

New Fashions in Furnishings

THE newest fancies in Men's Furnishings and the most tasteful selections are always here.

This Spring's Display is notably beautiful.

Our Neckwear includes all the proper shaps in newest silks and colorings. Exceptionally good values at 50 cents.

In Shirts we're always considerably in advance in showing the new ideas. Here you have an almost unlimited assortment of patterns, including the justly celebrated "Star" and "Manhattans," to choose from at $1, $1.50 and $2.

Cloves in new shades, medium and light-weight Underwear, Collars and Cuffs, Handkerchiefs and all the requisites of the well-stocked and well-selected wardrobe.

Browning-King & Co.

C. E. HASSON, Manager. Seventh and Robert.

HIGGINS' LONG DRIVE WINS GAME FOR SAINTS

With Bases Filled in First Inning the Little Second Baseman Lines Out Three Bagger and Kelley Men Are Never Headed—Ferguson and Stimmel Have Pitchers' Battle.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Table with columns: Club, Played, Won, Lost, P.C. Includes teams like Indianapolis, Milwaukee, St. Paul, etc.

GAMES TODAY.

Minneapolis at St. Paul. Milwaukee at Kansas City. Toledo at Louisville. Indianapolis at Columbus.

BY BILLY MAC.

Eight thousand paid and a team of two free paper filled the stands at Lexington Park and spilled over onto the playgrounds yesterday afternoon in order to see the Saints lambast the Orphans from up river in a most exciting encounter. Score, 3 to 1.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The crowd was one of the largest ever seen at a league game at Lexington park. Minneapolis sent fully one-half of the rout.

The Saints won the game in the first, Higgins' three-sacker sending in the three runs.

McIntyre started the finish in Saturday's game with his three-sacker, but the game was different. The big, low struck out the first time up, when two men were on bases, and after that sent up easy flies.

McCreary hit the best bunker on the Orphan team, but yesterday he fell down, Wheeler running in under his attempt.

Sullivan used his head in the sixth, when Yeager scored the only run the Orphans secured. Oyer was on first and Yeager on second, when Oyer started to throw a double, instead of throwing back to the pitcher to get the runner out, he threw a ball to the pitcher and allowed Yeager to score.

Stimmel fanned two of the three slaves in St. Paul's part of the eighth and Ferguson came back and fanned two of three Orphans in their part of the ninth.

No close plays offered Cunningham a chance yesterday, but the umpire conceded in his judgment of balls and strikes.

The Saints and the Minneapolis team will play one of their postgame games at Nicollet park, Minneapolis, this afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Without Waiting for Forwarded Evidence the League Leader Rejects Protest of St. Paul Club and Assesses Kelley $100 for Allowing Saturday's Game to Be Forfeited.

Friday—Manager Mike Kelley of the St. Paul baseball team is suspended by President Hickey for "tearing the blouse of the umpire" during the game played at Lexington park Thursday afternoon.

Sunday—Manager Mike Kelley of the St. Paul baseball team is fined $100 by President Hickey for allowing the game played at Lexington park Thursday afternoon to be forfeited to Minneapolis.

Without waiting to receive the sworn evidence promised him by Manager Kelley, St. Paul team and accepting as final the report of Umpire Cunningham, President Hickey, appearing before the board of directors of the league yesterday, saw no reason for interfering with Acting Captain Shannon and the St. Paul players, who were protesting against the demand for a ball that had been put out of play.

Section 2 of Rule 14 of the American association rules provides: "For each championship game two new regulation balls shall be furnished by the home club to play in the game. When the ball in use is batted to foul ground and out of sight of the umpire the other ball, known as the alternate ball, shall be used. As often as one of the two in use shall be lost a new one must be substituted so that the umpire shall have at all times after the game begins two balls in his possession and ready for use. The moment the umpire delivers an alternate ball and shall not be exchanged until the umpire passes out of sight on foul ground."

This is the rule published in the book declared by President Hickey to be the official guide of the American association. The facts of the Saturday affair follow:

Martin sent a long fly to foul ground beyond the left field bleachers. Umpire Cunningham made no protest when Geier was called back after he had started for the ball and with the ball lying neglected on this far-away foul ground, Cunningham threw out the alternate ball the rules compel him to carry. The umpire had evidently been carrying a third ball, for, after furnishing the alternate ball to Pitcher Vols, he still had the second ball ready for use.

The game resumed and Cunningham made no request for another ball until Joseph S. Yeager, of the Minneapolis team, called his attention to the fact that the St. Paul bat boy was carrying the fouled ball in to the St. Paul bench.

Yeager carried the ball in his pocket. The rules say that the words that the umpire is through with the ball "when it is batted to foul ground and out of sight of the umpire." Cunningham then deliberately proceeded to spoil the afternoon by insisting that this particular ball be returned to him by Yeager, not taking any chances on a fast finish by the St. Paul team, naturally urged the umpire on, knowing that the St. Paul players, believing the umpire behind the ball, would refuse to furnish the ball.

That is the correct report of the affair as seen from the stands. The ball players and spectators who were nearer the scene of trouble tell more of these men make their statements after having sworn. Manager Kelley has secured the facts of the matter and these sworn statements to President Hickey.

W. F. Shannon, center fielder of the St. Paul team, who is a high-handed man, has already demanded that he would hold the crowd waiting all the while for the ball to be returned to him, and that he would get the particular ball he wanted or continue the delay.

Charles C. Ferguson, pitcher of the St. Paul team, says that when the bat boy returned the ball to the St. Paul bench he dropped it into a grip containing at least a dozen balls. The hearing in the clubhouse was a request for the ball, he attempted to find it and furnished several balls to the umpire, all of them being refused.

James Jackson, first baseman, swears to a statement confirming Shannon's affidavit, and that he also asked Umpire Moran how many balls were necessary according to the rules, and that this umpire answered, "Two."

Edward Wheeler, third baseman, swears that Cunningham attempted to conceal the fact that he had one ball beneath his blouse and that when he Wheeler, grabbed this ball and pulled it from under the blouse Cunningham attempted to hide the name and threatened to assault him.

PRESIDENT HICKEY FINES MANAGER KELLEY

Without Waiting for Forwarded Evidence the League Leader Rejects Protest of St. Paul Club and Assesses Kelley $100 for Allowing Saturday's Game to Be Forfeited.

Friday—Manager Mike Kelley of the St. Paul baseball team is suspended by President Hickey for "tearing the blouse of the umpire" during the game played at Lexington park Thursday afternoon.

Sunday—Manager Mike Kelley of the St. Paul baseball team is fined $100 by President Hickey for allowing the game played at Lexington park Thursday afternoon to be forfeited to Minneapolis.

Without waiting to receive the sworn evidence promised him by Manager Kelley, St. Paul team and accepting as final the report of Umpire Cunningham, President Hickey, appearing before the board of directors of the league yesterday, saw no reason for interfering with Acting Captain Shannon and the St. Paul players, who were protesting against the demand for a ball that had been put out of play.

Section 2 of Rule 14 of the American association rules provides: "For each championship game two new regulation balls shall be furnished by the home club to play in the game. When the ball in use is batted to foul ground and out of sight of the umpire the other ball, known as the alternate ball, shall be used. As often as one of the two in use shall be lost a new one must be substituted so that the umpire shall have at all times after the game begins two balls in his possession and ready for use. The moment the umpire delivers an alternate ball and shall not be exchanged until the umpire passes out of sight on foul ground."

This is the rule published in the book declared by President Hickey to be the official guide of the American association. The facts of the Saturday affair follow:

Martin sent a long fly to foul ground beyond the left field bleachers. Umpire Cunningham made no protest when Geier was called back after he had started for the ball and with the ball lying neglected on this far-away foul ground, Cunningham threw out the alternate ball the rules compel him to carry. The umpire had evidently been carrying a third ball, for, after furnishing the alternate ball to Pitcher Vols, he still had the second ball ready for use.

The game resumed and Cunningham made no request for another ball until Joseph S. Yeager, of the Minneapolis team, called his attention to the fact that the St. Paul bat boy was carrying the fouled ball in to the St. Paul bench.

Yeager carried the ball in his pocket. The rules say that the words that the umpire is through with the ball "when it is batted to foul ground and out of sight of the umpire." Cunningham then deliberately proceeded to spoil the afternoon by insisting that this particular ball be returned to him by Yeager, not taking any chances on a fast finish by the St. Paul team, naturally urged the umpire on, knowing that the St. Paul players, believing the umpire behind the ball, would refuse to furnish the ball.

That is the correct report of the affair as seen from the stands. The ball players and spectators who were nearer the scene of trouble tell more of these men make their statements after having sworn. Manager Kelley has secured the facts of the matter and these sworn statements to President Hickey.

W. F. Shannon, center fielder of the St. Paul team, who is a high-handed man, has already demanded that he would hold the crowd waiting all the while for the ball to be returned to him, and that he would get the particular ball he wanted or continue the delay.

Charles C. Ferguson, pitcher of the St. Paul team, says that when the bat boy returned the ball to the St. Paul bench he dropped it into a grip containing at least a dozen balls. The hearing in the clubhouse was a request for the ball, he attempted to find it and furnished several balls to the umpire, all of them being refused.

James Jackson, first baseman, swears to a statement confirming Shannon's affidavit, and that he also asked Umpire Moran how many balls were necessary according to the rules, and that this umpire answered, "Two."

Confirmation of Assessment for Sewer on Lexington Avenue and Other Streets.

Office of the Board of Public Works, City of St. Paul, Minn., May 14, 1903. The assessment of benefits, costs and expenses arising from constructing a sewer on Lexington avenue, from Dayton avenue to Portland street, league avenue, from Oxford street to Lexington avenue; Laurel avenue from Oxford street to Lexington avenue; Ashland avenue from Oxford street to Lexington avenue; Port Washington street from Lexington avenue to Lexington avenue, in the City of St. Paul, Minnesota, having been completed by the Board of Public Works, in and for said city, said Board will meet at their office in said city, at 2 p. m. on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1903, to hear objections (if any) to said assessment, at which time and place, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, said assessment will be confirmed by said board.

The following is a list of the supposed owners and the amounts assessed against the same, to-wit:

Table with columns: Supposed Owner, Description, Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Alice C. Meyer, Fredrick W. Hartman, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Wm. R. Travers, Mrs. Annie Bailey, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Frank L. Wilcox, Joe E. Raymond, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Mary S. Johnson, Henry L. Lee, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Mary S. Johnson, Edw. E. Simmonds, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Assessment of Assessment for Sewer on Lexington Avenue and Other Streets.

Office of the Board of Public Works, City of St. Paul, Minn., May 14, 1903. The assessment of benefits, costs and expenses arising from constructing a sewer on Lexington avenue, from Dayton avenue to Portland street, league avenue, from Oxford street to Lexington avenue; Laurel avenue from Oxford street to Lexington avenue; Ashland avenue from Oxford street to Lexington avenue; Port Washington street from Lexington avenue to Lexington avenue, in the City of St. Paul, Minnesota, having been completed by the Board of Public Works, in and for said city, said Board will meet at their office in said city, at 2 p. m. on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1903, to hear objections (if any) to said assessment, at which time and place, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, said assessment will be confirmed by said board.

The following is a list of the supposed owners and the amounts assessed against the same, to-wit:

Table with columns: Supposed Owner, Description, Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Alice C. Meyer, Fredrick W. Hartman, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Wm. R. Travers, Mrs. Annie Bailey, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Frank L. Wilcox, Joe E. Raymond, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Mary S. Johnson, Henry L. Lee, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like Mary S. Johnson, Edw. E. Simmonds, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

Supposed Owner and Description. Lot, Block, Benefits. Lists names like John S. Kimball, Louis N. Dixon, etc.

As well be out of the world as out of fashion. Pilsener Beer advertisement with illustration of a woman in a long dress.

With the Amateurs. Advertisement for amateur baseball games.

Proceedings in Bankruptcy. Advertisement for legal proceedings.

United States District Court. Advertisement for court proceedings.

United States District Court. Advertisement for court proceedings.

United States District Court. Advertisement for court proceedings.