WHEAT BULGES AGAIN BRITONS SAY RUSSIAN CROP IS SHORT

CHICAGO, July 18.—Rains in the Red River valley and a sharp advance at Liverpool have decided the market in the wheat market here today

There was a fair scattered trade in oats with the main feature being buying for export to the west

By buying in shorts caused considerable strength in provisions at the start, but the market showed a fair degree of weakness

Quotations Established in Open Trade on the St. Paul Board

MINNEAPOLIS: Wheat—Close: Mon. Sat. Minneapolis, September, $0.82 1/2

PRODUCE AND FRUIT: Ruling Prices at Yesterday's Meeting of the St. Paul Commission Men

NEW YORK, July 18.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices
