Government Puts Tax on Soda Fountains.

Local owners of soda and soft drink dispensing apparatus have a new item of expense this year. It is an investment of $25 in one of Uncle Sam's permits to sell liquor.

In a way the dispensing of claret sodas, which one expert says might be more truly called claret highballs, are responsible for the license, though in the main, it is because of the presence of a heavy percentage of alcohol in the syrup.

Not only is claret dispensed at the majority of the soda counters, but at some any kind of wine can be obtained. With the aid of syrups and charged water, it is dealt out under various names, but this does not make any difference with the office of the revenue collector. It is alcohol and must be paid for accordingly.

Local soda counter proprietors who failed to obey the warning of the revenue collector and secure the permit when the order was promulgated in the early part of the year paid dearly for their inattention, and now some of them have quit the dispensing of alcoholic beverages altogether.

Good fruit syrups are comparatively free from alcohol, but in the cheaper syrups, it is said, there is a heavy percentage of the intoxicant. Samples of the stuff were secured by the government and it was this that led to a demand for soda counters to pay a revenue tax or quit dispensing.

State Board Would Assess Famous Pacer at $30,000.

For the reason that nearly all of the members of the state board of equalization went to their homes to spend Sunday, there was no quorum yesterday and no business was done.

The amounts of increase in general throughout the state on the principal items of the schedule are as follows: Horses, $700,000; Cattle, $1,250,000; Pigs, $500,000; Farm implements, $600,000; Household goods, $400,000; Logs and lumber, $400,000; Manufacturers' tools, $4,300,000; Wagons, $400,000; Watches and clocks, $350,000; Pianos, $250,000; Sewing machines, $80,000; Organs, $50,000; Gold and silver plate, $150,000; Diamonds, $25,000.

FIRE WRECKS HOME

Residence of Former Patrolman Matlock Burned Down.

The residence of John Matlock, ex-patrolman, 1213 Sherburne avenue, was totally destroyed by fire, caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove last evening. The fire started shortly before 7 o'clock and within two hours the entire dwelling was consumed.

Before the alarm was turned in Patrolman Boerner had seen the fire from Como and had telephoned the fire department. Upon receipt of the message the patrolman left the Prior station to make an investigation.

When the fire department arrived the fire had gained such headway that nothing could be done. The house contained seven rooms, which were well furnished, but nothing was saved.

Mrs. Matlock, who was seen last night, stated that the furniture was valued at about $1,500. She said that the furniture had been insured, but that the insurance company would not pay for the loss.

MARRIAGES MAY BE MADE MORE PUBLIC

Frequency of Mismatings May Lead to a Change of the Iowa Law.

Special to The Globe. MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 21.—The divorce business in Polk county this fall is one of many pathetic pictures of mismatched people which have been drawn for the benefit of judges and members of the bar by the cause of discussion which may result in an act for a new law by the legislature which meets here this winter.

Among those petitioning for divorce is a man, who says he married after having had two conversations with the woman. It was a case of love at first sight and a hurried wedding. Three days later, he averts, he discovered that she was not what he had thought she was.

From the state board of control the state auditor's department has received a statement of the miscellaneous receipts of the various state institutions for August as follows:
