

KICK AND SCREAM

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema. Could Not Hold Her. Would Tear Her Face and Arms.

CURED BY CUTICURA

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cold creams and all kinds of remedies but nothing did her any good, in fact she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her in the bath for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura (Ointment), two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humor left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and any one suffering as she did, I should advise them to give Cuticura a fair trial."

Mrs. G. A. CONRAD, Lisbon, N. H. Feb. 7, 1894.

SIX YEARS AFTER

Mrs. Conrad Writes, Feb. 23, 1903, Cure Has Been Permanent.

"It is with pleasure that I can inform you that the cure has been permanent as it is now six years since she was cured and there has been no return of the disease since and I have advised a lot of friends to use the Cuticura Remedies in all diseases of the skin."

DRIVER SERIOUSLY HURT IN RUNAWAY

C. M. Darling Falls Between Team of Horses and Is Trampled Upon.

C. M. Darling, driver for the Ward-Corby company, residing at 228 East Tenth street, was seriously injured in a runaway at Merriam Park yesterday. He was watering his team at a fountain on University avenue, and walked out upon the tongue between the horses to adjust their harness when they became frightened and started to run away. Darling was thrown under the horses and was dragged for a considerable distance. When picked up he was found nearly unconscious. His head was badly bruised and several ribs were fractured. He was taken to the city hospital in the police ambulance. His injuries, though serious, are not thought to be fatal.

HAVE A JOLLY TIME ON HARRIET ISLAND

Athletic Sports, Dancing and Speechmaking Occupy the Time Agreeably.

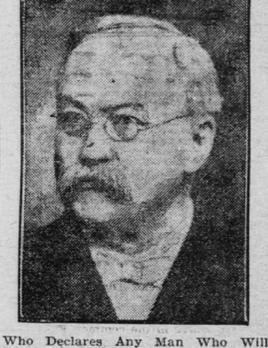

The crowd at Harriet Island was estimated at from 10,000 to 14,000, the greater number of them being union men and their families or friends.

Despite the morning rain and threatening clouds thousands of people enjoyed their noon lunches at the island, and many of them did not go home until a late hour last night.

Speechmaking, dancing and athletic contests all went on at the same time, but there were people enough to furnish a crowd at each place. In the dancing pavilion, at the lower end of the grounds, hundreds of young people struggled good naturedly for places on the floor, and as soon as one dance was finished the floor would fill up for another one.

The races and athletic events attracted thousands of people, who remained and cheered the victors until long after the sun had set. The last race took place last night, when the last race was finished. There were races for the men, for their wives and for their sweethearts, and races for the boys and girls as well. Hundreds of prizes were awarded, all of them being valuable ones. All of the prizes were donated by the business men of the city.

It is of the contests there was a large list of entries, many of the races being so crowded that it was necessary to run them in three or four sections. The track was damp and rather slippery, and in a number of races there were mixups, caused by some runner falling and a number piling on top. More than one dress was ruined in this manner.

The spectators crowded about the track in such numbers that it required a dozen officers to keep them back, and it was impossible to keep them off the course.

Stand Breaks Down. During the early part of the racing an impractical grandstand, on which were seated about 100 women and children, collapsed, and the spectators landed in a heap on the ground. Aside from a few scratches and some torn dresses, about the only damage noticed

A WORD OF EXPLANATION.

To Organized Labor and the Many Friends of the Retail Clerks' Union. The reason why the members of the Retail Clerks' union did not participate in the Labor day parade is in part due to the fact that the Labor day committee did invite to participate in one of the carriages a merchant. This was taken on the broad platform that the retail clerks do not favor the advertising of any one merchant at the expense of all others. Board Retail Clerks' Union No. 2.

able was the destruction of a number of well filled lunch baskets which had been placed under the stand. Following is a complete list of the athletic events, with the winners of the prizes offered:

100-yard race (union men only)—Emil Olson first, F. Hoke, second, George Kuske third, H. Farnsworth fourth. 75-yard race (boys fifteen years and under)—Mrs. W. Davis first, Mrs. John Imrey second, Mrs. A. E. Staenstrom third, Mrs. J. O'Brien fourth. Young ladies' race, 100 yards (union girls only)—Josephine Halley first, Nellie Kennedy second, Gussie Main third, Anna Marthaler fourth. Boys' open race, 100 yards—W. Schweyzer first, James O'Connor second, Eddie Martineau third. Union men with largest family at picnic—Leonard Schaefer, eight children, first; S. Groebel, six second; William McAvoy, six third; M. A. Marsh, five fourth.

Archbishop Ireland Speaks. The principal address of the day was made by Archbishop Ireland, and was listened to by thousands of people with much interest. The speakers were introduced by C. E. James, president of the trades and labor assembly. Corporation Attorney J. C. Michael, in the absence of Mayor Smith, made an address of welcome, in which he praised the objects of unionism, and complimented the union men on the splendid crowd they had turned out. Collis P. Lovely, vice president of the International Shoe Workers' union, delivered an address on unionism, its benefits and possibilities. Mr. Lovely is a fluent speaker and was enthusiastically cheered. He said there was unionism in more walks of life than people dreamed of. He cited the fact that the bar association was practicing Knocked Him Senseless. G. W. Penny, a barber, and John Carney and Joseph Hamlin, loggers, had a dispute on Hill street last night which led to a fight. Penny was knocked senseless by blows which rendered him insensible. His cries when he was attacked were heard at the central police station, and Patrolman Patrick Smith ran to the scene of the disturbance and placed the three men under arrest. They are charged with disorderly conduct.

will not condone. Nor will the people wait for the courts to act when the honor of a woman is being assailed. Vengeance, sure and swift, must be meted out and the rope is the only agency which will accomplish its mission. The better element of the South condemns the burning of negroes as barbarous, but it is well established rule that when a negro assaults a white woman he must die.

Two great catastrophes, coming at the most critical times, have befallen the South. One was the assassination of Lincoln, the other the killing of McKinley. Lincoln's death at the hands of a murderer came at the time of the trying reconstruction. McKinley was cut down just when it seemed that the ranks of the solid South were about to be broken. McKinley was much loved and respected in the South, and our people recognized the great and good work his influence had accomplished.

But whatever may be said on behalf of the late martyred president, the opposite is true of the man who took up the work where he left off. The people of the South recognize in him a disturbing element, prone to open the old sores which had partly healed. The invitation to Booker T. Washington to dine at the White house was a direct insult to the colored man, and is regarded as an attempt to bring about a condition which can never be an equality between the members of the white and the black race.

"This talk of denying the negro the right of the ballot in the South is based on falsehood. A large portion of the negro population of the South, by law which intervenes equally to the ignorant white man. Good citizenship is one of the requirements of an elector, and by this means many of the negroes are barred."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. THIS INFORMATION WILL PROVE A BOON TO ST. PAUL MOTHERS. If a juvenile member of your family lacks control over the kidney secretions at night do not scold or whip the child. The coating or lining of the bladder is inflamed, and the secretions are so full of acid that they irritate that organ and bed wetting is the result. The hundreds of testimonials from every state in the Union, all declaring children have been cured of this weakness by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, prove that at least in their case the remedy did what was promised, namely, it stopped the so-called habit. Here is proof for St. Paul mothers:

The use of Doan's Kidney Pills, prove that at least in their case the remedy did what was promised, namely, it stopped the so-called habit. Here is proof for St. Paul mothers: Mrs. T. Downey, 850 Agate street, says: "I can highly advise the use of Doan's Kidney Pills for such cases as that of our boy. When he was about four years old he received a severe fall which injured his back and kidneys. He complained of a backache and was troubled with a kidney weakness, annoying at night, causing me trouble and anxiety. We tried many remedies and doctors treated him, but nothing did him much good. When I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills I sent for F. M. Parker's drug store and got a box. There was a noticeable improvement in a short time, and after he used two and a half boxes all symptoms of his weakness and pains in the back disappeared. The cost of Doan's Kidney Pills is nothing compared to doctors' bills, and their work is decidedly satisfactory. For sale by all dealers, per box 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute."

TRAIN KILLS MAN IN SOUTH ST. PAUL

Is Lying on Track When Locomotive Runs Over Him—Body Is Not Identified.

An unknown man was run over and instantly killed at South St. Paul shortly before midnight last night by the south-bound Chicago Great Western passenger train.

The man, whose clothing indicated that he was a laborer, lay across the track, about half a mile south of South St. Paul. The train was moving at an average rate of speed, and the engineer was unable to stop it before the locomotive and tender had passed over the body.

The body was mangled beyond all recognition. No papers could be found in the pockets by which the remains could be identified.

The body was brought to St. Paul shortly after 2 o'clock this morning and delivered to Undertaker Damper.

Cardinal Gibbons Returning. BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 7.—Cardinal Gibbons has written to the priests of the cathedral stating that he will sail from Havre, France, for New York on Sept. 11, or the day following, and that he will probably arrive in Baltimore on Sept. 20. The cardinal is in Switzerland. Preparations are being made by the Catholic Benevolent Legion, of which the cardinal was one of the founders, and by other Catholic societies in Baltimore to give him an enthusiastic public reception upon his arrival in this city.

Great Crowd Blocks Island Entrance. The parade disbanded at the Harriet Island entrance, and the congestion as a result was so great that it was nearly an hour before the parade was dispersed. The streets were jammed to an extent that required considerable work on the part of the police to clear the way for resumption of traffic.

It was one of the biggest labor parades in the history of the capital city, and it was handled admirably. Three prizes of $25, $15 and $10 each were offered for the organizations making the best appearance in the parade.

BEATEN FOR DRIVING HIS OWN TEAM

Astonishing Action of Union Teamsters in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—L. J. Thornton, the proprietor of a warehouse and van company, was assaulted today during the labor parade because he was driving one of his own teams without having a union card in his possession.

Thornton hired the horses to one of his vans in the morning and took a score or more of children out to see the parade. He attempted to haul nothing but his guests. For three hours he stood with his wagon at Jackson boulevard and Clark streets and watched the parade. When he attempted to drive away he was stopped by some of the teamsters in the parade and asked if he had a union card. He tried to explain that he needed no card, that it was his own team and that he was doing no hauling. Several hundred men gathered around the wagon and attempted to pull him off.

An escort of police enabled him to get several blocks away, when a mob numbering fully 1,000 caught up with him. He whipped up his horses and for nearly a mile he was pursued, when finally the mob cut the harness of his horses in several places, beat the animals with canes, compelling them to
