COULD NOT LIVE IN COUNTRY, HE DIES THERE

Because His Family Would Not Move to a Farm, William Graap Takes a Last Look at His New Purchase and Puts a Bullet Through His Brain.

Unable, on account of the opposition of his family, to retire from the city to a small farm beyond the city limits which he purchased recently, William Graap, a carpenter, fifty-one years of age, yesterday went out Rice street a mile and a half beyond McCarron's lake, took a last look at the sylvan place and then he took to drinking whisky a while ago, and I could do nothing with him. He brought home a jug and kept on drinking, and when I told him to stop he said: 'What do you know about it?'

"He bought a farm out in the country a little ways, and wanted to go out there to live, but there is no house on the place, so how could we live there?"

Graap had been employed for some time by Reinhart Molitor, carpenter, 694 Rice street, and left him three weeks ago, since which time he has been at work on odd jobs about the city. Molitor said Graap had been a good workman, and he had noticed no irregularities in his conduct. "He bought a little farm on me last winter, and wanted to go and live on it, and often complained to me that his family refused to go and make a home there. I met him Friday and he seemed to be in mental distress. He said: 'I am on the warpath, and I'll do something!' I thought then that he would do something rash, for his demeanor seemed peculiar."

Bought Gun for the Deed. Friday Graap purchased a revolver at the hardware store of Depepe Bros., at 325 University avenue, and when he had the weapon said to Mr. Depepe that he would kill himself with it. Mr. Depepe immediately took the revolver from him and restored his money. Graap afterwards purchased a revolver and the shells from another dealer. He was last seen by any acquaint-scenery and ended his life with a bullet in his brain. Shortly after 1 o'clock Graap, who had walked three miles from the end of the car line station, in a quiet spot on the top of a hill and fired three shots, one of which plowed a gash two inches long and a half an inch wide just behind the right ear.

Mrs. Hennecke, who was driving to town from Bass lake, where she resides, heard three shots fired in slow succession as she neared the spot and looking in the direction from which the sound came saw a man fall by the roadside. Graap died instantly. Mrs. Hennecke, after ascertaining that the man was dead, hurried to Barney Kohn's place, two miles down the road, and told of the occurrence. Dr. A. W. Miller, coroner, was notified from there.

Suicide Was Premeditated. Dr. Miller decided that it was a case of premeditated suicide, and after an examination of the dead man said that an inquest was unnecessary. Beside the man was found a thirty-eight caliber buldog revolver, from which three shots had been fired. The remaining chambers were loaded with shells, and in his pocket was found a box of cartridges, from which but a single load had been taken.

As but one of the three shots fired entered his brain, and as his hat was torn by the bullets, it is supposed that his hand was intended to take his own life in the first two shots. He evidently had used his left hand to hold the muzzle of the revolver in place for the little finger of the left hand had been blown off.

Graap acted strangely during the past few days, and declared to several persons that he intended to take his own life. He took a dislike to his home, and Mrs. Graap had difficulty in keeping track of him. Mrs. Graap said yesterday, after hearing of her husband's death:

Had Acted Strangely. "He left home Thursday night, and I haven't seen him since. He said last week that he would kill himself, but we

REPEAL OF LAW SAVED VIERLING FROM THE PEN

But a Second Warrant May Give Him a Term in the Workhouse.

The act of the recent legislature in repealing the non-support law resulted in the discharge of Adam Vierling from police court yesterday. He was arrested upon a warrant for non-support as a felony, but when it was suggested that the law had been repealed, making the offense nothing more than a misdemeanor, the prisoner was released. Unless Vierling settles the matter with his family, a warrant will be sworn out for him under the new law.

Vierling is a car repairer for the Northern Pacific, and lives at 44 East Maryland street. Mrs. Vierling says her husband earns $50 per month, but contributes nothing to the support of the family.

The repealing of the non-support law it is believed, will result in many more convictions where the offense is non-support. The extreme penalty under the old law, of three months' imprisonment in the workhouse, whereas, under the law which was repealed, the offense meant a penitentiary sentence. On account of the severe penalty under the old law, it was impossible to secure convictions.

WAR EXPECTED ON PAVING BIDS

Interesting Figures May Be Looked for When University Contract Is Let.

One of the biggest street improvement contracts of the year will be completed Monday afternoon when the board of public works opens bids for the paving of University avenue from Rice to Dale street.

The job will cost the property owners alone, according to the city engineer's estimate, $63,000, and this is further supplemented by about $30,000 with the street car company will have to pay. The material on which bids will be made is asphalt.

What makes the competition all the more interesting is the rumor that the two asphalt paving companies, the Barber and the Conway companies, want the job, and the two intend to make some decidedly low prices.

The Conway company ever since the paving season opened in St. Paul has been steadily frozen out by the Barber company, because of the extremely low prices made by the latter, but now it is understood to be war to the knife and in consequence one of the lowest paving rates of the year can be expected.

The property owners have received a promise from the board of public works that in the event the price is too high it will be rejected, and they will be permitted to select some other material. There are nearly 250 property owners highly interested in the bids to be opened Monday and it is expected that nearly every one of them will be present at the meeting.

City Engineer Rundlett yesterday sent to the board the following estimates of cost for contemplated improvements: Sewer on Baker and Manomlin streets, estimated cost, $3,500, or $1.37 per front foot, to owners.

Sewer on Jenks street, Trout Brook to Arkwright, estimated cost, $4,000, or $1.38 per front foot, to owners. Grading Hamline avenue, Portland to Ashland, estimated cost, $800, or $1.34 per front foot, to owners.

Curbing and boulevarding Portland avenue from Chatsworth to Oxford, estimated cost, $1,190, or $1 per front foot, to owners.

Test for Yourself the Wonderful Curative Properties of Swamp-Root

To Prove What Swamp-Root, the World-Famous Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, Will do for YOU, Every Reader of the GLOBE, May Have a Sample Bottle FREE.

GENTLEMEN:—Some two years ago I was so run down that I lacked strength, had no appetite and could not sleep nights. Sometimes it seemed as though my back would break in two after stooping. I had to get up many times during the night to urinate and go often through the day. After having the best physicians prescribe for me without relief, I decided from my symptoms that the medicine I needed was Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. After trying a sample bottle with good results, I purchased six bottles of the regular size and after taking them was entirely cured. Swamp-Root is a wonderful remedy when a man is not feeling well, after exposure or loss of sleep and irregular meals. It is also a great medicine to tone up a man's system. Other members of the police force are using and recommending Swamp-Root. They, like myself, cannot say too much in praise of this great remedy.

The officers (whose signatures accompany this letter), as well as myself, thank you for the good you have accomplished in the compounding of Swamp-Root. We remain, yours very truly,

To Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. William Moore, Chief of Police. John W. Heath, Patrolman. W. H. Fredenburg, Roundsman.

Officers of the Binghamton, N. Y. Police Department.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the famous new discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone. Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often through the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night.

EDITORIAL NOTICE—Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is so remarkably successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all of our readers who have not already tried it may have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling all about kidney and bladder troubles and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. In writing, be sure and mention that you read this generous offer in The St. Paul Sunday Globe when sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root—Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PASS BALL PARK UP TO ALDERMEN

Committee on Streets Has a Hearing on the Central Park Site Project.

The scheme of a down-town ball park is now up to the board of aldermen. The committee on streets of yesterday afternoon on the proposition to locate the park at Summit avenue and Minnesota street, sent the whole thing to the board without recommendation.

As the legal representative of the Board of Aldermen, William Lindcke, includes all the big dry goods and clothing houses, G. A. Walsh presented resolutions passed by the body favoring the location of the Central Park site. He said that the board of aldermen, in its resolution, passed by the body favoring the location of the Central Park site, included all the big dry goods and clothing houses, G. A. Walsh presented resolutions passed by the body favoring the location of the Central Park site.

At previous hearings the congregation of the Central Park site was among the strongest opponents of the Central Park location, but yesterday they were decidedly in favor of it. William Phillips, of Murray's church, said nothing could be worse than the present condition of the proposed location, for that reason the church was in favor of the proposed location. The only thing the church demanded, he said, was that the site be prohibited from being used for anything but the park. He said that the board of aldermen, in its resolution, passed by the body favoring the location of the Central Park site, included all the big dry goods and clothing houses, G. A. Walsh presented resolutions passed by the body favoring the location of the Central Park site.

When the hearing was brought to a close, Ald. Hinkens demanded that an unfavorable report be adopted. He was sustained by Ald. Moriarty, but on a vote the other members refused to come to that aid. On Ald. Bantz's suggestion, the matter was then sent to the board of aldermen without recommendation.

A meeting of the board will probably be called Monday night, and then the controversy will be settled for good.

Mr. Otto Albrecht, junior member of the firm of E. Albrecht & Son, said yesterday in connection with the Globe, said that people who leave orders for repairs and new garments now are wise. "People who order repairs during the summer," said Mr. Albrecht, "will have the pleasure of an early delivery of their garments and the benefit of Mr. Albrecht's advice and information while he is fresh from his knowledge seeking tour. As to repairs, we would almost rather not have them than take them in the fall, when our shop is working to full capacity on new work."

It is obvious that the firm can afford to take repairs for less money now than it can when its shop is full of new work, and it would seem to be the part of financial wisdom for owners of furs to leave repairs for next season as early as possible.

TWOBLY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES

Prosecution Inclined to Drop the Case, as Conviction Seems Impossible.

The jury in the Twombly case was unable to reach an agreement, and after remaining out twenty-four hours, was discharged by Judge Bunn yesterday afternoon. This was the second trial of William S. Twombly on the same charge, the jury in the first case having also disagreed.

In the last trial the case went to the jury at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, but Judge Bunn would not consent to discharge the jurors until after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and it was with regret that he did so at that time.

County Attorney Kane declined to say yesterday, after the jury had been discharged, whether he would have Mr. Twombly tried again or not, but it is thought the case against him will be dropped. Public sentiment, the attorney believes, has changed considerably regarding the prosecution of cases of this nature since the first ones were called for trial, and it is believed to be almost impossible to secure a conviction at the present time.

JUDGES BELIEVE IN JUVENILE COURT

The New Law Will Be Put Into Immediate Force in St. Paul.

Hereafter juvenile offenders will not be tried in the regular police court, as has been the custom for years past. The Nolan law, passed by the legislature this winter, requiring the court room to be cleared of all persons except the court officers, witnesses and relatives during the trial of offenders under sixteen years old, will be strictly enforced in St. Paul, according to the announcement made by Judge Hine yesterday.

All such cases will be tried in the room of the civil branch of the municipal court on the fourth floor of the court house, and the most of the cases which daily frequent the police court will not be admitted. Both Judge Hine and Judge Finchout believe the law to be a good one, and will give it their hearty support.

SCHOOLS WILL GET OVER HALF MILLION

Legislature Increased the Appropriation by $211,000.

Over half a million of dollars has been appropriated for the maintenance of the schools in Minnesota. During the last legislature the appropriation was increased $211,000, and impartially mentioned among the high, graded, semi-graded and rural schools. This, with the allowance made for teachers' institutes and examinations, training schools, libraries, normal instruction, etc., makes a total of $525,500 per year.

BUILT OVER.

Food That Rebuilt a Man's Body and Built It Right.

By food alone, with a knowledge of what food to use, diseases can be ward off and health maintained; also many even chronic diseases can be cured. It is manifestly best and safest to depend upon food to cure rather than too much drugging.

A case in point will illustrate. A well known man of Reading, Pa., treasurer of a certain club there, says: "I have never written a testimonial letter, but I have been using Grape-Nuts about a year and have recovered my health and feel that you would like to write you about it, for the case is extraordinary."

"For five years I was a sufferer from a dreadful condition of the bowels, the trouble was most obscure." Here follows a detailed description and the condition certainly was distressing enough (details can be given privately). "Nothing in the way of treatment or drugs benefited me in the least, and an operation was seriously considered. In May, 1901 I commenced using Grape-Nuts as a food, and with no idea that it would in any way help my condition. In two or three weeks' time I noticed an improvement, and there was a steady gain from that time on, until now I am practically well. I don't know how to explain the healing value of the food, but for some reason, although it has taken nearly a year, I have recovered my health, and the change is entirely attributable to Grape-Nuts food, for I long ago quit medicine. I eat only Grape-Nuts for breakfast and luncheon, but at my night dinner I have a assorted meal." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ASSESSOR IS HIS OWN DEPUTY

He Thus Settles the Rose-town Trouble—Deputies Receive Instructions.

Horses will be assessed at a higher figure this year than last. Cattle, sheep, hogs and other personal property will be assessed at about the same figure as in 1902.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the town assessors held at the court house yesterday for the purpose of adopting definite plans and rules to be followed in placing the value upon personal property during the present year. This work will commence next Friday, May 1.

At the meeting yesterday Assessor Patrick Conley, of St. Paul, was chosen as president, and L. Bures, of White Bear, secretary. Others present at the meeting were I. P. Wright, representing New Canada; John Sciba for Mounds View, and O. H. Hill for North St. Paul.

The town of Rose was not represented at the meeting, except by Assessor Conley, who will assess the property in that district himself. At the time Mr. Conley named his assistants, the name of a competent man was sent to the town board of Rose town for approval, but the board turned the appointment down. This action is said to be due to County Commissioner Powers, who was disappointed in having the man selected by him turned down by Assessor Conley. Since Mr. Conley refused to name the man selected by Commissioner Powers, the latter has been in open opposition to the acts of the assessor, and upon several different occasions has attempted to interfere.

When the Rose town board turned down the appointment made by Mr. Conley, the latter informed the board that he would make the assessment himself, which was somewhat of a disappointment to the friends of County Commissioner Powers. The Powers faction contends that Assessor Conley cannot perform this work legally, and went so far as to ask the county attorney for an opinion on the question. They are said to have received but little satisfaction from the county attorney.

At the meeting yesterday I. P. Wright was selected to represent the county districts on the county board of equalization.

COVERED POKER LOSS WITH A BAD CHECK

Serious Charge Placed Against Charles A. Gillis in Police Court.

A strong fascination for the seductive little game wherein aces up, three of a kind and full houses are pleasant to look upon, landed Charles A. Gillis, a seventeen-year-old youth living at 739 Grand street, in police court yesterday.

Gillis is employed by the Milwaukee road, and on the night of April 15 is said to have induced in a game which cost him his month's salary. To cover his losses from his family, the youth is charged with having passed a bad check on the Milwaukee road.

The check purported to have been signed by the boy's father. This act resulted in his arrest and arraignment in police court. The case was continued until Tuesday.

POLICE VETERAN ON VERGE OF GRAVE

Henry Galvin, For Thirty Years on the Force, Lying Critically Ill.

Henry Galvin, the aged father of Patrolman Louis Galvin, of the Rondot street detail, is lying critically ill at the home of his son, 22 West Central avenue. His condition is regarded as hopeless by his physicians, who give him but a few days to live at the most.

Henry Galvin was one of the first police officers of St. Paul, and he was on the force for thirty years. He is now 75 years of age, and is suffering from a complication of diseases.
