KING PETER HAS NO IDEA OF PUNISHING THE REVOLUTIONISTS

New Servian Ruler Content to Allow Matters to Remain as They Are—Former Minister of Servia Says Alexander Had Planned to Assassinate Over a Score of His Oldest Subjects and His Taking Off Was an Object Lesson to Russia.

Special Cable to The Globe. GENEVA, June 23.—The new king of Servia entered his dominions this morning. "All alleged interviews with King Peter ascribing to his majesty a determination to punish the Servian revolutionists are not only canards, but canards embodying nonsense," said Dr. Danitsch, an ex-minister of Servia and one of the distinguished party that left here last night as escort to the new king. "But how about Russia's demands?" he was asked. "We have nothing to fear on that score," Dr. Danitsch replied. "Russia is playing a part. This was a case where assassinations were indispensable for the unfeathering of a spirited and freedom-loving people. The execution of King Alexander was meant as an object lesson to Russia as much as to Servia itself. "Our nation is independent by virtue of great sacrifices and it intends to remain independent. In the abstract the Servians deplore the assassination as much as anybody, but the late king was himself an assassin, in heart as well as a man of the constitution. "Alexander's last plans provided for the assassination of more than a score of his ablest subjects. He could have escaped death had he yielded to the demand for abdication, but he refused. SALOON MEN WANT TO HEAR CARRIE Invitation is Out for Kansas Smasher to Address Liquor Dealers at Their State Convention.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, the famous Kansas saloon smasher, may have an opportunity of having a heart-to-heart talk with the dispensers of that article of commerce against which she is making such a pyrotechnic campaign—whisky and other beverages allied with the saloons. She will be invited, if she can be found, to address the Minnesota State Association of Retail Liquor Dealers, now in convention in Minneapolis. Ed Rohrbeck, a

St. Paul saloonkeeper and a member of the board of directors of the association, will personally extend the invitation. He made an effort to locate the woman, who, like George Washington, made the hatchet famous, yesterday, but didn't succeed in locating her in Minneapolis last evening. He said he would make another and more careful effort when he reached St. Paul. "It would be interesting, indeed," said Mr. Rohrbeck, "to have her address the saloonkeepers." "Yes, indeed, it would," spoke up several other delegates who happened to be near, while another and more conservative member chimed in, "Don't you do it; just pass her up." Whether Mrs. Nation therefore does address the convention remains to be seen. She has often expressed her feeling regarding them, and often said she would like to have an opportunity to talk to them.

HERE'S A KNOCK-OUT FOR W. S. DEVERY

Can't Get His Man on the Tammany Executive Committee.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 23.—The court of appeals today sustained the judgment of the lower court in the case of Peter J. Garvey against the New York County Democratic committee and well known Tammany leaders reversing an order of the special term which directed a peremptory mandamus requiring recognition of Garvey as a representative of the Ninth assembly district, controlled by former Chief of Police W. S. Devery. The decision is a defeat for Mr. Devery in his efforts to secure a place on the executive committee of Tammany Hall.

Son of Late J. I. Case Shoots Brother and Runs Away.

RACINE, Wis., June 23.—Great alarm is felt among the members of the Case family because of the disappearance of Roy Case, aged thirteen, son of the late Jackson I. Case. They fear that the boy has committed suicide by jumping into the lake or otherwise. He had accidentally shot his brother Jerome through a leg. Not knowing how serious the shot was, he ran away. He was traced to the lake and has not been found. Searching parties are out after him.

CONVICTED OF FRAUD IN NATURALIZATION

Where Did the Syndicate Get the Blank Certificates?

NEW YORK, June 23.—Luigi Casatta was convicted today of naturalization frauds. His conviction is the first among the many persons arrested, Francisco Pallato, another of the indicted, pleaded guilty. The allegation is now made that naturalization papers, properly signed and sealed, but with no names written in ink of the persons to whom they were issued, have reached and been used by the fraudulent citizenship syndicate. One of the Italians under indictment, Roberto Bunnaro, is said to have offered, if granted immunity, to reveal the source from which these certificates were obtained.

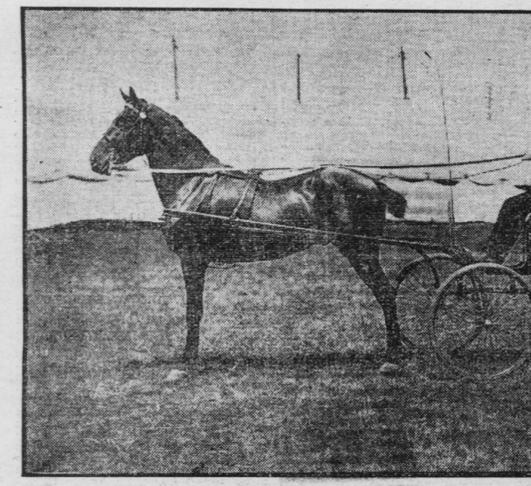

SOCIETY SETS ITS APPROVAL UPON THE GREAT HORSE SHOW

Gay Assemblage of Beautiful Women and Handsome Men Makes More Brilliant the Opening of the Big Event at Lexington Park—Display of Equines Exceeds Anything Ever Before Seen West of Chicago.

L. N. SCOTT IS PLEASED. "We are very well pleased with the patronage of our first night," said Manager L. N. Scott, "although we could accommodate a great many more people, and hope that they will come when they learn what has been prepared for their entertainment. We have certainly provided a great horse show, the greatest ever given anywhere west of Chicago, and it is now up to the public to contribute the one element of success that we cannot furnish—patronage. The attendance of this evening we consider very good for the first night, but we hardly feel that it is as good as the show deserves."

Society stands sponsor for the 1903 horse show! In well-arranged boxes grouped on one side of a crimson oval that represented the exhibit ring, beautiful women gazed with delighted appreciation at beautiful horses, and smartly attired men, content to form the background, divided their glances between the two.

SMALL ARMY HUNTING A BAD HOOSIER DOWN

Ex-Convict Shoots Promiscuously and Says He Won't Be Taken Alive. LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 23.—Panhild detectives, sheriffs of two counties, police from several cities and several farmers this afternoon started in pursuit of Willard Herrell, an ex-convict, who has terrified Cass and Miami counties for the past twenty-four hours. Herrell, fully armed, has sworn he will not be taken alive. The posse is closing in on a clump of woods and will shoot Herrell if they get within range. Monday Herrell "mused himself" by shooting "travelling" men in the Lake Erie depot at Bunker Hill. Then he visited a saloon and shot out the mirrors. On the way home he shot at everybody in sight, breaking the windows of a passenger train, several passengers narrowly escaping death. He met John Shively and told him to prepare to die. Shively leaped a barbed wire fence and fled. Herrell sending a shower of bullets after him. Shively had testified against Herrell when Herrell was tried for the murder of William Condon, a penitentiary sentence following Herrell's conviction.

ROONEY IS A VERY HARD MAN TO HANG

But Hang He Must, a Curious Legal Complication Being Cleared Up.

Special to The Globe. FARGO, N. D., June 23.—The supreme court today decided that the death sentence of John Rooney, convicted of murder here last August, must be carried out. Rooney and two other men attempted to hold up the three Sweet brothers, of White Earth, Minn., who were camped near Fargo, en route to the harvest fields. Harold Sweet was killed. His brothers captured Rooney and the other men escaped. The prisoner was convicted and during the trial the legislature passed a law, changing the place of executions from counties in which crimes occurred to the state penitentiary. It also changed the time that must elapse between sentence and execution to six months, instead of three. Judge Pollock, of Fargo, was not informed of the latter change and sentenced Rooney to be hanged June 26. When notified of the error the prisoner was returned and his attorneys appealed on the ground that the new law provided an additional penalty to that in practice at the time of conviction, in that the condemned man must be confined six months instead of three months preliminary to execution and that the latter must occur in the penitentiary instead of the county jail. The supreme court's decision upholds the new law, and Rooney's execution will be the first to occur in the pen. Rooney had formerly been under arrest charged with holding up farm laborers in the fall.

BULLS IN COTTON MAKE TEN MILLIONS

Brown and Associates, of New Orleans, Emphatically Hold the Fort.

Special to The Globe. NEW ORLEANS, La., June 23.—W. P. Brown, the man who has been building cotton for the past four months, bid 14 cents a pound today for June, July and August options and failed to get a single bale. His opponents on the bear side of the market were completely routed. The price of the staple on the local exchange showed conclusively that cotton is a very scarce article. It was said on the exchange today that Brown and his friends could have forced the price up to 15 cents or even higher had they desired. One of the bull clique made the statement that since Feb. 1 Brown and his immediate associates have cleared over $10,000,000 on the long side of cotton. Today's market was the greatest bear panic seen in the city. Boot and Shoe Firm Attached. BOSTON, Mass., June 23.—The wholesale boot and shoe firm of Lamkin & Foster has been attached by creditors. FRENCH ARTISTS ARE AFRAID OF ST. LOUIS

Say Their Work Will Be "Shamefully Copied and Stolen on All Sides."

Special Cable to The Globe. PARIS, June 23.—M. Landrin, the member of the municipal council who led the discussion in that body yesterday regarding the grant for the St. Louis fair exhibit, said today: "The council's vote of $10,000 would have been much larger if the councilors could have believed that any adequate protection exists in the United States for industrial or art works sent from abroad. Otherwise the French will continually have the worst of the bargain. It cannot be denied that if Americans skillfully and economically use ideas, the ideas themselves generally originate in France." French artists and manufacturers show their willing intention to send exhibits, but complain that there is little doubt that their work will be "shamefully copied and stolen on all sides during the exhibition." Speculation on Russian Fleet. LONDON, June 24.—It is believed that the fast cruiser section of the Russian volunteer fleet, which is lying idle at Sebastopol and Odessa, is being held in the Black sea for military exigencies, says the Odessa correspondent of the Times. He adds that it is reported that an intimation was given June 20 to the commanders of these vessels that there is a possibility of their being requisitioned to fly the naval flag this year.

Former Minneapolis Preacher Is Considered Unbalanced Temporarily.

Special to The Globe. DENVER, Col., June 23.—Rev. S. W. Sample is accused by the humane bureau of cruelty to his two little sons, aged six and four years. Loss of his wife and financial distress causing temporary aberration of mind are believed to have led to the father's unaccountable actions. For some trivial or imaginary offense, it is charged, that Mr. Sample last Saturday choked and beat Rexford Tucker Sample, his eldest son, aged six. The child, standing in the humane office two days after the assault, lifted his pretty curls from his neck and exhibited the purple marks and bruises of his father's fingers. Special to The Globe. DULUTH, Minn., June 23.—Through the uncovering of a bottomless pit near Bibon, Wis., traffic on the Omaha road, between St. Paul Ashland, has been brought practically to a standstill and passenger trains due to leave the Wisconsin end of the route today, including the Twilight Limited, were called off. The pit is on the edge of a swamp, a short distance from Bibon. The track began sinking at that point several days ago and a crew was sent to make repairs. The men have been at work steadily since that time and have dumped in over two hundred loads of gravel into the mire, without appreciable effect. The pit is only fifty feet wide.
