched a grateful reply to Mr. Carnegie thanking him for the very generous offer, which, however, it was not necessary to accept. In announcing Mr. Carnegie's offer tonight Mr. Bowen said that many banks and financial syndicates had all along been anxious to lend the money to Venezuela and had sent representatives to see him with this end in view, though these were, of course, of a business nature, whereas the offer of Mr. Carnegie was made without any reservation or mention of security for the return of his money.

Cablegrams have been pouring in upon Mr. Bowen from Venezuela congratulating him upon the success of his mission. The first to arrive was from President Castro. Consul Devries cabled: "Hearty congratulations" from Maracaibo. Leading German British firms in Venezuela have sent congratulatory cablegrams.

It is not expected that the next set of be taken up until the middle of LONDON, Feb. 14.—Instructions have been telegraphed to commanders of quence of the arrangements completed at Washington. The blockade, there-fore, will be immediately raised. BERLIN, Feb. 14.-The government is telegraphing instructions today for raising the blockade of the Venezuelan coast immediately. These instructions may not reach all the blockading vessels today, but it expected that the blockade will be fully raised by tomor-row or Monday, especially since Com-modore Scheder had been expecting such instructions and had arranged for their prompt transmission. CARACAS, Feb. 14.—News of the aising of the blockade was received by President Castro this morning in a cablegram from Mr. Bowen, who said:

"The protocols have been signed.
Blockade will be raised tomorrow. Congratulations.'

To this message President Castro replied as follows: "In the name of Venezuela I offer you expressions of my eternal gratitude for the decided spontaneousness with which you have served the cause of justice, which is the cause of humanity that distinguishes superior minds." It is believed that the termination of the blockade will be the death blow to the Matos revolution.

LOVES GIRL MORE THAN HIS BIRTHRIGHT

Archduke Will Renounce Title and Marry Tradesman's Daughter.

BUDAPEST, Feb. 14.—The Budapest Magyar Orszag reports another romance of the Austrian imperial family. The Archduke Eugene, brother of the queen regent of Spain, it says, has fallen in love with the pretty daughter of a petty tradesman and has resolved to renounce his title and birthright and marry her. Archduke Eugene is thirty-nine, has the rank of a general and commands an army corps in the Tyrol. He is of gigantic stature, extremely handsome and is frequently seen in the streets of Vienna, where the free-and-easy manners have made him

The whole influence of the Austrian and Spanish royal families has been thrown against the match, the paper

MAX REGIS FAIRLY PANTING FOR TROUBLE

Fights Two Duels In One Day and Has Two More on His Hands.

PARIS, Feb. 14.-Max Regis, the former mayor of Algiers and anti-Semite leader took part in two duels today and will figure in two more. The first was fought swords, his adversary being M. La Basderque. It grew out of a private controversy. In the second encounter pistols were used, and M. Regis exchanged shots with Jacques Landau. Newspaper criticisms were responsible for this quarcriticisms were responsible for this quarrel.

The meetings occurred in the surburbs, and were witnessed by a large crowd of people, including women. Before the first encounter M. Regis shouted insulting defiance at his adversary. The former was slightly wounded in the right arm in the third bout and the affair was stopped. M. Regis again insulted M. La Basderque, who named his seconds for another encounter, declaring that he intended to kill his adversary the next time they met. M. Regis also challenged the master of ceremonies for protesting against his insulting methods on the field, but friends interferred and brought about a reconciliation. The pistol duel followed. Two shots were exchanged without effect.

A FAKE STORY PROMPTLY DENIED

John F. Stevens Not Slated for the Burlington Presidency.

Considerable surprise was created among certain persons who chanced to see a report in an evening paper yesterday stating that John F. Stevens, formerly general manager of the Great Northern, was to become president of the Burlington system, to replace George B. Harris. The aforesaid report alleged that the latter official was to be retired.

The palpable absurdity of the report was what occasioned the

J. J. Hill, who, it was confidently asserted, had decided to place Mr. Stevens at the head of the Burlington system, when asked about the matter last evening, replied tersely: "Every

A BEAUTIFUL WORK OF ART

Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company's Contribution to Art Lovers.

Among the many and beautiful calendars that have appeared for the year 1903, from the different firms and companies who annually seek in this manner to place before the public the merits of their various businesses and wares, is noticed a really elegant proprotocols providing for reference of the preferential question to The Hague Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance com-

> It is altogether aside from the comdeals with a tangible

New State Capitol of Minnesota. The onlooker has a tangible some thing to grasp, he or she has seen the original, or hopes at some time in the near future to feast the eye upon its architectural beauties. Again, too another sense than the mere appreciation of beauty is stirred; a feeling of patriotism is felt, for, who within the borders of the state, does not feel a justifiable pride in the erection and completion of this ponderous edifice?

It is not a mere "chromo," this calendar. Its impressions are taken from endar. Its impressions are taken from the best steel plates that twentieth century skill could produce, an art now almost forgotten. Together with the artistically beautiful features of the picture it combines the characteristic of being architecturally and mathematacally correct in every essential part. Besides having issued this calendar, which in reality is but an outgrowth of a larger and better enterprise on the a large picture, identically the same as that which in miniature adorns the calendar. To every bank, public school and principal public building throughout the state, one of these pictures will be presented in the near future.

Its phenomenal growth is responsible for this liberality on the part of the company. It is understood that giant strides are to be taken in the not remote future which will place it in the front rank of such corporations generally, as it is now among those of its own state.

It may not be known to all, but the Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance company is the only old-line organization operating under the laws of Minnesota as a ganized thereunder. It has been needicted by man of more than ordinary of the control of the con predicted by men of more than ordinary farsightedness and sagacity that within five years it will be the largest and most far-reaching financial organization in the State of Minnesota.

Mr. P. A. Egan, the State Manager for Minnesota, has recently added to his Minnesota Agency force much new and brilliant blood, among others, Mr. John D. Caldwell, formerly, with new and brilliant blood, among others, Mr. John D. Caldwell, formerly with the New York Life at Chicago; Mr. Harry E. George, formerly State Manager for Minnesota for the Canada Life; and Mr. William Woodhead, for many years with the Northwestern Mutual Life, and latterly the District Manager at St. Paul for the Prudential Life, and many others whose services Life, and many others whose services have been found advantageous.

Mr. A. S. Apgar, who, during the past year, was the District Manager for several Northern Counties, made such a good record that he was promoted to the management of the Company's Minneapolis Agency, with head-quarters in the Commercial Building, at the beginning of the present year. Among other innovations, the com-pany is establishing a Woman's De-partment at the Home Office, of which t is announced formal notice will soon This company is now writing insurance in Minnesota and the Dakotas at a rate exceeding $1,500,000 per annum; field force can manage.

The alms and objects of the company have always been to attend to the interests of the state first and foremost nd more prospects on the list than the sota's money within the borders of Minnesota. In this laudable effort it has met with more than success. CHAIRMAN IN NAME AS WELL AS IN FACT to keep as much as possible of Minne-

Tams Bixby Appointed Chairman of the Indian Commission.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—The secretary of the interior has appointed Tams Bixy, of Minnesota, chairman of the Dawes Indian commission. He has been acting in that capacity for several years.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The book committee of the Methodist Episcopal church continued its annual meting today. A dividend was noticeable from the profits of the book concern for superannuated preachers and for the widows and orphans of preachers. The amount so appropriated was $75,000, as against $50,000 last year.

"BOBS" TREATED WITH A SURPRISE

Process Server Has the Nerve to Beard the Commander-in-Chief.

Special Cable to The Globe.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—There are few outsiders daring enough in the ordinary course of things to penetrate to the inner sanctum of the war office. This remarkable feat, however, has just been accomplished by an ordinary processserver-or perhaps he should for his daring be termed an extraordinary process-server. The process-server's in-chief himself and to that end he presented himself at the outer portals of the war office, where a polite demand to see Lord Roberts drew broad smiles from the corps of welltrained, wary and normally stolid messengers.

But no demand is actually refused at Pall Mall-at any rate, at the outsetand the man's request was followed by much route marching through the war office passages until at last he gained admittance to Lieut. Col. Streatfield, the commander-in-chief's private secretary, and a few minutes later he was shown into the presence of the famous soldier, and served upon him a subpoena to give evidence in the action which Ex-Sergenat Major Edmonstone. of the Imperial yeomanry, is bringing against Gen. Rundle, Lord Valentia and others for damages for false imprisonment.

Lord Roberts received the document with his characteristic courtesy, and looked at it with interest, for it was the first of the kind he had ever had. He asked the bearer for some particulars, which were duly given him. "Well," said Lord Roberts, when this little explanation had been made, "you have done your duty, and I will do mine," and the commander-in-chief was about to resume his work when, to his utter bewilderment, the man handed him a shilling.

of knowledge of this little ceremony, asked what he was to do with so much

"It is conduct money," explained the server. "Your cab fare, sir, to enable you to proceed from the war office to With a hearty laugh Lord Roberts took the shilling and put it in his pocket, and the man left the building in triumph.

SAYS HER HUSBAND SHOULD BE HANGED

Sensation in Court.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Feb., 14.—In the trial of John Cummins, charged with the murder of Anna Dishman, their thirteen-year-old servant girl, the defense today sprang a surprise by stating that it would be proved that the murder was committed by the defendant's wife. It would be shown, counsel asserted, that Mrs. Cummins held an irresistible influence over her husband, and that she had forced him to make a written confession of the crime to save her. Cummins in his confession said that he struck the girl on the head and then locked her in an outhouse, where she was left without attention until she died.

Mrs. Cummins was placed on the witness stand and created a sensation. Cummins in his confession had said that he first buried the girl's body on his farm, and later exhuming it had placed it on a hay stack and set the pile on fire. Mrs. Cummins was asked why she told the officers about the murder, and she replied that before the body was burned Cummins often begged her not to tell, but after the burning he became independent and she was afraid he would try to fasten the crime upon her.

"Then you want him punished?" asked en the crime upon her.

"Then you want him punished?" asked

"He ought to be hung!" she shouted.
"You were anxious to protect him then,
were you not?"
Mrs. Cummins shot a quick glance at her husband and almost screamed in answer: "I didn't hate him then, but I do now."

Book Concern Dividend.

FAVOR REPEAL

Only One Left Under Which Homes May Be Procured.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.-The senate committee on public lands to day, after an animated controversy, decided to favorably report Senator Quarles' bill repealing the desert land law, the timber and stone entry law and the commutation provision of the hemestead law, leaving only the straight five-year residence homestead law under which the public lands may be taken up for homes. The committee stood 7 to 6 on the vote to report the bill, the members in favor being Senators Dietrich, Bard, Nelson, Berry, McEnery, McLaurin (Miss.) and Gibson, and those opposed Senators Hanbrough, Clark (Wyo.), Gamble, Kearns, Burton and Heitfeld.

ITALIANS FORM A LEAGUE OF THE BLIND

Strange Phase of Labor Agitation Develops at Milan.

Special Cable to The Globe. MILAN, Feb. 14 .- A novel and pahetic departure in the way of labor agitation was witnessed here today, when a meeting of blind men was held at the chamber of work. The men complained that because of their infirmity they were deprived of the ship of the country, it is detaching rights enjoyed by all other citizens, from the friends of property the great elections. The Socialist deputy Signor ative force will not thus isolated re-Turati addressed the meeting and exhorted the men to form an association through which they could claim their rights. It was decided to form a League of which, of course, already exist here.

KILLED WITH BOTTLE OF WINE AT A BALL

Terrible Fate of a Pretty Girl in St.

Special Cable to The Globe. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 14.—During the Tradesmen' ball, which is one of the most popular events of the season, a party of young people were drinking onds later a careless movement pushed the heavy bottle over. The occupants of the box sat horror-stricken, for the ball room was crowded with dancers. Their worst fears were realized, for the bottle fell on the head of a beautiful young girl, the only daughter of a rich estate owner, as she waltzed past. With a scream she sank to the floor terribly injured, and died a few minutes after-

MINNISOTA'S SITE ON ST. LOUIS FAIR GROUNDS

It is the Very Best There Next to That of Missourl.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 14.—The Minnesota legislative delegation, headed by Lieut. Gov. Jones, left today for St. Paul, where they will arrive Sunday morning. The party consisted of twenty-one members of the legislature, and arrived at St. Louis Thursday afternoon. They immediately went to the grounds, where they met the heads of the various departments and discussed the various features of the Minnesota exhibit at the world's fair. Thursday evening they were the guests of the exposition at the theater, and Friday morning they returned to the grounds, where the forenoon was devoted to the inspection of the large main buildings that have been already erected, and especially to an examination of the site allotted to Minnesota for state building.

The delegation was thoroughly satisfied that Minnesota had been given the best site on the grounds, with the exception of that of Missouri. At noon the party ceased to act as a unit, and Friday afternoon and evening were allowed the individual members to visit their friends in the city. The delegation returns to St. Paul thoroughly appreciating the magnitude of the exposition, and satisfied that the appropriation already made by the state is absolutely inadequate to satisfactorily represent Minnesota. With the slight exception noted above, the entire trip was devoted to business, and junketing features were noticeable by their absence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The Philippine Islands will have no exhibit at the St. Louis fair. The government has ordered appropriations for the exhibit at the St. Louis fair. The government has ordered appropriations for the exhibit at the pay half the cost of making it, amounting to $250,000.

INSANE ASYLUM PATIENT MURDERED

Two Attendants Arrested Charged With the Crime.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 14.—The coroner's jury in the case of Amos L. Maxwell, who was killed in the Kansas insane asylum yesterday, returned a verdict today charging Attendants Peterson and Beil with murder. The man's chest and ribs were badly crushed and his body disfigured by kicks, alleged to have been administered to him by the attendants. Peterson and Neil were arrested tonight. They refused to testify in their own behalf at the coroner's investigation.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

ANTI-TRUST BILLS OF LAND LAWS ARE ATTACKED BY CROSSCUP

He Declares the Measures Before Congress Miss the Mark Entirely-Corporate Conditions May Lead to Triumphant Socialism.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 14.-Judge Peter S. Grosscup, of the United States circuit court of Chicago, dean of the Northwestern university law school, lectured before the University of Michigan Good Government club tonight on the subject of the "New Nation."

He said: "In the very nature of things we must expect that men who do not see their way clear to an improvement of their condition under the old forms of industrial liberty will entertain sympathy for a system that promises something new. The separation of labor from proprietorship-the separate mobilization of these two forces as enemies, instead of their commingling in common interest—is the most unrepublican and menacing fact that now confronts the American people. "The consolidation idea has thus far accentuated this menace. It has done what is still more menacing. In narrowing the personnel of the proprietor-One of their particular grievances was liberal body of citizenship. However that they were not allowed to vote at we may wish it, this old-time conserv-

Make Socialism Invincible.

"It will swing in time to those whose attitude is already opposed to the inthe Blind and to agitate for the ad- stitution of property and in this movemission of persons deprived of sight to ment would give to socialism allies forms of employment from which they that would make socialism invincible. are now excluded. This is to be quite | Could the old idea stand up against an monality of such matters, in that it orders were to serve a subpoena on no apart from the special institutions for alliance such as that? Will the great body of the people excluded from participation in the property of the country remain loyal to the order of things to which property must look to its bulwarks? Can we expect a bystander to have the interest of one who has a stake in events? Can we invoke the name of America in an order of events that in their practical outcome are essentially un-American, unrepublican? "Our first duty is to wake up to the realities of the situation and our next to put forces of industrial freedom into operation. Not until we have done these, not until the time when the property-acquiring instinct of the ccuntry is again unified upon a basis fair alike to all, can we rest assured champagne in a box on the second that the outcome of the encounter need tier of the hall. One of them placed a be no longer feared. But what bottle of champagne on the ledge, in-stead of in the ice pail, and a few sectry? Will the people under any conditions to any large extent enter the field of corporate ownership?" Bills in Congress No Good.

"The measures before congress make no change in the basis of corporate organization nor do they provide agains over-capitalization. They serve no purpose-at least no controlling purpose-to widen the proprietorship of the country. The publicity proposed is confined to the gathering and publication of statistics, valuable possibly to the speculator or the trained investor, but ineffective or worthless to the ordinary man who may be seeking ownership. What chiefly is neededthe intervention of go ernment as trustee, not as a mere gatherer of statistics, a guaranty that when a corporation is created its creator has seen to it that it is a fair organization, not mere statistics of haphazard corporate organization, that the people cannot comprehend—is absent from

"In short, the measures pending miss sight of the prime mischief to be remedied and thus running astray miss the remedies to be adopted. But though we cannot expect adequate legislation now, it will come. The public mind isforming. Unless I am greatly deceived the mad-dog policy of treating corpora. tions proposed by some will be rejected. The American people will not in blind fury pull down about them the industrial edifice. But any policy calculated to merely temporize will with equal conclusiveness be rejected.

Calls It a Masquerade.

"There will be no room when the public mind is made up for the diversions of the present masquerade. And the public mind will in the end be made up. The people of the United States will in time come face to face with the full significance of the situation on which they are entering. Side issues that now obscure will then clear up and sordid interests that now obstruct will be brushed aside and it will be made plain that but for some farreaching reconstruction of our corporate policy we are on our way either to socialism or to a form of government no longer republican. Then will to set our house in order, to re-establish on the secure foundations of popular proprietorship and industrial liberty the property interests of the republic, to restore those ideals into the depths of whose firmament the people of America have always looked and look now for lights to guide them."

MANILA, Feb. 14.-Bayan, the strongest Moro stronghold in the Lanac country of the island of Mindanao, has submitted aceably to the American force com