SIGNALS CAR TO COME AND DIVES UNDER IT

Albert C. Dohm Deliberately Throws Himself on Track and Is Ground to Pieces

Throwing himself in front of a street car passing by his home, Albert C. Dohm, 574 Wabasha street, was instantly killed at 10:20 o'clock yesterday morning. He dropped flat upon the track and before the motorman could stop the car, the front trucks had ground his body to pieces.

Dohm, whose mind, it is said, was affected by epilepsy, was in his house and darted in front of an ice wagon which was standing near the curb. He stood on the north bound track upon which a fair grounds car was approaching. The car which had stopped at College avenue, had just gained speed to climb the ascent in Wabasha street when the motorman, S. E. Clark, saw Dohm and checked the speed.

Beckons to Death

"The man saw me turn off the power and he waved his hand to me, indicating that he wanted me to go ahead," said Clark. "Thinking he was about to cross the street and was waiting for my car to pass I again turned on the power and the car shot ahead. I was horrified to see him raise his arms above his head and take a dive. In an instant he was under the front of the car and the front wheels ran over him. I turned the brake when I saw him fall, but the car was going quite rapidly and it did not stop until his body had been run over."

The catastrophe created a sensation and a great crowd gathered about the body before it could be removed to the county morgue and four policemen were needed to keep the swarm of people under control.

Dohm was thirty-four years old and married. He was a brother of Dr. C. L. Dohm, and son of the late Frederick Dohm, an early settler of St. Paul. Some years ago he was employed as an undertaker by his brother, Fred Dohm, who died recently and was regularly employed during the past few years.

Had Just Returned From Asylum

He had been subject to epileptic fits for many years and his mind, it is said, was affected. Sometime ago he was committed to the Rochester asylum and only returned to his home in this city last Wednesday night.

Coroner Arthur W. Miller, who made an investigation, said that there was no doubt that Dohm had deliberately killed himself, though an effort was made by his relatives to show that he had walked onto the car tracks and had fallen in front of the car while in an epileptic fit.

Coroner Miller said that no inquest would be necessary and permitted the relatives to take charge of the remains. The body was removed to Rockstroff's undertaking rooms.

WOMEN BATHERS FEWER THIS YEAR

Report of Health Commissioner Shows Big Patronage for Public Baths

The report of Health Commissioner Ohage of business, said that there was during the month of August shows that 45,266 persons patronized the baths, which was 266 more than during the same period a year ago. The receipts, however, were this year $1,971, as compared with $2,229 a year ago, showing a falling off of $258. This was due to the fact that less sales were made.

A feature of the report is that while 1,896 more males took baths this year than a year ago, the females going into the water were this year 1,059, as compared with 2,692, showing a decrease of 1,630.

RICHARD J. BAMBURY BURIED AT ROSEMOUNT

Many From St. Paul Attend Funeral of Well Known Railway Man

The funeral of Richard J. Bambury, the well known railway man who was killed in a railroad accident at Helena, Mont., Monday, was held yesterday in the Catholic church at Rosemount, at which place interment occurred. A special coach on the Milwaukee took the funeral party to Rosemount. The coach was in charge of J. L. Burns, Great Northern yardmaster at Butte, Mont.

Besides the relatives and a number of railroad men there were present representatives of the A. O. U. W. and the O. R. C. The decedent was yardmaster for the Great Northern at Helena at the time of his death. He was in the employ of the Omaha and the St. Paul & Duluth for ten years. He leaves a wife and six children.

THE GLOBE'S FUND

SHOW WEARING $1,700

Contributions Yesterday From Outside the City Help Swell the Total

THE GLOBE'S GOOD SHEPHERD RELIEF FUND
H. Derham, Rosemount.	$100.00
M. J. Maldon, Hammond	100.00
J. F. Kelley	50.00
"F. V."	2.75
How, Taylor & Mitchell	20.00
Total	$137.75
Previously acknowledged	1,489.00
Grand total	$1,626.75

The Globe's House of Good Shepherd relief fund was swelling yesterday by contributions aggregating $137.75. The total of contributions to date is $1,626.75.

As evidenced by the rains of the past few days, the needs of the cyclone-stricken institution for immediate assistance are more urgent, if possible, than at first supposed. Although contributions to The Globe's fund so far have been liberal, the sum is greatly inadequate to the immediate needs in repairing the $15,000 damage caused by the storm.

That the appeal to aid the suffering sisters of the inmates of the House of Good Shepherd has gone outside the city was evidenced yesterday by a check for $100 from Rosemount and another for $75 from Hammond.

It is hoped that by the end of the present week the fund will have reached the $2,000 mark, and judging from the way contributions are coming in, indications are favorable. Arrangements for the baseball game, to be played Sept. 12, between the Milwaukee and St. Paul teams of the American association, for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd, are about completed, and the work of disposing of the tickets has begun. Regular prices of admission will be charged and there is little doubt that there will be a record-breaking attendance.

NAVY OPENS OFFICE

St. Paul Benefits by New Recruiting System

Under a new system established by the naval recruiting service, a branch station was opened yesterday in the federal building. It will be continued until Sept. 3, under the supervision of the main office in Minneapolis. Instead of having the recruiting office go from city to city, as has been the custom, the system which has been put in operation provides for the maintenance throughout definite periods of the year of stations in eight cities in different sections of the country. From the main offices recruiting parties come to the main offices recruiting parties composed of three men will go to a number of cities in each district, remaining six days at each place. The change was made in order to reduce the expense of mileage for the recruiting officer and his staff.

The main office at Minneapolis is in charge of Lieut. E. M. Major, and will be kept open for six weeks, after which it will be moved to St. Louis, Cincinnati and Memphis. Lieut. Major is in charge of the party, and other parties have been assigned to other sections of the United States. William Birds, gunner's mate, assigned by E. A. Backers, yeoman, and F. M. Frederickson, hospital attendant, have charge of the branch which was opened in St. Paul yesterday. After leaving this city they will proceed to Duluth, Eau Claire, Madison, Milwaukee and Omaha.

One applicant was examined at the federal building by the recruiting officer, but failed to meet the physical requirements.

MILWAUKEE OFFICIAL DISLIKES NOTORIETY

Vice President Hiland Says Personal Mention Is Provincial

J. H. Hiland, vice president of the Milwaukee, is not much of a believer in publicity in the railroad columns of the press.

"It is a wonder to me," said he to The Globe, "in rejecting his queries touching on matters and things in general, that the newspapers of the Northwest do not wake up to the fact that a visit of a railroad man is not an interesting news item."

"Now in New York, for instance, we high officials can come and go without comment in the press. Really, no matter how high our positions, little visits here and there are not matters of news and should not be mentioned unless the official has some story to tell."

"No, sir," he concluded, "there is absolutely nothing of interest that I can give out at this time. Railroads are very quiet as far as news at present is concerned."

RAILROAD NOTES

The half tariff granted on grass seeds from the Twin Cities to points in Minnesota and North Dakota between Jan. 1 and June 30 each year by the Northern Pacific has been eliminated effective Sept. 1.

The summer train service between this city and White Bear will be taken over by the Northern Pacific Sept. 19, and a full service regular to the one in effect last year will be substituted.

Find Infant's Body

The body of an infant, badly decomposed, was found floating in the river at the St. Paul boom yesterday morning. It was removed to the county morgue, but Coroner Arthur Miller was unable to find any clue as to who had dropped it in the river, or to determine the sex of the infant. It was buried by the coroner.

No Rest for Hamps

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., Sept. 2.—Frank J. Hamps, attorney of the Western Federation of Miners, who was deported from this district Aug. 20 and returned yesterday, went out again on the afternoon train today to avoid another deportation. He said that Sheriff Bell has refused to grant him protection.

SOME AMONG THE FIREMEN DO NOT WISH FOR PROMOTION

Advancements in St. Paul Fire Department Will Not Be Announced Until Next Week as the List Has Not Been Completed by Chief Jackson, Who Declares Many of His Men Look With Disfavor Upon Being Removed From Their Present Stations, Even at Increased Salaries

Numerous promotions in the fire department incident to the advancement of J. J. Strapp and Henry Devlin will not be announced until early next week, Chief Jackson and President Warner not having been able to complete the list.

"There is another reason for not announcing the changes and promotions at this time," said Chief Jackson. "There are nine men at the fair grounds and the companies have been so arranged that it would be inconvenient to have the transfers made before they return to their posts. A large number of promotions could be made at this time without inconvenience, but it is the wish of the members of the board that all changes go into effect at the same time."

"It has been found that a number of captains in charge of outlying stations prefer to remain where they are, rather than take a down-town station and receive an increase of $3 a month in their salaries. This is also true of a number of firemen. In many instances the men own their homes, and if they accepted a transfer they would be ultimately out of pocket, as they would find it necessary to pay high rentals. In all such cases where the efficiency of the department will not be crippled by such action the wishes of the men will be complied with."

With the exception of such cases, it is again speaking of "Special Curves" the standing of the men as to length of service will be closely followed, which means that the two men at the top of each grade will be advanced a notch.

DECLARES AGAINST THE LATE FILINGS

County Auditor Disagrees With Attorney General Regarding Nominating Laws

County Auditor Kraemer is personally of the opinion that candidates who filed Aug. 21 should not be placed on the ballot, but declines to say that he will so rule and force such candidate to go into court.

The auditor was yesterday engaged in making up the ticket, which must be ready for inspection fourteen days before the election, and while taking the position that candidates who filed after Aug. 20 are not legal candidates, he suggested that some other of those interested should bring about the case to test the law.

"It might be said, if I took the action on my own account, that the course was pursued because I am personally interested," said Mr. Kraemer. "I hope that some other candidate, who will not be subject to such an attack, will bring the question before the courts and secure a decision."

"There seems to me to be little reason to doubt that the apparent intent of the law will be upheld, and that it will be made necessary for candidates to file twenty days previous to the primary election, instead of nineteen."

No Limit to Possibilities

"If it is possible for a legal filing to be made nineteen days previous to the nominating election, it is equally possible to accept filings eighteen days, seventeen days, and so on, right up to the time the tickets are printed. The law plainly excepts the day on which the election is held, and it therefore follows that but nineteen days intervene between the last filings at midnight Aug. 31, and the primary election, Sept. 20. This seems like a lot of time, and we naturally follow his opinions until they are sustained or overruled by the courts. Such a condition exists regarding the filing of candidates, and it cannot be seen my way clear to announce that I will refuse to put on the official ballot the names of persons who filed on the 31st."

If it should be held that all filings made on the 31st are illegal, several persons now considered leaders in the race will be counted out before they get started.

M. W. Fitzgerald, candidate for re-nomination for register of deeds, would be most favored. Not only would Charles A. Anderson, his only opponent for the nomination, be ruled out, but Lee Hall, one of the two candidates for the Democratic nomination, would also be struck out of the race.

T. R. Kane, who aspires to a re-nomination for county attorney, would be relieved of a contest in the preliminary election in Thomas F. Grace, his only Democratic opponent, was one of those who came in late.

Edward Peterson, candidate for the Democratic nomination for county auditor, would also be out of the running, as would Dr. C. A. Haas, who seeks the Democratic nomination for coroner.

There were also several late filings for less important positions, including the legislature and for county commissioner. If one is ruled out of the ticket they will all go.

Newsboy Confesses to Police That He Robbed the Store of Peter Otto

The boy was noticed at Fifth and Minnesota streets by Patrolman Gross and seemed to be well supplied with money. He was playing the slot machine when taken in charge by the officer and sent to the central station $38 was found on his person.

WOMAN HELD IN JAIL WITHOUT BAIL

Alleged Assault of Mrs. Urmann Detained Pending Developments

Mrs. Mary Finlay is held in the county jail without bail, pending the outcome of injuries she is alleged to have inflicted upon her neighbor, Mrs. Lucas Urmann.

When Mrs. Finlay was in police court yesterday for arraignment, it was announced by the county attorney that Mrs. Urmann was in a dangerous condition.

At the instance of County Attorney Kane Mrs. Urmann was examined by Dr. Meyerding, who found her condition so critical that he had her removed to the city hospital. Dr. Meyerding believes she will recover unless there are complications. If such is the case, Mrs. Finlay will be charged with committing an assault with a dangerous weapon.

It is claimed that she struck Mrs. Urmann with an ax. The assault, it is claimed, was the outcome of a neighborhood quarrel. Mrs. Finlay lived at 15 Upper Levee.

The two women had a fight a little over a week ago. Mrs. Urmann was injured and since then has been gradually growing worse, the arrest having been made Thursday and Mrs. Finlay released on nominal bail.

STOCK RAISERS SORE

They Complain of the Tactics of the Beef Trust

North Dakota stock raisers are up in arms at the treatment they are receiving on the Chicago stock market. Prices have steadily declined for beef cattle on foot since the inauguration of the beef packers' strike some six weeks ago. Yesterday shippers were receiving 40 cents for the market, and before the strike, there has, it is said, been no reduction to the consumers, and on the other hand, it is asserted, that the retailers are forced to pay about $1 more per hundred for their supply of beef for the trade than before the strike.

A. N. Jenney, a prominent stock man of Dickinson, N. D., was in St. Paul yesterday on his way home from Chicago, where he had taken a train load of fat steers to the market, and he said that stockmen of his state were in desperate straits as a result of the squeezing to which they are being subjected by the beef trust.

With the largest product of range fed beef in our state since 1893, he said, "we are receiving lower prices than for some years. The Chicago market has steadily declined since the strike of the packers began, until now we are receiving $1.50 per hundred less for our cattle than we were before the trouble started. The buyers assign the reduction in price to the strike, but we are not certain that they are telling the truth when they are getting about $1 a hundred more for the dressed article than before the strike."

"I took a train load of cattle to market on Monday of this week and had taken a train in a week ago. The reduction from two years ago means a loss of about $600 a car. Top notch prices then were $6.75, as against $3.90 now, and the growers feel that conditions do not warrant any such slump in the price of cattle on foot. We hardly know what to do, for we have the cattle in prime condition and they must be sold."

"Pasturage this year has been fine and no better range cattle were ever delivered to the market than the North Dakota product now being marketed. Steers from three to four years old are being sold, and the range stock of the Northwest easily takes precedence over that from the Southwest. The tactics of the beef trust are quite likely to drive some of the growers out of business if persisted in."
