

CARDINAL LOGUE SPEAKS FOR GOTTI

Because the Latter is a Member of a Religious Order It Does Not Follow That He Is Narrow Minded, Declares the Irish Prelate—Too Much Weight Should Not Be Attached to the Personality of the New Pope Inasmuch as Commissions of Cardinals Really Govern.

ROME, July 29.—Cardinal Logue, Archbishop of Armagh, had an interview today with Cardinal Gibbons. When asked what he thought of the objections frequently mentioned against Cardinal Gotti being elected pope on the ground that he is a member of a religious order would prevent him from dealing in a broad spirit with Catholic problems in America and Great Britain, Cardinal Logue said to a reporter: "It is absurd. Cardinal Gotti was formerly an internuncio and has mixed with the representatives of the various powers as well as anybody. Just because he is Carmelite it does not follow that he is narrow-minded. Moreover, it is unreasonable to attribute too much weight to the personality of the new pope. International matters and internal policy are now almost invariably settled by commissions of cardinals, who, certainly under the late Pope Leo, have directed their departments just as much as the heads of departments of a civil government direct their departments."

gregation the forms to be used in voting at the conclave were distributed among the cardinals in order that each might be able to learn how to employ his ballot. After the meeting Cardinal Oreglia requested the cardinals to visit their cells and be prepared at tomorrow's meeting to present any complaint which they may have. Superstitious people here find an omen in the fact that Cardinal Rampolla drew Apartment No. 58, which in the book of the lottery stand for South and consequently, they come to the conclusion that fate has marked him to be the next pope. Cardinal Agilii has relinquished his cell near the Sistine chapel, to Cardinal Cretoni, on account of the latter's illness. Over the door of each of the cells has been placed the coat-of-arms of the cardinal who is to occupy it. Should all the sixty-two cardinals now in Rome enter the conclave it will be the most numerous attended in history. The conclave which elected Leo was attended by sixty-one cardinals. In the past popes have been elected by as few as nine. The ecclesiastics who are to watch the sliding doors, which will be the only means of communication between the conclave and the outside world, have been requested to be present at the Vatican at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon to assume their duties. The sliding doors will be opened only between 9 and half past 11 o'clock in the morning, and between 5 and 7 in the evening. At all other times they will be locked.

BALLOON MUST SKIP THIS FARM

Nebraska Man Uses Injunction as Well as Shotgun to Even Up With Aeronauts.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. OMAHA, Neb., July 29.—A temporary injunction issued in the court of Judge Dickinson here this afternoon reads that a balloon which ascends twice daily from Courtland Beach must not descend on the farm property, destroying crops or frightening the live stock of Claus Neelsen. The balloon has fallen many times on Neelsen's property. To recover their airship the aeronauts have been forced to pay lately sums ranging from $2 to $5, and a few days ago the farmer stood guard over the canopy with a shotgun and demanded $20. The big bag was recovered by writ of replevin. To even up, Neelsen today secured the temporary injunction against King Murphy, the parachute professor, restraining him from making ascensions in such a manner that the balloon would fall upon his land.

JAPS WON'T YIELD TO "SUCH JINGOISM"

Russian War Minister Says Bulk of Mikado's Nation Opposes War.

LONDON, July 29.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail reports that Gen. Kuropatkin, the Russian minister of war, who has just returned from the Port Arthur conference, expressed himself as pleased with the results of his tour and that he communicated to the czar the opinion that, although a fairly strong party in Japan wanted war with Russia, the bulk of the nation was too sensible to yield to such "jingoisim" and that the mikado was well disposed toward Russia.

MAN IS GROUND TO PIECES IN MACHINERY

Oscar Erickson Loses His Life and Another Is Badly Hurt at Crookston.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. CROOKSTON, Minn., July 29.—This evening a shocking accident terribly mangled Oscar Erickson and severely injured Henry Schurmer, both of this city. The accident occurred at the Crookston water works and power house, where both of the men were employed in installing the new water wheels.

Erickson and Schurmer, with Manager Peterson, were adjusting one of the big wheels when the planking upon which they stood gave way and Erickson, stepping back unconsciously, was caught in the cogs of the machinery and ground to pieces before the eyes of his companions. Schurmer, in his efforts to rescue his doomed man, was also caught and had it not been for the cool head and quick action of Manager Peterson he too would have gone into the fatal cogs. As it was one of his legs was broken in several places and he received serious internal injuries.

German Socialists Amalgamating. BERLIN, July 29.—A proposal is on foot to amalgamate the National Socialist party and the Radical Union, and it is said that a national Socialist congress, which will meet at Goettingen Aug. 29 and 30, will undoubtedly agree to the amalgamation.

ELEVEN MEMBERS OF MOB ARE ARRESTED

Danville Authorities Exact Penalty for Night of Terror.

DANVILLE, Ill., July 29.—Eleven persons were arrested today on a charge of participating in the lawless outbreak of Saturday night when the jail was attacked in an effort to lynch James Wilson, a negro. The grand jury has been ordered to reconvene on Monday to indict the leaders of the mob. Of those arrested today only one gave bond. A guard has been placed around the hospital where five men who were members of the mob are receiving treatment for their wounds.

CROSS ARCTIC CIRCLE IN AUTOMOBILE

American Couple Leave Copenhagen on a Novel Adventure.

COPENHAGEN, July 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Giddens, of Lowell, Mass., left here this afternoon in their automobile in an attempt to cross the Arctic circle. The United States consul here accompanied them to Elsinor. The automobilists received an enthusiastic send-off from a great crowd at the starting point.

FREIGHT CONDUCTOR CRAWLS FIVE MILES FROM FATAL WRECK

E. E. Clements Is at Last Located in a Farm House Some Distance From Scene of Accident—His Wife Visits Him.

Severely injured in the Great Western collision, E. E. Clements, conductor of the freight train No. 1 at Viasaty, Minn., Sunday morning, made his way as best he could to a farm house five miles distant from the fatal wreck. He is lying there ill as a result of his injuries. Mrs. Clements, wife of the conductor, returned to her home, 121 South Wabasha street, last evening from a visit to her husband. "My husband is badly hurt," said Mrs. Clements, last night, "and I do not expect him back home till he is able to be on his feet. I cannot say when he will be home. "I received word from him Monday that he was at the farm house," continued Mrs. Clements, "and I set out immediately to find him. I found him in a serious condition, suffering from injuries. "He will not speak about the wreck and does not want anyone else to speak of it in his presence. "How he got to the farm house from the scene of the wreck and how he managed to cover five miles in his condition is more than I can understand."

Clements arrived at the farm house Sunday afternoon in an extremely exhausted condition, having crawled most of the way. He collapsed when he was taken into the house of the farmer and it was hours before he was able to tell who he was. The people cared for him and applied restoratives. He was so weak from the combined effects of the injury he had received and the anxiety over the wreck that the farmer feared he might not recover. A physician was summoned and under his care Clements has gradually improved. Firemen Hickey and Keene, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. George, the other St. Paul people injured in the wreck, are making favorable progress. The Great Western road has cleared away the debris resulting from the collision and repaired the track.

JUDGE KELLY SAYS LABOR MAY COMBINE TO ENFORCE STRIKE

Decision Denying Injunction to Boss Plumbers Is Most Liberal in Its Definition of the Rights of the Unions.

In years past labor unions were regarded with suspicion and strikes held to be criminal conspiracies. Of course it followed that everything done in furtherance of a strike was unlawful. Methods of business have changed as the times have changed and the eternal principles of justice never change, the applications of these principles to modern conditions are less drastic than formerly. It is now conceded by all courts that men may form these unions with the purpose thereby to better their conditions. They may demand a reasonable increase in wages, shorter hours of labor and the like. They may seek to increase skill in their trade, to prevent overcrowding, to encourage others to enter their union. They may endeavor to enforce these demands by concerted action, may lawfully quit their employers in a body, and, provided no force or other unlawful means be employed, may endeavor to make their strike successful. Judge W. L. Kelly.

Judge Kelly, in the Ramsey county district court, in a decision handed down yesterday, denied the application of the boss plumbers for an injunction against the striking journeymen plumbers, holding the methods employed by them in conducting their strike to be lawful in every respect. The decision is considered one of the greatest victories gained by union labor in years. The application for an injunction against the journeymen plumbers, who are members of Local Union No. 24, of the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers, grew out of the strike declared by the plumbers June 12, when they demanded and were refused an advance in wages from $4 to $4.50 per day. Following the strike, it was alleged by the boss plumbers that the men

SENATOR DAVIS' WIDOW BECOMES MRS. HUNTER DOLL

Hearts of Other Admirers Are Reported Aching—The Couple Will Forthwith Build an Apartment House in St. Paul.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—Mrs. Anna Agnew Davis, widow of Senator Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota, was married today at noon to Hunter Doll, late of Knoxville, Tenn. Doll is in the brokerage business in Washington and has known his bride only three months. The ceremony took place at the winter residence of the bride, 1634 S street, and was witnessed by a small party of the personal friends of the couple. Rev. Mr. Dunlap, of St. John's church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride looked unusually handsome in trailing dress of Maltese lace and pompadour silk. The robe came from Paris, and received its final touches of readjustment only this morning. The entire effect was a cameo tint, with just enough of color to make an artistic concession to bridal white when donned by a widow.

Since Senator Davis' death his widow has maintained a home in this city. Last year she began to mingle slightly in general society again, although still wearing mourning. She spent six months abroad, mainly in England and Scotland. The acquaintance with Mr. Doll which led up to the wedding was made quite accidentally, and only a few of their friends were aware of their intentions; but it is suspected that at least one foreigner and one other very devoted admirer are very keenly regretting that Mr. Doll crossed their path and won the lady. Mr. and Mrs. Doll did not tarry here today after the wedding breakfast. The bride made a quick change of toilet from the lace dress to a very smart costume of fawn-colored green.

NO PERSONAL FIGHT, SAYS CHAMBERLAIN

Colonial Secretary Does Not Want to See the Economic Battle Degenerate—House of Commons Passes Sugar Convention Bill and Joseph Favors Prohibition as Against Countervailing Duties—The British Have Secured Their Object Only by Suggesting Retaliation.

LONDON, July 29.—The house of commons today passed the sugar convention bill to its second reading by a vote of 224 to 144. In the debate Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, defending the bill, said: "For twenty-five years we have tried to secure the voluntary abandonment of bounties. It was only when we changed our policy and suggested retaliation that we secured the object for which we had struggled so long and so escaped a condition of things under which Germany and Austria would be able to regulate the price of sugar in Great Britain." Mr. Chamberlain said he believed the bill would not increase the price of sugar, but, by giving greater stability and certainty to the trade, would benefit the West Indies. Referring to the possibility of losing the American market, he said: "If we had only treated the West Indies fairly there is no reason why they should not now be supplying us with the greater part of our demand. The government has a choice between prohibition upon the question of countervailing duties. Mr. Chamberlain did not touch directly upon the fiscal question, but incidentally remarked: "We are on the eve of a great economic fight and it behooves everybody to keep cool as long as possible and not turn an economic into a personal fight."

PERSIANS WET BLANKET REFORM

They Butcher Every "Babi" They Can Find and Blow One From the Mouth of a Cannon.

LONDON, July 30.—The Times this morning describes serious religious riots in the city and province of Yazd in Central Persia, which lasted more than a fortnight. The outbreak was directed against religious reformers called Babis. In the city for two days every Babi found was butchered by the rabble and the mutilated bodies were dragged through the streets, followed by exultant crowds. Houses were looted and women beaten and killed and finally the priestly leaders of the riot enjoined the populace to bring all the remaining Babis before them or the governor for judgment. The governor refused at first to yield to the threats of the mob, but his palace was surrounded by menacing men and the following day he consented. One Babi taken before him was blown from the mouth of a cannon and another was killed and dragged through the town. Order, it is reported, has been restored, but the Babis who escaped are in hiding. Yazd has a population of 40,000. It is a walled city surrounded by a deep trench and is famous for its bazaars. Among the population are many parseees (fire worshippers), this being nearly the only place in Persia which they inhabit.

KING WILL EXPLORE CONNEMARA COUNTRY

Queen Alexandra Gives $2,500 for the Poorest of the Irish.

DUBLIN, July 29.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King Edward and Queen Alexandra aboard, which left Bunorana, on the north coast, yesterday, arrived at Killybeg Bay, on the west coast, today. Their majesties were accompanied by the Earl of Dudley, lord lieutenant of Ireland. Despite the inclement weather, they landed on the Mayo side of the bay and afterwards proceeded in a motor car through the picturesque scenery of that portion of Ireland, inspecting many of the laborers' cottages on the way. Tonight the warships in the bay are illuminated and bonfires are burning on the surrounding hills. Tomorrow their majesties will travel by motor car through the Connemara country. Queen Alexandra has given the Earl of Dudley $2,500 for distribution among the poorest people of Dublin and other parts of Ireland.

CHINESE REFORMERS ARE DISCOURAGED

Reactionary Element, as Usual, Has the Ear of the Queen Dowager.

PEKIN, July 29.—The Chinese who are advocating government reforms have been terrorized by the re-adoption of the old policy of repression, as instanced by the recent arrest at Shanghai of Chinese editors on charges of sedition. These arrests are interpreted as indicating that the extreme conservatives are in the ascendancy and that the government has determined to suppress the freedom of speech which has prevailed since the upheaval of 1900. The names of forty residents of Peking, who are accused of liberal tendencies, were presented to the dowager empress today by the reactionary officers and were recommended for severe punishment. Those accused are considered guilty of only what in enlightened countries would be termed legitimate criticism of the government. This is said also to be true of the native journalists imprisoned at Shanghai, except in the case of two of them, who suggested that the assassination of Manchur rulers as a remedy for China's troubles. All foreigners and progressive Chinese are deeply interested in the decision which the ministers will make on the question of turning over the native editors arrested at Shanghai to Chinese for probable torture and execution, as happened in the case of the Chinese spies, who were turned over to the Chinese officers at Shanghai during the Japanese war.

ENGLISH BANKER QUOTES PRESIDENT M'KINLEY

Testimony on the Necessity for the Reduction of the Tariff.

LONDON, July 29.—Gov. F. O. Schuster, at a meeting of the Bank of London, today made a reference to the British fiscal controversy, which met with the approval of a large gathering of citizens. While he welcomed an inquiry into the fiscal policy of the government, the whole tenor of Mr. Schuster's remarks was opposed to tampering with free trade. He expressed the belief that the United States was within "measurable distance of adopting free trade," and in support of this said he had a private interview with the late President McKinley, two years ago, in which the latter said: "My tariff bill has done its work. We have been able to build many great industries in a short time, and now gradually, but inevitably, our tariff must be reduced." Mr. Schuster contended that America's industrial position under protection was "not entirely attractive, nor are its workmen contented."

LOSES REASON AND LIFE THROUGH RIOT

Fate of the Wife of the Man That Threw Evansville Into Tumult.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 29.—As a result of the recent riot in Evansville the wife of Robert Lee, a negro, who shot and killed Policeman Louis Massey and thereby caused the lawless demonstration, lost her mind and was killed today by a train while crossing the railway bridge near Madisonville, Ky. The woman left Evansville on the night of the riot.

JEALOUS WIFE KILLS WEST VIRGINIA GIRL

Mrs. Davis Was Angry Because Her Husband Loved Sadie Evans.

THACKER, W. Va., July 29.—Mrs. William Davis, of Warfield, Ky., enraged because her husband loved Sadie Evans, a neighboring girl, shot Miss Evans to death with a rifle. Mrs. Davis escaped.

CHILD IS SMOTHERED IN A POTATO SPOUT

Little Arthur Stenstrom Falls Into a Vortex of Death.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. MORA, Minn., July 29.—Arthur Stenstrom, the fifteen-months-old son of John Stenstrom, of Knife Lake, who lives a few miles from this village, today fell into a spout made for conducting potatoes to a pit and was smothered. The spout was made smaller at the bottom than at the top.

O, MUCH BETTER, THANK YOU!

SPECULATES ON HER SOUL AND DIES

Miss Anna Poston, Actress, Shoots Herself as an End to Trouble.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Miss Annie Poston, an actress, twenty-four years old shot and killed herself today in a room at the Inter Ocean hotel. Miss Sally Price, her roommate, said that Miss Poston had been grieving over something for the last two weeks and had made frequent references to suicide, asking what would become of her soul if she destroyed herself. Miss Price replied that such an act would result in eternal punishment. Miss Poston then asked: "What have I done that my soul should be tormented on this earth and go condemned into the next?" A muffled shot was heard in the hotel this afternoon and when the door of Miss Poston's room was broken open her body was found lying across the bed with blood flowing from a bullet wound above the heart. From letters found in Miss Poston's possession the police learned that she had a sister, Mrs. Hattie Welme, living in Binghamton, N. Y.

NO MONEY TILL HE PROVES HIS SANITY

John Malzacher Has All Kinds of Trouble Because of His Father's Will.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. LA CROSSE, Wis., July 29.—Because Alois Malzacher, a wealthy farmer, believed before his death that his son would go insane before reaching the age of thirty years, his fortune was so tied up that John Malzacher, the son, could gain no part of it until he had established his sanity at that age. The peculiar provisions of the Malzacher will were filed in county court here yesterday, when John Malzacher, himself a prosperous farmer now, made application to have a new trustee appointed because Frederick Gerke, named as trustee by Alois Malzacher, had failed to sign his bond. The court held the failure to sign the bond a simple oversight, and Gerke has again been appointed trustee. One of the provisions of the remarkable will is that if the son should be in want he may be given a limited amount of the money at periodical times. Though the heir to the tied-up estate has several times been in want, pride kept him from going to the door of Gerke, an enemy, for any portion of the fortune. Such will be started to have the estate, consisting of large tracts of rich farming lands, turned over to the heir.

SPANISH CONSUL LOSES EXEQUATUR

Just Because Venezuelans Regard Him "Chief of the Pillagers."

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, July 29.—The Spanish consul at La Guayra, Venezuela, has been deprived of his exequatur, according to passengers who have just arrived from La Guayra. The action is the result of friction between the consul and the local authorities over the Spanish claims in his district against Venezuela. The passengers say that the local authorities established a commission to revise the claims presented by Spaniards and other foreigners to the mixed tribunals under the terms of the Bowen protocols. This commission was composed of military officers who were said to have been appointed for the purpose of intimidating witnesses. The Spanish consul requested the authorities to attend the meetings of the commission. It is alleged that the prefect of the commission, a former actor, replied in a letter in which he spoke of the consul as "the representative of pillagers," and subsequently distributed printed copies of the letter in the streets of La Guayra. The federal authorities are then said to have withdrawn the consul's exequatur without notifying the Spanish minister.
