Expert treatment is what you want. Have your Varicocele cured where thousands have had theirs cured. Consultation free.

VIEWS OF A RELIABLE SPECIALIST.

So much has been said about Varicocele in medical advertisements that every man ought to know if he has it or not. It is a solid fact, however, that we run across men every day that are complaining of weakness who have been so negligent as to not even examine themselves and discover their trouble until it has run them down and weakened them sexually, mentally and physically.

"Varicocele," a prevalent disease of men, is a dilatation or enlargement of the veins of the spermatic cord in the scrotum, which from various causes become corded and knotty, feeling like a bundle of angle worms when taken in the hand. It usually occurs on the left side and produces dragging sensations in the groin and back. It impairs the general health and causes much worry; your brain becomes weak and you grow despondent.

No sensible man should wait. He should realize that the longer he delays the more the organ affected will waste away. Don't live and linger. DEAD to the pleasures of life, and the disfigurement of the face, are the result of a neglected Varicocele and can make you a happy, manly man with sexual, mental and physical powers complete. We cure in three days without cutting or pain. We don't ask you to take chances on our skill and cure. We will take your case on bank guarantee. Call or write today. ## URUGUAYAN POLICE KILL BRAZILIANS

Santa Ana Citizens Shot Down In Attempt to Rescue Arrested Man.

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Nov. 5.—A serious combat has taken place on the Brazilian frontier between the Uruguayan police and Brazilians. Several persons were killed and a number wounded.

The Uruguayan police arrested a man named Gentil Gomez at Rivera. Residents of Santa Ana Dolivramento thereupon crossed the boundary line and made an attack. According to official dispatches from Rivera, the mayor of Santa Ana, who is a brother of Gomez, demanded his surrender. The executive of Rivera refused the mayor's request, whereupon that official arrived at the frontier with a regiment of cavalry and numerous armed persons.

The Uruguayan consul at Santa Ana telegraphed that a mob had stoned the consulate.

Later telegrams say that the Brazilians opened fire upon Uruguayans, killing four persons and wounding several others. Finally the executive of Rivera announced that his own soldiers charged with the custody of Gomez had gone off to Brazil with the prisoners.

The government directed the Uruguayan minister at Rio Janeiro to protest against the proceedings and has received a reply from the Brazilian minister of foreign affairs, saying he laments the difficulty and will investigate at once.

PROF. MOMMSEN BURIED.

Emperor William Sends Crown Prince to Historian's Funeral.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—The funeral of Prof. Mommsen, the historian, took place today. A great number of scholars, ambassadors, cabinet ministers and foreign delegates were present. The Crown Prince Frederick William represented the emperor. The services were held at the Emperor William Memorial church. The emperor sent a bouquet of chrysanthemums and palms which the crown prince laid at the head of the bier.

Prof. Mommsen's children, of whom twelve of the sixteen are living, occupied the chancel with the grandchildren. Frau Mommsen, the widow, was too ill to attend. Among the cabinet ministers present were Secretary of the Interior, von Posadowsky-Wehner, Minister of Commerce Moeller, Minister of Instruction Studt and Minister of Agriculture von Podbielski. The burghomasters of Berlin and Charlottenberg, hundreds of university professors, literary men and artists and delegations from the Vienna, Leipzig and other universities were among the congregation. The octogenarian artist Meusel, one of the few surviving contemporaries of Mommsen's early manhood, occupied a front seat.

The corps of students in mediaeval uniforms of striking colors with gold-fringed banners emblazoned with the corps insignia, stood in the background around the walls of the church.

Prof. Harnack, who was appointed in Mommsen's will to be the official speaker at the historian's funeral, pronounced the eulogy preceding his discourse with reading the ninth Psalm, and the choir sang hymns. With these exceptions the services were not of a religious character.

The funeral procession to Trinity churchyard passed between crowds of people standing bareheaded. A royal carriage followed the hearse. The cortege was empty, the crown prince having been driven to the palace immediately after the services.

HICKS-BEACH ANSWERS.

Denies Chamberlain's Claim That British Trade is Decaying.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 5.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, formerly chancellor of the exchequer, addressing a meeting of business men here today, said that every man ought to know if he is being dealt with unfairly. He therefore would not deal with that part of the present fiscal controversy. The great question was whether the guiding principle of the customs tariff should be free imports or protection. He rebuffed Joseph Chamberlain's claims that British trade was decaying. The total value of British exports, he said, Great Britain had increased, he said, and the growth of imports was evidence of the increasing wealth of the country. Nothing could be worse for British industry than to have a tariff on an attempt to make imports dearer.

Alluding to Mr. Chamberlain's characterization of the leaders of the free food party as "little Englanders," Sir Michael said he was a wider imperialist than Mr. Chamberlain. He had preached the doctrine of a permanent union of the empire in England and Canada thirty and forty years ago. "When Mr. Chamberlain's policies did not extend beyond Birmingham," he said. The speaker further said that he refused to accept Mr. Chamberlain's policy, which, he believed, would divide the United Kingdom and substitute for the existing good will friction between Great Britain and her colonies. He was not an "little Englander," but, on the contrary, he considered the welfare of the empire as a whole.

OBJECT TO SANITARIUM.

Residents of Island of Capri Aroused by Prof. Von Behring.

ROME, Nov. 5.—The residents of the island of Capri are indignantly protesting against the plan of Prof. von Behring to transform the villa which he bought from the family of the late Herr Krupp, the famous gunmaker of Essen, into a laboratory for the manufacture of an anti-tubercular drug, a sanatorium for the treatment of people affected with tuberculosis. The people of Capri say that it would injure the reputation of the island, which depends for its revenues almost entirely on foreign visitors. They have interested several members of the chamber of deputies in their protest and hope to present the matter by carrying out of Prof. von Behring's project.

AFTER MAJ. WONG'S HEAD.

Russia Again Demands Execution of Chinese Officer.

PEKIN, Nov. 5.—Paul Lessar, the Russian minister to China, has repeated the demands of Russia for the execution of Maj. Wong, who recently defected to a noted brigand in Russian employ, and the dismissal of Yuan, the taoist of Mukden, who is Wong's superior officer. The Chinese officials here are unable to say whether Russia proposes to withdraw her troops from Mukden and release the Tartar general of that city, now held in custody in his yamen if these demands are granted.

Minister Lessar has informed the officials of the Chinese foreign office that he is surprised that they should consider Russia's action in this matter high-handed. In view of the circumstances he considers it was lenient. The Russians think the execution without trial of the brigand who was acting as chief of an irregular force of Russian police will be part of China's policy to terrify the Chinese and to prevent them from entering the military employ of Russia in Manchuria.

The brigand whose execution caused the trouble referred to was accused of many crimes against the Chinese. Recently the Russians acceded to China's demands for his surrender, whereupon he was promptly decapitated.

When this became known Russia demanded the execution of the officer who ordered the killing of the bandit, giving as an alternative the seizure of Mukden within five days. The Chinese offered to banish the officer and to remove Taotai Yuen from office. Negotiations were in progress when Mukden was occupied by the Russians.

MURDERER IS IDENTIFIED.

London Police Locate Lodging Place of Armenian Assassin.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The police have located the lodging place up to Oct. 24 of Gorgie Yagie, the murderer of the two Armenian delegates to the revolutionary convention yesterday, and who committed suicide immediately afterwards, and they are satisfied that he was identical with the murderer of Sagat Sagouni, president of the Armenian revolutionary society in London. It is not known where he lived since Oct. 24, when he left his lodgings after notifying the landlord that he did not want his room any longer. This was two days before the first murder was committed.

All the members of the Hentchakist society are in a state of great alarm. They are satisfied that their enemies, the Alfarists, will appoint a successor to carry on the work of extermination of the Hentchakist leaders. The members of the Hentchakist society reiterate that the murderer was sent here from the United States and that he was especially selected on account of his good marksmanship.

Yuan Shai Kai Waited at Tien-tsin.

dispatched to Mukden by the dowager empress with instructions to investigate affairs there and if possible to arrange a settlement with the Russians. He did not go any further than Tien-tsin, which he reached yesterday evening. It is now considered doubtful whether he will go to Mukden at all.

The Chinese are more enraged at the Russian proceedings at Mukden than they have been by any events since the capture of Pekin. Some of the hot-headed members of the council have advised the dowager empress to declare war on Russia and send troops to release the Tartar general, whose detention at Mukden, growing out of the decapitation of the Chinese bandit who had enlisted in the Russian service but who fell into the hands of the Chinese after the Russians had evacuated Mukden, wounds Chinese susceptibilities, since it is considered to be not only an insult to a high official but as insulting to the Chinese government itself. Better informed officials, however, realize the helplessness of China and the madness of attempting to go to war with Russia. Their counsels have hitherto prevailed, though there is much baseless war talk in the native press and among the younger Chinese officials.

Vatican Exhibits for World's Fair.

ROME, Nov. 5.—William E. Curtis was received in private audience by the pope today at the Vatican, and extended his holiness an invitation to send a distinguished ecclesiastic as the commissioner of the holy see to the St. Louis exposition, besides an exhibit of the treasures of the Vatican. The pope in reply, said he was greatly pleased with the compliment paid him, and added that he would do all possible to comply with the requests contained in the invitation, both regarding the Vatican exhibit and sending a representative to St. Louis.

His holiness said: "I accept the invitation with gratitude, and charge you to express our appreciation of the thoughtfulness of including the holy see among the other nations invited."

Debate Repeal of Falloux Law.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—Debate on the proposition to repeal the Falloux law, which would result in creating a state monopoly of educational institutions, was begun today. There was a full attendance of senators and the galleries were crowded. The principal feature of the debate was the opposition of M. Dupuy, ex-president of the council, who said that the repeal of the law would be a serious infringement of the principle of liberty. The debate was not concluded. In the chamber of deputies the debate on the budget was made the occasion for a vote on the suppression of crucifixes and other religious emblems in courts of justice.

Cuban National Lottery Bill Up.

HAVANA, Nov. 5.—The senate today took up the national lottery bill and passed the first article. It is believed that the bill will pass both houses of congress, but majorities in its favor will not be sufficient to override the certain veto of President Palma. The Cuban lottery bill was suggested as a substitute for the taxes levied on sugar, tobacco, liquors and matches, under the new soldiers' pay law. During the last session of congress President Palma declared his intention of vetoing the bill, should its advocates succeed in passing it.

Humberts Must Stay in Jail.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—The court of cassation today rejected the appeals of the members of the Humbert family, who, Aug. 25, last, were sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from two to five years, on the charge of fraud in connection with the so-called Crawford millions.

STILLWATER

Rumors were rife yesterday of a contest of Tuesday's election by defeated candidates, who claim that the ballots voted were not in accordance with the state law, which they claim requires the names of candidates of both parties to be alternated. The tickets used here were all alike, one candidate being at the head on all. County Attorney Nethaway has given an opinion that the election was illegal, but others contend the election was legal and that it was not necessary to alternate the names.

Louis Blair, employed in the St. Croix Box company's factory at South Stillwater, had his right arm fractured in two places yesterday by being struck by a belt.

D. M. Swain has received a part of the timber to be used in the construction of a new steamer on the levee in this city for the La Salle and Peoria Packet company. The timber having been purchased at Everett, Wash. The keel will be laid in a few days and the boat will be ready in the early spring.

A stranger who was in the city beginning on Wednesday was arrested at South Stillwater yesterday on a charge of having stolen an overcoat from H. Reilly at Dr. C. O. Burham's office, on North Main street. The fellow, whose name is unknown, was brought here and locked up in jail. He will have an examination today. The coat was recovered, having been sold to a saloonkeeper at South Stillwater for $5.

The city council last night canvassed the returns of the local election. The official figures were practically the same as given out from the office of the city clerk after the votes were counted. Considerable threshing remains undone throughout Washington county.

and threshers say they will be unable to clean up their work before the 18th or 20th of this month.

The boilers have been placed on the steamer Little Rufus, and Mr. Swain expects to be able to get the boat ready to leave here in about a week.

The St. Croix boom was operated 179 days this season, one of the longest runs the boom has ever had.

Methodists Reject Financial Plans.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 5.—The general committee of church extension of the Methodist Episcopal church, now in session here, today, by a vote of 27 to 8, rejected the plan to consolidate the home mission and the church extension benevolence. This does not carry with it a rejection of the plan to consolidate other charitable departments of the church, which will come up for consideration later. The committee also rejected, by a vote of almost two to one, the plan submitted to remove the rule of the church that provides that the society cannot assist any church whose building costs more than $10,000. The Ohioans were desirous of building a church at Oberlin to cost $25,000.

Will Not Rush Good Roads Work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—After seeing President Roosevelt today, W. H. Moore, president of the National Good Roads association, stated that no serious efforts would be made at the coming session of congress to secure federal good roads legislation. Later in the day Mr. Moore visited the state department, where he obtained assurances that the department will lend its aid in bringing delegates from every civilized country to the joint convention of the National and International Good Roads association, to be held in St. Louis May 16 to 21, 1904.
