

THE WEATHER:
In St. Paul and vicinity today:
Fair.

THE ST. PAUL GLOBE.

The Housewife is the Purchasing Agent, for the Home. She buys her supplies
DURING THE DAY. She finds out where the Best Bargains are to be had by reading the Advertisements in the MORNING PAPER. . . . .

VOL. XXVI.—NO. 104.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 23, 1903.—TEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS. On Trains,
FIVE CENTS.

BORNE TO ST. PETER'S BY TORCHES' LIGHT

Body of Pope Leo Is Taken From the Throne Room of the Vatican and Placed in the Basilica—Slowly Marching Feet Keep Time to Chant of Priest and Intonation of Choir—Vast Church Is Cleared of Idle Crowds and Fenced Off—Long Unused Door Is Broken In.

ROME, July 22.—Tonight the body of Leo XIII. lies in state in the basilica of St. Peter's. Beginning tomorrow at sunrise the people of Rome and those of all nations now in the Eternal City will be admitted to pay their last farewell. Opportunity for this tribute will end Saturday.

Until 5 o'clock this afternoon the remains of the dead pope lay in the throne room of the Vatican, where the leaders of the diplomatic, clerical and civil world were allowed to pass the bier. The ceremonial tonight, when the body was conveyed from the throne room to St. Peter's, was one of the most striking of all the obsequies.

During the day the congregation of cardinals met and decided to hold the conclave under the identical regulations which obtained at the conclave which elected Leo.

Some hours before sundown St. Peter's was cleared of idle crowds. The massive doors were closed and the throng of sightseers was pushed back to the foot of the great flight of circular stone steps. Half a hundred carpenters hastily constructed a fence five feet high to resist the encroachments of the crowds which are expected during tomorrow and the two following days. The fence extends directly across the colonnade and in it are two narrow entrances which will give ready means of controlling the ingress and egress of the throngs.

From the Throne Room.
At 8 o'clock this evening all was in readiness to take the body of the pope from the Vatican to the basilica of St. Peter's. The mournful procession gathered around the bier, which was gently lifted by the sedan, who in the lifetime of Leo XIII. had carried him in the sedia gestatoria. The dead pontiff was now clad in all the pomp of his holy office. About him had been placed the sacerdotal robes used only when he celebrated a grand mass. The vestments were those which he wore for the last time in life in the hall of the consistory June 25 last. The golden mitre, the gilded steel, the white cape, the red chasuble, the pontifical pallium and the papal tunic, all were there. Nothing which was emblematic of the pope that was wielded by the dead man for more than a quarter of a century and for centuries by his predecessors had been omitted.

Leading the procession as it passed out of the throne rooms came the

Continued on Third Page.

OLD HEADS THWART YOUNG HEARTS BY USE OF TELEPHONE

Young Earl Palmer of Mankato and His 16-Year Old Sweetheart, Ella Burgess, Prevented From Securing License.

Strenuous use of the long-distance telephone, objection on the part of relatives, and the tender age of the applicant, combined to defeat the intentions of Earl Palmer, the seventeen-year-old son of George Palmer, of Mankato, who ran away from his home yesterday morning and came to the Twin Cities for the purpose of securing a license for his marriage to Miss Ella Burgess, a pretty sixteen-year-old girl, of Bethany, Mo.

Miss Burgess formerly lived in Mankato, and when she returned to that town a few days ago to visit among friends the childish affection which had existed between her and young Palmer was renewed with such vigor that they determined to wed at once. Paternal consent was altogether out of the question, so the youthful lovers planned a way of their own, to be effected only at the last moment. Miss Burgess took a sudden notion to go to Minneapolis to visit her aunt there, so she informed her Mankato friends, the plan being for young Palmer to meet her there and secure a marriage license. Yesterday morning the boy left home early and sought out Miss Burgess in Minneapolis, where she was staying at the home of her aunt. Together they went to the clerk's office in the court house and applied for a license, but they had waited too long. The girl's aunt had become suspicious, and soon after the couple left her house, telephoned the clerk of

Continued on Fourth Page.

HARVEST FIELDS OF THE NORTHWEST IN NEED OF 15,000 MEN

Owing to the Big Crop the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Issue a Call for a Large Army of Laborers.

The harvest fields of Northern Minnesota and North Dakota are calling for 15,000 men. The reports received by the Northern Pacific from their agents in this territory show that this many hands will be needed, and give ample opportunity to secure work from the first part of August until well into the autumn, at wages of from $2 to $3 per day.

The replies received from the various agents have been tabulated, so as to give the number of men needed at each station, the date when harvesting will begin, and the wages paid. The Northern Pacific has already prepared a circular giving this information, which is being sent to general and district passenger agents, and a similar circular is in process of preparation at the Great Northern offices. It is worthy of note perhaps that the demand of many Minnesota stations has decreased, as compared with former years. This, it is claimed, is due to the increase in more diversified farm operations and dairying, which require more hands the year round, but do not make so great a concentration of hands during the harvest season, as do regions where grain growing is still the chief form of agriculture. Of the fifty-five stations on the Northern Pacific, which are clamoring for harvest hands, only eleven are in Minnesota, the remainder being North Dakota points. Practically the same

Continued on Eighth Page.

CHINA REFUSES TO OPEN TOWNS IN MANCHURIA

President of Foreign Office Says China Cannot Grant Open Door Where Russian Troops Are in Possession.

PEKIN, July 22.—Prince Ching, president of the foreign office, has written to United States Minister Conger refusing to open towns in Manchuria. In his letter he dwells upon the impossibility of China opening to foreigners towns which are not in her possession, but which are held by Russian troops, and points out the complications which would be likely to follow. It is believed here, however, that a compromise may be reached by including one town—Ta Tung Kiao—in the new commercial treaty.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Inasmuch as the Chinese government very recently has expressed its willingness to yield to the desires of the United States for open ports in Manchuria, the officials here are at a loss to understand the communication of Prince Ching refusing this concession. They have received no advice on the subject. However, impressed with the heretofore expressed willingness of China to open Manchurian ports, reinforced by the assurances given to this government by Russia along the same lines, the officials continue firm in their belief that the situation ultimately will be clarified and the efforts of the United States be rewarded. In some quarters the objections urged to the opening of ports in Prince Ching's communication are regarded as a mere diplomatic quibble, designed, perhaps, to placate Russia.

FALSIFIED DIARY TO GET PER DIEM

On This Charge Charles Hedges, Superintendent of Free Delivery, Is Removed—He Makes No Denial, but Claims the Charges Did Not Warrant Removal—Hedges Is Accused of Having Been in Mexico Examining Mining Properties While Ostensibly Elsewhere.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Charles Hedges today was removed from the office of superintendent of free delivery of the postoffice department on the charge of falsifying his diary and loaning his traveling commission. It is charged that he reported himself at various places, when in fact he was not at those places on the dates mentioned, in some instances being hundreds of miles away.

Mr. Hedges, while making no general denial of the charges, contended that they were not sufficient justification for removal. Ervin H. Thorpe, postoffice inspector in charge at New York, who has been assisting in the administration of free delivery service since the investigation began, has been designated as acting superintendent in place of Mr. Hedges.

As Bristow States It.
The following statement of the case made public today by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, after receiving the charge as given above, says: "On Oct. 25, 1900, he states under oath, in his diary, that he was at Joplin, Mo., on 'extension of free delivery service,' and when in fact he was in Mansfield, Ohio, attending the funeral of former Secretary John Sherman. On Dec. 7, 1899, he reports himself at San Antonio, Tex., 'investigating carriers' service,' while in fact he was in Mexico examining mining property. In October, 1899, A. W. Machen, superintendent of free delivery, was sick with typhoid fever and Hedges was at the department acting as superintendent. In his diary he states, under oath, that he was 'at various places, namely, New York, Philadelphia, Bridgeport, Conn., Camden and elsewhere,' actually engaged in traveling on the business of the free delivery service.

In Lieu of Expenses.
"Assistant superintendents of free delivery are allowed a per diem of $4 per day in lieu of expenses for each day engaged actually traveling on the business of the department. Hedges' false statements as to his whereabouts on these days were manifestly for the purpose of collecting per diem to which he was not entitled. There are many other instances of similar falsification. The facts were submitted to the postoffice department some days since and the postmaster general directed Hedges' removal for the reasons above set forth."

The case was worked up by Postoffice Inspector George Sutton, assisted

Continued on Fourth Page.

PAYS HEAVY PRICE FOR JEERING

Act Is Means of Winkle Being Held for Robbery and Murder and May Involve Third Party.

Special to The Globe.
LA CROSSE, Wis., July 22.—Max Winkle, a young farmer of Arcadia, has been bound over to the circuit court without bail on a charge of having robbed and murdered James Campbell, an aged and wealthy Arcadian farmer, whose mangled remains were found in a pool near his farm house in May.

The holding of Winkle for the crime practically clears up a mystery which baffled the authorities for nearly two months. Winkle was arrested on suspicion aroused by his jeering attitude toward the case. He still jeered when in court. The testimony was damaging. It is believed that a second party to the murder will be arrested within a short time. The indifference of the prisoner aroused the suspicions of the officers and it is now believed that Winkle, if guilty, had an accomplice, and if not guilty, knows the murderer.

ROCKY FORK COAL COMPANY ABSORBED

Northwestern Improvement Company Will Take It Over in August.

Special to The Globe.
RED LODGE, Mont., July 22.—As a result of a general reorganization scheme with the Northwestern Improvement company, of Tacoma, Wash., which owns and operates all the Northern Pacific's coal properties, the property of the Rocky Fork Coal company, in Red Lodge, will all be sold Aug. 27. Assistant Secretary R. H. Reif, of St. Paul, has given notice of a meeting of the stockholders of the Rocky Fork Coal company on the date named and at that time the Northwestern Improvement company will absorb the Rocky Fork company through the medium of a nominal sale. The meeting will be held in Red Lodge.

In seven years the Northwestern Improvement company has grown from a comparatively small concern, with properties producing only 250,000 tons of coal annually, to a corporation owning six splendid properties, three of them—Clealum, Ravendale and Melron—are in Washington, and in Montana are Red Lodge, Mountain Side and Chestnut. These properties last year produced 2,225,000 tons of coal. This year they will produce 2,500,000. The property in Red Lodge is one of the best.

DULUTH GETS BRITISH VICE CONSULATE

It Will Take the Place of the Office Abandoned in St. Paul.

Special to The Globe.
DULUTH, Minn., July 22.—William Wyndham, British consul to the United States, with headquarters in Chicago, is in Duluth, arranging for the opening of a vice consulate in this city, to take the place of the one abandoned three months ago in St. Paul. Mayor Hugo, at his suggestion, will submit a list of local Englishmen, one of whom will be appointed. The vice consulate has been maintained in St. Paul for many years in charge of E. H. Morphy.

TWO SHOTS SAVE A WOMAN'S WEALTH

Burglar Almost Makes a Very Rich Haul at La Crosse.

Special to The Globe.
LA CROSSE, Wis., July 22.—An attempt was made at 2 a. m. to burglarize the residence of Mrs. Louise Withee, one of the wealthiest women in this city, and the firing of two shots at the burglar was all that prevented one of the richest hauls ever made here. The house was practically loaded with valuables. The burglar made his escape.

THE NEWS INDEXED.

- PAGE I.
Cassius M. Clay Dies.
China Won't Open Towns.
Seven-Year-Old Wanders in Woods.
Call Issued for 15,000 Harvest Hands.
Marriage License Refused Elopement Couple.
Head of Free Delivery Removed.
- PAGE II.
Jail Law Is Violated.
Officials Object to Moving.
G. E. Griffith Finds Son in Grave.
- PAGE III.
Thirteen Horses Perish.
Minneapolis Matters.
- PAGE IV.
Editorial.
Opening Swedish Concert.
- PAGE V.
St. Paul Ball Game.
Baseball.
Shamrock III. Caught in Fog.
Detroit Races.
- PAGE VI.
News of the Northwest.
- PAGE VII.
Of Interest to Women.
Short Story.
- PAGE VIII.
News of the Railroads.
Wants.
- PAGE IX.
Markets.
- PAGE X.
Clash in Dairy Convention.

LITTLE ONE WANDERS AT NIGHT IN WOODS

Separated From Her Companions Florence Hamilton Has a Terrifying Experience.

Florence Hamilton, seven years old, living at 1044 Hudson avenue, had a remarkable experience in trying to find her home yesterday afternoon. The little girl had been playing with companions and became separated from them in the woods. When she sought to find them she wandered away in the wrong direction, and the more she walked the farther she got from her home.

It was 4 o'clock when she lost her way and she continued to wander, looking in vain for familiar sights, till late at night. As the shadows of night began to fall she became alarmed and looked forward with terror to passing a night in the woods. She fell to the ground and cried aloud, little knowing where she was. Being near a road the cries of the girl were heard by Fred Ewart, 1700 Terwin street, who was driving by. Ewart stopped his team and walked among the trees in the direction in which he had heard the sobs and there he found the little girl, foot sore, weary and despairing. She was unable to tell Ewart where she lived, so Ewart turned about and took the girl to the Margaret street police station. In her wanderings the girl had gone as far as Hazel Park.

The girl's parents had reported her disappearance to the police and they were notified when the child was brought in by Ewart.

WHAT HAS BECOME FRANK OF JUNEMAN?

Disappears on the Eve of Marriage With $1,500 in His Pockets.

Special to The Globe.
HURON, S. D., July 22.—Excitement has been occasioned here by the mysterious disappearance of Frank Juneman, a blacksmith in the employ of M. L. Tobin. Mr. Juneman failed to keep an engagement of a business character Monday evening. He was engaged to marry a very estimable woman of this city, the preparations being practically completed, and the date of the ceremony near at hand.

The business engagement referred to was the perfecting of a deal for residence property in this city, to be occupied by the couple, and for which furniture had been selected. Juneman spent much of the time Sunday with his betrothed, leaving her late at night to go to his rooms, since which time no trace of him has been had. He had on his person at least $1,500, and this fact leads to the belief that possibly foul play has been practiced. The case is being investigated.

TRAIN BREAKS IN TWO.

Sections Come Together and Three Men Are Fatally Hurt.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., July 22.—Two men were probably fatally injured and a third seriously by the collision of two parts of a freight train which broke in two at the top of a hill near Weedon station on the Northwestern road. The injured were Dwight Munger, Milwaukee, conductor, serious internal injuries; Otto Dorner, brakeman, Kaukauna, Wis., and W. F. Peterson, Winona, Minn., internal.

CLAY DIES WITH HIS FAMILY AROUND HIM

Children Long Estranged Meet At the Death Bed of the Strange Old Man.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 22.—Gen. Cassius Marcellus Clay, ambassador to Russia under President Lincoln, noted abolitionist and author, died at his home, Whitehall, in Madison county, tonight. Death was due to general exhaustion.

Gen. Clay was born Oct. 9, 1810, in Madison county. He led a stirring life, which began to tell on him in late years. He believed that a conspiracy to assassinate him had been formed and some years ago fortified his home at Whitehall and entered a life of seclusion that ended only a few weeks ago, when the courts appointed a committee to take charge of him and his effects.

He was found desperately ill and had had every care. His children, long estranged by reason of his eccentricities, were again able to be with him and were at the bedside when death ensued. The surviving children are Brutus J. Clay, prominent in national politics, of Richmond; Miss Laura Clay, noted as an exponent of woman suffrage, Lexington; Mrs. Dabney Crenshaw, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Mary Barclay and Mrs. James Bennett, of Richmond, Ky.

The Parent—Here son, I guess you'd better go back to the dime novel.

BOY SAVES SEVEN DROWING MEN

Tommie Davey Pulls From Shore in a Skiff to Where Capsized Yacht Party Is Struggling in the Lake.

Special to The Globe.
CHICAGO, July 22.—Rowing a tiny boat into the teeth of a raging squall, thirteen-year-old Sammie Davey went to the rescue of seven business men of Chicago who were trying to save themselves from the stormy waters of Silver lake after being capsized in the yacht of J. M. Krause, a real estate dealer.

A. W. Hawkes, J. O. Krause, Henry Krause, Robert E. Turney, B. C. Hawkes, W. C. Reglin and B. W. Vonsyckle were the guests of J. M. Krause at his summer home on Silver lake. They went out sailing on the Eldera and were capsized by a sudden squall. The waves were dashing over their heads as they clung to the sides and rigging of the overturned craft, and for awhile it was thought that Benjamin Hawkes had gone down. He was discovered by his brother, however, and rescued half drowned from beneath the sail. The men were meanwhile growing weak from exhaustion, and the high wind prevented their cries from reaching the shore. In the nick of time little Sammie Davey discerned them through the mist and jumping into the only small boat near he bravely pulled out through the waves and gale to their rescue. At last he reached the capsized yacht and taking in four of the men drew the rest ashore by letting them catch hold of the sides of his boat. He dropped the oars from weariness before the return trip was accomplished and one of the rescued men took the oars. The men held a meeting and voted their rescuer a gold medal.

BAPTIZED IN WATER FROM RIVER JORDAN

Infant Son of F. E. Ward, of St. Paul, Is Central Figure in Pretty Ceremony.

Special to The Globe.
WINNIPEG, Manitoba, July 22.—A pretty event was solemnized at St. John's cathedral when the infant son of F. E. Ward and wife, of St. Paul, was christened. The archbishop of Ruperts Land performed the ceremony. The baptismal water was drawn from the River Jordan and carefully sealed and brought here for use at this event.

At the close of the ceremony the guests repaired to the residence of E. L. Drewry, where light refreshment was partaken. The table was most artistically arranged, a christening cake looming up as a fit centerpiece, surrounded by spindles containing delicately shaded sweet peas. The health of the wee guest was proposed, followed by showers of good wishes.

ELECTRICITY KILLS THOUSANDS OF BIRDS

Blackbirds That Were a Pest in Ohio Town Come in Touch With Wires.

Special to The Globe.
HAMILTON, Ohio, July 22.—When the people of Oxford awoke this morning after last night's storm they were surprised to see the streets of the town fairly covered with dead blackbirds. For a long time myriads of these birds have made the dense trees that line Oxford streets their roost, to the great annoyance of the citizens.

Electric light wires were run through the rows of trees and last night a terrific thunder storm blew the water-soaked limbs across the live wires, cutting off the light service. It is supposed that these caused the trees to become charged with electricity, which played havoc with the birds. They were killed outright, stunned and fell to the street where they were drowned in the surface water. In front of one house 425 birds were picked up. All told 3,250 birds were picked up and counted, in addition to those carried off by boys.

Norwood Will Have Gas Plant.
Special to The Globe.
NORWOOD, Minn., July 22.—The proposition to bond the village in the sum of $4,000 for installing a gas plant was carried at a special election today by a vote of 78 to 22. The plant is expected to be completed in six weeks or two months.

WHOLE FAMILY IS POISONED IN ST. PAUL

John Heint, Wife and Four Children Eat Pork With Deadly Germs.

John Heint, a tinsmith, his wife and family of four children are lying critically ill at their home, 469 Webster street, suffering from ptomaine poisoning. Yesterday morning the symptoms became apparent and since then each member of the family has been seized. Dr. E. W. McCord, who attended the family, says that the poisoning is due to germs in pork which the family had eaten a few days ago.

CANNON WILL NOT DEFY THE COUNTRY

Says He Won't Oppose Financial Legislation if the People Want It.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 22.—Congressman Cannon, of Illinois, visited the president today. Mr. Cannon said it was not certain whether or not the house would take up for consideration financial legislation at the extraordinary session in November. It has been stated that Mr. Cannon is opposed to any agitation of the financial question and that he would exercise his power as speaker of the house, after his election, to prevent any legislation looking to changes in the present currency system. These statements do not reflect accurately his views. He does not approve of some of the proposed financial measures, but indicates that if there be a substantial sentiment next fall in favor of currency legislation he will not stand in the way of it.

Bangor Bank Reorganized.
Special to The Globe.
LA CROSSE, Wis., July 22.—Today the reorganized Bangor bank was opened under the name of the State bank of Bangor. It will be owned and managed by D. W. Cheney and W. Williams, of Sparta, and has a capital of $25,000. The failure of the bank a week ago caused a sensation among the farmers of Western Wisconsin, and trouble as a result was narrowly averted. The new owners have assumed all liabilities.