WILL KILL ALL THE BULGARS CAPTURED

Amiable Advice Is Adopted by the Sultan, Who Issues the Necessary Orders—The Belief at Sofia Is That the War Cloud Has Passed—Great Britain Is Alone in Demanding Reforms in Macedonia.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Times learns from a trustworthy source that the palace committee of the yildiz kiosk has recommended that all Bulgarians captured in the future shall be shot. It is stated that the sultan holds the same view, and that the necessary orders have been issued.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 28.—The situation here is much brighter today and the war clouds appear to have lifted. The port's assurance that the thirty-two battalions recently ordered to proceed from Monastir to Adrianople will not be moved has lessened the apprehension of the Bulgarian government.

The committee appointed at yesterday's demonstration of 15,000 Macedonians in this city waited on Premier Petroff this afternoon and asked him if the government intended to do anything to help the Macedonians. M. Petroff replied that the ministry was acting in what it conceived to be the best interests of Bulgaria, and would continue the same policy.

"Although the Bulgarians remain quiet, it is not a true indication of the national feeling, but it is owing to the approaching elections. It will not be long before everybody will try to force the government into action."

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Constantinople

nople correspondent of the Times telegraphs that Great Britain has made vigorous and constant protests against the excesses committed by the Turkish troops, but that she apparently does not feel herself strong enough to break down the opposition of Germany, Russia and Austria and insist on real, instead of paper, reforms in Macedonia.

Fifty Thousand Refugees. MONASTIR, Macedonia, Sept. 28.—It is estimated that 50,000 villagers of the Vilayet of Monastir are now refugees in the mountains and mostly in a terribly destitute condition. They escaped from the 111 villages which have been wholly or partially burned by the Turks, which contained 10,322 houses, of which 9,687 were burned. At Malkotirno only a hundred Bulgarian families remain out of 1,500. A body of 200 families fleeing toward Bulgaria from villages in the Losengard district were surrounded by Turkish troops in the Urumbudjak mountains, and all of them are alleged to have been slaughtered.

Butcher Is Honored. SALONICA, European Turkey, Sept. 28.—Bakhar Pasha, who was responsible for the massacres at Krushevo and Smilevo, has been decorated with the order of the Merjide, of the first class. He has been sent to the district of Kavala, where six villages usually already been burned and many insurgents killed.

Crying Quits. BERLIN, Sept. 28.—According to a dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger, prominent Macedonians are urging the revolutionary leaders to discontinue the uprising.

INDIANA WOMAN DIES AFTER SCOFFING AT "13"

Mrs. Katherine Gilbert Was Not Disturbed Because Fatal Number Appeared at Banquet.

DUBLIN, Ind., Sept. 28.—The unlucky number thirteen is again in evidence with the death of Mrs. Katherine Gilbert, aged fifty-one, a prominent society woman of this place.

Last Wednesday at a banquet given by Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bales for the Maria Washington society, of which Mrs. Gilbert was a member, there were thirteen present. The hostess, superstitious of the number thirteen, declared she would not sit at the table, whereupon Mrs. Gilbert scoffed. This morning Mrs. Gilbert fell dead.

REPUBLICAN RIOTERS WOULD KILL SON, TOO

One of Most Disgraceful Scenes Furnished by Politics.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—After one of the most riotous scenes ever enacted in a political meeting in Brooklyn, the Republican county state made by former Lieut. Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff, was smashed tonight and Henry Belden Ketchum was nominated for district attorney of Kings county in place of George F. Elliott, who was Mr. Woodruff's candidate.

While the contention was in an uproar and fighting had begun in the hall, Mr. Ketchum attempted to withdraw his name and his clothing was torn from his body by his partisans, who attempted to drag him from the room to prevent his withdrawal. In the street Mr. Ketchum fainted.

The noise of the riot drew the police to the hall and they charged down the center aisle, clubbing right and left, forcing the delegates into their seats and separating those who were fighting.

Mr. Woodruff was drawn into the personal encounters and was roughly handled. A conference men were earlier in the evening. Mr. Elliott had been agreed upon for district attorney. This conference was between the Republicans and the Fusionists. The row started soon after the convention assembled.

LIKE THE WORK OF "JACK THE RIPPER" Mutilated Body of a Murdered Boy Is Found in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—With the discovery of the body of a boy fourteen years old on the bulkheads at Katherine street and East river today, the police are confronted with evidence of a crime that recalls the deeds of "Jack the Ripper." Marks on the boy's body showed that he had been cruelly maltreated, and the police are satisfied that he was murdered. There are evidences that a woman was connected with the crime.

The body was discovered under a piece of canvas, on which were three heavy pieces of timber, apparently placed there to give the impression that the boy had been sleeping under the canvas and the timbers had fallen on him. Investigation showed that the timbers had been placed on the body after death. Scores of persons saw the body today, but no one could identify it.

SMOKING HANNA OUT GOLD QUEST FUTILE

Democratic Chairman Insists Upon a Joint Debate.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 28.—Charles P. Saleo, chairman of the Ohio Democratic state executive committee, has made the following reply to Chairman Dick's letter of last night, sent from Columbus:

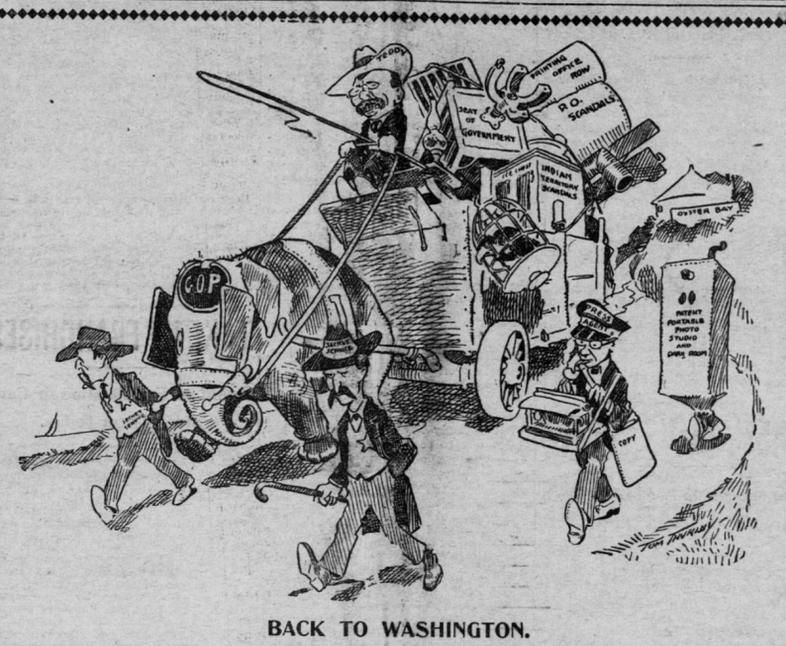

"Your two-column letter discussing every phase of politics from the Penobscot to the Rio Grande and concluding with the assertion that there is nothing to discuss is noted in the public prints. Unless you have exhausted the subject yourself in the article, your candidate might find something to discuss of a political nature at the present time. But for your assertion of your own candor I would be inclined to doubt your sincerity. The paramount issue of the senatorial contest in this campaign is the public record of Senator A. Hanna and his unfitness by reason thereof to be returned to the United States senate.

Mr. Clarke has attacked his public record, and joined issue with the present senator upon his record: First, in fathering the ship subsidy bill, which seeks to take from the people's treasury $10,000,000 annually and put it into the treasury of the steamship companies; second, in forcing through the legislature the reactionary and expensive municipal code, which denies home rule to the cities of the state, and, third, in using his official position to secure for himself and associates franchise privileges to the injury of the people—you can get this information by inquiring of Senator Hanna himself.

"He is on record as saying that his public record has been outrageously attacked, and that when he goes upon the platform he will have something to say about it. I have asked you to arrange that Mr. Clarke may be present when he says it. You decline for reasons that do not assert that candor compels you to give the real reason for declining a joint discussion.

"Hon. M. A. Hanna understands that the above issues as to the merits of these measures, which he has championed, are closely joined, perhaps too closely joined for joint discussion. I trust, after advising with him, you will become informed as to the situation and accept our challenge. It is not Senator Bailey's 'free wool' in Texas which interests the people of Ohio, but the wool which I fear you are trying to pull over the eyes of the people. Again, on behalf of Hon. John H. Clarke, I ask you to arrange for a joint discussion between him and Senator Hanna on the political issues of the campaign."

ONE MORE GLOOMY DAY IN WALL STREET

Mr. Schiff Says This Is Only a Fever Which Must Run Its Course.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Wall street spent another gloomy day, which was devoted mostly to trying to puzzle out where the unending stream of liquidation came from and what caused it. Information on the subject, or even authoritative opinions, were extremely hard to get. It is pointed out that the great bankers and capitalists were not heard of in warning last year during the high range of prices, while they were seeking a profitable market for their holdings at that level. From this it is inferred that the buyers of a class which declines are not likely to be heard of in inciting others to buy if they were themselves seeking securities on cheap terms in the present market.

There is, in fact, rather a notable lack of public quotation of authorities pointing the cheapness of stocks which has been heard from time to time during the long decline, and it is likely to be considerably above the present. But it is equally true that men seeking a market to realize ready money at forced sale of securities are not likely to miss any means of concealing their transactions. The source of selling orders in the present market is a baffling mystery and is usually drawn from the personality of the broker.

FORTUNE COMES TO DES MOINES JANITOR

After Seeking Wealth in the Klondike It Finds Him in a Humdrum Way.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 28.—W. T. Berry, of this city, who has been searching for wealth in California and the Klondike for fifteen years, has just discovered that all the time a fortune was tripping at his heels. After settling down to the humble life of a janitor in the capital city with a contented spirit, he met that for which he had searched for years face to face upon the streets, and within a few weeks will receive the handsome sum of money which has been waiting in the bank at Gloverville, N. Y., in his discovery.

Under circumstances most peculiar did he learn of the amassed riches. During the past week, while going to work in the Y. M. C. building, he met an elderly man, whose face looked familiar, but whom he could not place. For years his father had been dead, and as he supposed all of his aunts and uncles, he passed by without a word, but at some distance turned to see that the pedestrian was looking back toward him. He retraced his steps and introduced himself, saying: "You are a stranger to this city. I do not know you, but your face seems familiar. My name is Berry, W. T. Berry."

"So's mine," was the reply, "and I

DELAWARE INDIANS ALLEGE FRAUD

They Accuse the Dawes Commission of Unlawful Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28.—Justice Anderson of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, rendered an opinion today in the injunction proceedings of the Delaware Indians against Secretary Hitchcock and the Dawes Indian commission, dissolving the temporary injunction heretofore granted. The case involved the right of the secretary to pass on the 157,000 acres of land in the Cherokee Nation segregated for the use of the Delaware Indians. The Indians claimed that the secretary is without authority to approve or disapprove of the segregation, and that the Indians are entitled to be heard in the court of claims on behalf of the Delaware Indians against the United States asking that damages be awarded in the sum of $1,000,000 because of the expense to which the Indians have been subjected because of the necessity of defending title to their lands.

In this petition they make some sense.

RIOTERS AGITATE THE CANADIAN SOO

Unpaid Employes of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, Angry Because the Company's Promise to Pay Was Not Kept, Become so Turbulent That Troops Are Sent Against Them—Office Building Assailed.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Sept. 28.—Tonight the situation in the Canadian Soo, which has been the scene of serious rioting by the discharged employes of the Consolidated Lake Superior company all day, is very grave. No reinforcements of militia have arrived from outside, and the only defense against the mob, which grows hourly, is a more or less demoralized police department, and a small company of militiamen.

An assault upon the office building by the mob early this afternoon before the arrival on the ground of troops was successful, and a mass of frenzied men secured possession of the ground floor of the building, destroying everything movable that came in their path. A crowd of the office staff, with drawn revolvers, prevented their gaining access to the upper floors of the building. Every window and door in the building is smashed in. The arrival of the troops on the grounds, armed with ball cartridges, about 2 o'clock, served to restore some semblance of order. The rioters then contented themselves with throwing stones at the building and hurling invectives at the soldiers, who established "dead lines" and prevented any approach toward the building by any of the mob.

The greatest number of the mob are ignorant Italians, Finns, Norwegians and Frenchmen, the latter perhaps the hardest of all to handle. All have been drinking, although the bars this afternoon are closed, and the rioting is up. The mob is one that cannot be reasoned with, and the men they seem most anxious to get at is Mr. Coyne, the assistant manager, who, in the absence of Mr. Shields, is in charge of the works. Mr. Coyne has discreetly kept out of sight all day.

Demand Food. Late this afternoon the leaders of the mob held a conference and demanded that the company house the men in their hotel and boarding house and feed them until the money for their wages is forthcoming. In order to appease the crowd, this demand was granted, and the men have taken possession of the White house, a large boarding house operated by the company. Provisions are being sent there to feed them. An attempt is being made to put the street car system in the Canadian Soo, which suspended operations this morning after an attack had been made on it, into operation again. The cars were sent out late this afternoon heavily guarded, inasmuch as most of the rioters were in the streets at the time this trial but it is feared that when the fire breaks up tonight the attack upon the cars will be renewed.

It is estimated that there 2,000 men in the Soo tonight, and these are reinforced by all the idle rabble in town. A train carrying 400 more workmen is expected to arrive on the Algoma Central tonight. The local police force is being strengthened by the addition of all the deputies who can be found, each man being given a badge and a revolver and ordered to use the latter whenever necessary.

Considerable feeling has been aroused over the shooting of two Frenchmen by the police during the trouble this morning. The rioters say that the officers used their revolvers when it was unnecessary. Neither of the men is fatally hurt, however. The mob threatens an attack on police headquarters with a view of effecting the release of all the men who have been arrested. Both this building and that occupied by the fire department are guarded against attack. The problem today's development

CARLYLE AND A PIANO MAKE WOMAN MISERABLE

Her Husband Read One and Improvised on the Other, and Now His Wife Has Recourse to the Divorce Court.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Constant perusal of the works of Thomas Carlyle, the British philosopher, by John P. Inermehle are alleged to be responsible for the suit for divorce brought by his wife.

In court today she said he not only read Carlyle's books continually, but that he seemed to have imbibed therefrom some of the philosopher's intransigibility, for her unbearable. Another cause for the divorce was that he insisted on improvising on the piano.

KILLED BY CALLING

Woman Shouts for Rubbers and Bursts a Blood Vessel.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. WINONA, Minn., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Mason Grover, wife of a prominent farmer residing across the river in Wisconsin, is dying at her home as the result of breaking a blood vessel in her head.

Mrs. Grover went out to the field to bring in the cattle. She came to a pool of water where the cowboys had called to persons in the house a short distance away for some one to bring her rubbers. Persons in the house did not hear her cries, and she continued calling in a louder voice each time. She was later found by the pond unconscious, and a physician was called, and he said that in calling so loud for her rubbers she burst a blood vessel in her head. She is yet delirious.

MAYOR OF STANFORD GOES TO COLLEGE

Executive Thinks He Ought to Know More.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 28.—People who saw a short, well built, determined looking chap, somewhat boyish in appearance, striding modestly across the Yale campus when Yale opened her doors for her two hundred and third year, might have thought he was just a freshman. But in fact he was no other than Mayor Charles H. Leeds, of Stamford, who has decided that he needs more of a college career than he was able to obtain in Princeton, where he graduated some years ago. The mayor seemed somehow to have imbibed the university spirit, and his experience at manipulating ward caucuses and presiding at meetings of the board of aldermen in Stamford had given him more of a confident air than is usually observed in a freshman.

The mayor went at once to the office of Dean Phillips, of the graduate school, where he registered on a small piece of paper, giving his name and address and his occupation as mayor. This done, he sought Prof. S. C. Schwab, the head of the department of political economy, with whom he had a short chat. The mayor chose the following list of studies with which he will struggle for the coming three years to enable him, if he is successful, to carry away from Yale a Ph. D. in Finance, public finance, railroad reports, elementary economics, elementary statistics, ethnology and English history.

"Do you intend to try for the football team or enter athletics?" was asked of Mayor Leeds. "Oh, no, I am a little fellow," responded the mayor jovially, "and, besides, I think I will have enough to do to be mayor of Stamford and a student of philosophy and economics at Yale without studying flying wedges or home runs."

FOUR YOUNG MEN ARE REGARDED LOST

They Go Sailing on a Wisconsin Lake and Do Not Return.

MENASHA, Wis., Sept. 28.—John Gambaki, William Gambaki, John Frederick and John Gambaki, aged from fifteen to twenty-three years, are missing on Lake Winnebago and have been given up for lost. They left Menasha Sunday afternoon in a small sailboat for the Calumet county shore to gather hickory nuts and have not been heard from.

More Work With More Pay. CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—At a meeting tonight of the Amalgamated Association of Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen it was decided to refuse the offer of the employers to grant a 5 per cent increase in wages provided a corresponding increase was made in the hours of work. It is expected that action on the refusal will be taken on Wednesday by the employees. The offer of an increase in pay for an increase in work hours, which was repulsed by the men for an increase of 5 per cent in their wages.
