There was scrimmage on Northrop field yesterday afternoon and plenty of It, enough to satisfy the appetite of the most ravenous chaser of the pigskin. When it was too dark to navigate came the first letup and the squads tore for the armory with visions of the training table as an inducement to progress The practice was open to the world and a large number of students followed the teams up and down the field and enjoyed as much excitement as if it had been a regularly scheduled con-

Dr. Williams shifted the positions around frequently and candidates got tryouts that they will not forget for some time. It was the hardest kind of work for over an hour, with the first team carrying the ball all the time and the second team fighting every inch of ground. Coach Dobie stood behind his men and exhorted and pleaded with them until they tore into the varsity with every ounce of strength they had.

The men stood the work well, and it was noted with satisfaction by the "gallery" that the time taken out was reduced to a minimum, which speaks well for the physical condition of the man. They were playing as hard as if en. They were playing as hard as if a regular game, and the varsity was bing against an eleven much superior going against an eleven much superior to anything they have met so far this season, and to be able to get away with an hour of this kind of work without showing the effects of it is evidence that they are fit for football.

Ricker got a try at left tackle and found that the job entails considerably more work and a bit more grief than guard. He was where it was up to him to work and keep working, so that when the time came for knocking off he was willing. Sandborn did guard duty on the left side of the line, with Strathern at center, Smith guard. Brush tackle. Cutting and Marshali had their turn at right end, the back field was shifted about considerably.

There was considerable kicking done before the scrimmage was started, and there are several candidates who are showing well in punting, place and drop kicking.

there are several candidates who are showing well in punting, place and drop kicking.

St. Thomas will line up against the varsity this afternoon for fifteen and twenty-minute halves. The collegians are going over to Northrop field with considerable weight, a fair amount of experience and no end of determination to come back with a small score chalked up against them. Up to date every team that has put in an appearance on Northrop field has been soft for the varsity, and overcoming them has been much less of an effort than their nightly encounters with the second team, and herein lies the way to glory for the collegians.

If they can hold the varsity down to a lower score than did Shattuck or Carleton they will have something tangible to base their comparison of 60-legiate teams on, and the lower the score the greater their satisfaction and encouragement. It is hardly probable that they will be able to do any better than their predecessors in the matter of holding the score down, as the varsity is getting swifter every day.

SAINTS RETURN FROM BARNSTORMING TOUR

Six of the Champions Are to Go on the Trail of Chickens .

Manager Mike Kelley. Charlie Jones, Jimmy Jackson and Pitchers Ferguson and Sessions have returned from their Eastern tour, which proved to be moderately profitable to the players. Most of the players will take up the shotgun and go out into the wild for anything wearing feathers in a few days. The remainder of the Saints spread out to their different homes after the game in Columbus Sunday.

Leroy-Whitman Match Is Feature of Second Day's

Play

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 4.—The second day's play in the intercollegiate championship lawn tennis tournament on the courts of the Merion Cricket club, Haverford, resulted in bringing the singles to the semi-final round and in the completion of all but two matches in the first round of the doubles.

The best match in the singles was between Robert Leroy, of Columbia, and H. H. Whitman, of Harvard. Three sets were necessary for a decision, every game being hotly contested. Leroy made many brilliant plays, but Whitman was a triffe the steadler. Leroy, however, won the deciding set. Another interesting match was that between E. B. Dewhurst, of the University of Pennsylvania, the present intercollegiate champion, and E. Sunstein, of Princeton. Dewhurst won the first set 6-2, but fell off in his play in the second. Several times Sunstein was within one point of the set, but was unable to pull it out, Dewhurst finally winning 11-9.

B. S. Prentice, of Harvard, defeated A. J. Rendall, of Princeton, in straight sets, and J. J. B. Larned, of Harvard, disposed of M. L. Thompson, of Princeton. The semi-finals will be played tomorrow, Dewhurst meeting Prentice and Leroy playing Larned.

In the doubles five matches were played and the contests were in most cases very even. Rendall and Richardson, of Princeton, won both their matches, defeating Spaulding and Stetson, of Yale, and Leroy and Bulkley, of Columbia.

A feature of the doubles is the entry of a Japanese player, M. Takaki, who represents Pennsylvania, and is paired with Dewhurst. They have not vet played, but will meet Prentice and Whitman, of Harvard, tomorrow. The Japanese is an experienced player, having won championships in his native land, and his debut is awaited with interest. Summary:

Singles, second round-Dewhurst, Pennsylvania, beat Sunstein, Princeton, f-2, 11-9; Prentice, Harvard, beat Rendall, Princeton, 6-6, 6-4; Leroy, Columbia, beat Whitman, Harvard, 6-6, 4-6, 6-6; Larned, Harvard, beat Thompson, Princeton, 7-6, 6-2.
