warships Variag and Korietz were de-The war fever which has been aroused here and apparently all over the empire, or at least all over European Russia, in a single week is truly remarkable. Such patriotic demonstrations as have been witnessed in St. Petersburg since hostilities began have been all the more astonishing because of the public indifference during the period of negotiations and almost up to the hour when Japan struck the first blow at Port Arthur. But now, like a flash, the whole empire seems to have been lashed into fury by defeat, and, like a bear dreamy Russian character has been stirred to depths of resentment which it will be difficult to understand abroad.

The patriotic demonstrations here have been almost continuous for three days and they have been also entirely spontaneous. Some of them were extraordinary in character. Today the school boys and students of the city, numbering thousands, marched bareheaded for hours up and down the Nevsky Prospect bearing flags, shouting followed by an enormous crowd. Like previous processions this one went first to the Anichkoff palace, where the dowager empress, who is very popular with the people, showed herself. Later the boys and students completely surrounded the winter palace and in response to their enthusiastic cheers the czar and the czarina made their appearance. When the czarina blew kisses to the boys a vast shout went up which waked the achoes across the Neva.

At the French embassy, which was next visited by the procession, Mme. Bompard was compelled, in the absence of the ambassador, to appear at a balcony and acknowledge the cheers for Dreside all.
