TOM HORN ADMITS HE KILLED NICKEL

Bets Are made That Horn Will Not Be Hanged, Rescue Being Expected.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 19.—Tom Horn confessed today to Rev. Ira D. Williams that he is guilty of the murder of Willie Nickel, the crime for which he is to be hanged tomorrow.

"There is only one thing which keeps Horn from collapse and offering up a full confession of his misdoings," said Rev. Mr. Williams, "and that is the belief which he holds that his cowboy friends will rescue him."

Gov. Chatterton has received a letter, written on stationery of the Albany hotel in Denver, threatening him with death unless he commutes the sentence of Horn.

George Jackson, a wealthy sheepman from Rawlins, is in Cheyenne, and has asked the aid of the authorities in running down a written threat that he would be killed if Horn hangs.

"I believe you will find who wrote the letter to me when it is compared with those received by the governor," said Mr. Jackson.

George Hyatt, one of Horn's closest friends, came to Cheyenne today, and it was at once reported that he would join in a plot to rescue Horn.

Horn, who is the reputed slayer of half a dozen men, realizing that his hope was gone prepared tonight for death.

Other men in Missouri, and their heart-breaking farewells failed to destroy his marvelous composure.

COMMITTS SUICIDE BECAUSE DISFIGURED. Denver Woman Cannot Endure Her Face Marred by Illness.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Because her face had been marred by ill-health Mrs. Lulu W. Brannen has killed herself by the use of chloroform at the Del Prado hotel.

Mrs. Brannen was the wife of a wealthy citizen of Denver, and up to four years ago, when she contracted blood poisoning, she reigned among the belles of Denver society.

Even at the hotel her face was covered by a veil. "Must I always be the veiled woman? Will people always stare at my face because it is ugly, just as they were once attracted by my beauty?"

This plaint burst from the afflicted woman recently, according to her maid. On another occasion she said to an uncle living in Chicago: "Death is preferable to life in this condition," but she laughed and no more was thought of her words.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Mrs. Brannen committed suicide while insane.

STEVENS WILL CONFER WITH THE MILLERS. Congressman Starts for Home and Will Canvass Canadian Bran Matter.

Globe Special Washington Service, 1417 G Street. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Representative Fred Stevens intends to look further into the object of modifying the laws and regulations so that bonded millers may sell the bran products in this country.

Mr. Stevens left for St. Paul tonight, and will be in the city tomorrow. Some difficulty has been experienced owing to the fact it is desired to accomplish the object without the amendment to the tariff law or the present bonding regulations.

W. E. C. DEATHS OF THE DAY. Special to The Globe. OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 19.—Rev. Thomas F. Tinkham, founder and for many years pastor of the First Baptist church at Council Bluffs, Iowa, is dead. He was born and reared in Mosier town, Pa., and was for several years president of the college in his native state.

He came West when a young man and was at one time principal of a school in Waverly, Iowa, and coming thence to Council Bluffs. He was one of the known Baptist preachers in the middle West and was regarded as a man of great eloquence and learning.

He was a member of the American architectural society, and he had acquired considerable prominence as a superintendent of construction here. He died at the time of the funeral of Campanile, June 14, 1902. Signor Saccardo received such a shock that he died shortly thereafter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Harriet Maxwell Converse, known to the Indians as "the wife of the Snake Indian," is dead at her home in this city. Her death was due to apoplexy. Mrs. Converse was known to the tribes of Seneca, Onondaga, Cayuga, Tuscarora, Mohawks and Oneidas as "priestess," "mother" and "chief."

SUMMONS SUMMERS Further Exposure of Corruption in Nebraska Is Promised.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 19.—An important development in connection with the indictment last Monday of the federal grand jury of United States Senator Dietrich and Postmaster Jacob Fisher, of Hastings, for conspiracy and bribery, was the sudden summons last today of United States District Attorney Summers to Washington. The summons, it is stated, came from President Roosevelt, and it was instantly obeyed by Summers, who left the east tonight. He would not discuss the case.

It has been suggested that the district attorney was perhaps in correspondence made public by the department of justice between Attorney General Knox and himself. The inference was that the department had given Attorney Fisher a warning, as it deemed necessary and that the adding thereto of another letter by the district attorney would be construed as a breach of discipline.

At least two of the cases now pending before the grand jury, it is stated, are expected to develop testimony of a much more startling nature than the Hastings case. It is believed that the members of the legislature from several districts in the senatorial canvass two years ago, is charged, men appointed to these positions paid money for their appointment to the legislature in some cases through an intermediary and in others to the members directly. In some instances, it is said, these sums ran as high as $1,000. Senator Dietrich, it is stated, will reach Omaha early next week.

ARTIST SAVES HIS WIFE FROM SUICIDE. Shock Will Probably Restore the Woman Mentally.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—At the risk of his life in the joy waters of the Hudson, Albert H. Clarke, a well-known portrait painter, has rescued his wife from drowning. Mrs. Clarke has been ill for several months, having broken down through overexertion in charitable work. While walking near the river side with her mother and husband, she suddenly plunged into the water. The artist swam to her. She evidently was frightened by the coldness of the water and tried to keep afloat, but in the excitement she head-on the husband reached her side, she went down. He managed to bring her to the surface and after a struggle of twenty minutes a tug pulled the exhausted couple to shore. Mrs. Clarke's shock caused by Mrs. Clarke's attempt at self-destruction will restore her normal mental condition.

EXAMINE DESIGNS FOR M'KINLEY MEMORIAL. Trustees Decide to Receive These Until the 1st of January.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—The board of trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association met here today and inspected the plans for the memorial. There were on exhibition plans and drawings, water-color sketches and architectural models of artists and architects throughout the country and from Germany.

Governor-elect Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, treasurer of the association, in a report said: "Enough money is now in hand to erect such a memorial as the trustees regard as suitable, but a fund is being raised for the maintenance of the monument after it is erected. About $50,000 is yet needed for that purpose. It was decided to receive designs until Jan. 1. It is expected that the memorial itself, exclusive of the site, will cost approximately $400,000."

INSANE WOMAN WROTE TO THE PRESIDENT. Mrs. Sullivan, of Iowa, Will Probably Annoy the Executive No More.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Mary Sullivan, forty-one years of age, who, secretary service detectives say, has been annoying President Roosevelt with threatening letters, was declared insane before Judge Pond today. Upon receipts of letters by the president, secret-service men were detailed to find the writer. It was discovered that the Sullivan woman was insane and imprinted the President's name here on Gader Rapids, Iowa, some time ago, and was an inmate of the home of the friends.

PROF. BASSETT IS FORCED TO RESIGN. RALPHIGH, N. C., Nov. 19.—Prof. Spencer Bassett, occupying the chair of English at Trinity college, Durham, N. C., has tendered his resignation, which will be acted on next Tuesday night. The resignation was due, it is said, to the fierce criticism of a recent article by Prof. Bassett on the negro question in which he declared that Booker T. Washington is the greatest man occupying Robert E. Lee, born in the South in a hundred years. Patrons of the college were threatening to withdraw pupils and Methodist churches have been demanding Prof. Bassett's dismissal.

TRIED THEM ALL. Then Wore Three Pairs of O'Sullivan's to Make Sure.

Claude Hoffman lives in Wykoff, Minn., and is a very careful man. He personally investigated every dealer for several years before he bought O'Sullivan's, after testing the uniformity of O'Sullivan's by wearing three pairs, sent the following to the O'Sullivan Rubber Co.: "Your heels are perfect. I have used three pairs of them and can say they are far superior to any other make, as I have tested nearly a dozen different kinds."

Here is a comparison for you. It pays to take care in buying rubber heels—nothing is quite so worthless as cheap heels. Send the 3c to O'Sullivan's Rubber Co., Lowell, Mass., if dealers try to substitute. But inquire of the dealer first.

Robber Collects $90 From Metropolitan Club Patrons. At 11 o'clock Wednesday night a masked man rang the bell at the door of the Metropolitan club, a gorgeously furnished resort on the second floor of 39 South Third street.

THINK MINNESOTA MADE A MISTAKE

Educational Institutions Should Not Be Under State Board of Control. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—The delegates to the convention of Agricultural College Presidents, which has been in session here, have given some attention to the trouble in the Minnesota schools and are unanimous in their belief that Minnesota makes a mistake to put the university and normal schools under the state board of control.

WANTS THE MILLER CASE RE-EXAMINED

American Federation of Labor Makes Request of President Roosevelt. BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 19.—The American Federation of Labor has prominently of the "open shop" issue, as raised in the case of William A. Miller, now employed in the government printing office at Washington, and the Miller case itself today, by unanimously declaring in favor of the government printing office as well as private enterprises and by petitioning President Roosevelt to re-examine the evidence presented against Miller. If it is decided to remove Miller from the service, although the resolution adopted previously by the A. F. of L. is that the "open shop" and the Miller case, the issues are kept entirely distinct. The resolution is being adopted favoring the construction of the Panama canal by citizens of the United States, urging that the Chinese exclusion act be made to apply in the Philippine and Hawaiian islands and favoring women's suffrage and the election of the president and United States senators by direct vote.

NO JUSTICE IN THIS TOWN. Village of Mound Must Worry Along Without One Till Next Election.

The little town of Mound in Hennepin county is without a justice of the peace through peculiar circumstances. A. F. Shellock was duly elected to the office while he was absent. He was notified by a letter which he did not receive until his return. The date of the letter, however, has been held to be the date of notification, and he has been obliged to pour water over the portion of the stock that was not damaged, so he could continue to hold his "vested" rights. A peculiar feature of the case was that he had been elected to defend him. While they were conferring an officer served a bench warrant on Ayers. Bonds were set at $500 in each case, which were furnished.

PRIEST AND OPPONENT MAY BOTH DIE

Indications of a Mystery, Extending Back to Old Times in Italy. DENVER, Col., Nov. 19.—Rev. Father Felix Mariano Lepore, pastor of Mount Carmel Catholic church in this city, and Joseph Sorice, of Elizabeth, Pa., who shot each other after a game of cards in the priest's apartments at the rear of the church last night, are both reported to be in a dying condition.

GRAND JURY ENDS SESSION. Has Been Investigating Fraud in Purchase of Charity Supplies.

The grand jury ended a two days' session yesterday by adjourning to Monday. Several indictments were returned, upon which no arrests have been made. The grand jury was presided over by Judge Edward Ekman, the successor of C. H. Brown, as bookkeeper. In the poor department it is surmised that the jury has been looking into the irregularities that have been discovered in the purchase of supplies for the Board of Charities and Corrections during the Ames administration. Some members of the board and several grocers were also witnesses.

NORTH DAKOTA GETS MORE RURAL ROUTES

Hundred-Family Rule Will Be Waived in This Instance. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Rural free delivery will be greatly extended in North Dakota and other parts of the Northwest where houses are far apart by a decision rendered today in the postoffice department. This is to permit the formation of routes of seventy-five families, which will be served on alternate days. It has been found impossible in this wheat country to connect the regular route of 100 families to a twenty-five-mile route. The representatives from North Dakota have been working to secure this modification and the first route will be laid out from Hoopie and others will follow.

THE MEN THEY DEMANDED, BUT HE DID NOT DO SO. HOWEVER, HE PROVIDED HOUSE AND EMPLOYMENT FOR THEM. IT IS BELIEVED THAT BEHIND THE TRAVEL LIES A DEEP MYSTERY EXTENDING BACK TO OLD TIMES IN ITALY, WHICH, IT IS FEARED, WILL NEVER BE SOLVED.

Father Lepore died tonight. The shooting is generally believed to have been brought about by a disagreement over money matters. The story of the card game is disclosed.
