The property is valued at $2,300, of which $1,800 is in real estate and $500 in personal property.

RELIEF COMMITTEE WILL WAIT 2 WEEKS

In Meantime it Will Continue to Receive and Report Requests for Aid

Thinking that the most pressing cases of need caused by the cyclone of Aug. 20 have been relieved, the council relief committee yesterday decided to adjourn until Sept. 15, at which time a complete report will be submitted. All reports and applications that will be received between now and Sept. 15 will be investigated and a tabulated statement will be prepared so that the exact amount of money needed may be secured.

Assemblyman Haas, acting as chairman of the committee in the absence of Mayor Smith, suggested the adjournment, saying that while the committee had done good work in relieving the most serious cases of hardship, no further money should be expended without the approval of the council. He advised that all applications received during the next two weeks be filed with the city clerk and investigated by the district committee in time to be submitted to the council on Sept. 15. The suggestion was adopted on a motion seconded by Ald. Lynch.

More Requests for Aid

Several applications were presented to the committee, but action was deferred in each case. Mrs. F. C. Bailey, 941 Edmund street, said that her house had been damaged to the extent of $150. F. A. Neinbauer, who appeared in behalf of the committee, called attention to the attention of the committee to losses sustained by A. H. Hulsiek, 553 De Soto street, and Otto Spies, North street.

Mrs. Fisher, 336 East Seventh street, asked for more assistance, saying that $10 which she had received had been expended. David Teakrook, colored, 904 Lafont street, said he needed $20 to make repairs to his home. Comptroller Betz said a slip of paper had been left on his desk, stating that George Dahlberg, 643 Burr street, needed $700. Simon Lineman, a peddler, said living at 2 Monroe place, said that his furniture had been damaged and asked for aid.

MORE BUILDINGS THIS AUGUST THAN LAST

Inspector of Buildings' Report Shows Increase in Value and Number

The building inspector's monthly report shows that the increase in building during August of this year over that of the same month last year is nearly 50 per cent. The total number of permits issued last month was 304, while the total issued during August of 1903 was 143.

While the number of permits is over twice as large for August, 1904 the difference in the value by the buildings is $414,625 for last month as against $317,445 for August of 1903.

GOOD SHEPHERD FUNDS NOW $1,464

Globe Receives Two More Contributions for Relief, Aggregating $110

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Total: $1,464.00

The Globe's House of the Good Shepherd relief fund was increased yesterday by contributions aggregating $110. The grand total of all money subscribed is to date $1,464.

At the meeting of the citizens' committee, held last night in the Knights of Columbus lodge rooms, it was announced informally that several other prospective contributions to the Globe fund, which are expected to be received either today or tomorrow, will swell the total so that the $2,000 mark will be in sight.

A check for $100 that came in yesterday from E. N. Saunders was a big addition to the fund, also a check for $10 received from Charles Cavanaugh, of Annapolis.

The responses to The Globe's appeal so far have been highly gratifying, more especially as the needs of the cyclone-stricken institution are urgent for immediate assistance. Contributions will be received either at the office of The Globe or by H. C. McNair, 328 Endicott building.

Plans for the baseball game that is to be played for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd were formulated at a meeting of the citizens' committee held last night. The game will be played Sept. 12, at the new baseball grounds, between the Milwaukee and St. Paul teams. Regular prices of admission will be charged and special efforts will be made in the sale of tickets.

John E. Barry, New York Life building, was named as chairman of the committee and will have charge of the arrangements for the game. As the Milwaukee and St. Paul teams are the leaders in the percentage column in the American association it is expected that there will be a record-breaking attendance at the benefit game.

CHANGES IN EFFECT Messrs. Strapp and Devlin Assume Their New Duties

At 11 o'clock last night J. J. Strapp became first assistant chief of the fire department, and Henry Devlin assumed the duties of second assistant chief, according to the action of the board of fire commissioners in electing them.

Arthur Martin, the retiring first assistant chief, who held the position for fifteen years, was connected with the department for twenty-six years. He left his headquarters at Eighth and Minnesota as a private citizen. All the firemen at the house were up to the occasion and chief good by, this being the only ceremony connected with the important change.

For the night Assistant Chief Devlin did not change his quarters, continuing to occupy his office in No. 8, though formally invested with the duties of responding to alarms other than those that would call out his old company.

Chief Jackson announced in connection with the formal change that he had not been able to prepare the list of fire commissioners in electing them, but that he thought the list would be complete in a short time. He said that the difficulty in arranging the changes was that some of the men entitled to promotion preferred to remain at the houses where they are at present stationed.

FILE WITH AUDITOR AT HIS RESIDENCE

Three More Candidates Swell the List Before Midnight

County Auditor Krahmer moved his office to his residence last night, and in the primary election to participate in the primary election as candidates for party nominations found it necessary to find him there. Those who were to be filed with the auditor before midnight were: Dr. C. A. Haas, the Dayton Bluff physician, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for coroner.

Frank E. Hall, 70 Smith avenue, as a Republican representative from the Thirty-sixth senatorial district, running in the Fourth ward.

Edward Knowlan, dayman, near Rice street, for county commissioner from the Rosetown district, opposing James Powers for the Republican nomination.

KICK FROM HORSE FATAL TO YOUNG BOY

Three-Year-Old Child Dies After Skull is Crushed by Animal

Joseph, the three-year-old son of Louis Shapiro, 157 State street, died yesterday from a kick of a horse which resulted from the kick of a horse.

The boy was injured Aug. 18. He ran behind a horse which was grazing and the animal kicked him, the hoof striking him on the forehead and producing an indentation of the skull.

CANDIDATES NOW BEFORE THE PEOPLE

Ramsey County Primary Tickets Will Contain Names of 120 Aspirants

There will be 120 candidates on the Ramsey county primary ticket for county and legislative offices, this number having filed their intentions preliminary to the closing of the county auditor's office yesterday.

Most notable of those who failed to file, after declaring an intention to do so, was William E. Buschmann, who had said that he proposed to make the race for the Democratic nomination.

Thirty-third District, First Ward—Republicans, Olaf Swenson and David I. Lindgren. Second Ward—Republicans, Joel E. Gregory and Walter T. Lemon. There were no Democratic filings in this district.

Thirty-fourth District, Third Ward—Democrat, Henry McColl; Republican, E. O. Wergedahl. South of Railroad Tracks—Democrat, G. R. Dailey; Republicans, Frank J. Elles, William Templeman, J. B. Lehman, Charles A. North of Railroad Tracks—Democrats, L. Finnegan and James Handlan; Republican, Fred Stanley.

Thirty-fifth District, Fifth Ward—Democrat, George J. Cannon; Republicans, Renville Chinook and John F. Selb. Sixth Ward—Democrats, Anthony Yoerg and M. P. Moriarty; Republican, Frank H. Haskin.

Thirty-sixth District, Fourth Ward—Democrats, James R. Hickey and Joseph Grace; Republican, Fred B. Phillips. Seventh Ward and part of Eighth—M. D. Flower, Joseph H. Beck and Frank E. Hall.

Thirty-seventh District, Tenth and Eleventh Wards and Country Townships (exclusive of the city)—Democrat, J. J. Jacoby and John Clark; Republicans, Charles F. Fieseler, Thomas C. Fulton, C. J. Berryhill, Henry Stebbins, Alvin Rowe and Thomas F. Conroy.

EDWARD PETERSON Candidates for Democratic Nomination for County Auditor for sheriff. After spending yesterday in consultation with leading Democrats Buschmann concluded to keep out of the contest.

The complete filings with the county auditor were: Sheriff—Democrats, Anton Miesen and John H. Wilson; Republicans, P. C. Justus, M. N. Eason, David W. Gray, Charles Reichow, Max Rachelman and J. Strane.

The filings for sheriff indicate that Anton Miesen has a clear field for the Democratic nomination, and that as a result he will likely be the next sheriff of the county. J. H. Wilson has some friends, but persons who take an interest in politics do not believe that he stands but a minor chance of nomination. On the Republican side the race is to all appearances between Justus, Eason and Gray, with the chances largely in favor of Justus. If the judgment of the men who put their money on the outcome of such contests is to be relied upon.

Peterston Files for Auditor

County Auditor—Democrats, Edward Peterson, J. W. Hinkens and Fred Beck; Republicans, Charles V. Moberly and Edward G. Krahmer.

The filing of Edward Peterson yesterday for the nomination for county auditor before the public in a most aroused considerable interest in political circles. Mr. Peterson has taken an active interest in several past campaigns, and at the spring election made the first and finest speech at the big Democratic rally opening the campaign. His address set firm the issues of the campaign and brought Mr. Peterson before the public in a most favorable light. He was inclined to enter the race for the position of auditor because of his known competence in the Republican party.

Charles V. Moberly will oppose Edward G. Krahmer, the present incumbent, in the Republican nomination. Moberly was connected with the auditor's office for some years.

County Treasurer—Democrats, Peter J. Metzdorf and John Waschenberger; Republicans, S. E. Kellermann, Jesse Foot and D. A. Cudworth.

Mr. Metzdorf is at present the treasurer of the county and seeks a re-nomination, being endorsed by Mr. Waschenberger, at one time the treasurer's office and for the past twelve years assistant cashier of the county department. S. E. Kellermann, who would like to receive the Republican nomination for the office, was defeated for the same nomination two years ago.

Contests for Register of Deeds

Register of Deeds—Democrats, Lee Hall and John A. Hogan; Republicans, M. W. Fitzgerald and Charles A. Anderson.

Mr. Hall filed his declaration yesterday, giving assurance that there will be a contest in the primary election. Mr. Hogan having filed his nomination previous. Mr. Fitzgerald was not opposed for the Republican nomination.

County Attorney—Democrats, Thomas C. Keane and Thomas F. Grace; Republicans, Howard Wheeler, Harvey E. Hall and E. S. Thompson.

Mr. Keane was without opposition for re-nomination, and a few minutes after 5 o'clock yesterday, when Thomas F. Grace gave notice of his candidacy. The three Republicans filed some time ago.

Judges of the District Court—Democrats, George L. Bunn and Thomas D. O'Brien; Republicans, Charles Butts, Walter L. Chapin, Oscar Hallam, F. E. Cullin and James E. Markham.

Although the Democrats will not find it necessary to drag their candidates through a severe preliminary campaign to secure the nominations, the fact that there are four Republican candidates for the two positions make it evident that there will be a strong contest and that much bad feeling will be left after the election has been made. Even the best judges amongst the Republicans do not assume to predict the outcome as between the five candidates.

Coroner Mixup

Coroner—Democrats, Dr. A. W. Miller, Dr. Charles L. Dohm and A. P. Miller; Republicans, Dr. J. C. Nelson and Dr. S. W. Robillard.

The situation regarding the selection of a Democratic candidate for this position is complicated by the fact that Dr. Miller, the present incumbent, is opposed not only by Dr. Dohm, but is placed at a disadvantage in having a man by the name of A. P. Miller, driver of a laundry wagon, in the field. Dr. O'Brien, Democrat, T. G. Brunson and J. O. Vervais, Republicans, Frank J. Obst and Albert Schuetz, County Surveyor—Democrat, J. H. Armstrong; Republican, John B. Irvine and Henry S. Potts.

Superintendent of County Schools—Republican, Thomas Montgomery.

EIGHTY-THREE FILE AT STATE CAPITOL

List Includes Sixteen Aspirants for Congress and 52 for State Legislature

Eighty more candidates filed yesterday at the office of the secretary of state in order to get their names on the ballot to be used at the primary election Sept. 20. The office closed at 5 p. m., although Chief Clerk George B. Brown arranged to receive such applications at his home until the last chance expired at midnight.

The total number of filings was 83, which, at $20 apiece, represented $1,660 in fees. For the state legislature 52 candidates filed; for the district bench, 15; and for congress, 16.

Many legislative and judicial districts show no filings, either because the term of the incumbents will not expire before the elections of 1906, or because the district does not extend beyond a single county. In the latter case candidates file only with the county clerk.

Candidates have filed for all congressional districts except the Fifth, that district being confined to Hennepin county.

The filings yesterday were: Congress—First District—H. C. Nelson, of Hayward, Freeborn county, Democrat.

Second District—George P. Craven, of Duluth, Democrat.

Third District—Joseph W. Craven, of Newrock, Carver county, Democrat.

Fourth District—John H. Driscoll, of Madison, Lac Qui Parle county, Democrat.

Fifth District—Martin Hughes, of Hibbing, St. Louis county, Democrat.

Sixth District—W. T. Valentine, of Long Prairie, Todd county, Democrat.

State Legislature (House)—Fifty-Sixth District—W. C. Whitman, of Ortonville, Big Stone county, Republican.

Sixty-Third District—C. A. Fuller, of Warren, Marshall county, Democrat.

The entire list of filings, the first of which was made March 22 by Representative N. F. Hugo, of Duluth, is:

Congress—First District—(R.), James A. Tawney, of Winona, Winona county; (D.), H. C. Nelson, Hayward.

Second District—(R.), J. T. McCleary, Mankato (for re-election); (R.), Herbert J. Miller, Luverne; (D.), George P. Jones, Jackson.

Third District—(R.), Charles R. Davis, St. Peter (for re-election); (D.), Joseph W. Craven, Newrock.

Fourth District—(R.), Fred C. Stevens, St. Paul (for re-election).

Fifth District—(No election).

Sixth District—(No election).

Seventh District—(R.), John W. Mason, Ferguson Falls; (D.), J. W. Morrison, Newrock; (D.), Francis Cadwell, Le Sueur (for re-election).

Eighth District—(R.), Arthur B. Dibell, Duluth (for re-election).

Ninth District—(No election).

Tenth District—(No election).

Eleventh District—(R.), Philip E. Brown, Luverne (for re-election).

Twelfth District—(R.), Andrew Grindeland, Warren (for re-election); (R.), William Waits, Crookston (for re-election).

Fifteenth District—(R.), Arthur E. Giddings, Anoka (for re-election).

State Legislature (Senate)—Forty-eighth—Senator: (D.) Werner Hemstead, Brainerd; (R.) John T. Frater, Brainerd; (D.) J. N. True, Little Falls; (R.) J. W. Bouck, Roylston; (R.) H. A. Riehl, Little Falls; (D.) Gust Landgren, Little Falls.

Fifty-first—House: (R.) N. F. Hugo, Duluth; (R.) H. G. Skinner, Two Harbors.

Fifty-second—House: (R.) S. Swanson, Moose Lake; (R.) A. L. Cole, Walker; (R.) H. R. King, Grand Rapids; (R.) T. F. Sead, Denby.

BOYS BURN BARN

Two Go Up in Smoke and Horse Is Victim of Fire

Two barns in ashes, one horse burned to death and a property loss of over $500, were the result of a fire supposed to have been started by boys near the farm of Gustave A. Johnson, 603 White Bear road, yesterday afternoon.

The barn was totally destroyed, as well as that of his neighbor, Albert Bodley, 1650 Edgerton street. The two barns adjoin and the fire was started on the line between them. They were both discovered in flames at the same time. Owing to their remoteness the barns were burned before apparatus from the fire department could reach them.

A horse in Bodley's barn was burned to death. An attempt was made to rescue the animal, but as the fire filled the barn before the horse could be rescued had to be abandoned. Johnson's loss is estimated at $300, of which $100 is covered by insurance. Bodley's loss will reach $350.

HUNTERS CAN'T WAIT

Several Are Fined for Violating Game Laws

The last few days before the beginning of the open season for hunting many reports of punishment suffered by violators of the state game laws.

Executive Officer Fullerton, of the game and fish commission, was in charge of the open season, $10 and costs for shooting prairie chickens at Walworth; Frank Visnor, of Detroit, $10 and costs, for a like offense; Charles D. Roy and Frank Campbell, of Minneapolis, $10 and costs each for shooting prairie chickens near Anoka; H. P. Fish and F. G. Lyons, $10 each and costs, for killing chickens near Hallock; Herman Schiller and Joseph Helset, $20 and costs each for slaying four wild ducks near Sleepy Eye.

The arrests and convictions were secured by deputy wardens.

BRING BACK BODY OF ST. PAUL BOY FOR BURIAL

Remains of John A. Kerr Are Interred at Calvary Cemetery

The body of John A. Kerr, a former St. Paul boy who died at Green Bay, Mich., March 11 of this year, was yesterday buried at Calvary cemetery in his parents' family lot. Kerr, who was thirteen years old, died from violent hemorrhages of the bowels.

His remains were brought to St. Paul from Green Bay. His parents finally decided to have it brought to St. Paul for interment.

The family of the young man was met at the depot by members of the Knights of Columbus, of which he was the youngest member at the time of his death. The young man's father, Wright Kerr, lived with the family from St. Paul to Green Bay nine years ago.

STREET CLEANER STRICKEN AT WORK

Paul Fietzacker, a "white wing" was stricken with hemorrhage of the brain while at work yesterday morning on Sixth street, near Wabasha street. He fell unconscious to the pavement and was taken to the hospital. He died yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Fietzacker was sixty-two years old and a widower. He lived at 498 Jefferson street. He was born in Germany and had lived in St. Paul ten years. He has been with the street force for two years.

HOPE LIND WILL RUN

Friends Loath to Believe He Will Withdraw From Ticket

Democratic leaders are concerned over a possible refusal of Congressman John Lind to accept the nomination given him by the Minneapolis convention of Tuesday for justice of the supreme court. The nomination was made in Mr. Lind's absence on the Pacific coast.

Not long after leaving the coast Snell was again arrested, the charge being preferred by John Blanksma, a stranger in the city, who said he had been "done" by Snell.

Blanksma said he was charged 95 cents for a hair cut and a shave. He protested and appealed to Patrolman Wagner. The officer advised him to swear out a warrant, which he did, and Snell was arrested. His brother Louis paid another $20 bail to secure his release.

Snell said that his bill was all right. He asserted that Blanksma, in addition to receiving a hair cut, a shave and a neck shave, had his hair singed and his face massaged. Blanksma declared that he ordered only a hair cut and a shave, for which he expected to pay 30 cents, and charges Snell with stealing 65 cents.

About the time Snell was arrested the second time the police commissioner, who met yesterday afternoon, received a complaint from Louis Snell, which averred that "Police Officer C. Wagner has constantly abused one of my barbers while in a drunken condition," and has called us Shienegs twenty times.

The commissioners being unable to learn from the complaint which party was accused of being in a drunken condition," sent it to the chief for investigation.

The Commercial club has taken a hand in the barber "graff" matter, and the city development committee has urged the police to have warrants sworn out in all cases where exorbitant charges are made to strangers in the city.

WOMAN STRIKES MRS. URMANN WITH AN AX

Quarrel Between Neighbors on Upper Levee May Have Grave Result

Mrs. Lucas Urmann, upper levee, is in a serious condition at her home as a result of being struck in the back with an ax wielded by a neighbor woman during a quarrel about a week ago. Mrs. Urmann, who is under a physician's care, has been confined to bed since she was injured, and on account of her previous condition, is in danger of suffering from complications.

Mrs. Urmann had a dispute with her neighbor, who had fenced off a small tract of ground, and refused to permit anyone to cross the inclosure. Mrs. Urmann contended that her neighbor did not have the right to keep her off the ground, and when she attempted to cross it was driven off by the other woman, who seized an ax and made a swing at her. The back of the ax struck Mrs. Urmann in the back. Mrs. Shatofsky, another neighbor, then intervened and assisted Mrs. Urmann to the house.
