Archibald Stimmel, delivery clerk of the pider battery, teased the invading Saints esterday at Minnehaha park by allowing mselves to delude themselves with hits and two runs, while the Millrights with five hits came across the ounting pan four times. Thus did Wat-'s students of theoretical baseball take second victory from Kelley's vete-Score: St. Paul 2, Minneapolis 4.

Mr. Stimmel was ably assisted in his effort by a luxuriant growth of pie plant in the right field, into which Maloney hit the ball in the third inning where Jackson was obliged to trail it while Maleney reached third pillow. The clout was good for two bases, but the stretching of it to three gave the wing-footed Maloney chance to steal home, which he prompt-v availed himself of. While this little ccident helped events along, it didn't win the game for the Millers. They played

Jones led off for the Saints with a hot roller, which the nimble Fox squelched in a clever fashion, and Jackson made mata clever fashion, and Jackson made matters look real interesting by hitting the ball where Maloney wasn't able to reach, and James straightway stole second to the horror of the Minneapolis multitude. Maloney made a fast sprint across the right meadow and brought down Wheeler's fly, which had started out to be a hit.

McNichols tried to steal third, but Jones had the ball there before he got started. Weaver hit safely to deep center and McNichols came tearing home only to find that Jones had put the ball in Sullivan's mit on the home plate, and a bad inning closed without a run.

Kelley hit to right in the seventh and Marcan forced him out at second. Marcan stole second, and Clingman struck out. Sullivan got an obese single to right and Marcan scored. Sessions fanned and the Millers were still one to the good.

St. Paul Lacrosse Team Plays Crack Winnipeg Aggregation Tie Game

Yesterday's lacrosse game at Lexington park was the real article. The Saints were pitted against the Winnipeg Sham-rocks, challengers for the Minto cup, which represents the championship of the world, and the best the local team expected was to escape a whitewash, and they played the Shamrocks to a standstill, tieing the score.

In Winnipeg athletic sports are as much a part of the daily routine as business, and all field sports are fostered and encouraged. Rowing, curling, hockey, baseball and lacrosse all have their admirers Their curlers are known all over America, and even in Scotland, the birthplace of the game. Crews have been sent to Henley to compete with the Englishmen on the water. Two years ago the Victoria hockey team captured the Stanley cup from the famous Wanderers of Montreal. For two years the Maroons have held the Northern league pennant, and thousands turn out to see them play. And this year the Shamrocks are to play the peerless Montreal team of the same name for the trophy presented three years ago by Lord Minto, and called the Minto year. This is the and called the Minto/cup. This is the highest prize attainable by a lacrosse

Is it any wonder that the Saints went on the field yesterday with quaking knees? Another thing must be remembered, and that is that the local team had practically no sun practice. All their members are occupied during the day, and their only practice is in the evenings. Their opponents, on the contrary, practice every afternoon and are used to playing under the boiling sun. Besides this, they have every facility in the way of club rooms, baths and experienced trainers.

When all these things are taken into consideration it must be admitted that the officers of the St. Paul club are entitled to a lot of praise for the magnificent team that they have developed. President Murphy, the Nestor of lacrosse in St. Paul, is untiring in his work, both on and off the field, and to him the largest measure of credit is due.

Shamrocks Start Fast

But to the game. The Shamrocks started out like sure winners, and for the first quarter the Saints appeared to be listless and afraid of their much touted opponents. In this period Billy O'Brien, a former St. Paul boy, found the net twice, and the quarter ended—Shamrocks, 2; St. Paul, 0.

In the second quarter the Saints got and the quarter ended—Shamrocks, 2; St. Paul, 0.

In the second quarter the Saints got their first score. In a fierce scrimmage in front of the Winnipeg net in which five Shamrocks and four Saints struggled, the ball was batted back and forth, Cloutier working like an Indian to defend his goal, the ball was finally hammered into the net by Whyte on a pass from Brown. This encouraged the home team a little, but in three minutes and a half after the face, Cowan slammed the ball past Haines for the third tally for the boys in green. The same player repeated the trick in four minutes and again in three minutes.

Lyle, who played a magnificent game at second home, scored another in two minutes, and it looked blue for St. Paul. The score then was Shamrocks 6, St. Paul 2.

Local Team Confident

Local Team Confident

The Saints came in for their rest highly elated. The detense had got down to business and worked like clockwork. The deadly combination of O'Brien, Cowan and Lyle was solved and they were practically harmless. Haines had recovered his eye and the way he stopped shots and cleared the goal brought cheers from the crowd. Raymond and Armstrong were sticking close to the net and intercepting, while Murphy was using his big bulk mercilessly in breaking up the combinations before they got close enough to be dangerous.

Sellar and Allen in the filed were working like Trojans and feeding the home in a perfectly satisfactory manner.

During the intermission the Saints retired to the dressing room and thoroughly discussed a plan of action. It was no longer a question of escaping a whitewash. They went on the field with a determination to play their opponents off their feet, and with the defense playing well up to their net and the home boring in like a cyclone they started a bombardment on the Shamrock flags that was irresistible and the quarter ended with two more tallies to their credit.

Goalkeepers Are Busy

with two more tallies to their credit.

Goalkeepers Are Busy

During this period both goalkeepers were called upon to defend their flags a number of times, Haines especially relieving his net time again.

The fourth quarter started with St. Paul on the aggressive. The ball traveled first to St. Paul territory and Armstrong relieved, passing to Elliott at midfield. With his blonde locks flowing out in the breeze, Jack tore down the field and the sphere went to Kervin to Brown to Whyte and then back to Elliott, who shot the ball straight and true into the net for the fifth score. At this stage of the game the Saints had their much-vaunted rivals played to a finish.

From that on to the end of the game the green-shirted boys backed up on their goal hoping in vain to hold their lead. These tactics were successful for a time but after six minutes of play a concerted attack by the Saints resulted in Allen driving in a liner which Cattanach and Coutier could not handle, and the score was tied.

The crowd in the stands threw hats, umbrellas and everything that happened to be handy, high in the air and fairly yelled themselves hoarse. Four minutes remained to play and the Shamrocks now were altogether on the detensive, their field being called in to pack the goals and little or no attempt being made to score. The Saints tried valiantly but were unable to plerce the opposition and the whistle blew with the score tied 6 and 6.

Refuses to Play Off

Refuses to Play Off

The Saints tried to induce their opponents to play to a finish but Capt. Orris refused to listen to it and stood on his right to call the game a tie.

In summing up it must be said that the St. Paul team put up the finest game of its career and had the game gone to a finish it is almost certain that they would have carried off a victory. Every man on the team played as though his life depended on the game and after the first two quarters they settled down to business and had their opponents guessing.

Gaiseford was sorely missed on the defense, being out of the game on account of a sprained ankle. His long reach and accurate catching and passing would have been a great help. Whyte broke his stick in two pieces in the first quarter, and as he always plays with a left-handed stick was bandicapped by having to use a right-handed one, which was untamiliar to him, and his showing was faulty. Sellar, Ochme and Mossop in the field surprised their friends by the fast game they put up. The home consisting of Allen, Elliott, Brown, Kervin and Whyte, kept up a continual rain of shots and made Cloutier's life miserable. On the defense Haines,

Raymond, Armstrong and Murphy repelled attack after attack, and in the last two quarters held the Shamrocks harmless.

All in all it was the greatest game of lacrosse ever seen in St. Paul, and was remarkably free from roughness. Not a. St. Paul player was penalized and only two Winnipeg men were sent to the fence, and then for trivial offenses. The summary:
