IN THE FIELD OF POLITICS

F. G. WINSTON PREDICTS 30,000 PLURALITY FOR JOHN A. JOHNSON

Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant Governor Tells of the Ovations Tendered to the Head of the Ticket in the Southern Minnesota Towns and Says the Enthusiasm Indicates a Landslide In Favor of the St. Peter Man gratuitous and enthusiastic. ceased being surprised at anything, for the people of Southern Minnesota have given me surprise after surprise."

Mr. Johnson is naturally somewhat fatigued, but declared that he is standing well the strain incident to making he has developed into a wonderful campaigner. As new issues arise, either through speeches or the newspaper attacks of the opposition, he grasps them readily and discusses them

F. G. Winston Is Strong

The feeling so strongly increasing, that Mr. Johnson's election is practically assured, is proving an inspiration to the others on the state ticket with him. F. G. Winston, candidate for lieutenant governor, who has been campaigning with Mr. Johnson since the speaking began, has made thousands of friends mott's friends have every hope of his Entire Ticket Looks Like Winner

John E. King, candidate for secretary

Developments of the past week are

Straw Vote Report

that Republican stronghold on guber-

It was said that the Glenwood test

Mr. Peterson writes that he has seen so many references to this now famous says:

"The vote was absoluely secret, printed ballots being used and deposited in a sealed box, and 200 bona fide voters of the village of Glenwood only being invited to vote. The vote when canvassed stood: 158 for Johnson and canvassed stood: 158 for Johnson and 42 for Dunn."

Mr. Peterson says that in connection with the straw vote at Glenwood a guessing contest on the result was inaugurated. This feature was public and was participated in by 165 of the 200 voters of the village. The average guess was 135 for Johnson and 66 for Dunn.

Dunn.

A straw vote taken in the St. Cloud band membership at its meeting Tuesday night was even more significant. Of the twenty members present when the vote was taken, the entire twenty were found to be for John A. Johnson for governor. St. Cloud is the home of James A. Martin, Mr. Dunn's manager

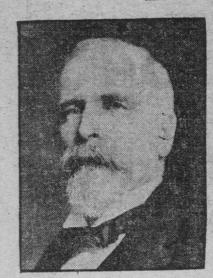

Allen's Lung Balsam

will positively break up a deep, racking stood 142 for Johnson, 68 for Dunn, natorial preferences.

dispassionately but convincingly.

FENDALL G. WINSTON

Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Who Says Election of John A. Johnson Is Assured.

In gwent the strain incident to making speeches as often as three times a day, and to the long journeys either by train or by team. Reports received at his headquarters say that his speeches are increasing in effectiveness and that "I firmly believe that John A. Johnson will be elected governor of Minnesota Nov. 8 by 30,000 plurality, and that the chances for electing the remainder of the ticket are excellent,' said F. G. Winston, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, on his arrival in St. Paul yesterday from a tour of the southern part of the state with

Mr. Johnson. 'The developments of the past week in the Southern Minnesota towns, began, has made thousands of friends throughout the state. He is a cleancut, conservative business man, with a business record which is the pride of his friends and of his party. In Minneapolis he is expected to run ahead of his party by hundreds of votes simply because he is best known there. Out through the state he is rapidly acquiring an acquaintance that will bring him votes, and when the voter stons where Mr. Johnson and I have spoken. are such that there is a regular landslide to the Democratic candidate for governor," Mr. Winston said. "In cities | ne where the normal Democratic vote is only a tithe of the total vote the entire population has turned out to welcome Mr. Johnson and his associates on the ticket, and there were demonstrations of approval seidom, if ever, seen in those towns. Mr. Johnson is a most effective campaigner, and his audiences have been delighted with his speeches and his personality. He has certainly made good, in the parlance of the street, and the time seems ripe for an uprising such as has never been seen in Minnesota politics.

"Nothing can prevent Johnson's election, and his majority is going to be so continually until the campaign closes. Mr. McDermott is a St. Paul lawyer with a fine reputation, and he is a very convincing public speaker. He has the advantage of being pitted against E. T. Young, of Appleton, a former state senator whose record in the senate is such as to make him a vulnerable candidate, and Mr. McDermott's friends have every hope of his tion, and his majority is going to be so decisive that I look to see the rest of the state ticket carried into office with him. Certainly we will elect our judiciary nominees. While I realize that the full force of the opposition will be turned into the country in an effort to overcome the commanding lead already taken by Mr. Johnson, it will not succeed.

Nelson and Clapp Speak in Vain

"The United States senators are expected to stem the tide, but they cannow do it. With the highest respect for traveled extensively through the state "The United States senators are exthe two senators, the people know, down deep in their hearts, that only party expediency is behind the senators in their speeches in defense of R. C. Dunn, and they will not believe them. If Mr. Dunn was himself a magnetic, winning speaker on the stump there might be some chance for him, but he only suffers in comparison with the long Mr. King stands an excellent chance of Mr. King stands are excellent chance. only suffers in comparison with the Democratic nominee, and if the Republican managers are wise they will keep him off the stump. Anyhow, the thing has gone too far. It is a revolution and Mr. Johnson's election is assured. I look to see him grow strengers with I look to see him grow stronger with each day."

Because of the heavy rain that feli making a personal campaign as yet, but during the greater part of yesterday, plans for an open air meeting for Hastings yesterday afternoon were abandoned and John A. Johnson and Mr. Winston, who had spoken Thursday night at Winona, came direct to St. Paul yesterday. Mr. Johnson went on an afternoon train to Lake City, where he spoke last night, and will come to have added strength to the ticket. Mr. Mosier has not been making a personal campaign as yet, but he is expected to go out through the state with some of the other candidates and to make a hard fight for the election, in view of the improved conditions for his party ticket as a whole. H. E. Hoard, of Montevideo, and W. F. Kelso, of Hallock, candidates for railroad and warehouse commissioner, have added strength to the ticket. Mr. he spoke last night, and will come to st. Paul this morning to spend the day in the city. He will be at the state headquarters during a part of the day, but has business engagements for the greater part of his time while in St.

Paul.

It a newspaper man of long experience and sterling integrity. He is strong in Southwestern Minnesota, and will receive the solid support of a large acquaintance through that section.

Johnson Was Surprised

"I cannot but express my appreciation of the royal welcome that has been extended to Mr. Winston and myself through Southern Minnesota," Mr. Johnson said yesterday. "We have been for the most part in strongly Republican counties, but we have yet to exprising anything but we have yet to expressioned anything but any strong anything any strong anything any strong any strong anything any strong was a tried and true Democrat in that section thirty years ago, and while he did not seek the nomination, he is making an active canvass for the place, and with every indication of success. perience anything but an enthusiastic reception. The audiences have been large, the interest keen and the support tendered our ticket has been

LANGUM AFTER JOB MORE FOR JOHNSON

Secretary Sam Wants Place on Peterson Corrects Glenwood Board of Control

Sam Langum, for many years secretary of the senate and publisher of a newspaper at Preston, Fillmore county, is said to be slated for a position on the beard of control by the bear of th board of control in the event of R.

C. Dunn's election.

Langum has been a supporter of Dunn from the inception of his campaign for governor. A cordial enemy of Gov. Van Sant, he found it not difficult to oppose Judge Collins.

Fillmore county was for Collins, but was divided in the state convention so many references vote, all more or less erroneous, that he desires to give the exact facts. He says: because of the candidacy of A. D. Gray for railroad and warehouse commis-sioner. Langum, however, still expects Mr. Dunn to keep his promise to make him a member of the state board of control if he has the office to give next year. He is supporting Mr. Dunn in his newspaper and is taking a prominent part in the attempt being made to keep Fillmore county and its Republican majority in line for the Republican nominee for governor.

More Litigation in Sight

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 7.—The "National Republican" (stalwart) state central committee held a meeting this afternoon and ratified the selection of ex-Gov. Edward Scofield to fill the va-cancy caused by the withdrawal of Samuel A. Cook from the head of the ticket. The committee also completed plans for carrying on an aggressive campaign. The name "National Republican," adopted by the stalwarts to be placed at the head of their column on the official ballot, may be the subject of litigation in the courts. The La Follette men are said to regard it as an infringement of the name "Republican."

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CANDIDATES

JOHN A. HOGAN

Candidate for Register of Deeds John A. Hogan, Democratic candidate for register of deeds of Ramsey county, won the nomination after a lively contest and has the enthusiastic support of his party organization for the responsible position. Mr. Hogan, who lives in Rose Town, but a few blocks outside of the city limits at St. Anthony Park, has been a resident of Ramsey county nearly all his life. He has ever since he has voted been aligned with the Democratic party, and for eight years was county superintendent of schools. He was elected to this post as a Democrat, defeating Harry Blake, a strong Republican opponent. For five years he was a clerk in the office of the register of deeds under the administration of James Bell, when that official was in charge of the office. He is thoroughly conversant with the duties and responsibilities of the office, and as he is a former student of the state university, he is amply equipped from an educational standpoint to perform every function of the office. For some months he has served in a position of trust in the office of P. J. Metzdorf, county treasurer, but resigned to enter on the canvass for the position of register of deeds. Mr. Hogan promises to make a personal canvass of the voters of the county, and his friends are confident that he will win the election as he dld

ROBERT N. GRADY

Candidate for County Commissioner

Robert N. Grady, one of the Democratic candidates for county commissioner, feels that if anybody on the commissioner ticket can read his title clear to the office he can.

In the field of candidates voted on in the primaries he led his ticket by over 600 votes, and the fact that the Democratic ticket contained so many good men that the voter had difficulty in making choice of four for whom to vote, coupled with his big vote, shows his popularity.

Mr. Grady has lived in St. Paul for the past twenty-nine years, but has never before been a candidate for office. He has always been active in local politics, but if has been to help a friend and never to help himself. He was a patrolman for some years, being appointed by the late Edmund Rice, then mayor of St. Paul. For many years he has been in business on Robert street, and his open-handed charity has been proverbial.

Mr. Grady is a member of a number of fraternal societies, being especially prominent in the Knights of Pythlas. At the recent grand lodge meeting in Minneapolis he represented his St. Paul lodge as grand lodge representative, and has always been a meeting in Minneapolis he represented his St. Paul lodge as grand lodge representative, and has always been a factor in this organization. He is also prominent in the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Eagles, and has always been a public-spirited citizen. He has a wide knowledge of local conditions and promises, if elected, to see that the county money is economically expended.

DEMOCRATS WILL BRING OUT THE VOTE

Rousing Meetings Are Held in Eighth and Ninth campaign was set in motion and a general agreement entered into whereby the full Democratic vote will be registered. With this accomplished it was generally agreed that there is no question of the success of the ticket at the election he would win the office with-out a contest. Mr. Mosier has not been

At the Eighth ward meeting John W. Boerner presided, opening the meeting with a statement to the effect that although the Republicans pretended that they have received great encouragement from the vote polled at the agement from the vote polled at the primaries, there is really nothing to fear from the Democratic standpoint. All that is necessary is to get out the Democratic vote. To do this the precinct committeemen must be active. Following out this idea, a committee of five was named, with Joseph Macauley as chairman, to interview the precinct committeemen now serving have added strength to the ticket. Mr. cauley as chairman, to interview the precinct committeemen now serving and induce them to be active on the two remaining registration days. Mr. Macauley stated that there are a great number of Democrats who failed to register on primary day because there was an absence of contests for the party nominations, but that he knew that the vote can be brought out with the proper amount of work. acquaintance through that section. Mr. Kelso is one of the Democratic landmarks of the Red river valley. He

Ninth Is Also Busy

In the Ninth ward much the same programme was carried out. Stephen McEllistrom was in the chair and call-McEllistrom was in the chair and called attention to the small number of Democrats who had registered at the primaries. He was supported in his contention that there should be greater activity by E. L. Murphy, member of the board of public works. Mr. Murphy gave a rattling talk that aroused the enthusiasm of his neighbors, in which he stated that the organization and every Democrat in the ward believes that the state and county is to be toru from the Republican party and that it behooves every man to remain firm and vote the ticket.

Anton Miesen, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, received an ovation.

didate for sheriff, received an ovation.
His talk to the voters met with the approval of all present. P. J. Metzdorf, Democratic candidate for county treasurer, as an old-time member of the Eighth ward organization, complimented the workers upon their processive. ed the workers upon their progressive spirit at the Eighth ward meeting, and spirit at the Eighth ward meeting, and in the Ninth pointed to his administration of the office of treasurer as a reason for his re-election.

Dr. A. W. Miller, candidate for coroner: Fred H. Beck, for county auditor, made effective talks. J. D. Armstrong appeared for Judge Bunn and T. D. O'Brien, the nominees for judges of the district court and asked that they be elected and a non-partisan judiciary made possible in the future. Mr. Armstrong stated that the candidates have joined issues, and ask that all Democrats cast their ballots for both, F. L. McGhee paid attention to national issues, spoke of the hopeful features McGhee paid attention to national issues, spoke of the hopeful features connected with the state election, and stated that all that is necessary to elect the entire county ticket is to see that the Democrats register and vote. He urged that the voters stand by Messrs. O'Brien and Bunn.

At the Ninth ward meeting, in addition to the candidates who appeared at the Eighth ward meeting, James Handlan, the nominee for the legislature, made an effective address. W. J. Troy was elected secretary of the organization, displacing F. J. Kennedy, who resigned.

who resigned.

F. A. Pike, chairman of the Demogratic executive committee, attended both meetings and encouraged the workers with a narration of the conditions that exist, according to the resects received at headquarters. He held that with due activity for the two remaining registration days there is every reason to believe that the out-come in the county will be favorable to

UPRISING IS GENERAL

Republicans All Over the State Turning From Dunn

earth can defeat the I ticket," declared T. J. McDermott, can-didate of his party for attorney gen-eral, on his return to St. Paul yesterday from a trip through Southern Minnesota. "I have been in twenty different

Dunn ticket amounts to a revolution he said. "Thousands of Republicans are in open revolt and insist that nothing can coerce them into voting for the ticket nominated in St. Paul last June. Lifelong Republicans in every town and hamlet that I have visited have told me that this year they will vote for the Democratic state ticket for the first time in their lives. A special for the Democratic state taket for the first time in their lives. A special train run from Europrota to Rochester for the Johnson meeting there Tues-day night was patronized largely by Republicans, and one Republican guar-anteed $100 of its cost. I went with Mr. Lind in his first campaign for gov-ernor into Northern Minnesota, and I ernor into Northern Minnesota, and I must say that the Southern Minnesota meetings have been larger and more enthusiastic than in the tidal wave that brought Mr. Lind so near to success. If the Democrats register and vote the whole ticket can and will be elected." ernor into Northern Minn

NEW YORK WILL HAVE A CLEAN ELECTION

Authorities Plan to Reduce Crimes Against the Franchise

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—With a view to safeguarding the ballot and reducing orimes against the franchise to a minimum, State Superhitendent of Elections George W. Morgan arranged today with the police department to have the lists of all registered voters in Greater New York delivered to him for compilation into a card index. This index will embrace probably 700,000 names. The lists are to cover the four days of registration in this city, beginning Oct. 14.

Police Commissioner McAdoo is sending out a general order to the precinct commanders in all of the boroughs to comply with the superintendent's request for lists. The plan, Mr. Morgan said, is directed toward making the election this year "the cleanest ever known in this city or the cleanest in many years."

TO FILL VACANCY ON DEMOCRATIC TICKET

County Committee WIII Select Candidate for County Commissioner

Although he has not made a personal statement, it is altogether likely that John B. Arend will not be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner at Monday evening's session of the Democratic county executive committee, to take the place of James Cleary, deceased.

J. August Nilsson, another of the defeated candidates at the primaries, is being mentioned, in addition to W. J. Preston and R. N. Hare. The utmost good feeling is evident among the candidates for the vacancy, there being a general desire to give the place to the man who gets the necessary votes.

A number of prominent Democrats who are not members of the committee have been invited to attend the meeting and participate in the choice of the candidate, the idea being to make the event a reunion of Democrats that will give the county campaign a tone and bring forth the issues.

VOTERS WOULD SAVE THE SUPREME BENCH

Republicans Line Up With Democrats in Demanding Nonpartisan Judiclary

The movement in the direction of a non-partisan judiciary has assumed proportions that, it is believed, will result in the election of Judge John A. Lovely, Judge C. E. Otis and O. M. Hall, in addition to the election of Judge C. L. Brown, who has been nom inated by both the Republican and Democratic conventions.

H. H. Dunn, a prominent lawyer of Albert Lear and a former state senator from Martin county; John G. Skinner nominated by the Republicans for county attorney of Freeborn county, who has no opposition for election, and W. Foote, of Minneapolis, a leading Republican of Hennepin county and former resident of St. James, held a conference in St. Paul last night, at which the situation was discussed. All. though Republicans, are enthusiastic friends of Judge John A. Lovely, whose defeat when he had really been nominated by the Republican state conven tion, aroused such a storm of indignation all over the state. They discussed the situation as regards Judge Lovely and his associates on the state ticket, and agreed that indications point very strongly to the election of the entire non-partisan ticket.

Defeat of Lovely a Crime "The defeat of Judge Lovely was a crime against the Republican party," Senator Dunn said. "He was fairly nominated when a lot of juggling Minneapolis ward politicians intervened neapolls ward politicians intervened and counted him out. The southern part of the state, irrespective of party affiliation, is up in arms over the treatment accorded Judge Lovely in the convention, and he will get the solid vote of the counties where he is best known. But aside from the methods employed to bring about his defeat, the idea of a non-partisan judiciary has taken deep root in Minnesota and, Judge Lovely and the men nominated with him at Minneapolis bid fair to sweep the state in November. The people do not want the judiciary tainted by partisan politics, and the only ed by partisan politics, and the only way to keep it undefiled is by keeping it out of politics."

Want Non-Partisan Bench

A large number of Republican weekly papers, supporting the Republican state ticket, are out in the open in their advocacy of a non-partisan supreme bench, and the sentiment in that direction is growing steadily. From the point of legal ability, the men nominated at the Minneapolis convention compare favorably with the nominees of the Republican state convention, and indications are that they will be elected indications are that they will be elected Nov. 8 and the judiciary effectively re-moved from partisan politics in Min-

FILES CERTIFICATES OF NOMINATION

Democratic State Central Committee Places Them on Record

Wards

At meetings in the Eighth and Ninth wards last night the Democratic county campaign was set in motion and a general can defeat the Democratic state

I urning From Dunn

The Democratic state central committee yesterday filed the nomination certificates of O. M. Hall, Red Wing, candidate for the supreme court, and of the following presidential electors on the Democratic ticket: Timothy O'Connor, Renville; Swan J. Turnblad, Minneapolis; John Frank, Le Roy; D. D. Murphy, Blue Earth City; George D. Murphy, Blue Earth City; George Batchelder, Faribault; T. W. Parsons, Minneapolls; Dr. J. J. McKinnon, Wadena; R. G. Farrington, Ortonville; Anton C. Weiss, Duluth, and John E. Ostrom, Warren. The certificates of T. J. McDermott, St. Paul, candidate for attorney general; H. E. Hoard, Montevideo, and W. F. Kelso, Hallock, candidate for railroad and warehouse commissioner, and of H. F. Wessel, St. Paul, the eleventh presidential elector,

NEGRO SAYS DUNN IS FRIEND OF HIS RACE

Tells Colored Brothers That Candidate Has Declared His Friendship

semi-official denial was made las night for R. C. Dunn at a conference of colored Republican ward workers at the Fourth ward Republican headquarters, 345½ Wabasha street, of a statement he is alleged to have made indorsing the Southern people in their treatment of the

D. E. Beasley, messenger to Gov. Van Sant, said that he had asked Mr. Dunn if he had ever said it, and Mr. Dunn had years ago, on his return from a trip to the South, Mr. Dunn had said that he had no sympathy with the Northern outery against the South in its handling of the negro problem; that the South knew what it was about and was doing what was best for its own salvation. Beasley said when he had asked if the story was true that Mr. Dunn had entered a denial a declared he was a friend of the negro.

DUNN ORGAN TRIES TO SCARE REPUBLICANS

Story That Lind Threatens Nelson's Seat Is Generally Laughed At

John A. Johnson, while in St. Paul yesterday, characterized as ridiculous the story printed in a St. Paul morning newspaper as coming from a Nicollet county man, that John Lind would attempt to use Mr. Johnson's election to pave the way for his own election as United States senator to succeed Knute Nelson.

"It is ridiculous, and its purpose is so evident that it is hardly worth a denial," Mr. Johnson said when his attention was called to the story in the Dunn organ. "The first intimation I had of such a thing was when I read it in Mr. Dunn's personal organ in St. Paul. I have only to say that I have never talked to Mr. Lind or to any other person regarding it. It is all news to me, and I venture the opinion that the story never came from a Nicollet county man. It seems one has to go away from home to obtain the news. If there is any movement astir to capture Senator Welson's seat for Mr. Lind I know nothing is any movement astir to capture Senator Nelson's seat for Mr. Lind I know nothing of it."

of it."

Friends of Mr. Lind denounce the story as a campaign canard, printed for a purpose, and a very thinly shielded canard at that, and say that Senator Nelson, if in danger at all, is in danger from the ambitious members of his own political pice residence lots near new Great nern shops for sale at auction Satur-Oct. 8, 3 p. m., corner Como avenue Effeit street; all sold on easy terms.

With our new Quarter Sizes, the Regal Store becomes a place where you can always be sure of finding the "just right" shoe. Modeled by masters who set the world's fashions—Style Just Right.

King Calf Uppers and Oak Tan Sole-Material Just Right. Benchmade by experts—Workmanship Just Right.

Quarter Sizes—228 fittings in each style—Fit Just Right.

Custom maker's best efforts duplicated in every way at $3.50—Price Just Right.

Stores now stocked with shoes in 75 exquisite new Fall styles ready to prove every single statement, and you know that Regal is The Shoe That Proves.

Send for Style Book. Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

The shoe that proves

382 Robert Street ST. PAUL Minneapolis Store, 526 Nicollet Avenue

WEBSTER LINES UP COUNTY CANDIDATES

Republican County Committee Supreme Court Sustains the Meets With the Anxious

Officeseekers

But few of the common people are to e allowed to enter the Republican county headquarters in the Windsor hotel, and from the shoes of the elect the silken carpets have been carefully official ballot the name of Judge Calvin covered with coarse canvas. Every L. Brown, of Morris, with the words preparation has been made to keep "Republican-Democrat" after from the ordinary public the secrets of the means to be used in the interest of the Republican county ticket.

Withal the headquarters are the most remarkable the county has seen. With side doors, secret passages, bath rooms, satin settees and a hundred indicate the names of the two political other fixtures belonging to the apartments of those who live luxuriously, him for the judgeship. the rooms would cast a cold chill over the everyday voter who feels that he should call at the campaign headquar- with the request; that his refusal had ters of his party. There is about the been on the advice of the attorney genquarters an elegance that illy fits in eral, and that the court's interpretation with the personality of a few of the of the law was sufficient for him. ommitteemen, but they are willing to "put an airs" for a few days to accommodate a majority of the members of the committee.

First Committee Meeting

was held vesterday at the new headquarters, and Chairman Webster acted Standing at the side door, where the aspirants had been requested to call, Mr. Webster escorted them in one at a time and told them that it was necessary that they go by way of the barroom, located a few feet away. Things had been so arranged, he informed the members of the committee, that they could make their entrance and their exit through the private door and that there was no reason why they should come in contact with the common mob. They were told that one small section of the parlors had been reserved for the entrance of the herd, and that Harry Robinson, colored, big and strong, had been engaged for the purse of seeing that ordinary folks do not get any further.

The plan of Chairman Webster, acting for F. G. Warner, was indorsed by the candidates with great gusto. The candidates indorsed the course of the committee, saying that the arrange-ments would prevent their coming in contact with the herd of persons seeking favors. This meeting was held in a room far removed from the entrance, it being necessary to pass through several anterooms and hallways and run the gauntlet of the colored guardian to reach the inner room.

Webster and Varner Run It

It was found that Webster, and War. ner and all the leading members of the "kid aggregation" that led the disastrous city campaign last spring were in charge. Nominally Webster was in in charge. Nominally Webster was in command, but in reality Warner was watching every move carefully, having in mind the fat position of state oil inspector, to which he expects to be reappointed. No information is given out without the consent of Warner. He stands at the head of the committee, and some of the county candidates who were made aware of this fact were not slow in expressing the opinion not slow in expressing the opinion that in reality the county ticket can expect but little assistance from that ommittee.
The candidates were informed that the campaign to be conducted in Ram sey county will cost money. The bath rooms, satin settees and other accomrooms, satin settees and other accommodations were pointed out as proof of the up-to-date method in which the campaign will be conducted. Some of the aspirants began to figure upon the deficit they will be called upon to make good, but did not care to openly question the judgment of Warner and Webster.

The decision will have the effect of

The members of the finance committee were roundly lectured by the two bosses for not making a better showing during the four days they have been on during the four days they have been on duty. It seems, according to the report of the committee on finance, that the state organization and the Clapp organization refuse to give assistance except to individual candidates. This caused Warner and Webster to hold a prolonged conference after the committee meeting, to which W. A. Gerber, secretary of the committee, was admitted. As Mr. Gerber is well supplied with this world's goods, the confidence placed in him is significant.

"Jim" Not a Member Numerous friends of Fred Schiff-mann's dog "Jim" are voicing an an-gry protest because "Jim" was brought into The Globe cartoon showing the Dunn cabinet. It may be explained that "Jim" was introduced by the car-toonist merely to lend local color to the picture. The cartoonist has apolo-gized to the dog.

BROWN'S NAME GOES ON BOTH BALLOTS

Contention of Democratic State Committee

The supreme court has sustained the contention of the Democratic state committee that the secretary of state had no right to refuse to place on the name.

Chief Justice Start yesterday made a formal order in which Peter E. Hanson, secretary of state, is directed to place the name of Judge Brown on the ballots for the general election so as to

Secretary of State Hanson said yesterday that he would cheerfully comply

Formal Opinion on Monday

The order will be followed Monday by the formal opinion of the court setting forth the reasons which influenced The first meeting of the committee is understood that Chief Justice Start the court in reaching the decision. It will write the opinion, and that there as special escort to the candidates. known whether the court makes the will be no dissenting opinion. It is not order on the ground that the section of the election law prohibiting dual party nominations to appear on the ballot is unconstitutional, or on the theory that the prohibitory section has been repealed by subsequent legislation. The opinion is awaited with considerable interest by attorneys, who have, independent of party, taken a deep interest in the determination of the question raised by the petition filed a week ago by Frank A. Day, chairman of the Democratic state central committee. The news of the formal order compelling the secretary of state to place the name of Judge Brown on the official ballots with the dual designation of the parties after his name was received quietly at the Democratic state headquarters yesterday.

Decision Was Expected

"It is what we had reason to expect," said Chairman Day. "Our committee was advised by some of the best law-yers in both St. Paul and Minneapolis that we were clearly within our rights in asking for the writ of mandamus directed to the secretary of state to directed to the secretary of state to compel him to put the name of Judge Brown on the ticket with the words indicating that he is the nominee of the Democrats as well as the Republican party, following his name. Justice to Judge Brown demanded that the action be brought, for when a man is a condidate he naturally likes to receive candidate he naturally likes to receive the full vote of the parties nominating him. It will mean a good many thou-sand votes to Judge Brown, and while he was in no danger of defeat he is en-titled to have the voters know by the appearance of the official ballot that he is the nominee of both parties.

Vindicates a Principle

"Our committee has, in this decision, vindicated a principle and that is the principle of a non-partisan judiciary. our ticket is admirable in every way, but in having the seal of the highest state court's approval on the principle of a non-partisan judiciary we naturally expect that the result in November 19 to 19 to Republican leaders refuse to discuss the effect of the decision.

The decision will have the effect of causing the Minnesota statute revision commission to revise its election law compilation. The commission, which had completed the revision of the election statutes and properly classified them, will necessarily be guided by the supreme court in eliminating the "antifusion" election legislation now on the Minnesota statute books. No changes will be made by the commission until will be made by the commission

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Cartt.