

THE ST. PAUL GLOBE

THE GLOBE CO., PUBLISHERS.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF ST. PAUL.

Entered at Postoffice at St. Paul, Minn., as Second-Class Matter.

TELEPHONE CALLS.

Northwestern—Business, 1065 Main.

Editorial, 78 Main.

Twin City—Business, 1065; Editorial, 78.

CITY SUBSCRIPTIONS.

By Carrier, 1 mo. 6 mos. 12 mos.

Daily only, .40 $2.25 $4.00

Daily and Sunday, .50 2.75 5.00

Sunday, .15 .75 1.00

COUNTRY SUBSCRIPTIONS.

By Mail, 1 mo. 6 mos. 12 mos.

Daily only, .45 $2.50 $4.50

Daily and Sunday, .55 2.00 4.00

Sunday, .15 .75 1.00

BRANCH OFFICES.

New York, 10 Spruce street, Charles H. Eddy in Charge.

Chicago, No. 465 Schiller Bldg., W. B. Kingswell & Sons in Charge.

It Pays to Advertise in The Daily Globe

The Increase in the Total Cash Advertising Carried by The Globe for the Last Five Months Over the Same Months in 1902:

Table with 2 columns: Month and Inches. March: 2,771; April: 6,715; May: 3,219; June: 3,787; July: 3,487.

Total Increase, 10,979 Inches

Increasing Business With the Globe Increases Business For Business Men.

MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1903.

THE PEOPLE FOOT THE BILLS.

Even as far as political expediency is concerned, it is an open question whether the habit into which our presidents have fallen, of touring the country during their terms of office, is not a mistake.

It is asserted in the special dispatches of The Globe that the cost of President Roosevelt's recent tour across the continent was defrayed by a railroad company.

The trip of the president was not called for by any reasons of public policy. However glad the people were to greet him, and their welcome was unfeignedly sincere, it could not be contended that he was on any mission of theirs.

The revision of the Christian Scientist creed bears heavily on the capitalist, but as the capitalistic person is busy in fields not altogether religious it is probable that he won't mind this sort of absent treatment.

ANGRY BECAUSE CONVICTED. There is a fine frenzy manifest among the thick and thin supporters of the administration over the publication of the letter of Gen. Miles, containing his recommendations for the improvement of the military service.

That, in perfect frankness, is the worst that can be said of him. But his critics dare not imitate the frankness. For the best that can be said of him is very good, and the treatment that he has received is little short of infamous.

Government officials, from top to bottom, have shown themselves destitute of a nice moral sense in their free use of luxuries at the public expense.

cheerfully publish the fact and withdraw its criticism. If he went either at the private expense of men whom he at other times calls lawbreakers, or at the expense of any railroad company that will eventually charge it up to the people, then he has laid himself open to very grave rebuke.

Compensation must be granted by Turkey to Vice Consul Magelssen for being shot at, but in view of what we know of the Turk and his capacity to dodge the collector it is not easy to judge whether Magelssen's claim is to be regarded as a liability or an asset.

CORRECTING THE MOB EVIL.

Winfield Baker, one of the leaders of the mob that lynched James Metcalf at Danville, Ill., last month has been convicted of the crime of attempting a murderous assault on Sheriff Whitlock and sentenced to serve fourteen years in the penitentiary.

The increase in the total cash advertising carried by The Globe for the last five months over the same months in 1902: March..... 2,771 inches

It costs us an average of 29 pence per day per individual for food. The Englishman is responsible for the figures, which go to show that he did some nice work between the chap who says $10 a day for his food at the Waldorf and the other who banquets on a ham and egg sandwich.

Does the president "point with pride" to the record of his government to arrest Beavers, and hold him for trial on the indictment found against him by a grand jury nearly a month ago as a type of the credit and honor that the president has commended to Gov. Durbin by way of antidote for the summary jurisdiction exercised by Judge Lynch?—New York Sun.

Dare Not Slight Ohio.

Judge Taft, of Cincinnati, now governor of the Philippines, is to be appointed secretary of war, a position of great importance. It is to be hoped that he went the distance in the matter of getting the minimum of expenditure and reckoned with the breakfast dole fend who takes in four ounces of chopped feed and makes ten ounces of brain and muscle with it.

With Col. Jett doing time and Col. Powers in line to have his neck stretched, it may be considered that things are looking up in Kentucky.

DELIGHTFUL CANDOR.

A committee of the American Bar association made a report the other day on the subject of industrial combinations, which has the unusual merit of an engaging candor. One of the reasons presented why the association should consider a subject somewhat outside of its usual line was the effect that the trust might have upon the legal business of the country.

As a Democrat, and one who has been beginning to suspect the party in all its battles against the party of opposition, I would like to know if the Democratic party consider the votes of the members of the Afro-American Democratic party further use to them? Why I ask is this: The three years that the Democratic party has been in power, we, as an organization, have had no recognition whatever.

There have been several appointments made since the present administration has been in power, and without an exception this club has been ignored in every instance. Regarding some of the appointments that have been made, the following are a few: Henry Burrell was removed, a Republican was appointed; Mr. Loomis resigned, hence we have no member on the police or fire departments.

are wounded by the universal voice of condemnation from the country, they have this to blame. If they are worried because the country has learned that the same venomous and vindictive spirit remains supreme, as shown by the refusal to publish a letter that has nevertheless seen the light, they have this to blame.

attitude is one of personal and private interest. The trust is very unpopular, and for the most part justly so. But every man and every interest seize upon this unpopularity of the trust, and not its iniquity, with the idea of using it advantageously. Sometimes it is the politician, sometimes the business rival, sometimes the blackmailer, and in the din of their racket the voice of the honest man who wants to study combination as a factor of industrial development, and ascertain to what extent we ought and may and can get rid of it, is hopelessly lost.

There might be some compensation for this country if we should become embroiled in the East. Perhaps Gen. Corbin would be sent over to awe the Turk and forget to come back.

GOOD FOR THE PIE-EATER.

The breakfast food, that "makes brain and brawn," is a thing of yesterday. It had nothing to do with making the United States great. An Englishman, roast beef and plum duff fed, is authority for the statement that nations grow great in proportion to the amount of meat and sugar consumed.

With an entire new scenic production and with the original cast, "Way Down East" will be seen at the Metropolitan opera house next week. The popularity of this rural play does not seem to wane. Manager Brady has kept the cast up to its original standard of excellence.

Canadain Independence or Annexation?

To the Editor of The Globe: On my recent visit to Canada I found a perceptible change in political opinion as regards the position occupied by the provinces as between England and the United States. A prominent member of parliament, in Ottawa, admitted to me that there exists a deep and widespread fear that unless Canada becomes independent within a decade or so, the irresistible course of events will annex her to the great American republic.

With Col. Jett doing time and Col. Powers in line to have his neck stretched, it may be considered that things are looking up in Kentucky.

DELIGHTFUL CANDOR.

A committee of the American Bar association made a report the other day on the subject of industrial combinations, which has the unusual merit of an engaging candor. One of the reasons presented why the association should consider a subject somewhat outside of its usual line was the effect that the trust might have upon the legal business of the country.

As a Democrat, and one who has been beginning to suspect the party in all its battles against the party of opposition, I would like to know if the Democratic party consider the votes of the members of the Afro-American Democratic party further use to them? Why I ask is this: The three years that the Democratic party has been in power, we, as an organization, have had no recognition whatever.

There have been several appointments made since the present administration has been in power, and without an exception this club has been ignored in every instance. Regarding some of the appointments that have been made, the following are a few: Henry Burrell was removed, a Republican was appointed; Mr. Loomis resigned, hence we have no member on the police or fire departments.

are wounded by the universal voice of condemnation from the country, they have this to blame. If they are worried because the country has learned that the same venomous and vindictive spirit remains supreme, as shown by the refusal to publish a letter that has nevertheless seen the light, they have this to blame.

attitude is one of personal and private interest. The trust is very unpopular, and for the most part justly so. But every man and every interest seize upon this unpopularity of the trust, and not its iniquity, with the idea of using it advantageously. Sometimes it is the politician, sometimes the business rival, sometimes the blackmailer, and in the din of their racket the voice of the honest man who wants to study combination as a factor of industrial development, and ascertain to what extent we ought and may and can get rid of it, is hopelessly lost.

There might be some compensation for this country if we should become embroiled in the East. Perhaps Gen. Corbin would be sent over to awe the Turk and forget to come back.

GOOD FOR THE PIE-EATER.

The breakfast food, that "makes brain and brawn," is a thing of yesterday. It had nothing to do with making the United States great. An Englishman, roast beef and plum duff fed, is authority for the statement that nations grow great in proportion to the amount of meat and sugar consumed.

Does the president "point with pride" to the record of his government to arrest Beavers, and hold him for trial on the indictment found against him by a grand jury nearly a month ago as a type of the credit and honor that the president has commended to Gov. Durbin by way of antidote for the summary jurisdiction exercised by Judge Lynch?—New York Sun.

Dare Not Slight Ohio.

Judge Taft, of Cincinnati, now governor of the Philippines, is to be appointed secretary of war, a position of great importance. It is to be hoped that he went the distance in the matter of getting the minimum of expenditure and reckoned with the breakfast dole fend who takes in four ounces of chopped feed and makes ten ounces of brain and muscle with it.

With an entire new scenic production and with the original cast, "Way Down East" will be seen at the Metropolitan opera house next week. The popularity of this rural play does not seem to wane. Manager Brady has kept the cast up to its original standard of excellence.

Canadain Independence or Annexation?

To the Editor of The Globe: On my recent visit to Canada I found a perceptible change in political opinion as regards the position occupied by the provinces as between England and the United States. A prominent member of parliament, in Ottawa, admitted to me that there exists a deep and widespread fear that unless Canada becomes independent within a decade or so, the irresistible course of events will annex her to the great American republic.

With Col. Jett doing time and Col. Powers in line to have his neck stretched, it may be considered that things are looking up in Kentucky.

DELIGHTFUL CANDOR.

A committee of the American Bar association made a report the other day on the subject of industrial combinations, which has the unusual merit of an engaging candor. One of the reasons presented why the association should consider a subject somewhat outside of its usual line was the effect that the trust might have upon the legal business of the country.

As a Democrat, and one who has been beginning to suspect the party in all its battles against the party of opposition, I would like to know if the Democratic party consider the votes of the members of the Afro-American Democratic party further use to them? Why I ask is this: The three years that the Democratic party has been in power, we, as an organization, have had no recognition whatever.

At St. Paul Theaters.

"The Princess Chic" at the Grand. Little Vera Michelena, young, pretty and talented, won a place in the hearts of the audience which packed the Grand last night when she interpreted the title role in "The Princess Chic," the popular comic opera, which opened a week's engagement at the Grand last night. In every way this clever little actress showed herself worthy of the mantle of her predecessor, Miss Marguerite Sylva, who won fame in the original cast of the pretty opera.

There is an old receipt in the state treasurer's office at Bismarck, signed in 1864, for the appointment of a receiver for the Universal Tobacco company, Vice Chancellor Pitney very forcefully shut his own opinion at counsel: "This is the only way to know that stocks are inflated to unload them on the public. I consider it a fraud, and the people who buy are fools." Inflated stocks are the rich man's medium for transferring to his own pockets the earnings of the fool.

How very anxious the powers are to prevent a war between Turkey and Bulgaria, but why? Not because the powers are opposed to war, for most of them are hard at it much of the time, but because "the unseemable Turk" and his country are considered as necessary factors in the European combination. "The balance of power" must be maintained and Turkey must remain a stench in the nostrils of the nations, for fear that in gobbling up the globe, some one nation might get too strong.—Montevideo Leader.

Why not keep pure-bred stock instead of the scrubs?

Why not keep pure-bred stock instead of the scrubs? It costs no more to feed and care for well-bred poultry, hogs, cattle, sheep or horses than it does the other kind, and the profits are much greater, aside from the pleasure and pride to be derived from the better stock and did you ever stop to think that in a very few years the amount the average farmer has invested in common stock would be paying better dividends if invested now in pure bred animals.—Hubbard County Clipper.

No national administration since the days of the whisky ring has had such a mess of corruption as there is being revealed daily at Washington.

No national administration since the days of the whisky ring has had such a mess of corruption as there is being revealed daily at Washington. No sooner does one department cease for a moment to occupy the stage, than another claims attention. It is the old story of abuse of power, and the only thorough cure is change of dynasty. The war cry of Tilden's time—turn the rascals out—was a powerful and effective one.—Little Falls Herald.

Unfortunately the bribe-taking bluffs of our emotional governor prove too much.

Unfortunately the bribe-taking bluffs of our emotional governor prove too much. The claim is that the wicked stalwarts are on the side of corporations, monopolists and caucus advocates. It is a good case, they do not need buying up. It would seem the "reformers" must be the purchasable quantities if there is any trafficking in political spoils.—Hudson Star-Times.

The Anoka Herald has reached No. 6 in its picture gallery of "gubernatorial possibilities."

The Anoka Herald has reached No. 6 in its picture gallery of "gubernatorial possibilities." A there will be about fifty issues of the Herald before convention time it has a good many hot queries yet to throw.—Buffalo Journal.

Scott county is to be well provided with snuff, fair's this fall.

Scott county is to be well provided with snuff, fair's this fall. Two of them, one Belle Field and one Shinkopee. Don't let the vaudeville crowd the pumpkins off the stage, neighbors.—Jordan Independent.

Matt Quay says that his state is for Roosevelt, but as Matt has the faculty of saying what he does not mean, that statement may be taken with some allowance.—St. Peter Herald.

The college of cardinals was exceptionally fortunate. It convened, held its conclave and elected a pope without receiving any advice in the columns of the press.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Congressman James A. Tawney was in St. Paul yesterday morning, returning from an inspection of investments which he, with several other Minnesotans, has in British Columbia. Senator John G. Schurz, of Marshall, is a member of the advance guard of legislators gathering for the reunion Tuesday.

What the Editors Say

At Newark, N. J., while hearing an application for the appointment of a receiver for the Universal Tobacco company, Vice Chancellor Pitney very forcefully shut his own opinion at counsel: "This is the only way to know that stocks are inflated to unload them on the public. I consider it a fraud, and the people who buy are fools." Inflated stocks are the rich man's medium for transferring to his own pockets the earnings of the fool.

How very anxious the powers are to prevent a war between Turkey and Bulgaria, but why? Not because the powers are opposed to war, for most of them are hard at it much of the time, but because "the unseemable Turk" and his country are considered as necessary factors in the European combination. "The balance of power" must be maintained and Turkey must remain a stench in the nostrils of the nations, for fear that in gobbling up the globe, some one nation might get too strong.—Montevideo Leader.

Why not keep pure-bred stock instead of the scrubs?

Why not keep pure-bred stock instead of the scrubs? It costs no more to feed and care for well-bred poultry, hogs, cattle, sheep or horses than it does the other kind, and the profits are much greater, aside from the pleasure and pride to be derived from the better stock and did you ever stop to think that in a very few years the amount the average farmer has invested in common stock would be paying better dividends if invested now in pure bred animals.—Hubbard County Clipper.

No national administration since the days of the whisky ring has had such a mess of corruption as there is being revealed daily at Washington.

No national administration since the days of the whisky ring has had such a mess of corruption as there is being revealed daily at Washington. No sooner does one department cease for a moment to occupy the stage, than another claims attention. It is the old story of abuse of power, and the only thorough cure is change of dynasty. The war cry of Tilden's time—turn the rascals out—was a powerful and effective one.—Little Falls Herald.

Unfortunately the bribe-taking bluffs of our emotional governor prove too much.

Unfortunately the bribe-taking bluffs of our emotional governor prove too much. The claim is that the wicked stalwarts are on the side of corporations, monopolists and caucus advocates. It is a good case, they do not need buying up. It would seem the "reformers" must be the purchasable quantities if there is any trafficking in political spoils.—Hudson Star-Times.

The Anoka Herald has reached No. 6 in its picture gallery of "gubernatorial possibilities."

The Anoka Herald has reached No. 6 in its picture gallery of "gubernatorial possibilities." A there will be about fifty issues of the Herald before convention time it has a good many hot queries yet to throw.—Buffalo Journal.

Scott county is to be well provided with snuff, fair's this fall.

Scott county is to be well provided with snuff, fair's this fall. Two of them, one Belle Field and one Shinkopee. Don't let the vaudeville crowd the pumpkins off the stage, neighbors.—Jordan Independent.

Matt Quay says that his state is for Roosevelt, but as Matt has the faculty of saying what he does not mean, that statement may be taken with some allowance.—St. Peter Herald.

The college of cardinals was exceptionally fortunate. It convened, held its conclave and elected a pope without receiving any advice in the columns of the press.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Congressman James A. Tawney was in St. Paul yesterday morning, returning from an inspection of investments which he, with several other Minnesotans, has in British Columbia. Senator John G. Schurz, of Marshall, is a member of the advance guard of legislators gathering for the reunion Tuesday.

Society

Miss Mamie and Pearl Mathews, who have been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mathews, have returned to their home in Kelsey, Minn. Mrs. F. T. Tozier, of River Falls, Wis., who has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Tuttle, has gone to California.

Miss Gladys Emerson, of Austin, Minn., and Miss Mamie Johnson, of St. Paul, are spending two weeks with Miss Ada Sulwood. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Work and daughter and H. A. Young and children, of St. Paul, are a few days with Mrs. J. W. Marsden.

Miss Ida Walters, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. Adams and children, has returned to Stillwater. Mrs. Frank Tuttle, who has been the guest of Mrs. George Patterson, has returned to Stillwater.

Miss Irene Dunn entertained at luncheon in honor of her guest, Miss Carney, of Dubuque, Iowa. The boys of the Trinity church choir gave a concert on Monday evening at White Bear.

Miss Louise Hansen is spending a few days with Mrs. A. E. Nichols in St. Paul. Mrs. R. W. Cameron and daughters, of Peoria, Ill., are guests of Mrs. J. M. Kings.

Miss Helen Griffin, of St. Paul, is the guest of Miss Lu Bingham. Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams and daughter have returned to the city.

Miss Margaret Lonergan is visiting at Grand Rapids. Miss Frances Goheen has gone to Claremore, Ind. Mr. Maude Marsden is visiting friends in St. Paul.

Miss Eva Gear, of St. Paul, spent the first of the week with Mrs. George Osamann. Miss Sullivan and Miss Conrad were guests of Mrs. Orsinger the first of the week.

Miss Beatrice Haas, of White Bear Beach, spent a day last week at Mahtomedi. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bunker, of St. Paul, spent Sunday with Mrs. William Jamieson.

Mr. Charles Tarbox and sons have returned to the city. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Burk Reid have returned from South Haven. John Glaspie has gone to Sauk Center for two months.