

CUTICURA OINTMENT Purest of Emollients and Greatest of Skin Cures.

The most wonderful curative of all time. For Torturing, Disfiguring Skin Humours. And Purest and Sweetest of Toilet Emollients.

Cuticura Ointment is beyond question the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humours of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases, by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humours, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all other remedies fail.

TWIN UP THE RIVER VISITS THE SAINT AND SEES THE SHOW

Minneapolis Contingent Headed by Queen Ahn Takes in the Carnival—Ancient Order of Hibernians to Parade This Evening.

The other twin showed her appreciation of St. Paul's effort in the jollification purveying line by turning out in good strength last night at the carnival and the attendance, in spite of the somewhat arctic temperature, compared favorably with that of any night during this week.

MISS HELEN A. MARKS

Queen of the St. Paul Carnival

sisted of representatives from the Retail Dealers' association, the Elks and the Minneapolis Commercial club, acting as an escort to Ex-Queen Ahn Dallahger of the June carnival, and on its arrival the procession was formed for the march to the carnival grounds with the reigning queen, Helen, and Ex-Queen Ahn riding in the same carriage.

The Saint was There. The Saint himself also turned out to welcome Minnie and occupied a carriage directly behind the two queens. He wore a very comfortable smile and an electrically lighted halo.

Following the saint came the Minneapolis contingent, many of them wearing looks of amazement as they viewed the tall buildings along the line of march and saw the vast crowds.

On arrival at the grounds by far the largest proportion of the crowd at once made its way to the Midway and the Tingle Tangle and both these popular resorts were well patronized.

The Tingle Tangle, especially, was crowded and every seat was occupied. In the Midway President Schurmeier introduced the Minneapolis delegation and extended to them the freedom of the grounds. Mr. Munzer, of Evans, Munzer, Pickering & Co., responded for the visitors and cordially thanked the management for the invitation extended to them.

The two queens sat together, in the custody of the saint, in the center of the grand stand and watched the performance.

Wilhelmina Challenges. The elephantine seemed to get the visitors more than any other part of the outdoor circus and they were particularly edified with "Wilhelmina's" bowling stunt. Wilhelmina was in line form last night and felt so chummy over it that she issued a challenge to meet any two local men in a contest tonight.

Much to the chagrin of the carnival management some unscrupulous persons, as soon as the match was arranged, commenced to sell pools on the match, and Wilhelmina was sold at prohibitive odds. Steps were at once taken to have the illicit proceeding stopped and the management announced that no betting will be allowed on the grounds tonight.

In addition to the bowling contest tonight there will be the big swimming match. Under the direction of Mrs. D. Thomas, Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mrs. M. Haase twelve young ladies, arrayed in the latest conceptions of the swimmer's art, will swim for the championship in a tank that will be erected on the baseball diamond and be in full view of the people in the stands.

Kangaroo Court Makes Howl. The kangaroo court had a rather quiet day, as so many of the "good fellas" have been arrested, that there are not many more left. Their day's collections amounted to $115. One very good haul was, however, made yesterday which consisted of the Royal Social club in a bunch. Word was received at the police station that the party was in session and the wagon was at once sent to the scene.

Hibernians Tonight. Tonight is Hibernian night. At a meeting of the state and county officers of the A. O. H., held at Central hall last night, arrangements were completed for the parade. It is estimated that over 1,800 will be in line, and all members are requested to meet at Rice park at 7:30 P. m.

Those not having regalia will be furnished by the marshals of their divisions. A ten-horse float, to represent "Young Ireland," will be appropriately decorated, and will be filled with young girls and little children. Two bands and a fally-billed with officers will also accompany the procession. Divisions Nos. 1 and 2 will assemble on Sixth street, right on Wabasha; No. 3 will assemble on Wabasha, right on Sixth street; Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 will assemble on Market, right on Sixth, and 9 and 11 on Fifth street, right on Wabasha.

For the Closing Day. For Saturday some new features have been obtained that promise to be a great attracton. The Capitol City Trio of colored artists, under the direction of W. H. Seymour, will render a series of plantation songs, with dances, and the Georgia Jubilee singers, twenty-five in all, will give a correct representation of a colored jubilee performance. These performances will take place on the big stage in the midway. The paid admissions to the grounds last night totaled $137.

Falls on Curbsstone. John Smith, a molder employed at the American Hoist and Derrick company, fell from a curbsstone last night at the corner of Indiana and South Wabasha streets, receiving a deep scalp contusion. He was removed to the central police station in the police ambulance, and his wound was sewed up by Dr. Bevans.

CAN CHEMISTS DETECT IMPURE MAPLE SYRUP? State Department Fails to Make Good on Challenge of Wholesale Firm.

Some interesting experiments are now in progress in the laboratory of the state dairy and food commission, with a view to determining just how accurately and definitely Prof. Hortvet, the state chemist can analyze maple syrup that is adulterated with cane sugar.

The question originates with a St. Paul wholesale firm that challenged the dairy and food department to show what proportions of maple and cane sugar certain samples of syrup contained and thus far the department has not been successful.

It is not contended that cane sugar is a deleterious ingredient in any way, but on this point Mr. McConnell says: "I do not intend, if I can help it, to have an article that contains 10 per cent maple and 90 per cent cane syrup sold as pure maple syrup."

The difficulty that has confronted the chemist in his analysis is explained in the fact that the maple syrup from some parts of the country is very strong, while that from other parts is weak, and no definite basis can be determined. The syrup from Canada is so strong it is almost bitter, while some that comes from Missouri and that vicinity is almost tasteless by comparison.

M'KENZIE TO BUILD THE NEW RIFLE RANGE. Contract is Awarded to Wabasha Man for $4,350.

David McKenzie, of Wabasha, has been awarded the contract to construct the new rifle range at Camp Lakeview, Lako City, and work was begun yesterday afternoon. The price at which Mr. McKenzie

The assembly last night unanimously passed the ordinance vacating certain lower town streets to the Northern Pacific Railway company, approved the contract drawn up between the company and the city whereby the streets are to be vacated and the new freight houses, a large steel viaduct and make other improvements in return for the vacation of additional streets, and ordered published the petition for the vacation of the additional streets desired by the company.

While there has heretofore been considerable opposition in the assembly to the vacation of these lower town streets to the Northern Pacific, there was not a dissenting vote when the matter came up last night. Assemblyman Van Slyke has all along championed the cause of the lower town residents who objected to the vacation of Kitson street, but even Mr. Van Slyke considered the latest proposition of the company, in which it proposes a viaduct as a means of providing safe transportation over Kitson street, a far one, and he voted in favor of the vacation, after having some matters explained to him satisfactorily.

"How long will it be before this proposed viaduct is completed?" inquired Mr. Van Slyke. "We expect to have it finished within eighteen months," replied Attorney L. T. Chamberlain, who was at the meeting in the interests of the Northern Pacific.

"Will Kitson street be closed to traffic during the construction of the viaduct?" "The company will guarantee to keep the street open until the viaduct is ready for use," said Mr. Chamberlain.

"What assurances have we that the company will expend $50,000 in the construction of this viaduct?" inquired Assemblyman Arnold. "For all the protection we have in this contract a cheap viaduct may be built."

"The company agrees to construct the viaduct of iron or steel and along the lines of other viaducts in the city," explained Mr. Chamberlain. "It ought to be protection enough when we agree to permit the city engineer to draw the plans and specifications. We figure on the structure costing $50,000 or more, but if we could build it for $40,000 I don't see where there could be any objection."

With these assurances from the company the assembly passed the ordinance vacating the streets first asked for, and approved the second ordinance, asking for the vacation of additional streets by ordering the ordinance published as required by law. This action, together with the approval of the contract between the company and the city, means that the city will not stand in the way of the Northern Pacific in its improvement of the Kitson street property and within the next two years it is expected the company will have expended almost $50,000 on these improvements.

Attorney Chamberlain, who has represented the company in its dealings with the council, was well pleased at the action taken by the assembly last evening. "The passage of the ordinance and approval of our contract by the unanimous vote of the assembly is gratifying to the company in more ways than one," said Mr. Chamberlain. "It goes to show that the assembly is convinced that our latest proposition is more than fair to the city and to the property owners in lower town. The company has all along been willing to meet the city and the property owners more than half way, and now that we are assured of getting what we want, the company will make preparations to begin work as soon as possible."

"We will enter into a contract to have the viaduct completed within eighteen months, but if possible we will have it finished long before that time. The company is as anxious to complete its proposed improvements as the people are to have them completed."

Mr. Chamberlain assured the assembly that the viaduct would be thirty feet wide exclusive of sidewalks, which will be provided for on each side of it.

Laborer Hit With Spade. John Mike, 1444 Eaton avenue, a laborer employed in paving at Arcade street and East Seventh street, was struck upon the head with the flat of a spade during a dispute with a fellow workman. Mike was taken to the city hospital in an unconscious condition but revived soon after. He was found to be unharmed. Mike's assailant is not known and had not been arrested last night.

Plays the Old Trick on Him. Grace Gordon was arrested last night by Detective Haggerty, charged with relieving A. Johnson, of Minneapolis, last Tuesday night of $30. Johnson informed the police that the Gordon woman took the money from him in an alley near the corner of Jackson and Ninth streets. Jackson says he was talking with the woman and that she suddenly broke from him and ran down the alley. He ran after her and in running felt for his money, which he found at the side pocket. He felt what he supposed to be the wad at that time, but upon making a closer examination of the wad later in the night when he opened the money, found that a wad of tissue paper had been substituted for the money.
