Monthly silk clearance

> We claim for this April clean-up the greatest quantity and the grandest bargains ever offered in a similar sale. Why? March is the biggest silk selling month of the spring season, and naturally there are more odds and ends. Then, too, these odds and ends accumulating at the height of the silk season means the best qualities and the most fashionable of silks. We phace this April sale in the lists against all our own previous great sales, or those of any house anywhere at any time.
