From such a list selection should be easy.

Silks=Silks=Silks

Letting you into a little secret, a store secret: Listen—An effort will be made tomorrow to completely distance all the past June silk sales and in order to accomplish this the tables will be loaded with silk bargains as never before.

The silk man has been put upon his mettle, and our silk patrons on Monday morning will benefit in a corresponding degree.

25c for 50c to 1.50 silks

The first Monday of another month is here and again the clearance of short lengths, remnants, etc., is on. All kinds, all lengths, all colors, all styles. It's a mere waste of words to try to tell you what you'll find or what they're for. Every woman in the Twin Cities knows what to expect.

Sale will begin promptly at 9:30 o'clock—be early on the scene.

Sale black guaranteed taffetas

Yes! another one, only this time double the quantity. Last week's supply, 1,200 yards, was sold out by 11 o'clock. Lucky for us 'twas Memorial day.

We've been besieged with questions and demands about this silk and think that tomorrow's sale will in some measure satisfy those who were disappointed last week.

40 pieces—2,400 yards—sale begins at 9:30, and no telephone, C. O. D., or approval orders will be taken.

Another word: We are selling our best 85c guaranteed black taffeta silk at almost half its regular selling price. While doing so we withdraw the guarantee. We consider this fair to you and to ourselves.

Newer, better, prettier silks for shirtwaist suits on special sale tables Monday morning. Table one, 49c; table two, 69c. Worth 75c and 1.25 respectively.

A third off Imported summer cottons

Just to glance at them tells you that they came from across the water. There's a dignity and exclusiveness about them not found in the domestic-made copies.

Long continued coolness has made the selling of these select things a trifle slow; and, while we know that the hot weather must come some time, we're tired seeing them around, and—

Why not buy to-morrow, when the prices are down?

Imported cotton flake etamines for half

But now—everything is ready, ready to provide your yearly supply of summer underclothes, and in spite of the conditions that are making cotton dearer—ready to supply you at the same low special prices of a year ago.

And now—that all is ready and that the best and most beautiful white underwear that can be made is as good as before you, it will be easy to see how they differ from the ordinary special sale underclothes.

Not a garment is skimmed or cut awry! No flimsy embroideries or tawdry laces! And only snow-white nainsooks, cambrics and muslins are used!

Capt. H. A. Castle Returns to City—Capt. Henry A. Castle returned to St. Paul yesterday from a residence of some seven years in Washington, and will again make St. Paul his home. Until recently he was sixth auditor of the postoffice department. His family will join him later.

W. L. Kelly Jr. Elected Captain of Battery—Wm. L. Kelly Jr., son of the well known St. Paul jurist and a practicing attorney, has been elected captain of Battery A, succeeding Capt. Larson, who resigned last autumn. Other candidates were Lieut. Frank J. Obst, Sergeant Hugh R. McElhinny and Corporal Arthur McDuffy.

Orders Streets and Alleys Vacated—Judge Lewis yesterday filed an order granting the application of Frances M. McCausland for the vacation of a portion of blocks 6, 7 and 8, of Hoyt's Come Out Lots. The court holds that the plaintiff is entitled to the property and orders that all streets and alleys running through the property be vacated.

Gov. Van Sant and Party Leave for St. Louis—Gov. Van Sant and the members of his staff leave tonight for St. Louis to attend the dedication of the Minnesota building at the exposition. The party, which will include Mrs. Van Sant and the wives of officers composing the staff, will total about twenty-five. The party goes South over the Rock Island in a special car. The members of the Minnesota commission have already reached St. Louis and will attend the building over to the state on Tuesday.

State Board of Health Report—The report of the state board of health regarding smallpox in Minnesota for the week ending May 30 shows a total of 60 cases, with 1 death. The death occurred at Redwood Falls. Carlos, Douglas county, leads the list with 16 new cases; Minneapolis has 11, Two Harbors has 5; Lynden, Stearns county, has 4, and Stove Prairie, Todd county, reports 5. The others are distributed over the state, with from 1 to 3 cases in a score of counties.

Series of Temperance Talks—W. R. Bonham, of Illinois, will begin a series of free temperance talks, illustrated with the stereopticon, next Thursday evening. The first meeting will be in the open air, and will be given at University and Lyndhurst avenues, and a second meeting will follow on Friday night. Future meetings will follow: Union mission, June 11; Atlantic Cen-gregational church, June 13; St. Anthony Park M. E. church, June 17; Merriam Park Presbyterian church, June 19.

Cripple Has Bad Fall—Jacob Kranz, a cripple, who conducts a fruit stand at 61 West Seventh street, fell on the sidewalk yesterday afternoon at the corner of Third and Cedar streets and sustained a fracture of the right arm at the elbow. He was removed to the city hospital in the police ambulance. Kranz has been unable to use either of his legs for many years.

Kolasse Must Pay Alimony—Judge Kelly yesterday decided that Paul Kolasse should pay his wife alimony pending the settlement of her suit for divorce. The wife asked for $35 per month, but the court found, upon investigation, that Kolasse earned but $48 per month, and declined to allow such an amount. The amount will be fixed by the court some time this week.

Mrs. Jessie Schnittger Granted Divorce—Judge Lewis has granted a de-

The defendant is also ordered to pay $12 per month towards the support of the child until she becomes of age, and in addition must pay his former wife $75 for attorney fees.

Will Rush Work on Hospital Cottage—While no formal contract has been signed, the board of control has practically awarded the contract for the new woman's cottage at the Hastings hospital for the insane to C. Ash & Co., St. Paul contractors. The St. Paul firm is said to have been the lowest bidder on the work, but its original figures were too high to permit the construction of the building within the appropriation of $40,000. Subsequently changes were made in the plans for the new cottage, and the work will be undertaken at once by the contractors. The new cottage, which will conform in style to the cottage at the Anoka hospital, will be completed by Oct. 1.

FATHER OF SMALL BOY IS NOT A FUGITIVE

Judge Jaggard Will Investigate Woman's Attempt to Secure Son

So widely different were the stories told by the parents of little George Zimmers in court yesterday during the hearing of the contest for possession of the child, that Judge Jaggard decided that more evidence should be submitted, and the case was continued without a victory for either father or mother.

The parents were divorced some time ago and both have remarried. The plaintiff now being Mrs. Steibling. At the time of their divorce the father was given the custody of the child, and in a recent petition to the court to be awarded custody of the boy the mother stated that the child was being detained in an asylum at Milwaukee, and that the father was a fugitive from justice and a person not fit to care for the child. Mr. Zimmers disproved the allegation that he was a fugitive from justice by appearing in court yesterday and giving his residence as Minneapolis. He stated that he had remarried and that the child was not in an asylum, but was well cared for in his own home. The hearing will be continued this week.

Judge Will Pass on "Current Taxes"—Judge Brill yesterday heard and took under advisement the application of Cobe & McKinnon for judgment against Edward B. Graves, as receiver of the North American Savings, Loan and Building association, for taxes paid by the plaintiff on the realty of the defunct association for 1903. The plaintiffs purchased the remaining assets of the association several months ago, an agreement being entered into at that time that the receiver was to pay the current taxes. There arose a dispute as to just what "current taxes" are, which will be determined by Judge
