Mr. John Moore Hale, 230 West 7th St., St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I was taken with La Grippe and Sciatica. I had the best doctors but without much relief. A friend of mine recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I dropped the doctors and bought a bottle of the Nervura. Before it was a little over half gone, I felt that I was on the mend, and I took three bottles and to-day I am a well man. I struck it."

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has made my burden lighter by building up my run down system. The ailment of greatest hindrance to me was kidney trouble, which, as those who suffer from it know, absolutely unfit a man for business, especially if he is of a nervous temperament. Dr. Greene's Nervura has built me up so that I can safely pronounce it the superior of any proprietary medicine I ever used. I recommend it to all."

Shiny Guns for Police.

"If I were arming a police department," said Police Captain Weber yesterday, "no man on the force would be allowed to carry a pistol with a blue steel barrel. I would see that every officer's weapon was nickel-plated and was kept just as bright and shiny as I could make it. Why would I have any shiny pistols? Why for the moral suggestion they convey. There is something very inspiring about the glint of light on a highly polished pistol barrel that is entirely missing in the appearance of a blue steel barrel. Many a criminal resists when placed under arrest and threatened with a dull-colored revolver who would have capitulated immediately had the officer's pistol been brightly polished. That is the case even when the weapon is merely held in the hand ready for use, but a shiny pistol barrel, to a man who is looking into it, appears three times as big as a blue steel pistol barrel of the same caliber."—Kansas City Times.

RYAN PULLED HIS FIGHT WITH O'BRIEN

Sports Begin to Look Upon Philadelphia Battle as Plain Fake.

Before the meeting of Tommy Ryan and "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien last Wednesday night there were rumors that a job had been arranged between the pair, but they put up such a lively contest that it was not until the close of the week that any paper charged openly that the fight was a fake. "Dr. Lefthook," a writing expert for the New York Telegram, in a long story has declared that it was a pre-arranged affair, and that both men kept their agreement up to the fifth round, when O'Brien hit much harder than was necessary. Then Ryan, according to Dr. Lefthook, sat in and put O'Brien out, but the timekeeper saved him with a short bell.

HARRY TUTHILL SAYS CORBETT WILL WIN

Champion's Trainer Thinks Jimmy Britt Will Lose His Fight.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Henry Tutthill, who has trained Young Corbett for many a battle, and who recently came East after the champion's bout with Hanlon, said that the reports of the fights which came East were more or less misleading, as Hanlon never had a chance of winning throughout the entire contest. He says that Corbett's victory was never in doubt, and that he secured an advantage in the early rounds which he maintained to the end.

VON DER AHE DID NOT WANT WARM PLAYERS

Chris Ordered All Pockets Removed From "Der Prowns" Uniforms.

"It was reading," says an old-time ball player of the time when Hans Wagner stuck his hand in his trousers pocket to get a chew of tobacco, and the hand stuck there for some time. Wagner today just at that moment. That was hard luck. Cliff Carroll, once had a stroke of ill fortune which went a mile. A fly ball hit Cliff on the chest and actually sank in to his shirt pocket one afternoon when he was in the out-garden for old Chris Von der Ahe. Carroll strove to haul the ball out, and could not budge it. Three runs were scored. Von der Ahe, who was moving round the bases, Cliff ran in tugging at the ball. Nothing doing. Couldn't get it out. Von der Ahe, who was present voted "yes." We do not wonder if it had been there the yell would have been added to the "Yankee Doodle" is not particularly dignified, but let anyone spring a resolution on almost any American audience to have that famous ditty recast in any other form and he will be likely to hear something worse than a yell. One of the veterans at Columbia put it none too strong when he said: "You might as well talk about altering the Lord's Prayer."—Leslie's Weekly.

Whitney's Entries Null and Void.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Much interest is attached to the probable effect of William C. Whitney's death upon his turf interests which were to have been held during the coming season. It has been expected that under rule 61 of the "Rules of Racing," all his entries for this year's stakes, except Produce stakes and events to which foal nominations were made, are null and void, unless a transfer of the same was made at the last moment. It is not, it is said, that 80 per cent of the entries made by Mr. Whitney will be thrown out, thereby greatly depreciating the value of the many thoroughbreds heavily engaged. As to the disposition of the stable, nobody in authority will talk.
