

IN THE FIELD OF POLITICS PARTIES PICK THEIR CANDIDATES TODAY

Ramsey County to Test Primary Election Law the Second Time—Vote Is Expected to Almost Equal That Cast at 1904 Spring Primary Election—Sheriff Fight Will Bring Out Republican Vote

PRIMARY ELECTION POINTS.

Primary election booths will open at 6 o'clock this morning in the 116 different precincts, and votes will be received until 9 o'clock this evening. All qualified voters are allowed to participate, and with the exception of the young man casting his first ballot, it is necessary to declare the party ballot desired.

TO PACK PRIMARIES Republican Candidates for Sheriff and Treasurer Plot

There was evidence last night that the fight for the Republican nominations for sheriff and county treasurer would result in an attempt to flood the Republican primaries today with a floating vote. The contest for the nominations for these offices, two of the most desirable from a financial standpoint in the gift of the county, has increased in interest during the past few days, until it was openly charged last night that a candidate for sheriff and a candidate for treasurer had formed a coalition for the purpose of capturing a part of the floating down-town vote and rushing it in to the Republican primaries.

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT

John A. Johnson Pleased With Receptions in Country

John A. Johnson, of St. Peter, Democratic candidate for governor, came to St. Paul yesterday to confer with members of his committee at the Democratic headquarters. Mr. Johnson will remain until late this afternoon, when he will return to his home. He will make no more public speeches.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES PROMPTLY CURED.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in promptly curing kidney, bladder and uric acid troubles, rheumatism and pain in the back. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day and to get up many times during the night. The mild and safe, yet powerful effect of Swamp-Root is the result of its standing the highest for the wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver, bladder or uric acid trouble you will find it just the remedy you need.

The Insurance Sale of Housefurnishings and Trunks

Has taken the town by storm. Last Saturday's sale of trunks was far in excess of any previous day's selling in the department's history. Yesterday we began the selling of housekeeping needs, secured from the storm damaged stocks of G. Sommers & Co., and other jobbers. As the damage done is principally in water stains, which may be easily removed, the prices quoted are nothing short of sensational.

Wood Wash Tubs Hundreds of Wash Tubs to go in this insurance sale at HALF PRICE. Wash Boilers A lot of Wash Boilers, slightly soiled, at HALF PRICE. Bread and Cake Boxes 49c kind for... 25c 59c kind for... 25c 69c kind for... 35c. Brooms Lot 1—worth 25c, for... 12c Lot 2—worth 35c, for... 20c Lot 3—worth 45c, for... 22c. Tinware Thousands of dollars' worth of Tinware to go at HALF PRICE. Clothes Wringers About 25 cases of them to go at HALF PRICE. Trunks Still Going for Half And they'll continue to sell at half till every one of the "Insurance Sale" trunks is sold. But at the rate they are going now they will not last long. The prices begin at 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and on up. Trunks that sell regularly for $9.50 will go in this sale for $4.75, which represents the proportionate saving to be made on every purchase.

LIND TO TAKE STUMP

Congressman Prepares to Work for the Ticket

John Lind will take the stump for John A. Johnson and the Democratic state ticket, and will speak for ten days or two weeks at points in the state to be designated by the Democratic state central committee. Congressman Lind, who returned yesterday from New York, immediately notified Chairman Frank A. Day, of the Democratic state central committee, that he would require a few days to put his private business affairs in is on the statute books. The attorney general admitted that section 6666 of the general laws of 1894 absolutely prohibited the practice of permitting clerks in the state service to profit by their technical knowledge of conditions in state lands. "Is that law still on the statute books?" the attorney general was asked. "There is no question about it," he replied. "Has it been amended?" he was asked. "It has not."

Investigation found the law in the general laws of 1894. Section 6666 provides: A public officer who is authorized to sell any property or to make any contract in his official capacity, or to take any part in such sale or lease, or to voluntarily become interested, individually, in such sale, lease or contract, directly or indirectly, is guilty of a misdemeanor. The statutory provision is also found in the penal code, being section 372 of the collection of the penal laws of the state.

Governor Declines to Talk

Gov. Van Sant returned yesterday from Moline, Ill., where he had opened the Illinois campaign Saturday night. The governor refused to discuss the Dunn report, basing his refusal to talk on the statement that he had not yet had time to fully read the reply of Mr. Dunn to the public examiner's charges. The governor is understood to be criticized in some Republican quarters for the fact that he made public the Dunn reports at the same time that he dispatched a messenger with a copy to the office of George A. Flinn. "I can't help it," the governor said, "I was scored when I made public the earlier reports of the public examiner, and now I am criticised because I gave the public the same opportunity that was given Mr. Dunn to learn the contents of the last reports."

There is a story that the governor's reply to Mr. Dunn's letter, asking for copies of the Johnson reports, was a rather caustic epistle. In the Dunn report the Republican candidate for governor included his letter asking Gov. Van Sant for copies of the reports, but made no mention that the governor had written an equally interesting letter to him in response. The governor refused to say whether or not he had written the letter that was being discussed about the capitol as being one of the most interesting features of an interesting incident.

Fullerton Backs Johnson

S. F. Fullerton, executive agent of the state game and fish commission, who was a timber cruiser for a time under the Dunn administration, said yesterday that the public examiner was correct in his view of the reports of the cruisers. "In pursuing his investigations," Mr. Fullerton said, "the cruiser had to have a starting point, and the report means cut east and south, or whatever the direction in which he reported, from his starting point."

Students at University Declare

for John A. Johnson

The Democratic students in the state university gathered in the chapel yesterday afternoon and formed the Minnesota University Democratic club, for the purpose of "furthering the principles of Democracy as set forth in the St. Louis platform and securing the election of Democratic candidates in city, county, state and nation." James T. Chinnock, secretary treasurer, and D. Evans, elected temporary chairman and the meeting proceeded to the election of officers. John Curran defeated Michael O'Halloran for president by a vote of 10 to 8. The other officers were elected unanimously. John McGearty was made vice president and president of the executive committee. It was decided to postpone the election of the executive committee until the next meeting, which will be held on next Monday.

The primary election will be held in the city and county today.

For the second time the primary election law, as applied to the county, legislative and judicial offices, will be given a test.

The contests for the offices have been marked by more spirit, with more copious injections of personal feeling, on the part of the Republicans than by the Democrats. The indications are that the Republican candidates will receive a larger total vote in consequence than the Democrats.

The nomination for sheriff by the Republicans will undoubtedly draw the heaviest vote cast for any single office because of the size of the field entered for the race and of the close canvass that has been made by the candidates.

Two years ago, when the law was given its first trial, the total Republican vote exceeded that cast for the Democratic candidates by 1,291.

In 1902 the highest vote received by a Republican candidate was $9,250, while the Democrat who led his ticket received $7,533.

The total vote was 16,459, with an estimated vote of 18 per cent of the total which cast scattering votes for two or three candidates on each ticket, and who therefore did not figure conspicuously in the aggregate, computed from the highest vote cast for any candidate.

Two years ago the total vote cast in the fall primaries was more than 2,000 less than had been cast in the spring primary election. There was an unusually heavy vote cast in the spring of 1902, because of the famous Smith-Wagner contest for the mayoralty, and it is the judgment of the well informed that the vote today will practically equal that cast at the spring election of 1904, when nearly 20,000 votes were cast.

VAN SANT EMPHATIC Declares Unworthy Candidates Should Be Defeated

A telegram to The Globe from Moline, Ill., where Gov. Van Sant opened the Republican campaign Saturday night, says that the Minnesota governor, in closing his speech, made a significant statement as showing his position on the Republican nomination in his own state.

"No party nomination should be so strong that it will secure the election of an unworthy candidate," the governor said, and The Globe's correspondent adds that the sentiment was greeted with cheers by Van Sant's old friends and neighbors, who knew of conditions in Minnesota Republican politics.

The governor was greeted with a large audience, and in the course of his speech made an intensely Republican address. He detailed the past glories of his party, its position on present day issues and its hopes for the future. Then, remembering Minnesota politics, the governor added the sentence which is perhaps destined to become an "issue" in the present campaign, for it undoubtedly displayed his position regarding the candidacy of R. C. Dunn for the governorship.

This speech was made before Mr. Dunn's reply to Mr. Johnson had been made public.

BRADY HEADS THIRD WARD ORGANIZATION

Democratic Precinct Workers Hold Meeting and Elect Chairman

At a meeting of the Democratic precinct chairmen of the Third ward, held last night at the Portland, on Broadway, between Eighth and Ninth streets, Thomas J. Brady was unanimously elected chairman of the ward organization. The selection of a secretary was deferred until a later meeting. The Fourth ward Democratic organization instructed its election judges at a meeting held in Democratic city and county headquarters, Globe building, corner of Fourth and Cedar streets, last night.

PRETTY GIRL TO STUMP FOR PARKER

Miss Ingels, a pretty and talented girl of Paris, Ky., has tendered her services to the national Democratic committee and her services have been accepted. She has been notified that she will be assigned to speak in the West.

until Friday, when, with F. G. Winston, of Minneapolis, his running mate on the ticket, he will go to Alexandria, Glenwood and Morris for addresses at each of the three places. Mr. Johnson is at work on his speech of acceptance which will be delivered at the Minneapolis exposition building Saturday night. A draft of his speech will probably be considered by his political advisers today.

Mr. Johnson visited the county fair at Garden City and Blue Earth City last week and met with flattering receptions at both places. He was surprised at the extent of sentiment in favor of the ticket of which he is the head.

"I cannot imagine a situation that is more promising," he said last night in his headquarters in the Gilliland block. "The receptions given Mr. Winston and myself were cordial in the extreme and public sentiment seems to be largely in our favor."

Speaking of Mr. Winston's telling work already in the campaign, Mr. Johnson said: "Mr. Winston is doing excellent work thus early in the campaign. He is listened to with marked attention and he is so evidently sincere in everything that he says that he cannot fail to bring many of his hearers to his view of political conditions in this state. Mr. Winston is a tower of strength to our ticket, and he is proving it everywhere he goes."
