CROWDS STILL SEEK LAND AT ROSEBUD
Total Registrations at Yankton Now Number 7,413—Home-seekers Are Orderly registrations of Bonesteel, Fairfax and Chamberlain, the other registration points.

The visitors are very largely a fine class of citizens and the best possible order is maintained by the crowd itself and the restraining hand of the police force is not necessary for maintaining order.
Women in the line are invariably sent to the head of the column. Last night the only excitement of the week occurred, and that was the gathering up of the papers of a number of notaries by the government clerks for the offense of filling out blanks ahead of the rushes. A number of notary public were therefore put out of business this morning.
As the offense was a minor one and done unwittingly in a majority of cases, it is thought the papers will be returned to a number of the offenders.
The heavy rains of the past two days have ceased and the land seekers are not now put to the inconvenience of waiting an hour or so in the rain.
