FRIENDS OF AMES MOB A POLICEMAN

Officer Attempts to Stop Speaker and Is Handled Roughly by Crowd

The filing of Dr. A. A. Ames as a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress has brought out some of the old enthusiasm so noticeable when he was devoting his every minute to the betterment of Minneapolis, but unfortunately it almost resulted in riot.

As the doctor was leaving his office yesterday afternoon he was accosted by an enthusiastic voter at the corner of First avenue south and Third street. The man walked rapidly up to Dr. Ames, grabbed his hand and said, "Put it there. You can bet your last dollar that we'll send you to congress."

The man followed this up with a speech to some twenty or twenty-five baseball fans who were standing on the corner watching the returns from the game between Minneapolis and Columbus on a bill board.

MAYOR HAYNES STIRRS UP HEBREW CHURCHMEN

The trustees of the Mikro Kodesh Hebrew church are up in arms as the result of trouble between Rabbi Riker and the janitor of their church and have entered a complaint against the officer with Mayor Haynes.

The janitor's name is Kessler and he claims that on Wednesday evening as the officer was passing the church with a drunken man in custody he became incensed at some remark made by Kessler's son.

Upon the advice of the trustees the janitor and his wife entered a complaint with the mayor, who immediately called Officer Riker on the "carpet." A warrant for the arrest of the janitor and his wife soon followed at the instance of the officer and the man and woman were arrested on the charge of interfering with an officer.

The case has been set for next Tuesday. The trustees of the church are at the action and declare they will fight the matter to the end.

SMALL BOY DROWNS IN STONE QUARRY POOL

Little Fellow Falls From Derrick—Mother May Die of Shock

John Benolken, the ten-year-old son of Charles Benolken, lost his hold on a derrick rope at Cook's quarry, Fillmore and Broadway, yesterday afternoon, fell into a pool of water in the quarry and was drowned before assistance could reach him.

Together with several playmates the boy was swinging from the derrick rope, and as he turned to look at them to one of the other boys, lost his hold and fell into the pool, which was quite deep. The boys stood on top and tried to get their young companion up to the bottom while they were unable to render any assistance. The family lives at 639 Lincoln street northeast.

Almost prostrated with grief the mother ran to the quarry and jumped into the pool in quest of her child. She was unable to get to the bottom and was not until nearly an hour afterward that the men employed at the quarry were able to find it. They removed it to the home and the mother lies in a serious condition. The physicians in attendance last night fear that she will not recover from the shock caused by her only child's death.

MAN WORKS ON GAME IN POLICE STATION

Prisoner Held for Forgery Takes Easy Money From E. D. Smith

For the first time in the history of the Minneapolis central police station a confidence game has been worked inside the four walls of that station. George Hobbs is being held at the central station for the sheriff from Sioux City, Iowa. Three days ago Hobbs was found guilty of forgery and sentenced to a term of five years in the state penitentiary of Iowa.

While en route to the depot in a carriage with the sheriff Hobbs made his escape and came on to Minneapolis, where he was arrested last night by Detectives Crammey and Brown.

E. D. Smith was in the cell adjoining Hobbs, awaiting a hearing in municipal court on the charge of receiving money under false pretenses. He was arrested at the instigation of a liverman named Miller. Miller claimed that Smith had sold him a horse which he had guaranteed to be sound for $125. The horse was sick and the liverman could not use him, and he accordingly had Smith arrested.

JUDGE HELPS M'KENNA BUILD UP REPUTATION

Vagrant Who Is Anxious to Break Record Is Sent to Workhouse

John McKenna was not satisfied to stand by the statement he made to the officers at the central police station Friday morning and in the municipal court made a hard fight to convince Judge Holt that he was not a vagrant.

M'Kenna dropped into the station early yesterday morning and informed the officers on duty that he was a "vagrant." He declared that he was out for a national reputation and said that he had pleaded guilty to vagrancy in seventy-five cities in the United States during the last year.

In court yesterday he denied these statements emphatically and swore that he was a hardworking man. The police, however, proved that John had been loitering around the streets for several weeks and he drew a ten-day sentence in the Minneapolis workhouse.

FATHER HARTIGAN DIES AT ST. MARY'S

Prior of the Holy Rosary Convent Passes Away at Midnight

Rev. Patrick P. V. Hartigan, prior of the Holy Rosary convent, died in St. Mary's hospital, Minneapolis, shortly after 12 o'clock last night, after having been unconscious for two days. Little hope had been entertained since he lost consciousness.

Father Hartigan was forty-eight years of age, was born in Troy, N. Y., and was attached to the Dominican order. Previous to coming to Minneapolis, two and a half years ago, he filled various important church positions in the East, including that of vicar of one of the leading churches of New Haven, Conn.

A number of persons living on Forty-fourth avenue south have been made severely ill by eating fish purchased from boys. The youngsters claim that they found the fish floating in the river, and thought they were all right. David Gossier, 4001 Forty-fourth avenue south, is one of those who were made sick. It is supposed that the fish were poisoned by a leak in the pipes at the gas works at Fourteenth avenue south and the river.

Believes Thieves Started Fire

After a thorough investigation into the cause of the fire at the Great Western freight yards last Sunday night fire marshal Charles Ringer is convinced that the fire was started by thieves, who took this means of covering their tracks. A detailed report of all freight that was in the Great Western depot the night of the fire has been given to the chief of police and this may aid in the detection of the guilty parties.

Cattle Growers Take No Action Regarding Strike

DENVER, Col., Aug. 5.—The Western cattle growers who have been conferring here for three days with the special land commission appointed by President Roosevelt, finally adjourned tonight without taking any action with reference to the strike at the packing house centers. A resolution was adopted with practical unanimity urging upon congress "the necessity of the management of the forest reserves to the department of agriculture, where not only the forests but all the interests of the people may be properly studied and protected."

Tibbles Will Fuse

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 5.—Thomas H. Tibbles, of Lincoln, Populist candidate for vice president, has been strongly opposed to fusion with the Democrats, but today said he would agree to fusion with any party that would oppose monopolies. He said he would consent to a division of the ticket in Nebraska. This practically makes fusion certain when the two state conventions meet here next Wednesday.

HUNT AND LARNED PLAY GREAT GAME

Lake Forest Tennis Player Defeated in Hardest Contest in Courts' History

The play in the Northwestern tennis tournament at Deephaven yesterday was all the best of the week and the finals in all events were reached with the exception of the consolation singles. Reuben G. Hunt and Harry I. Belden reaching the finals in the singles after the greatest game ever seen on the Burton courts, two of the sets being deuce sets, and twenty games had to be played in the final one to decide which would go into the finals today. Both players were in perfect form, but the usual big wind blew down the court and hindered the work to a certain extent.

Belden Starts Weak

Harry I. Belden and Ward C. Burton, the two Minneapolis men in the semi-finals, also played a brilliant match. Belden had just come from a match in the doubles and was somewhat tired from his efforts, while Burton was strong, not having played a game during the afternoon. He started off with the first match well in hand, and by terrific smashing won the first set, 8 to 6. Instead of growing weaker Belden seemed to gain strength with every game and took the second set, 6 to 4. A rest was taken here and when the match resumed Belden, the former champion in singles, had things well in hand and captured the next two sets by scores of 6-1 and 6-2.

The finals will be played early this afternoon, and after the doubles and consolation events have been completed, the winner of the finals will have the honor of meeting the present holder of the championship title. There has been some criticism of Waldner's stand in not taking an even chance with the rest of the contestants in the play throughout the tournament, but a champion has the privilege of doing as he has done and simply defend his title against the winner of the tournament.

Second Round of Doubles

The second round of the doubles was played yesterday and resulted in some interesting matches. Carter and Neely, of Chicago, defeated Northrop and Werner, of Minneapolis, in three straight sets, but were defeated in the same manner in the semi-finals by the Belden brothers. Wallace and Hale defeated Thompson and Greer in the second round, but went by the wayside in the semi-finals, losing three straight to Waldner and Hunt. The first round of the consolation singles was played off and one match in the semi-finals, K. K. Thompson defeating Louis Northrop, and will be in for the finals today. The results of yesterday's play follow:

GIGANTIC STRIKE DUE IN NEW YORK

Builders and Unionists Prepare for Bitter Struggle Involving Thousands of Men

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The striking building trades unions were said today to be prepared to accept the challenge of the building trades employers' association and that a great lookout of all the unions will be ordered. Strikes in the subway and elsewhere in the building trades are practically certain.

When the ultimatum of the employers was sent out two days ago the strikers were given until today to return to work. The ultimatum stated that unless the demand was met by the strikers the affected unions "will be put on the street on Monday."

At the building trades employers' association today it was announced that none of the unions had reported for work and that consequently the lockout, threatened by the employers will become effective.

Unofficial statements were made which show that about 40,000 men associated with the building trade alliance will be affected. The attitude of the building trades employers' association was made clear today by Chas. L. Edlitz, president of the association. He said that from the association standpoint it was merely a question of maintaining a mutual agreement made between the association and the labor unions about a year ago. This agreement, which had for its purpose the mutual betterment of conditions, according to Mr. Edlitz, has been violated by the men.

Mr. Edlitz said that his association is not only not opposed to labor unions, but insists upon dealing with union men. He would have it understood, however, that "interference by so-called, self-selected labor agitators will not be tolerated."

SAV'S HARVESTER MEN MAY COMBINE

Railroad Official Deduces That Fact From Listlessness in Selling

The fact that the makers of agricultural machinery this year have not been at all keen to stock up the dealers in the territory of their traveling men is taken by many thoughtful persons who have occasion to follow the trend of such happenings to mean that some radical change in the making and selling of agricultural machinery, especially harvesters, is to be made shortly.

The implement houses represented in this city have, of course, nothing to say concerning the proposed changes, but it was learned yesterday that the factories generally throughout the country have made small efforts to keep up the trade of past years and in fact had done little in the way of manufacturing during the making season.

A prominent freight official of one of the big railroads running into St. Paul has been thinking of this state of facts and draws the following deductions: "I have heard that the lack of effort to sell threshing machines this year is due to the fact that some companies contemplate a vast combine and the retirement of all the present machines and the exclusive manufacture of a harvester that will combine all the good features of each machine now on the market."

"If this is so, it will have a tremendous effect on the business of agricultural machinery this fall, but in the long run it will not affect the railroads, because the farmers will have to have harvesters just as long as they raise crops."

"A combination such as I think extremely likely is not an absolutely new idea and it would not surprise me in the least to wake up any old day and find that such a business proposition had been put into effect over night."
