BARTENDERS PUT IN ENJOYABLE DAY

Have Jolly Picnic at Harris Park—Many Exciting
Athletic Contests.

There were several exciting features in the developments of the day at the Bartenders' picnic at Harris park yesterday and most of the afternoon. These were the tug-of-war between teams of strong men from Hamm's and the Schmidt breweries. There were actually thousands of people on the grounds and interest centered, when it drifted from the principal business of individual enjoyment, in the twenty-four strong men who were to uphold the claims of their various houses.

Capt. John James Ahern directed the efforts of the Hamm's and Capt.
Nicolin did as much for the brawny ones of the house of Schmidt. No attempt was made to keep the crowds back and when the men laid down to their work they were variously encouraged by partisans who were not altogether scrupulous as to the way in which they encouraged their champions. For instance four or five strong men from the Fifth ward laid violent hands on the Schmidt end of the rope and helped the original Gozen.

"Back out of that," shouted Ahern, and he drove them away and put a policeman to guard the men and the rope. It took some minutes to start the losers, but eventually the Hamm's got their opponents going and pulled the necessary amount of rope. Then they threw down the rope. The Schmidts took up the rope and ran with it. They presented the rope at the Schmidt headquarters on the grounds and declared they had won.

"Show me," said Capt. Nicolin.
"We have the goods on us," said the heroes and they showed him the rope. Whereupon he asked them to refresh themselves and they did and it was some time before the referee was found and the truth of the matter was ascertained. Neither victors nor vanquished were thirsty then.

But the tug-of-war was only one of a long list of athletic events that made up the extensive programme.
There were foot races galore—for all ages, sexes and colors, and at all distances, races for two legs and races for three legs. Other athletic feats including high jumps and running jumps, and putting the shot figured on the programme.

The attendance was large and so was the time that all who participated in the picnic spent. The rain which which the overcast sky threatened late in the afternoon never came to dampen the ardor of the picnicers, who put in a highly enjoyable day and evening.

MINNEHAHA HALL
CLOSED TO CHILDREN

Sunbeam Band Refused Admission, and Seeds Are Distributed on Street.

The Sunbeam Band met yesterday at Minnehaha hall with the full expectation of having the building as a meeting place as prearranged by the promoter of the band, Mrs. A. E. Clark, and her associate, Mrs. C. E. Flitner.
But the hall was not to be had and the distribution of flower and garden seeds was made upon the street. Elaborate arrangements had been made for a good time and Miss Hope's orchestra, which was in attendance, was forced to retire for lack of accommodations.

Heretofore the band always had the Auditorium as a meeting place, but Mrs. Clark now fears that the destruction of that building has put an end to all the good work which was progressing so nicely.

Last year the packets of seeds were given away, but this year, owing to the objections of the patrons in seeds, who declared that it injured their business, Mrs. Clark will charge one cent for 5, 10 and 20 cent packets alike, and another distribution will be made next Saturday, from 2 till 4 o'clock, next door to Minnehaha hall.

We save you money on monuments because we are first hands and the largest dealers in the Northwest. Also iron cases. P. N. Peterson Granite Co., 104 East Fifth street.

POLICE GATHER IN A CROWD FULL OF BEER

Patrol Wagon Hauls Nine Noisy Men to Rondo Station.

The Rondo street police patrol wagon was taxed to its capacity early yesterday morning, when nine men and three officers rode in it from the corner of Kent and Edmund streets to the station.

The men were arrested for creating a disturbance at 2 o'clock in the morning in a barn in the vicinity of Kent and Edmund streets. They had a keg of beer, and time flew on unheeded till it was past midnight. As time passed they grew merrier. Finally trouble was started and a noise was made which Patrolmen Boessel, Gottfried and Tagteba quietly surrounded the barn and forced the crowd to capitulate. Those arrested gave the names of James Gerhardt, Tony Utz, George Zimmerman, W. Weber, George Weber, Ed Weber, Frank Bahr, Dick Hedman and Charles Wagner.

ALL GROCERS AND DRUGGISTS

THREE MEN CALLED AWAY BY SUDDEN DEATH

Dr. Edgar T. Schmidt Dies at His Residence Five Minutes After Returning From a Professional Call—John Mattson and Peter Hansen Found Dead in Their Beds.

Three residents of Ramsey county—two of whom lived in St. Paul and the other at Turtle Lake—were victims of sudden death yesterday. They were a physician, Dr. Edgar T. Schmidt, of 519 Grand avenue, a laborer, John Mattson, of 75 Phelan creek, whose death was due to asthma, and a carpenter, Peter Hansen, of Turtle Lake, whose death was due to apoplexy.

In the forenoon, when he left his house to make a professional call, Dr.
Schmidt was apparently feeling as well as usual. He returned shortly after the hour, and, complaining of feeling depressed, asked the servant to make him a cup of coffee.

While the girl was preparing the coffee, Dr. Schmidt lay down on the sofa. Five minutes later, when the girl arrived with the coffee, Dr.
Schmidt was unconscious.

Mrs. Mattson, wife of H. J. O'Brien and Henry Hutchinson were sent for, but when they arrived they pronounced Dr. Schmidt dead.

Dr. Schmidt had occasionally complained of heart trouble, and it was the opinion of the physicians, from a superficial examination, that death was due to that cause.

Dr. Schmidt was forty-eight years old, and had been engaged in regular practice in St. Paul for sixteen years.
He is survived by his wife and two children. Mrs. Schmidt is a sister of Theodore L. Schurmeler.

John Mattson and Peter Hansen died in their beds. Death in both cases was unexpected. Dr. A. W. Miller, coroner, was called and viewed the remains of each.

EXTOLS VIRTUES OF
THE "SCIENTIST-SAINT"

Rev. Dr. Boyle Pays Tribute to the Achievements of Henry Drummond.

Rev. W. H. W. Boyle, at last evening's services of the House of Hope, delivered an address entitled, "Henry Drummond—An Appreciation," and while his discourse was chiefly given to eulogium of the "scientist-saint," as he termed him, it also contained a sermon on pure intellect and lofty vision.

Quoting from Phillips Brooks the observation that "No man has come to the age of fifty without having had his life belted in some measure to the race," Dr. Boyle said that just as Milton still lived in his "Paradise Lost" and Taylorson in his "Memoriam," Henry Drummond would continue to live in his works and the example which his life furnished.

One of the reviewers of Henry Drummond as having said that he was "a man of most absolute sincerity backed by an extraordinary ability to think straight," and he recalled the college life of Drummond and gave emphasis to the value of his example to those with whom he was associated.

Discussing the achievements of Drummond Dr. Boyle said that he had done as much as any man that ever lived to reconcile science and religion.

STEALS A RIG FOR A DRIVE TO ST. PAUL

Police Recover Horse and Buggy Belonging to a Minneapolis Man.

An unknown horse thief from Minneapolis, who evidently stole a horse belonging to J. C. Gage, of that city, for no other purpose than to take a drive to St. Paul, was caught early yesterday morning at the corner of Western and Como avenues.

The horse was noticed standing unattended at 5 o'clock in front of 322 Como avenue. A Rondo street officer first saw the animal which was attached to a single seated rig. Inquiry among the neighbors failed to reveal the owner and the description of the lost animal and buggy placed it in a lively barn near the Rondo street station.

Upon receiving a message from the Minneapolis police to the effect that a horse and rig had been stolen. The description of the lost animal and buggy corresponded with the appearance of the rig found.

J. C. Gage was notified through the Minneapolis police, and he came over last night and claimed his property.

The horse being stolen Saturday evening. The thief evidently drove over from Minneapolis and left the horse on the corner of Western and Como streets the person or persons who left the horse.

MAN HED HIM AND WOMAN ROBBED HIM

D. S. Pierce Waylaid on Street and $50 Taken—Woman Arrested.

D. S. Pierce, night bill clerk of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul freight house, says he was held up early Saturday morning when on his way from work to his home.

Friday had been pay day, and he had $50 in his pocket when he left the office shortly after midnight. He went up Jackson street to Eighth street and was turning down that street, when he says he was seized about the arms and body by a powerful man, who came up behind him.

Pierce says that he struggled to get free, but his efforts were in vain. He cried at the top of his voice, and continued his struggles for several moments.
In the meantime, Pierce says a woman who was with the man holding him went through his pockets and secured his money.

As they were at their work Detective O'Brien, who was attracted by the cries, appeared and seized the woman. The man dashed down Eighth street and was lost in the darkness.

Upon searching the woman $40 of the money was recovered, but the other $10 could not be found. It is thought that she handed it to the man when arrest was imminent. The woman was placed under arrest.

Biggest Day Yet
33,914 Votes Cast Saturday 254,543 TOTAL VOTE CAST TO DATE

With the close of the present week the Free Trip Contest will have but three more weeks to run. The real fighting will begin with next week, and it is expected that fully twice as many ballots will be cast during the remainder of the contest as were voted up to Saturday.

So far the competitors have been content to play a waiting game, and none of them has given any genuine indication of what he or she can do when put to the test. It would be well for every entry in the competition to bear this in mind. The real strength of no single candidate has been developed, and there is no telling where the latent strength is being hoarded for the final dash for victory.

The fact that a dozen persons have a fair start should not discourage the weakest entry. The race is to be won during the next three weeks, and no contestant has any the best of his competitors. There will be a series of surprises every week from now to the close of the contest. Dark horses are being groomed, and the standing of the entire ten competitors who are now leading in the race may be changed at any time. Ballots have been coming into the office of The Globe in a steady stream, and the count each week will disclose some interesting developments.

Miss Bessie Emanuel's name was accidentally left out yesterday morning.

Myron Hager, the popular candidate of the Standard Oil company, is not in the trust, and can be voted for without fear or favor. He has always lived in St. Paul and has been brought up to read The Globe (The Brightest and Best), and from its teachings has become a staunch Democrat. This is no doubt, accounts for his amazing popularity, for "All Democrats Are Popular." It is your pleasure you can vote for him early and often.
There's no rule against repeating.

Oscar Dahlby, Moorhead's favorite candidate in The Globe's contest, formerly hailed from St.

sition with the Wheeler Land company, and is still connected with that concern. Outside of working hours Mr. Dahlby keeps busy getting yearly subscribers for The Globe at 700 votes per. This accounts for his high standing in the contest.

FARMERS PURCHASE
ALL OF PRISON'S
TWINE

Entire Output Amounting to 7,000,000 Pounds, Is Sold Direct to Them—Prices
This Year Nearly 2 1/2 Cents a Pound Less Than Jobbing Price.

The entire product of the binding twine factory at the Stillwater penitentiary has this year been sold to farmers for the first time in the history of the institution.

As they were at their work this year is about 20 per cent greater than last year, and the price averages about 1 cent per pound lower on all grades.
Last year the binding twine factory at the prison manufactured 5,500,000 pounds of twine, of which 1,400,000 pounds were sold to dealers, after all farmers' orders had been filled. This year the prison will make about 7,000, 000 pounds of twine, up to Aug. 1, when the factory is closed for the annual cleaning and every pound has been sold to farmers.

The prices this year are about 2 1/2 cents per pound less than the jobbing price at which twine made by private concerns is sold to dealers. Last year the price of the prison-made twine was about 1 1/2 cents less than the jobbing price of similar grades of twine.

The scale of prices as fixed this year is: standard, 3 1/2 cents; 3 1/2 cents; standard and manilla, 2 1/2 cents; 600 foot manilla, 10 1/2 cents; pure manilla, 11 1/2 cents.

Cheap Raw Material.
The cause of the low prices made for prison twine is largely due to the sagacity of Warden Wolfe in buying the raw material as the outlook for the first the last fall was for higher prices for last year's production.

The sisal was bought in Yucatan where it is grown, without the intervention of brokers.

It has always been the practice to sell as much of the twine direct to farmers as possible, and notes are taken for the twine, and notes are payable after the crop is harvested.

Heretofore the orders of farmers have not consumed the entire production of the prison, and late in the spring the twine that remained was sold to dealers at the same price at which it was offered to farmers.

As this price has for several years been below the jobbing price of other ways anxious to get a chance to buy state twine.

The price as fixed by the state board of control is intended only to cover the actual expenses of the twine factory including raw material, and yield a surplus of about $50,000 to provide for wear and tear of the plant.

SABBATINA REGIENA
USES RAZOR IN FIGHT

Cuts Joe Fredrico a Deep Gash in the Hand and Is Arrested.

In a fight at the "Bucket of Blood," at South Washington and Eagle streets, early this morning, Sabbatina Regiena drew a razor and cut Joe Fredrico, 192 South Washington street, a deep gash in the right hand. The fight started over an argument and Regiena pulled the razor.

The two combatants clinched and a serious ending was probably averted by Robert Carmine, proprietor of the place, who interfered with a revolver.
Regiena was arrested and Fredrico was taken to the Central police station, where his wound was dressed by Police Surgeon Stevens.

OMAHA UNIONS ARE LOSING THEIR STRIKES

Teamsters Decide to Return to Work—Laundries Reopen.

OMAHA, Neb., May 17.—The strike of trades unionists in Omaha seems to be nearing an end, so far as the resumption of business is concerned. The first break in the teamsters' ranks came today when twenty-five men employed by one of the large delivery companies decided to return to work. A meeting of the teamsters' union today also decided to withdraw the objectionable features of their demands on employers, but it was stated the latter would also demand a lower scale of wages. Tomorrow several of the large downtown restaurants will reopen their places with non-union men, most of whom are colored. The employers have not made a concession thus far and state that the plan of arbitration proposed by the strikers will not be considered. Tomorrow the laundries will open with non-union men, although a number of the old employees will be reemployed.

DULUTH TEAM TRIMS
WOLFS OF STILLWATER

Northern League Club's Pitcher and Errors Cost Prison City the Game.

Special to The Globe.
STILLWATER, Minn., May 17.—The team representing Duluth in the Northern league today defeated the Joseph Wolf company team of Stillwater by score of 7 to 3, largely by reason of errors on the part of the home team and Mueller's excellent work in the box for Duluth.
The game was never in doubt after the first inning, when a combination of his strong throwing and his home run netted four scores for the visitors. Dellar pitched good ball for Stillwater, but his support was bad. Batteries—Stillwater, Dellar and Brown; Duluth, Mueller and Strick out, by Dellar 7, by Mueller 10; hits, Stillwater 6, Duluth 6; errors large; umpire, Henry Martin.

lic inspection today. It is expected the

SHOOTING WAS A
PURE ACCIDENT

No Ground for Rumor That Kate O'Rourke Purposely Discharged Revolver.

Chief of Police John McCormick, of South St. Paul, yesterday made an investigation of the circumstances attending the shooting of L. Thomas, commission merchant, by Kate O'Rourke, domestic, employed at the Fischer hotel, Saturday morning.

Chief McCormick said last night that there was no ground for the rumor that the shooting had been deliberate.

All the witnesses positively assert that there was nothing to create the impression that the shooting was anything but accidental. Miss O'Rourke declares that she had no intention of discharging the weapon at Thomas or any one else.

After Thomas' wound had been dressed he called at the hotel and assured the girl that he believed the shot to have been accidentally fired.
He expressed a wish that she be not arrested. "If I have done or said anything to offend you," said he, "I hope you will forgive me."

Policeman John Englemeyer yesterday examined the girl and the witnesses, and they gave exactly the same account of the affair as has been published.

Miss O'Rourke says that she was cleaning the house when she came across a revolver belonging to her cousin, John Glynn, which he had left upon a dresser, and she says she picked it up, thinking it to be a toy pistol belonging to one of the children. Pulling the trigger the shot was discharged, passing through an open window, striking Thomas in the cheek, passing out below the ear and lodging in a barn across the street.

Thomas' wound is but slight and it appears will soon be healed unless complications set in.
