FORMER SAINTS SHOW WELL.

yesterday the three former Saints, Huggins, Shannon and Geier, played good games and showed that they are capable of playing in the como pany in which they find themselves o this season. At Cincinnati, Miller Huggins leads the batting list. He 🌣 made a safe hit and took care of four of his five chances at second; Geler made a safe hit and stole & a base for Boston, while Shannon, who is second on the batting list of the St. Louis team, rapped out two safe ones and handled everything that came his way. Stewart, 🌣 signed with Boston, is ill at his home and will be out of the game for a time. Huggins was out of Thursday's game because of a cold, but was able to play yesterday.

The Y. M. C. A. team will now disband for the season, having a record of ten games won out of thirteen played. The line-up in last hight's game follows:

He was out of a shift of athletics for a year on account of playing professional baseball and coaching for money, but was reinstated.

C. H. Gaffin, last year captain of the Wisconsin crew and one of the best oarsmen at Madison, refuses to train his spring, giving as his reasons that he has too much other work, as a student and as general secretary of the University Young Men's Christian association, to give time for the hard work of training. It is understood that a powerful reason for his quitting athletics is the discovery that some features of athletic training are incompatible with his practices and profession in the work of the Christian association. However, of the best baseball and football players ever produced at Lewis Institute, who was assured of first base on the varsity baseball team and also a back field position on the football eleven, left the university and returned to his home in Chill.

fession in the work of the Christian association,
Howard P. Savage, of Chicago, one of the best baseball and football players ever produced at Lewis institute, who was assured of first base on the varsity baseball team and also a back field postition on the football eleven, left the university and returned to his home in Chicago. This followed immediately upon a brief interview between Savage and Prof. C. S. Slichter, faculty supervisor of athletics. Slichter had heard that charges of professionalism were being prepared by other schools against Savage, and called the player in to prove an alibi. Savage inadvertently admitted that he played last summer on the Houghton (Mich.) team of the "Copper league," and he was immediately dismissed. Prof. Slichter exclaiming: "That's all I want to know. You may go." Savage took this properly to mean that he was under the Slichter ban. became discouraged and went home to Chicago. He was back in his studies, but might have made them up.

The weather was chilly and but few people were out. The appearance here of major league teams has resulted in an indifference in the daily games being played with the St. Paul team. Knockout at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 15.—John Wile, of Chicago, knocked out Larry Temple, of Boston, in the last round of a six-round fight tonight. The fighting was even up to the time of the knockout. Temple claimed a foul in the second round, saying that he had been struck too low. A long wrangle followed between the fighters and their managers, but the referee finally ordered the fighters to continue. There was some dissatisfaction with the count on the knockout, the Temple party claiming that their man was not down over four seconds, and that the referee counted too rapidly. In the preliminaries Clarence Forbes, of Chicago, won from Harry Cobb, of Buffalo, in the fifth round on a foul.

St. Thomas Has Game Today.

The St. Thomas team will play the Minneapolis North Side high school team at the St. Thomas grounds this afternoon at 3 o'clock. providing the weather is suitable for baseball. The Saints will try out a number of new men, as they did in the game with the Mechanic Arts team, and after the game Capt. Doyle will announce the names of the players who will be retained on the regular team. The Saints have a game scheduled with Winnipeg at the downtown park next Wednesday afternoon. Winnipeg Gets Converse. Winnipeg Gets Converse.

Pitcher Converse, who has been down at Champaign with the Minneapolis team, where he was given a tryout for a regular place on the Millers by Watkins, has been farmed to Winnipeg, and will play in the Northern league this season, having failed to land with Minneapolis. Converse is said to be a good pitcher, but Watkins had several twirlers too many and three or four had to be turned loose. Converse says Minneapolis has a great team, and with six left-handed batters, Watty is expecting great things from them in the way of pounding the ball.
