DONNELLY ORDERS MEN IN EAST TO QUIT WORK

Packers' Agents Refuse to Hold Conferences With Union Leaders and President Commands Men to Strike Sunday—Peace Plans All Fall Through as Employers Believe They Are in Position to Run Their Plants

CHICAGO, July 29.—Unable to arrange a conference with representatives of the New York packers, Michael J. Donnelly, president of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America, has ordered a strike of all the members of his organization employed in New York by Schwarzschild & Sulzberger and the United Dressing Beef company.

The decision to extend the strike to the East was not taken until after Mr. Donnelly and his associates had spent the day in a fruitless effort to arrange a meeting with representatives of the Eastern packers who came to Chicago last night to acquaint themselves with the situation here.

At 5 o'clock tonight, when Homer D. Call, secretary of the national organization of the butcher workers, made a final appeal over the telephone to the representatives of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger for a meeting between the members of that firm and the officers of his union, he was told that the Eastern packers had nothing to offer the men should a meeting be arranged and that the conference would only be a waste of time.

That the probabilities of a settlement by the opposing interests in Chicago are as remote as ever was plainly demonstrated today when Henry C. Wallace, of Des Moines, Iowa, and A. L. Ames, of Buckingham, Iowa, called on the different packers with a proposition from the strike leaders offering to concede the most important point in the controversy if the employers would agree to renew peace negotiations.

Peace Is Remote. The probabilities of a settlement by the opposing interests in Chicago are as remote as ever was plainly demonstrated today when Henry C. Wallace, of Des Moines, Iowa, and A. L. Ames, of Buckingham, Iowa, called on the different packers with a proposition from the strike leaders offering to concede the most important point in the controversy if the employers would agree to renew peace negotiations.

Special to The Globe. LE STEUR, Minn., July 29.—John Schundtzack, a farmer living in Blakely township, seven miles from here, has apparently revolutionized the theory of the automobile, so far as gasoline, steam or electricity is concerned. He is the owner of an apparatus, attachable to an ordinary buggy, whereby, through a series of horns similar to that on a graphophone, the wind is gathered and by concentration on eccentricities the wheels are made to revolve.

MINERS QUIT UNION Colorado Members Desert Western Federation

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., July 29.—Four thousand and three hundred and nineteen cards have been issued to miners of the Cripple Creek district by the Mine Owners' association, and 200 applications are still on file. Of the total number issued to date more than 2,100 have been in exchange for cards surrendered by former members of the Western Federation of Miners, who have renounced allegiance to the organization.

Witte Offered Plehve's Place. LONDON, July 30.—The Daily Telegraph's Berlin correspondent says that Emperor Nicholas sent a telegram to M. Witte, president of the Russian council of ministers, asking his advice and offering him the post of minister of the interior with the title of chancellor.

representatives of the packers at any time," said Mr. Donnelly. "While I cannot say that our position is in any way changed, we are not anxious to keep up a running fight and shall be glad if a settlement can be effected."

Decision Postponed. A meeting of the allied trades was held today on the question of a renewal of the strike of the live stock handlers. These men quit several days ago, but returned to work at the instigation of the independent packers, who were unable to obtain live stock brought to carry on their business with these men on strike.

President George F. Golden, of the teamsters' union, turned strike picket today, defied Police Inspector Nicholas Hunt and was arrested. The inspector with his club whirling in the air, ran up a flight of stairs leading to Golden's office, near the stock yards, and seizing the labor leader by the arm, marched Golden to the street. The teamsters' president was put in charge of a sergeant and was sent to strike yards police station a prisoner.

Wordy War Follows. The inspector heard the command and reassured the teamster, telling him to go on about his business. Then came a war of words, Golden paying his compliments to the inspector, Hunt shaking his club at the strike leader, declared there would be an immediate arrest if Golden did not "shut up." He did not "shut up," so the inspector shut him up, constructively at least at the station.

FRANCIS IS READY Expo. President Has Money Waiting for Emergency

ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 29.—A rumor became current today that the world's fair management was negotiating for a loan of $1,000,000 from various financial institutions of St. Louis. When asked tonight if such a loan had been made, President D. R. Francis made the following statement to the Associated Press: "No. The exposition company does not owe one dollar to any financial institution in St. Louis or elsewhere. To provide for emergencies, however, negotiations have been had with some of the banks and trust companies of the city and the option of a loan to the extent of $1,000,000 in the event it should be required, has been secured."

POLICE RUN DOWN DESPERATE BURGLAR

Man Who Jumped Through Window Makes Startling Confession

Carl Laumann, a German, who has been in the United States but two years, when arrested and taken to the central police station last evening made a detailed confession to Chief O'Connor, admitting that he had committed about fifteen burglaries in the past six weeks, and that he jumped through a plate glass window in the front of John Ludwig's saloon at 4 o'clock yesterday morning to escape from Patrolman Lindou.

Laumann has been suspected for some time of the numerous robberies of saloons, Detectives Fraser and Hagerty having learned enough to cause them to watch the innocent appearing German, and when these officers last evening went to Laumann's room, at 27 East College avenue, the man began confessing his guilt before he had been asked a half dozen questions. After a talk of ten minutes he wanted to tell everything and willingly showed the officers where he had secreted the proceeds of Thursday night's last he visited. For this severe task, coupled with all risks, he secured $2 and a few cigars; $2.50 from the Washington house, on Seventh street, near Seven corners, and for entering and searching the cash register in A. C. Stapleton's saloon, at 271 West Seventh street, he was rewarded by securing 35 cents. He claims that the amount was so small that he was discouraged and did not take any cigars, satisfying himself with a drink from one of the whisky bottles.

Laumann's Narrow Escape. It was a narrow escape that Laumann made from Patrolman Lindou. Continued on Tenth Page

VON PLEHVE'S SLAYER KEEPS NAME SECRET

Plans Were Known and Trap Set, but Assassin Escaped Vigilance of Police

ST. PETERSBURG, July 30, 2:52 a. m.—The police have not yet established the identity of the assassin of M. von Plehve or of his accomplices, though it has been ascertained that the former is part Russian, which accounts for his noticeable accent. The accomplice is a Jew. It has developed that the police for some time past have been aware that a plot was maturing against the emperor and notified one of the ministers that a party of fifteen anarchists had arrived in St. Petersburg. Several arrests were actually made some days before the assassination of the minister of the interior, and the police had the assassin's house marked and a trap set for his arrest on the night of July 14, but he did not return home.

The bomb which the accomplice dropped in the cathedral after the assassination has been recovered by the police. It is foreign made, though it is believed to have been loaded in St. Petersburg. It is small and melon-shaped, and is believed to be fully as powerful as the one that killed M. von Plehve. The requiem service at M. von Plehve's house tonight was most impressive. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers. Mme. von Plehve and her son were present at the ceremony, as also were many officials and diplomats. A man in the habit of her order knelt before the coffin intoning prayers for the dead. These prayers will be continued without interruption until after the interment. The emperor was not present at the requiem tonight, but he will attend the funeral Sunday afternoon.

FIRST HOMESTEADER'S IDENTITY IN DOUBT

Residence of "William McCormick," Who Won Rosebud Prize, Puzzles Officials

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., July 29.—The residence address of William McCormick, who drew the first choice in the Rosebud land opening, seems to be in doubt. When the name was announced, the address was given as Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. Later it was given out that the address was wrong and that Lancaster county, Nebraska, was the correct location.

Samuel Herrick, of Washington, D. C., who is in Chamberlain, is the agent of the William McCormick, who he claims is the man who drew No. 1. He exhibited a soldier's discharge paper issued to William McCormick, of the Second Nebraska volunteers of the Spanish-American war. The identification card of William McCormick in the hands of the government gives the birthplace of Mr. McCormick as Philadelphia, and last place of residence as Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, and his age as twenty-seven. This tallies exactly with the papers held by Mr. Herrick, who claims that he knows what he is talking about, and maintains that Lancaster county is correct, but the government officials undoubtedly will certify the identification card of the Pennsylvania McCormick.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—William McCormick, a clerk in the treasury department, says he is the man who drew the first choice in the Rosebud opening. This is corroborated by a dispatch received here tonight from Samuel Herrick, McCormick's agent at Chamberlain, to that effect. McCormick lived in Nebraska, and served in the Spanish-American war. Though born in Philadelphia, he has never lived in Lancaster county, in that state. He thinks the trouble in identification has arisen through a mistake Herrick has made in confusing the place of residence.

RUSSIAN TROOPS HOLD PORT ARTHUR

RUMOR OF FALL RECEIVES NO CONFIRMATION

Refugees Arriving in Chifu Tell of General Assault by Japanese Troops Which Is Being Resisted With Hope of Help From Kuropatkin—Ammunition Is Growing Scarce, as Manufacturing Attempts Proved Failures

CHIFU, July 30, 6 a. m.—Refugees who have just arrived from Port Arthur confirm previous reports that a general assault has been begun by the Japanese on that fortress and they declare that the Russians are sanguine that the Japanese could not succeed in capturing the place even though they had twice as many troops. The Russians, according to the refugee's story, are still hoping for succor from Gen. Kurapatkin.

They are unwilling to believe the reports of his defeat at Tatchekiao. The refugees further confirm the reports that the Russian fleet is in a state of repair, but say that the fleet is unwilling to attack that of Admiral Togo on account of the mines which the Japanese place nightly at the entrance to the harbor. It was believed at Port Arthur that if the Vladivostok squadron or reinforcements from Gen. Kuropatkin should arrive the Russian fleet would take the risk of going out.

AMMUNITION IS SCARCE. Ammunition is said to be growing scarce, and the large fort guns are not often discharged. Attempts to manufacture ammunition in Port Arthur are reported to have been failures.

All public buildings are being used for hospitals. The sick and wounded are being well cared for by volunteer nurses. The wounds made by the Japanese rifles are not dangerous except when vital spots are reached. Hundreds of badly wounded have quickly recovered from their wounds. The Russians have erected a new wireless telegraph station at Chifu, but they are unable to obtain any results, owing to the fact that Japanese auxiliary cruisers fitted with wireless telegraph outfits are constantly cruising in the zone of communication and interrupting the currents.

NO NEWS IN LONDON. LONDON, July 29, Midnight.—Up to this hour the Japanese legation has received no news indicating the fall of Port Arthur. The Japanese legation has no confirmation or indication of the fall of Port Arthur up to this hour.

DISCREDITED IN RUSSIA. ST. PETERSBURG, July 30.—At 12:30 a. m. the general staff announced that there was no news from Port Arthur and no more reason to credit the report that it had fallen than the many similar ones previously in circulation. It was pointed out that no line of official news has been received from Port Arthur this week and that since the occupation of Yinkow by the Japanese, anything from the fortress was likely to first reach Mukden and there be given out by Viceroy Alexieff. There is no confirmation of the reported sinking of a cruiser and gunboat on July 28.

The information contained in the dispatches that the center of gravity of the military area will be shifted north is strengthened tonight by the knowledge that one of the prominent Russian correspondents is proceeding to Jion Lieut. Gen. Linevitch's headquarters near Vladivostok. This might indicate a move toward Korea in this direction.

It has been ascertained that Gen. Kuropatkin was at Anping during the fight at Tatchekiao, and it is believed he is still there, which would indicate that he expects Gen. Kuroki will advance on Liao-yang.

DESCRIPTION OF BATTLE. LIAO-YANG, July 28.—A Russian correspondent gives the following account of the battle at Tatchekiao, showing the disposition of the Russian forces which withstood the advance of seven Japanese divisions for two days: "The Japanese made a reconnaissance in force on July 23 against our positions at Tyantzyatum, Unantum and San- Continued From First Page

UNION LABEL SCORES TWO DIE IN WRECK

Chicago Court Enjoins Distribution of Bogus Stamps Lapse of Memory Causes Fatal Clash of Engines

CHICAGO, July 29.—On petition of George J. Thompson, secretary of the Cigarmakers' International Union of America, Judge Honore has issued an order forbidding further sales of alleged spurious cigars and labels, and stopping the distribution of cigars in boxes bearing the alleged worthless labels. Mr. Thompson filed with his plea for an injunction a copy of a decree declared to have been given in the federal courts at Washington, D. C., that E. D. Chamberlain, whose signature appears on the labels in question, is no longer a member in good standing in the Knights of Labor, and that the branch of unionists Chamberlain heads has been outlawed by the true Knights of Labor. Mr. Thompson declares that thousands of the labels he complains of have been printed in Chicago and have been sold to a number of non-union cigarmakers and dealers for 10 cents a hundred. The use of this label, it is declared, would render useless the Cigarmakers' International union's annual expenditure of $50,000 in advertising union-made goods.

SHARON, Pa., July 29.—Running forty miles an hour a passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad today crashed into an engine in a head-on collision at Sharpville, causing the death of two men and the serious injury of four others. The dead: JAMES ROBINSON, of Mahoningtown, engineer on the passenger train, killed instantly. CHARLES M'WILLIAMS, of Mahoningtown, fireman on the passenger train, died at the Tuhl hospital soon after being taken there. The injured: John Baptist, of Erie, conductor of the passenger train. B. J. Jones, of Erie, fireman of the passenger engine. H. J. Williams, of Erie, head and hands bruised and possibly internally injured. M. West, a traveling salesman, of Pittsburg, slightly injured by being thrown against a seat. The wreck was caused, it is alleged, by a lapse of memory on the part of the crew in charge of the engine.

SUNDAY GLOBE IS A WINNER

It would require almost this entire page to enumerate the valuable and entertaining features which the Sunday Globe will set before its readers tomorrow. The following will give a fair outline of the attractive bill of fare, however.

- Search by the United States navy for the lost ship Conemaugh, whose disappearance constitutes another mystery of the wide southern seas. "The Woman's Page of New Ideas" will be better than ever, telling of the "presidential party" and other matters of importance to woman readers. Description of a phase of life at the Minnesota state prison, of absorbing interest, by one of the star writers of The Globe. Competent and comprehensive summary of dramatic matters of the day. "The Making of Yankee Doodle." Reviews of the newest books. The magnificent color supplement will contain, among other things, a fine article on water auto-billing, "Where the Gulls Are Born," the puzzle of the rowers, hints for beautifying the home, "The Return of the Girl Feminine," camp meeting in the olden time, a description of "frocks and frocks for week-end frolics" and four pages of the richest humor. The Globe will, in addition, print in extenso all the current news of the day, at home and abroad, presented by its unequalled special and regular service.

DO NOT FAIL TO READ THE SUNDAY GLOBE. YOU REALLY CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS IT.
