Programme for This Feature of World's Fair Now Being Drafted.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 10.—The Amateur Athletic Unions Olympic games committee held its first day's session here today, President Walker Liginger presiding. The committee spent several hours' work on the final programme of this feature of the world's fair, which will be the third Olympic games contest, the first having been held in Athens in 1896 and the second in Paris in conjunction with the Paris exposition. The time fixed for holding the games is Aug. 29, 30, 31, Sept. 1, 2 and 3, 1904.

In order that athletes all the world over may train in a uniform manner and all go cross-country championships, team and individual in one race.

RUBE WADDELL BREAKS

Manager of Athletics at Last Tires of Antics of George Edward.

Waddell, the star pitcher of the Athletics, whose work brought the championship of the American league to Philadelphia last whose work brought the championship of the American league to Philadelphia last season, has been suspended by his club. Waddell has deserted his bride, has been threatened with arrest, and is now tending bar in a saloon.

This escapade is the first that has brought a serious break between the erratic left-hander and Manager Connle Mack, but at present, at least, it looks as if he would be of no further service to the Athletics in this season's race. His absence may put them out of the running and leave the pennant to Boston.

The actions of the great pitcher, peculiar as they are, have led some to believe that he has begun an early campaign as a press agent for the show with which he has been advertised to appear as a star the coming winter.

Connie Mack is quoted as saying that he will not take Waddell back under any circumstances.

AHEAD OF IRONDEQUOIT

Defender Finishes in Front More Than Eight Minutes.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 10.—The second race for the Canada's cup was won by Strathcona, the defender, by more than eight minutes elapsed time. Skipper Jarvis got the better of Barr'at the start and crossed the line two minutes and three seconds ahead. At that time the wind was about eight miles an hour.

The Canadian yacht's superiority in windward work was at once shown and she led all through.

Strathcona swung around the first mark at 12:54:43, and when the Irondequots turned she was almost seven minutes astern. The American skipper had trouble in setting his spinnaker, the stops refusing to part, thereby losing a minute or two.

The wind had lightened and the yachts, squared away, made comparatively slow time.

This morning the St. Paul team will return from its successful tour through eastern end of the Hickey circuit. The Saints come back with an excellen record and this despite the fact that Manager Kelley and Huggins have been out of the game. Kelley was carrying his leg in a plaster cast when the team left for the trip and Huggins had his knee injured before the team had fairly started its winning streak.

The Saints came home with a record to be proud of and the fanatics are to be proud of and the fanatics are hardly fair to the team when they complain of the three lost in a row to Louisville. The Saints lost their first game of the trip to Columbus, but after that they pulled two in a row from the Columbus team, took a straight series of three games from the Mud Hens and annother series of four games from Indianapolis. This gave them a record of one defeat against seven straight of one defeat against seven straight Considering this showing the series dropped to the Colonels should not arouse the fanatics. These last defeats were merely bunched. Had the Saints spread the four lost on the trip through the four towns of the trip, even the few who now complain would be expressing surprise at the good road work of the St. Paul team.

Back at home the Saints will play series with Columbus, Toledo, Indianapolis and Louisville, and will then go to Kansas City and Milwaukee.

CINCINNATI TO GET TWO ST. PAUL PLAYERS

Miller Huggins Tells Redland Paper of Two Who May Go Up.

Miller Huggins dropped into Redland most unexpectedly yesterday. The little Saint is out of it with an injured keg, but expects to return to the game on Monday. He made his appearance on the Rialto during the afternoon and dropped the remark: "Don't be surprised if you see one or two of our boys in Cincinnati next season. I think we will win the American Association pennant. We have the pitchers. That Stewart is a corker."

Huggins did not discuss the rumor that he would be one of the Saints who would swap a Minnesota halo for a pair of red stockings. It is known that the St. Paul infielder has been keeping in close touch with the Red chief, and if his advice is taken Larry Stewart will be one of the pitchers to be bagged.

"The Saints," said Huggins, "are a bit crippled just now, with two of the infielders disabled. Mike Kelley and I are both out of it."

Huggins ran home to rest up. He did not see Carry Herrmann, for the Red out of it."

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 10.— The latest news from Harbin Springs is to the effect that Champion Jeffries weighs close to 230 pounds, but does not appear to be fleshy. Trainer De-laney is confident that the mill with Corbett will be comparatively a short

"The champion," he said today, "does not intend to permit the bout to drag along to an endless length. Jeffries will fight with such strength and speed that he will early bring Corbett down to his level of agility. When he once gets him, the battle can be considered as over."

When this statement was repeated to Corbett the latter said.

When this statement was repeated to Corbett the latter said:
"So Jeff expects to make the fight a short one, does he?" he inquired.
"Well, I hope he tries to, for if he does he will find me on hand. He will not have to chase me either, for I have invented a short-arm defense which I believe an enigma to him. I am much stronger in punches than I have ever been, and firmly believe I will be able to put force enough in my blows to knock Jeffries down and put him out."
The big fight has narrowed itself down to a contest between natural prowess and inspired training. If Jefries wins, it will be because of his pheries wins, it will be because of his phe-nomenal strength and hitting power; if Corbett should be returned the victor, it will be owing to the remarkable course of preparation he has under-

While not suffering from overconfi-While not suffering from overconfidence, the champion seems to think he has no need to go through an arduous course of training. He feels morally certain that he can win from Corbett. As he does not expect to outpoint the monologuist, he has not wasted much time on fancy boxing. All he has done is to assure himself that his strength remains unimpaired, and that he is not going into the ring overweight. It is is to assure himself that his strength remains unimpaired, and that he is not going into the ring overweight. It is the knockout punch on which "Jeff" relies, and no matter, how clever his opponent may be, he says that some stage of the game he will be able to get to him hard enough to end the fight.

Jeffries has been officially pronounced ready for the fight by Dr. C. T. Tillman, who was sent here by the Yosemite club to see the champion's physical condition complies with the requirements of the law. Dr. Tillman saw Jeffries stripped in his training quarters and went over him with stethoscope and tape line. The big fellow submitted patiently to the operation.

His heart, stomach, lungs, liver, spleen and kidneys were examined superficially and declared perfectly normal and sound. Then the following official measurements were recorded:

Dr. Tillman then said: "I find that Jeffries is physically fit to enter the ring at a moment's notice to defend his title with his usual force and determin ation, and in my opinion if he makes an aggressive campaign the battle will be short and decisive. I dare say that he is the most perfect man from a physical standpoint in the world."

CLUB COMMITTEE STANDS BY SEERESS

Rees Boat Still Official Selection for Interlake Regatta.

There has been much speculation with respect to the selection of the White Bear representative of the A class for the interlake regatta to be held at Oshkosh the latter part of August. The regatta committee which has had charge of the work named Seeress, of Class A, and Pluto, of Class B, but the excellent showing of Knight Errant in the big class on Saturday afternoon altered the situation and left the supremacy of the two boats in doubt. Corbett will win in twenty rounds. He outpointed Jeffries before in twenty rounds, and is in better shape now, and Jeffries has not shown that he has got any faster since.

It was learned yesterday that the regatta committee still stood by its first selections, and it looks now as if Secress would be the boat to go. William Rees, the owner of Secress, stated that he is willing to abide by the choice of the club; that he wants the fastest boat to go, and that if it can be shown that the Ordway craft is an all-round that the Ordway craft is an all-round. that the Ordway craft is an all-round better boat than his, he is willing to remain at home and yield to the club's It will be a great fight if both men are shape. —James Kennedy.

wishes. wishes.

The aftermath of the Saturday races shows that the Seeress was not in the best of tune, while Knight Errant was in fine fettle. A comparison of the time of the A class boats with the other classes shows that neither Knight Errant nor Seeress sailed a remarkably fast race, as there was only a difference of five or six minutes between the larger and smaller classes, whereas on I think Jeffries will win, but to win he must knock Corbett out before the limit. I saw their last battle in New York, and if the bout had been a twenty-round bout instead of a twenty-five affair I am positive Corbett would have got the decision, as up to the fatal twenty-third round the mill was Corbett's.

I think Jeffries will win. Barring knock outs, he should be the strongest at the finish, and should win, unless the referee should decide the championship on boxing ability against fighting qualities, in which case Corbett has a chance.

It might be argued, therefore, that the boats were not sailing as fast Saturday as they have on other days in winds of equal strength. Thus far this season Seeress has won five of the official championship races and Knight Errant four, and three out of the five official trial races have gone to the Rees boat.

The Seeress, which is a foot and a half longer than is permitted by the

The Seeress, which is a foot and a half longer than is permitted by the rules governing boats entered in the Interlake Yachting association, has been put into the hands of the builder, John Johnson, with instructions to reduce her length to the proper measurement, after which further races will be had with the Knight Errant the latter part of the week with a view of putting her into tune, and she will be shipped with Pluto in time to get to Oshkosh in due season.

Oshkosh in due season.

During the Oshkosh regatta there will probably be no race on White Bear in the A class, as Crusader and Minnesota, two of the large boats, have recently been sold off the lake, the former going to Clear Lake, Iowa, and the latter to Chicago,

ABOUT THE PLAYERS.

Doneny has announced his determina-tion to return to Pittsburg, but he may not have the say about the matter, as Manager Clarke is inclined to think that he can get along without his southpaw if he will not listen to reason.

Billy Hoy, Hank Spies, Dr. Newton and Jud Smith are ex-Reds who have helped bring Los Angeles to the front in the Pacific Coast league.

Mrs. Jack Suthoff, wife of the Cincinnati pitcher, made her husband a present Sunday morning. Jack did not-pitch ball that day, though it was his turn. The present weighs eight pounds and may be named Mary.

"When the pitcher is right yet the team plays good ball already" is one of the pe-culiar phrased but nevertheless truthful baseball aphorisms of "Pretzel" Schmidt,

Al Buckenberger was largely responsible for the developing of Ed Delehanty as a ball player, he being the manager of the Wheeling team at the time Del played there. It was Bruckenberger who negotiated the sale of Delehanty to the Philadelphia National League club, the price paid for him being $1,800.

Manager Watkins, of the Indianapolis club, denies that he will sell the release of Southpaw Kellum to the Reds this season. Next spring, however, the Hoosier twirler will undoubtedly be a member of the accident Kelley's Southern training party.

"Speaking of odd names of ball players," says King Kelley, the booze distributer, "if you go to Jersey City you'll see a Bean, and at Springfield, Mass., a Berry, while Atlanta has Pease, and Kingston, Iowa, has Rice. Bass flourishes at New London and St. Joe at Crumm. After you're done with these you can get Coffey at South Bend. In the line of rolling stock, machinery and similar things, baseball contributes Carr, of Detroit; Ferry, of Buffalo; Mills, of Baltimore; Drill, of Washington, and Gear, of Kansas City.

Speaking of scientific bunting, an Eastern authority says: "The wily pitchers of today have learned how to fool the sluggers, but the best of them are helpless before such bunters as Thomas, Fultz, Keeler, Jones, Bay and Pickering. The bunt deftly placed is almost impossible to field."

THE PACE THAT KI

he is unfit for work, study, business or marriage.

He is nervous, fretful and irritable. He is bilious, melancholy, dullminded and easily confused. His liver is torpid, kidneys weak, back lame, circulation sluggish, digestion bad and appetite poor. He feels run down, is easily tired, and has frequent headaches.

That is what he talks about, and he has troubles of a different nature. THAT IS WHAT HE DOES NOT TALK ABOUT, NOT EVEN TO HIS FAMILY PHYSICIAN. He goes to him with the first set of symptoms, and may get temporary relief. But the latter set, from which the former arises, he keeps to himself, an awful load on his mind and barrier to his happiness. He suffers in secret silence, brooding over his condition. In the meantime he cannot control his actions. His feeble power gives way to unnatural thoughts. His wanton cravings increase as his ability decreases. Finally both sets of symptoms grow worse, and he gets weak and begins to lose weight.

Young Men

If by your own acts, through the folly of youth, you have violated a single law of nature, against body or mind, law of nature, against body or mind, especially through any habit by constantly repeating the same, there is no escaping the punishment made and provided for every transgression, which is sickness, decay and death. This is as certain as night follows day. And you, Young Man, must pay the penalty here on earth, in this life, sooner or later. Call on me at once. Don't wait for nature's punishment. Middle-Aged Men

You have passed your boyhood days, and now probably look back to your youth with regret. You had lots of youth with regret. You had lots of fun when you were "sowing your wild oats;" all of us do.

But the laws of nature are no respector of persons. They make no exception in any case. If you have violated a single law of nature, you are either paying the penalty or will as soon as time shall call you to account. To avoid or rid yourself of this fixed penalty, consult me at once.

You, too—life's race is not yet over.
Hale and hearty at fifty you enter the home stretch, or bent with over work and weighted with disease, you totter to the wire. Mature judgment points to the cause of your debility.
Nature now holds you to account for the past. Yes, consult me. Let me give you power, strength and courage.
That Enlarged Prostate reduced, premature old age displaced and the fire of youth coursing through your veins, will add years of happiness to yourself and family.

There is help for all, if you will promptly secure the services of a learned specialist; one who can tell you more about your exact condition at one consultation than any ordinary physician can after many weeks of fruitless treatment; one who can make out of you a man, with a man's pride, a man's power and a man's privilege.

Dr. Cole is true to his profession, devoted to the sick and careful in his treatment. He has called back thousands from the shadow of the tomb. For those who seek his counsel and helping hand the best is none too good, and his motto is TO GIVE MORE THAN HE IS PAID FOR.
