St. Paul Social Circles

The improved weather conditions of the past week put some life into society and the tennis players took heart of the sunshine and finished up their tournament in a blaze of glory. In spite of many drawbacks the tennis meet was the best ever held, and probably the event will be an annual affair. Now the plans for tennis and bridge are taking definite shape and the girls are given over to dressmakers, who are trying on bridesmaids' gowns, and the buying of wedding attire.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley B. Finch issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Lilla Shephard, to Mr. Sewall Du Bois Andrews of Minneapolis, which will take place on the evening of Thursday, Oct. 8, at Christ church, at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Theodore Segwick, assisted by the Rev. D. J. Andrews. Miss Florence Dudley Finch will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Rogers and Miss Hickey. The bridesmaids are Miss Bonnie Ransom and Miss Lillian De Coster, of this city. The maid of honor will be in pink and the bridesmaid in white. Mr. Thomas Wallace, of Minneapolis, will be Mr. Andrews' best man and the ushers will be John Pillsbury, Robert Hastings, Dr. McCrear, Miss J. J. Finch, W. V. S. Finch, cousin of the bride and Mr. Edward Holbert, of this city. The invitations to the reception at the residence of the bride and groom at Summit court, will be confined to the two families and to the young friends of the bride and groom. After a wedding journey to New York the bride and groom will reside at 1700 Portland avenue, Minneapolis, where they will receive their friends on Thursdays, Nov. 17 and 25. On their return a large dinner and dance will be given in their honor by Minneapolis friends of Mr. Andrews. Miss J. J. Finch, of the prettiest and most popular girls that St. Paul society has ever known and it is a matter of rejoicing to her friends that she is going so far away from Minneapolis. The unfortunate accident which occurred to Mr. Edward Holbert while shooting last week in the country, was saddened by a wedding party, but as the wound is not a serious one, it is hoped that Mr. Holbert will be at Miss Finch's wedding. His marriage to Miss Florence Finch will probably occur in April.

Mrs. Rodney Smith, of Western avenue, gave a small military tea Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hyde, wife of Col. Hyde, new quartermaster of this department and successor to Col. Pond.
