WOMAN PROMINENT SOCIALLY A MURDERESS

Arrest of the One That Killed Burdick Will Be Made Soon.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 4.—District 'Attorney Coatsworth's office in the city hall was again the place around which interest in the Burdick murder mystery centered today. While Supt. Bull is quoted as saying an arrest—the arrest of a woman-may occur at any moment, the authorities are working as hard on the case today as they did the first day after the tragedy was dis-

"We think we could make an arrest now in safety," said Supt. Bull, "but we prefer to wait, as we believe that certain evidence which we wish to gather will lead to successful results." The woman who committed the crime is of social prominence, they believe, and therefore will have friends to back her when the crucial time comes. There will be money for her defense to cost $400,000 or more and the canal There will be money for her defense and a hard legal fight will be made.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The National Baseball league met in this city today to prepare for the opening of he playing season. President Pulliam was in the chair.

The league adopted its schedule. The league adopted its schedule. The playing season will, as usual, open April 15, with Boston at Philadelphia and Chicago at St. Louis, and will close Sept. 27, one week earlier than last year, with the Eastern clubs in the West. The East opens in the West on June 1, with New York at Pittsburg, Brooklyn at Chicago, Boston at Cincinnati and Philadelphia at St. Louis.

There are comparatively few conflicting dates between the American and National league clubs. Boston has no conflicting games, New York two, Philadelphia five, Chicago fourteen and St. Louis six.

Col. John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach, who have since 1883 been identified with the league in Philadelphia, made formal speeches, resigning from the league.

Col. Rogers said he and his partner had been in baseball for twenty years, and left the National league not with-out much regret. He was forced to retire because of failing health. In closing he introduced President Potter and Mr. Hynemann. On motion of Mr. Hart, Col. Rogers and Mr. Reach both were elected unanimously honorary life members of the league. Mr. Potter was chosen to succeed Col. Rogers as a member of the committee on constitu-tion. The league accepted the report of the playing rules committee pre-sented by Mr. Hart. The only changes in last year's league rules relate to the elevation of the pitcher's box, the base lines and a slight change in the rules governing balks.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN LUMBER

Division of Sentiment on the Advisa bility of Arbitration.

The eleventh annual convention of the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' ssociation began here today. Pendennis White, of North Tonawanda, N. Y. the president, delivered his annual address. He urged the importance of arbitration in all matters of difference between the various organizations connected with the trade. He advocated o-operation in matters affecting the lumber dealers and spoke of the work of the national organization. The reorts of officers were submitted.

Retail lumber interests were discussed at separate meetings of the Retail Lumber Dealers' association, of the Eastern states, and the association of the Western Retail Lumbermen. Thse neetings were secret. The retailers desire to reach an agreement with the wholesalers, fixing the extent to which competition shall exist between the two interests.

The wholesale dealers are opposed o any ironclad agreement which will restrict the sale of their products to any retailer in specified localities, but rgue that this question must be settled by local and other conditions and that individual cases must be treated on their merits. They express themselves in favor of arbitration to settle any misunderstandings which may arise between wholesalers and retailers in disposing of their products in any

NOW WE KNOW JUST WHAT AILS DR. AMES

Dr. Conn's Report on the Result of His Examination Finally Made Public-Doctor Thinks It Would Be Injurious for Ames to Take a Long Journey.

Special to The Globe.

CONCORD, N. H., March 4.—At the time Sheriff Dreger came to New Hampshire to present extradition papers to the greener extradition papers. pers to the governor and council to secure Dr. Albert A. Ames and take him back to Minneapolis for trial, he was met with the statement of Ames' counsel that reputable physicians con-sidered the client physically unable to survive the long trip by reason of illhealth. To satisfy himself of Ames' condition, Sheriff Dreger sent Dr. Conn, of this city, who is the Boston & Maine railway surgeon, to make a physical examination.

Dr. Conn's findings, addressed to Sheriff Dreger, were made public this afternoon. The doctor said that Ames offered every assistance in getting at his exact condition and attempted to conceal nothing. Dr. Conn says:

"My conclusions are that Mr. Ames is ill and the conditions which I found led me to suspect that he is suffering from some malignant disease in the region of the stomach, and this would account for the emaciation which he claims has taken place, although it claims has taken place, although it does not point to immediate fatal results. Such troubles interfere with digestion and assimilation, causing pain, spasm of the intestines, and frequently causing periodic vomiting. When asked how he accounted for the presence of pus and blood in the discharges from the bowels he said that he had been led to suppose he said that he had been led to suppose that there were ulcerations or abscess-es formed and discharged. This may or may not be true, but in malignant troubles it is not infrequent to have such discharges as he describes.

"His mental condition may be con-sidered fairly good for a person who is feeble, and his inability to walk or stand on one foot is the result of want of co-ordination of muscular power, which may be fairly considered as the result of general physical weakness. I regard the abdominal trouble as being the principal one and that the other physical symptoms are due to general physical weakness. Unless he should have a hemmorhage and lose a considerable amount of blood, he will probably live several months yet.

"No physician would recommend a man with such a trouble to take long journeys or to try to endure any considerable fatigue. If this were summer, rather than winter, it might be considered entirely feasible to move him with proper care to Minneapolis, and while it may be done without really hastening his death, yet it would were him with the considerable of the considerable ing his death, yet it would not be considered good judgment on the part of physicians to recommend a long journey, as it would be expected that it would make his trouble worse, and ney, as it would be expected that it would make his trouble worse, and perhaps that he would not so fally as to be as well as before. I take it for granted that it is not the intention of the authorities to cause him an extra amount of physical suffering or in anyway feel, that they was recently way feel that they were responsible for hastening his death.

Supreme Court Order.

NASHUA, N. H., March 4 .- An order of the supreme court in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by counsel for Dr. A. A. Ames was served upon the doctor at Hancock, where he is under arrest, by Sheriff Nathaniel Doane, of Manchester. The court orders that Dr. Ames shall appear in court on March 11 and show cause, if any, why he should not be taken back to Minneapolis for trial. Sheriff Doane, in con pany with Sheriff J. W. Dreger, of Minneapolis, arrived here today, and after securing the papers proceeded to Hancock, where they were formally served. It is the opinion of the officials that Dr. Ames' condition is now sufficiently improved to permit him going to Minneapolis, although his counsel, Charles J. Hamblett, is of a contrary opinion.

AMES FURNISHED WITH MONEY.

Men in Financial Circles, It Is Intimated, Will Support Him in Fight. The money to fight the Ames battle at Hancock, N. H., is being furnished from Minneapolis. The "old man" still from Minneapolis. The "old man" still has friends on his original stanmping ground. These friends are determined that Ames shall never be brought back to Minneapolis for trial if there is anything that money can do or legal ingenuity devise to prevent it.

If Ames is ever put on trial in this city and retains possession of his mental faculties, his friends say, there will be sad times in store for some persons now high in the confidence and esteem of the Hennepin county voter. A circumstance that is causing much disquiet in advanced circles of finance disquiet in advanced circles of finance is the possession by Mrs. Ames of a tin box which contains papers treasured by her husband for the last fifteen or twenty years. Some of these papers are compromising to a degree. They refer to correction methods in They refer to corporation matters in language entirely unmistakable, and bear the signatures of men now occupying elevated positions in the gal-ery of finance.

It is to be remembered in this connection that Ames has been mayor more than once—that in some of his terms of office there have been important transactions of public business, and that the effects of such transactions are still displaying themselves upon the every-day life of the community.

No doubt if the letters that have passed in the last month between Mayor Ames and one of his bendsmen could be printed, they would suggest the existence of a concealed design on the part of one of those pondsmen to hold Ames at arms' length if it costs $25,-000 to accomplish it. At least the Ames forces have been furnished with funds from Minneapolis, and there are more funds where the last came from. According to reliable information the Ames tin box and the letters it con-tains constitute about the strongest detains constitute about the strongest de-fense Ames has against rigorous prosecution.

Mrs. Ames has the tin box, and Mrs. Ames is a power in this particular case. She has placed the documents in her possession beyond reach of persons who might desire to acquire them, and simply declares her intention of using all means at her command to defend the doctor should occasion arise for a final accounting between him and the persons whom she declares to have been playing fast and loose with him.
Altogether the return or release of Dr. Ames from present surveillance promises a very interesting alternative. If he is compelled to show in a Minneapolis court there will probably be exposures that will discount anything hitherto encountered in connec-gives it away.-New York Telegraph A Dog Drummer.

"Never heard of a 'dog drummer?" Well, that's my business," said a New Yorker to a Star man at the Raleigh. "I have just completed a successful trip to Washington and Richmond, Va., and am leaving for home tonight. What is my specialty? Why, I sell Japanese spaniels, those delicate little fellows that inevitably attract womanly tenderness. There are some fine specimens of the Mikado beauties owned here in Washington, while I am sorry to say that some of the so-called Japanese spaniels are not as thoroughbred as they were pointed out to be to some unsuspecting purchaser.

"The thoroughbred Japanese spaniel s in appearance quaint and interesting. The top of the head bulges like a bulb, the nose is deeply indented, the mouth is wide and curved in what appears a perpetual smile; the eyes us-ually half hidden by the silky forelocks, are black and tender in expression. When thoroughbred they are extremely brilliant and make excellent pets but for their delicacy of constitution. It takes more petting and coddling to keep a thoroughbred Japenese spaniel alive than an ordinary baby. Oil rubs, massage treatments and similar treatments are frequently necessary if they are to see maturity and after all these cares most of the dogs die after a short residence in this

Rheumatism, when thing in the world we Rheumaiism, when nothing in the world would even relieve me, I succeeded in combining five harmless ingredients into a compound which completely cured me contrary to the predictions of my doctor. I then tried this remedy general ChronicArticular bors suffering from rheumatism.

Deformity of the hands in on my friends and neighter the compound which completely cured me contrary to the predictions of my doctor. I then tried this remedy matism, also on hospital patients with such wonderful results that even prominent physicians had to admit that my remedy was a positive success.

Since then the remedy has cured hundreds of decrepit persons who could neither clothe nor feed themselves among them persons of 70 and 80 years. So positive am I what this remedy will do, that I have set aside 50,000 Boxes for free distribution so that other unfortunate sufferers may profit by my good luck. It is a wonderful remedy and there is no doubt that it will cure all cases given up by doctors and hospitals.

Remember that I ask you no money, simply send your name and address for free box, and should you need more you can have it at a triffing cost. It is not my intention to accumulate a big fortune out of my discovery, but what I want is to relieve misery and torture. Addr. John A. Smith, 1498 Germania Bildg., Milwaukee, Wis.
