

NEWS OF THE CITY

PREACH THE GOSPEL

New Pastor of First Baptist Defines Minister's Mission.

To preach the gospel, not politics, city government or sociology, is the mission of the Christian minister, the Rev. Raymond M. West told the congregation of the First Baptist church, Ninth and Wacouta streets, last night.

Two large congregations yesterday welcomed Rev. Raymond M. West to his new charge, the First Baptist church, Mr. West comes from the Lehigh Avenue Baptist church, Philadelphia, which he served eleven years.

He began his pastoral work in St. Paul with a sermon on the mission of the church in the morning and one on the mission of the preacher in the evening.

Dealing with the mission of the preacher, Mr. West concluded that if the pulpit is losing its power, it is because the pulpit is losing its grasp on the gospel and gone to preaching something else. He said:

"The preacher must deal with the gospel, not with city government, politics or sociology. If the pulpit will make men good we will get good government, and the problems of society will be taken care of."

"We have all read with some interest the magazine articles about the reforms of cities, and we have seen the failure to reform others. The trouble lies with the men governing these cities, not in their constitutions. The preachers who could preach the gospel to these men and hold them in the sight of God would have reformed these cities without talking politics. There is only one real remedy—the gospel, and in 1891, some of the gospel of God, not the gospel of doctrine or creed."

TO KEEP TIES ALIVE

Natives of Valdris, Norway, Hold Annual Picnic.

Despite forbidding weather, the members of the Valdris Sambund gathered at Como park yesterday for the annual picnic. There were fully 200 present.

The organization is composed of natives of the district of Valdris, in Norway, and their descendants and relatives by marriage. Valdris has furnished more immigrants to the Northwestern states than any other district in Norway, and in 1891, some of them conceived the idea of organizing an association or bond, to keep alive the traditions of the home province and promote the friendships and associations which arose from a common source of nativity.

The oration of the day was delivered by Vice President A. A. Kirkenberg, who has just returned from a trip back to his native province of Valdris. He gave many interesting anecdotes and sketches of the native province and explained the reasons for the gathering of Valdris forming themselves into an organization to promote friendships and keep alive the memories of the home land. It is interesting to note that the natives of Valdris believe themselves better than other Norwegians, but that they feel the ties of a common home in the old country and desire to keep alive the ties which arise therefrom.

N. I. Gilbert spoke on "The Naldris in War and Peace," recounting the record which the natives of that province have made in Norway, both in the mother country and since they have become a prominent factor in the colonizing of the Northwestern states in this country.

Music was furnished by the Fram Singing society, under the direction of Prof. Dahle, and many Norwegian songs were sung.

Officers were elected, most of them being the same officers who served last year: President, Prof. A. Veblen, member of the faculty of the State University of Iowa; vice president, Rev. A. A. Kirkenberg; of Vernon W. Wise, secretary and treasurer, Dr. J. S. Johnson, of St. Paul.

ACCUSES EX-CONVICT OF TAKING HER PURSE

Herman Smith Gives Officer a Lively Tussle Before He is Captured.

Herman Smith, an ex-convict, gave Patrolman Pugleasa a lively tussle when that officer arrested him on Jackson street Saturday night. The officer had his hands so full that he was obliged to call for assistance from a crowd which gathered about to witness the struggle.

Smith was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Hendrickson, who charged Smith with taking her purse. Smith and Mrs. Hendrickson had met early in the evening, and he invited her to take supper with him at a restaurant about 7 o'clock. After finishing the meal Mrs. Hendrickson left her purse, which she says contained $7, on the table, and went into the kitchen to speak with a friend employed there. During her absence Smith is alleged to have taken the purse from the table, and after paying the bill he is said to have left the place and disappeared.

When Mrs. Hendrickson returned she found her companion and her purse gone. She learned that the bill had been paid, but could not find her friend when she went out into the street. She then complained to Patrolman Pugleasa, who picked Smith up two hours later. Smith then denied that he had even been in the restaurant and said that he had not taken the purse.

OLD INDIAN COULD NOT SEE HIS SON SUFFER

Father Kills the Lad With Shotgun and Then Ends His Own Life.

CARSON, Nev., Sept. 6.—At Shurez, a hamlet on the Carson & Colorado railway, an aged Indian, named George Sam, unable to witness the sufferings of his young son, who was sick, killed the lad with a shotgun, and then placed the muzzle of the gun at his own head discharged the remaining barrel.

Coetly Fire at Burlington.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 6.—The Paris store was gutted by fire today. The loss on the stock and building is $30,000. Smoke and water caused a loss of $10,000 to adjacent streets.

LABOR'S HOSTS WILL GIVE BIG PARADE

Monster Procession Will Wind Through St. Paul's Streets Today—Women to Join.

Labor's hosts will today celebrate the passing of another year which has been marked by prosperity among the working classes, and the character of the celebration will reflect the spirit that prevails in the ranks of the makers of the nation's wealth. All that is necessary to have the celebration of today eclipse that of all previous years is fine weather. The Trades and Labor assembly has completed all arrangements for the day, and every detail of parade organization as well as the programme for the picnic of the afternoon has been arranged.

With 10,000 workers in eight divisions, accompanied by a dozen bands, to whose martial airs the men will march, the ceremonies will commence after the parade has wound its way about the city's streets the men and their families and friends will picnic on Harriet island, where Archbishop Ireland and Collis P. Lovely will deliver addresses. An extensive programme of athletic events and amusements has also been arranged.

Women in the Parade.

A new feature of the Labor day parade of this year will be 500 women in line. They will represent the union organizations of the dressmakers, salesladies, federal ladies' union, garment workers, lady furriers and lady shoe workers. They will be arrayed in uniforms consisting of white walking skirts, white shirt waists, white collar and black tie and white automobile hat.

Each organization will have some uniform or adornment, as the contest for the prize to be awarded to the best costumed union is keen. All day yesterday the men gathered at the Federation hall for their equipments. There will be several floats, including that of the Union Label league, which will carry about thirty children.

The parade will start at 9:45 a. m. sharp from the corner of Summit avenue and Cedar street, and will proceed down Cedar street to Seventh, thence to Broadway, thence to Fourth, thence to Wabasha, and south on Wabasha to Harriet Island, where it will disband.

Order of the Parade.

The order of the parade will be as follows:

- First Division.
 - Patron of Police.
 - Chief Marshal Lunshelmer and Aides, McCauley and Walton.
 - Citizens' Band.
 - Mayor Smith and Board of Aldermen and Assembly in Carriages.
 - Trades and Labor Assembly.
 - A. H. Hoffman, Marshal.
 - Salesladies' Union.
 - Dressmakers' Union.
 - Garment Workers' Union.
 - Lady Shoe Workers' Union.
 - Federal Ladies' Union.
 - Lady Furriers' Union.
- Second Division.
 - Minnesota State Band.
 - Typographical Union No. 30.
 - J. H. Wilson, Marshal.
 - Bookbinders' Union No. 37.
 - Stenographers' Union No. 29.
 - P. J. Maloney, Marshal.
 - Blacksmiths' Union.
 - M. Slater, Marshal.
 - Blacksmiths' Helpers' Union.
 - Band.
 - Ice Men's Union.
 - C. J. Hardy, Marshal.
 - Minnesota State Band.
 - Stenographers' Union.
 - N. I. Nelson, Marshal.
 - Retail Clerks' Union No. 2.
 - F. Kies, Marshal.
 - Boilermakers' Union.
 - Joseph Materna, Marshal.
- Third Division.
 - Pepin's Band.
 - Brewery Workers' Union No. 97.
 - Henry Dege, Marshal.
 - Marble and Tile Setters' Union.
 - Stenographers' Union.
 - W. Cassidy, Marshal.
 - Steering Engineers' Union.
 - Jerry King, Marshal.
 - Hoisting Engineers' Union.
 - Stationary Firemen's Union.
 - Scoutmasters' Union.
 - Elevator Operators' Union.
 - Marlow's Band.
 - Shoe Workers' Union.
 - G. W. Lawson, Marshal.
 - Reese's Lathers' Union.
 - Railway Expressmen's Union.
 - Leather Workers' Union No. 19.
 - Coppers' Union No. 61.
- Fourth Division.
 - Brose's Band.
 - Plasterers' Union.
 - Chris Porter, Marshal.
 - Barbers' Union No. 31.
 - W. Cassidy, Marshal.
 - Steering Engineers' Union.
 - Jerry King, Marshal.
 - Hoisting Engineers' Union.
 - Stationary Firemen's Union.
 - Scoutmasters' Union.
 - Elevator Operators' Union.
 - Marlow's Band.
 - Shoe Workers' Union.
 - G. W. Lawson, Marshal.
 - Reese's Lathers' Union.
 - Railway Expressmen's Union.
 - Leather Workers' Union No. 19.
 - Coppers' Union No. 61.
- Fifth Division.
 - Iron Molders' Union No. 222.
 - Victor St. Martin, Marshal.
 - Iron Molders' Helpers' Union.
 - Stenographers' Union.
 - Building Laborers' Union.
 - Sheet Metal Workers' Union.
 - Scoutmasters' Union.
 - Pressfitters' Union.
 - J. O'Malley, Marshal.
 - Stenographers' Union.
 - M. Gallagher, Marshal.
 - Label League Float.
 - Broommakers' Union No. 30.
 - Great Western Band.
 - Bakers' Union No. 21.
 - Griebler, Marshal.
 - Glove Makers' Union.
 - Painters' Union No. 61.
 - L. F. Peglow, Marshal.
 - Plumbers' Union.
 - Geo. Greenwell, Marshal.
 - Cooks' Alliance.
- Sixth Division.
 - Central Band.
 - Carpenters' Union No. 87.
 - F. J. Jennis, Marshal.
 - Jordan Band.
 - Bricklayers' Union No. 1.
 - H. Bunde, Marshal.
 - Cabinet Makers' Union.
 - Louis Brechtner, Marshal.
 - Stenographers' Union.
 - N. W. Furrers' Union.
 - H. V. Koch, Marshal.
 - Stenographers' Union.
 - Watters' Union.
 - Packing House Employees.
- Seventh Division.
 - K. P. Baird.
 - Machinists' Union No. 112.
 - D. F. Erskine, Marshal.
 - Machinists' Union No. 459.
 - E. E. Mack, Marshal.
 - Railway Clerks' Union.
 - Machinists' Helpers' Union.
 - Ed Schoencker, Marshal.
 - Electrical Workers' Union.
 - C. P. Donnellan, Marshal.
 - Structural Iron Workers' Union.
 - Horsehoers' Union.
 - Stage Employees' Union.
 - Ed Schoencker, Marshal.
 - Tailors' Union in Carriages.
- Eighth Division.
 - Reichkitzer's Band.
 - Team Owners' Union.
 - L. B. Smith, Marshal.
 - Team Drivers' Union.
 - Truck Drivers' Union.
 - Expressmen's Union.

OFF ON WITH NEW FAIR

While the Former Is Being Dismantled That of Next Year Is Planned.

OLD FAIR DISMANTLED.

With the foundation given by the fair just closed, with the surplus which will be left therefrom to make betterments and improvements, and with the confidence of the public, there is no reason why the Minnesota state fair of 1903 cannot be made as much better than that of 1902 as that was better than the fairs which had preceded it.

The management will expend the profits placing the grounds in better condition than ever before and in devising new amusement features that will make it believe that the fair next year will prove a far greater success than that of this year.

Neither expense nor pains nor thought will be spared in improving the fair for next year and there will be unique amusement features, larger exhibits and bigger crowds than ever before.

One thing which is needed before another fair is held, is another street car line to the fair grounds. A track could be run across from Harline and across the city with the congestion which marked the situation at the fair grounds last Friday. More street cars would get the crowds to and from the fair grounds must be provided before the fair opens.

Secretary E. W. Randall.

While the Minnesota state fair of 1903 was being dismantled yesterday plans were already being considered for making the fair of 1904 greater and better than the record breaker which has just closed.

On the rain-soaked grounds the exhibitors were busy packing their goods into huge vans and express wagons, while in the executive building Secretary E. W. Randall and President Conroy were already discussing suggestions for making the next fair better than anything which has gone before.

One idea already under consideration is that of making the fair of next year Fraternal Order day, and devote it to the various secret orders. Headquarters would be established for each of the various secret orders and the members of the various organizations would be able to meet fellow members from outside the Twin Cities.

In the evening it is proposed to have the various degree teams of the different orders give exhibition drills under calcium light before the grand stand, and it is possible that some adequate prize may be offered for the team making the most creditable showing.

The foregoing plan is believed to promise one of the most successful fairs to be held in the history of the state.

On the rain-soaked grounds the exhibitors were busy packing their goods into huge vans and express wagons, while in the executive building Secretary E. W. Randall and President Conroy were already discussing suggestions for making the next fair better than anything which has gone before.

One idea already under consideration is that of making the fair of next year Fraternal Order day, and devote it to the various secret orders. Headquarters would be established for each of the various secret orders and the members of the various organizations would be able to meet fellow members from outside the Twin Cities.

In the evening it is proposed to have the various degree teams of the different orders give exhibition drills under calcium light before the grand stand, and it is possible that some adequate prize may be offered for the team making the most creditable showing.

The foregoing plan is believed to promise one of the most successful fairs to be held in the history of the state.

On the rain-soaked grounds the exhibitors were busy packing their goods into huge vans and express wagons, while in the executive building Secretary E. W. Randall and President Conroy were already discussing suggestions for making the next fair better than anything which has gone before.

One idea already under consideration is that of making the fair of next year Fraternal Order day, and devote it to the various secret orders. Headquarters would be established for each of the various secret orders and the members of the various organizations would be able to meet fellow members from outside the Twin Cities.

In the evening it is proposed to have the various degree teams of the different orders give exhibition drills under calcium light before the grand stand, and it is possible that some adequate prize may be offered for the team making the most creditable showing.

The foregoing plan is believed to promise one of the most successful fairs to be held in the history of the state.

On the rain-soaked grounds the exhibitors were busy packing their goods into huge vans and express wagons, while in the executive building Secretary E. W. Randall and President Conroy were already discussing suggestions for making the next fair better than anything which has gone before.

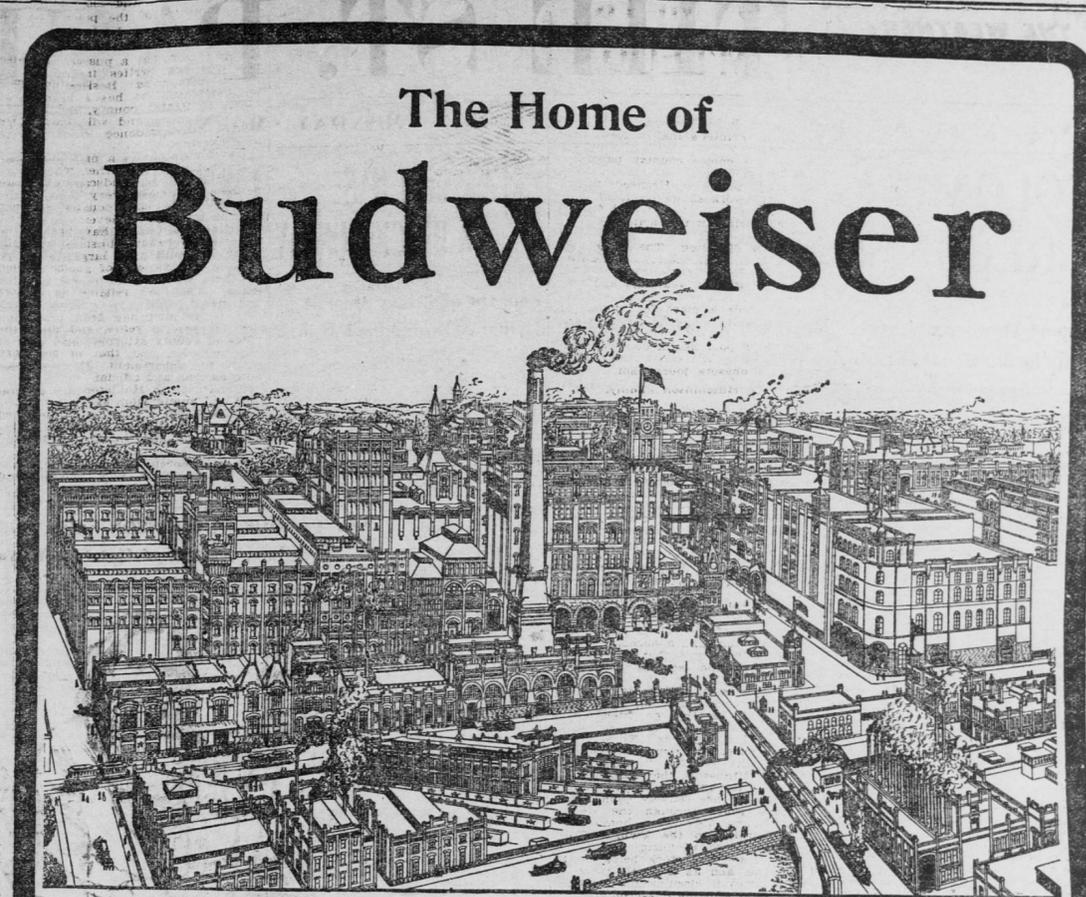

One idea already under consideration is that of making the fair of next year Fraternal Order day, and devote it to the various secret orders. Headquarters would be established for each of the various secret orders and the members of the various organizations would be able to meet fellow members from outside the Twin Cities.

In the evening it is proposed to have the various degree teams of the different orders give exhibition drills under calcium light before the grand stand, and it is possible that some adequate prize may be offered for the team making the most creditable showing.

The foregoing plan is believed to promise one of the most successful fairs to be held in the history of the state.

On the rain-soaked grounds the exhibitors were busy packing their goods into huge vans and express wagons, while in the executive building Secretary E. W. Randall and President Conroy were already discussing suggestions for making the next fair better than anything which has gone before.

One idea already under consideration is that of making the fair of next year Fraternal Order day, and devote it to the various secret orders. Headquarters would be established for each of the various secret orders and the members of the various organizations would be able to meet fellow members from outside the Twin Cities.

The Home of Anheuser-Busch Plant

St. Louis, U. S. A. A few of the Principal Buildings of the Anheuser-Busch Plant

Covers 125 Acres—Equal to 60 City Blocks Employs 5,000 People

Sales for Year 1865: 8,000 Barrels of Beer Sales for Year 1902: 1,109,315 Barrels of Beer

SAYS HE NAILED A LIE

Ed Young Admits He Will Be Candidate for Att'y Gen.

Former State Senator Young, of Appleton, who will try for the Republican nomination for attorney general, thinks the campaign methods which incited him to cause the arrest of George Thompson for criminal libel not only damnable but calculated to militate against a big Republican majority in Minnesota next year.

Senator Young was in St. Paul yesterday on his way to Henderson to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jane Young, who died suddenly Saturday at the age of eighty-five years.

Speaking of his recent criminal libel action against George Thompson, proprietor of the Dispatch, Senator Thompson said:

"I have received a good deal of unpleasant notoriety from that criminal libel suit. I may or may not be a candidate for attorney general. Probably I will, but in any event, I have nailed a damnable and perhaps assisted in putting an end to tactics that can only injure the Republican party. These charges and counter charges of corporation interference and factional adherence will do no Republican any good and only besmirch the party, to the shrinkage of a majority which next year should be very large, with Roosevelt heading the ticket."

"I have had no conferences or agreements with Mr. Dunn on any other candidate or office affecting my candidacy or that of anybody else. But it seems only necessary for these people to sit down and frame up an entire conspiracy, according to the dictates of their own fancy and desires, regardless of the injury that may be done anyone."

"The question of state government is a very simple one. We have laws to be enforced, the people expect no more, and I am sure no candidate desires to do less. There is not only no need for all this noise, but it must prove harmful to every one concerned."

TELLS OF MISSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CHURCH

Rev. G. L. Morrill, of Minneapolis, Pays a Tribute to St. Paul.

G. L. Morrill, of the People's church, Minneapolis, who for the last six Sundays has been supplying Dr. S. G. Smith's pulpit in his absence abroad, yesterday morning on "The Mission of the People's Church." Among other things he said:

"St. Paul is beautiful, wealthy and entertaining; she has schools, libraries and art, and the problem is to make inward character correspond with outward prosperity. The world is full of hopeful and helpful influences, but there is none so gentle and great as the cross with its outstretched hands pointing to duty and destiny."

"The People's church is an object lesson, and a commentary on the scripture that God is love. If we love not our brother, whom we have seen, we lie and do not tell the truth if we

SAYS HE NAILED A LIE

Ed Young Admits He Will Be Candidate for Att'y Gen.

Former State Senator Young, of Appleton, who will try for the Republican nomination for attorney general, thinks the campaign methods which incited him to cause the arrest of George Thompson for criminal libel not only damnable but calculated to militate against a big Republican majority in Minnesota next year.

Senator Young was in St. Paul yesterday on his way to Henderson to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jane Young, who died suddenly Saturday at the age of eighty-five years.

Speaking of his recent criminal libel action against George Thompson, proprietor of the Dispatch, Senator Thompson said:

"I have received a good deal of unpleasant notoriety from that criminal libel suit. I may or may not be a candidate for attorney general. Probably I will, but in any event, I have nailed a damnable and perhaps assisted in putting an end to tactics that can only injure the Republican party. These charges and counter charges of corporation interference and factional adherence will do no Republican any good and only besmirch the party, to the shrinkage of a majority which next year should be very large, with Roosevelt heading the ticket."

"I have had no conferences or agreements with Mr. Dunn on any other candidate or office affecting my candidacy or that of anybody else. But it seems only necessary for these people to sit down and frame up an entire conspiracy, according to the dictates of their own fancy and desires, regardless of the injury that may be done anyone."

"The question of state government is a very simple one. We have laws to be enforced, the people expect no more, and I am sure no candidate desires to do less. There is not only no need for all this noise, but it must prove harmful to every one concerned."

TELLS OF MISSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CHURCH

Rev. G. L. Morrill, of Minneapolis, Pays a Tribute to St. Paul.

G. L. Morrill, of the People's church, Minneapolis, who for the last six Sundays has been supplying Dr. S. G. Smith's pulpit in his absence abroad, yesterday morning on "The Mission of the People's Church." Among other things he said:

"St. Paul is beautiful, wealthy and entertaining; she has schools, libraries and art, and the problem is to make inward character correspond with outward prosperity. The world is full of hopeful and helpful influences, but there is none so gentle and great as the cross with its outstretched hands pointing to duty and destiny."

"The People's church is an object lesson, and a commentary on the scripture that God is love. If we love not our brother, whom we have seen, we lie and do not tell the truth if we

SAYS HE NAILED A LIE

Ed Young Admits He Will Be Candidate for Att'y Gen.

Former State Senator Young, of Appleton, who will try for the Republican nomination for attorney general, thinks the campaign methods which incited him to cause the arrest of George Thompson for criminal libel not only damnable but calculated to militate against a big Republican majority in Minnesota next year.

Senator Young was in St. Paul yesterday on his way to Henderson to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jane Young, who died suddenly Saturday at the age of eighty-five years.

Speaking of his recent criminal libel action against George Thompson, proprietor of the Dispatch, Senator Thompson said:

"I have received a good deal of unpleasant notoriety from that criminal libel suit. I may or may not be a candidate for attorney general. Probably I will, but in any event, I have nailed a damnable and perhaps assisted in putting an end to tactics that can only injure the Republican party. These charges and counter charges of corporation interference and factional adherence will do no Republican any good and only besmirch the party, to the shrinkage of a majority which next year should be very large, with Roosevelt heading the ticket."

"I have had no conferences or agreements with Mr. Dunn on any other candidate or office affecting my candidacy or that of anybody else. But it seems only necessary for these people to sit down and frame up an entire conspiracy, according to the dictates of their own fancy and desires, regardless of the injury that may be done anyone."

"The question of state government is a very simple one. We have laws to be enforced, the people expect no more, and I am sure no candidate desires to do less. There is not only no need for all this noise, but it must prove harmful to every one concerned."

TELLS OF MISSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CHURCH

Rev. G. L. Morrill, of Minneapolis, Pays a Tribute to St. Paul.

G. L. Morrill, of the People's church, Minneapolis, who for the last six Sundays has been supplying Dr. S. G. Smith's pulpit in his absence abroad, yesterday morning on "The Mission of the People's Church." Among other things he said:

"St. Paul is beautiful, wealthy and entertaining; she has schools, libraries and art, and the problem is to make inward character correspond with outward prosperity. The world is full of hopeful and helpful influences, but there is none so gentle and great as the cross with its outstretched hands pointing to duty and destiny."

"The People's church is an object lesson, and a commentary on the scripture that God is love. If we love not our brother, whom we have seen, we lie and do not tell the truth if we

DIDN'T EXHIBIT FADS

Reason Why St. Paul Schools Weren't Represented at Fair

Indifference of the school board and inability to make a showing favorable in comparison with the Minneapolis schools are the reasons that the St. Paul schools were not represented in the art and industrial exhibits made in the federation of clubs building at the fair last week.

The art and industrial features which have caused so much trouble in Minneapolis have not received much encouragement in St. Paul. There have been no fads in St. Paul and there was no St. Paul school exhibit at the fair, save that made by the pupils of the John Ericsson school.

There are in the St. Paul schools a number of competent and indefatigable teachers, who, according to the statements of Federation women, have worked like slaves to advance this particular branch of educational work. They have, it is said, met with but small encouragement from the school board, been hampered for means and facilities, and in consequence been unable to engender anything like a substantial interest.

An effort to have the St. Paul schools represented was made and some exhibits collected and taken to the fair grounds. After comparing them with the Minneapolis school exhibits the St. Paul women, satisfied that they could not make a fair showing, took their collections away again.

Women who have long been interested in the art and industrial branches of education, as applied to the public schools, say the removal of the St. Paul exhibits was not caused by any strife within the federation or because of any rivalry between the two cities. The St. Paul women realized that their exhibits could not, in comparison with the Minneapolis collections, do the St. Paul schools any credit or even full justice, and preferred not to disclose their weakness.

VISITORS TO FAIR HURRY BACK HOME

Trains on All Lines Are Crowded With Returning Excursionists.

Outbound traffic on all railroads was very heavy yesterday and Saturday night. It is expected that it will continue through today, for the limit on fair excursion tickets do not expire until this evening.

The returning travel began as early as Friday and gradually increased up to last night. Hundreds of fair visitors left on every train going out of the city. The heaviest travel yesterday was over the Great Northern and Northern Pacific. The Milwaukee overland express, a large exodus over all lines tonight.

Mrs. Mary E. Laughren Dead.

Mrs. Mary E. Laughren, wife of Thomas V. Laughren, a letter carrier, died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital, after a lingering illness. She was thirty-five years old and had resided in St. Paul many years. The funeral will be held from the residence, 175 Genesee street, Wednesday morning, with services at the St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock.

HAND SAPOLIO

Is especially valuable during the summer season, when outdoor occupations and sports are most in order. GRASS STAINS, MUD STAINS AND CALLOUS SPOTS yield to it, and it is particularly agreeable when used in the bath after violent exercise. ALL GROCERS AND DRUGGISTS