No admission fee was charged at the entrance gates, but all persons who passed through the inner tunnels had to purchase score cards, which, according to their order, admitted the purchaser to the grand stand or the field stands and bleachers.

The local men easily by a score of 9 to 1, batting Willis for eight runs during the five innings which he remained in the box. Fisher, who relieved him, allowed three hits in six innings. In this fashion he has gradually taken on a knowledge of automobile to be a track driver, and towards this end he is beginning at the foot of the ladder, going through the difficult stages, with the hope of landing among the top class, the same as he did in the bicycle days of old. The good clothes have been packed away in a trunk—overalls have taken their place.

The swell hotels of New York which have claimed him in the luxury through know Bald no more. With the thousand or more mechanics who daily wend their way to the factory goes Bald. With him he carries a dinner pail, the clock which strikes terror to many a day laborer has the same horrors for Bald. With tears in his eyes he sought out the superintendent of the factory, and after fifteen minutes more sleep in the morning, it would be heaven. "Can't you take me off the clock?" "As long as you are employed in the factory the clock must be maintained," he was told. And Bald has never been late.

The hardest kind of work was given Bald to do at first. He was set at work filling castings. He didn't flinch, and gradually he has worked his way up until he is now on the assembling job. Here he follows the installation of the motor, the gear changing mechanism, shafting, alignment from the beginning. He takes

For this time of year and for all times of the year is Reeves' Iron Pills, the discovery of a St. Paul druggist who has been selling them on physicians' orders for the last 20 years. They contain no alcohol or any other dangerous ingredient, and no taste for liquor or any other bad habit can possibly result from their use. For six months past these Pills—with a record of 20 years of cures behind them—has been retailed at $1.00 a bottle and their immense sale in all parts of the country is an eloquent tribute to their efficacy and wonderfully permanent curative powers.
