

SPORTS NEWS FROM DIAMOND, RACK AND FIELD

SAINTS WIN AGAIN

Colons Are Unable to Land on Check to Advance.

The Saints gathered a fair quantity of consolation for previous setbacks yesterday by giving the Colonels...

Standing of the Clubs. Played, Won, Lost, Per Ct.

Table with 4 columns: Club, Played, Won, Lost, Per Ct. Lists St. Paul, Columbus, Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Louisville, Toledo, Kansas City.

Yesterday's Results. St. Paul 11, Louisville 2, Minneapolis 0, Columbus 2, Kansas City 4, Toledo 1, Milwaukee 10, Indianapolis 5.

The tilters from the bat town seraped together eleven hits in their nine times up, but they came in in dribs and drabs...

Malariae Is Shifty. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 18.—Malariae pitched magnificent ball today and caught the runner...

Two-base hits, Hart, O'Brien, Marcan 2, Kelley 2, Clingman, Jackson, Jones; home runs, Schreiver, Kelley; sacrifice hits, Sullivan, Marcan, Jones; bases on balls, O'Brien 3, off Check 4; struck out by Wright 3, by Check 6; double play, Marcan, Jones, Sullivan; time of game, 1:45; umpire, Pears.

Both teams put up a lively clean game in the field, Clingman making the only error, and this was a pardonable one. Wright was the only one when Wright sent one down toward short.

White behaved as if he never saw a ball in motion before and stood around in front of the mound until it almost struck him. He then dutifully shifted himself toward third so that Clingman only saw the ball for a minute fraction of a second.

The contest was bare of sensational plays unless the two baggers be excepted, and it was quite common of these that they "were quite common" and hardly in good taste, before the affair was concluded.

O'Brien hit for a pair of bases and Jackson and Wheeler came in, Kelley went out from the mound and Marcan walked. Sullivan singled, scoring O'Brien. Check flew out, retiring the side with four runs.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

SEN.ORS WIN MEET

Upper Classmen Carry Off Mechanic Arts Honors.

The Mechanic Arts high school held its tenth annual field and track meet at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon, and many of the finishes were close.

Dexter got a single and Brashear bled. White, who went in for the weary Schreiver, got a single, and Dexter scored on Quinlan's fielder's choice.

Quinlan and Brashear going out on a play from O'Brien to Kelley. Jackson singled and Wheeler sent a fast one to Quinlan, who caught Jackson on second in time to double Wheeler at first. O'Brien hit a dinky one to Wright out.

Hallman started the final inning by flying out to Jones; Hart went out from Marcan to Kelley, and Arndt from Check to first, and it was all over. The score:

Table with 4 columns: Player, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Lists Louisville, Kerwin, Hart, Arndt, Schreiver, Quinlan, Sullivan, Wright, Totals.

by running off with first place in the mile and quarter mile runs, and with the three points, which he got out of the half mile, gave him the highest individual score of the meet, with thirteen points to his credit.

Tute Kellihier was second, with four thirds, aggregating twelve points, while Walliborn and Dickenson were tied, with two firsts, or ten points, apiece.

The classes finished in the following order: 1904, first, 27 points; 1906, second, 28; 1907, third, 22, and 1905, fourth, with 26. Summary:

Table with 4 columns: Player, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Lists St. Paul, Jones, Clingman, Jackson, Jones, Schreiver, Kelley, Sullivan, Marcan, Kelley, Sullivan, Sullivan, Check, Totals.

Two-base hits, Hart, O'Brien, Marcan 2, Kelley 2, Clingman, Jackson, Jones; home runs, Schreiver, Kelley; sacrifice hits, Sullivan, Marcan, Jones; bases on balls, O'Brien 3, off Check 4; struck out by Wright 3, by Check 6; double play, Marcan, Jones, Sullivan; time of game, 1:45; umpire, Pears.

Both teams put up a lively clean game in the field, Clingman making the only error, and this was a pardonable one. Wright was the only one when Wright sent one down toward short.

White behaved as if he never saw a ball in motion before and stood around in front of the mound until it almost struck him. He then dutifully shifted himself toward third so that Clingman only saw the ball for a minute fraction of a second.

The contest was bare of sensational plays unless the two baggers be excepted, and it was quite common of these that they "were quite common" and hardly in good taste, before the affair was concluded.

O'Brien hit for a pair of bases and Jackson and Wheeler came in, Kelley went out from the mound and Marcan walked. Sullivan singled, scoring O'Brien. Check flew out, retiring the side with four runs.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

With Dexter and Brashear out, Schreiver came up, starting a ripple of "Wonder if he can hit" in the crowd. Schreiver never gave the curious time to figure, but hit hard, as usual, and after a journey up in cloudland, the ball disappeared over the fence and "Pop" jogged around the bases with a bored expression plainly visible on his ruddy countenance.

POOR ROOMS CLOSED

Western Union Shuts Off Race Service Throughout the Country.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Following his action yesterday in discontinuing to all subscribers in this city a report of the racing at various tracks in this country, Col. Robert C. Clowry today notified the general superintendents of the company at New York, Chicago, Atlanta and San Francisco that the collection and distribution by the Western Union Telegraph company of horse race reports would be discontinued forthwith.

The effect of this order is far reaching and will result in the discontinuance of what has been called the racing department of the Western Union company. This department has collected and distributed racing news from all the various tracks in the country to its subscribers. Hereafter the company will transmit only such messages concerning races as are regularly filed with it for transmission.

For the present Western Union offices, as has been the habit in the past, will be maintained at race tracks for transmission of press dispatches and received accounts of the racing which will be discontinued later.

The executive committee of the Western Union had a brief meeting today at which was present Chauncey H. Dewey, Morris K. Leggett, Ruston Sage, Samuel Sloan and Jacob H. Schiff. President Clowry reported his action, and the executive committee approved.

Telephone Company Quits. The New York Telephone company, which also is accused of "aiding and abetting" the service to pool rooms, advised Police Commissioner McAdoo yesterday that it would remove the telephone wires from once remove the second street wires, which was raised yesterday, and which is said to have been the headquarters, or "central," of the investigation of the Western Union Telegraph company's alleged connection with poolrooms in this city.

With the exception of the arraignment of eleven prisoners caught in a District Attorney Jerome, when asked the investigation of the Western Union Telegraph company's alleged connection with poolrooms in this city was practically at a standstill today. District Attorney Jerome, when asked what was to be the next move in the investigation, declined to make any extended statement, answering the question by saying that he had nine strike-outs on his string, while his Fairbairn opponent had eight. Nutt's transportation for four, however, while Ward only passed one. The score:

Table with 4 columns: Player, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Lists Mac, Hoy, Flynn, Dinkens, Brinkley, Totals.

Summary—Passed balls, Dixon 3, Prinz 1; bases on balls, off Nutt 2, off Ward 1; bases on hit by pitched ball, off Nutt 2, off Ward 1; by Nutt 9, by Ward 8; umpire, McCardle.

Wood Clay's Lonsdale will probably be the favorite at even money, Ed Tierney, from the stable of Fay & Winstead, second choice, at 2 to 1; Elwood, the Kentucky Derby winner, will likely be the third choice at about 5 to 1. Moharib, which recently won the Kansas City Derby, is regarded to start, and although he is not yet on the grounds, his trainer says he will surely face the flag.

The other horses carded in the big event are Proceeds, Brancas, Sallivatt, Japan and Comrade. The last named three are considered doubtful starters. J. Hicks will ride Lonsdale; Munroe, Ed Tierney, Prior, Elwood; W. Fisher, Moharib; Hegelson, Proceeds, while St. Roman will probably pilot Brancas. Bolton and Dwyer will do the starting; Charles F. Prior, umpire, at the presiding judge; William Leitcher, handicapper, and John B. Dillon, clerk of the scales.

The meeting will continue nineteen days. About fifteen bookmakers are expected to draw in on opening day.

If everyone knew what everyone should know, hundreds of people who never thought of saving before would start an accumulation today with Security Trust company, N. Y. Life Bldg., at 2 1/2 per cent.

LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

Trap Shoot at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., May 18.—It was decided tonight that the interstate sharpshooters shall meet here on May 25. Milwaukee and Chicago are the only cities in the West that have a shooting range. Fountain City and Buffalo will send teams.

MACALESTER DOES

Shattuck Dedicates New Ball Field With Defeat.

Macalester college baseball team celebrated the opening of their new athletic field yesterday afternoon by defeating the team from Shattuck to put them on the shelf to the tune of 5 to 2. Shattuck blanked the locals and made three runs in the first inning, and added two more to that in the fourth, meanwhile keeping the Presbyterians from getting dangerous.

With the exception of their one bad inning, the sixth, there was nothing to beget out of the two teams were impregnable, and everything that it Shattuck from start to finish. The fields of the two teams were impregnable, and everything that it Shattuck from start to finish.

Halfpenny made a spectacular catch of a fly ball in the sixth, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops. Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

SAINTS WIN AGAIN

Hamline University Meets Defeat on Own Grounds.

In a game of brilliant plays and marked by desperate party strategy, St. Thomas college baseball team defeated the nine from the Hamline U. yesterday on the latter's grounds, thereby jumping into second place. Score, 5 to 3.

It was a most hotly contested game. For St. Thomas, Booth pitched gilded ball and rescued himself from tight positions that would have done credit to a leaguer.

Halfpenny made a spectacular catch of a fly ball in the sixth, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

SAINTS WIN AGAIN

Hamline University Meets Defeat on Own Grounds.

In a game of brilliant plays and marked by desperate party strategy, St. Thomas college baseball team defeated the nine from the Hamline U. yesterday on the latter's grounds, thereby jumping into second place. Score, 5 to 3.

It was a most hotly contested game. For St. Thomas, Booth pitched gilded ball and rescued himself from tight positions that would have done credit to a leaguer.

Halfpenny made a spectacular catch of a fly ball in the sixth, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

Ryan began the game by putting a neat grounder down to the first baseman. Harrington ran out to second on a clean home run, and the center fielder, Lee, figured in a very nice double. Doyle played a star game behind the bat and made some pretty stops.

Two badly damaged fingers on the right hand prevented Ryan, the veteran first baseman, from playing up to his caliber, but he played ball and made some nice stops.

Both Harrington and Tomeck made home runs off Houck, the Hamline star pitcher, and Doyle connected safely. Booth demonstrated his power rather wild in the first part of the game, but he and his team mates were unable to overcome the lead of the Saints.

AUDIENCE FIGHTS TO WIN KENTUCKY OAKS

Coal King's Filly Comes in Ahead in a Terrific Drive.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 18.—Audience, a filly owned by Capt. S. S. Brown, the Pittsburgh coal king, won the Kentucky Oaks this afternoon in a terrific drive from Outcome, the favorite, which lasted throughout the stretch. Audience was a strong second choice at 2 to 1, and was heavily played.

The field was the best that ever started in the Oaks. Weather cloudy and track slow. The meeting which ended today was the best ever given by the Louisville Jockey club. Summaries:

First race—Herlida won, Josie second, Harlequin third. Second race—Arva Oldham won, Paul Revere second, All Black third. Third race—Sting won, Satchel second, Dottie Shute third.

Fourth race—Harmakis won, Frank Collins second, John Doyle third. Fifth race—Laura Hunter won, Floral wreath second, General Pig third. Sixth race—Gaslighter won, Jerry Hunt second, Exapo third.

Seventh race—Joette won, Alma Dufour second, Whoa Bill third. Eighth race—Kid won, Gleemin second, Huxie third. Ninth race—Goldfinger won, Blumenthal second, Sam Anderson third.

Tenth race—Pelipe Luego won, Inflection second (two starters). Eleventh race—St. Anthony won, Berry Hughes second, Sockdolger third. Twelfth race—Manspring won, Jinger second, Heav of Franconia third.

Thirteenth race—Rob Roy won, Majoran second, Oriskany third. Fourteenth race—Lark won, Virgo second, Anthony third. Fifteenth race—Gray Lad won, Estella J second, Stonehill third.

Sixteenth race—Avela won, Fort Plain second, Stonewall third. Seventeenth race—Titan won, Tom Cogan second, Dick Roberts third.

Eighteenth race—St. Louis won, Nandora second, Matilde third. Nineteenth race—Arva Oldham won, Paul Revere second, All Black third. Twentieth race—Sting won, Satchel second, Dottie Shute third.

Twenty-first race—Harmakis won, Frank Collins second, John Doyle third. Twenty-second race—Laura Hunter won, Floral wreath second, General Pig third. Twenty-third race—Gaslighter won, Jerry Hunt second, Exapo third.

Twenty-fourth race—Joette won, Alma Dufour second, Whoa Bill third. Twenty-fifth race—Kid won, Gleemin second, Huxie third. Twenty-sixth race—Goldfinger won, Blumenthal second, Sam Anderson third.

Twenty-seventh race—Pelipe Luego won, Inflection second (two starters). Twenty-eighth race—St. Anthony won, Berry Hughes second, Sockdolger third. Twenty-ninth race—Manspring won, Jinger second, Heav of Franconia third.

Thirtieth race—Rob Roy won, Majoran second, Oriskany third. Thirty-first race—Lark won, Virgo second, Anthony third. Thirty-second race—Gray Lad won, Estella J second, Stonehill third.

Thirty-third race—Avela won, Fort Plain second, Stonewall third. Thirty-fourth race—Titan won, Tom Cogan second, Dick Roberts third.

Thirty-fifth race—St. Louis won, Nandora second, Matilde third. Thirty-sixth race—Arva Oldham won, Paul Revere second, All Black third. Thirty-seventh race—Sting won, Satchel second, Dottie Shute third.

Thirty-eighth race—Harmakis won, Frank Collins second, John Doyle third. Thirty-ninth race—Laura Hunter won, Floral