CLEVELAND SCORES REPUBLICAN SHAMS

EX-PRESIDENT AROUSES MUCH ENTHUSIASM

Makes His Sole Speech of the Campaign in New York City—He Ridicules the Republican Attempt to Monopolize All the Merits and Touches Upon the Leading Issues

EX-PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Attracted by the presence of Grover Cleveland, thousands of people struggled to gain entrance to Carnegie hall tonight, where the former president of the United States made his first and only speech of the campaign. John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury under Mr. Cleveland, was also a speaker, and shared with Mr. Cleveland the great burst of enthusiasm at the meeting.

Long before the doors of the hall were opened crowds surged around the outside of the building and within fifteen minutes after the doors had been thrown wide open to the public every seat in the big auditorium was taken, while the corridors and aisles held their scores. Still hundreds were unable to gain entrance. This big Democratic rally under the auspices of the Business Men's Parker and Davis association, and J. Hempen Robb, president of the organization, presided.

Mr. Cleveland arrived at the hall shortly after 8 o'clock and immediately upon his entrance cheers burst forth. The demonstration lasted seven minutes. With Mr. Cleveland when he entered the hall were Mr. Carlisle, Mr. Robb, Isidor Straus and Col. Robert Grier Monroe. The ex-president was chairman of the meeting, and in introducing him Mr. Robb said:

"A most eminent and distinguished citizen and Democrat is presented for your chairman. His words and deeds are known in every corner of this country. He is one of our greatest Americans, Grover Cleveland."

Words of the Ex-President

Mr. Cleveland then began his speech, saying:

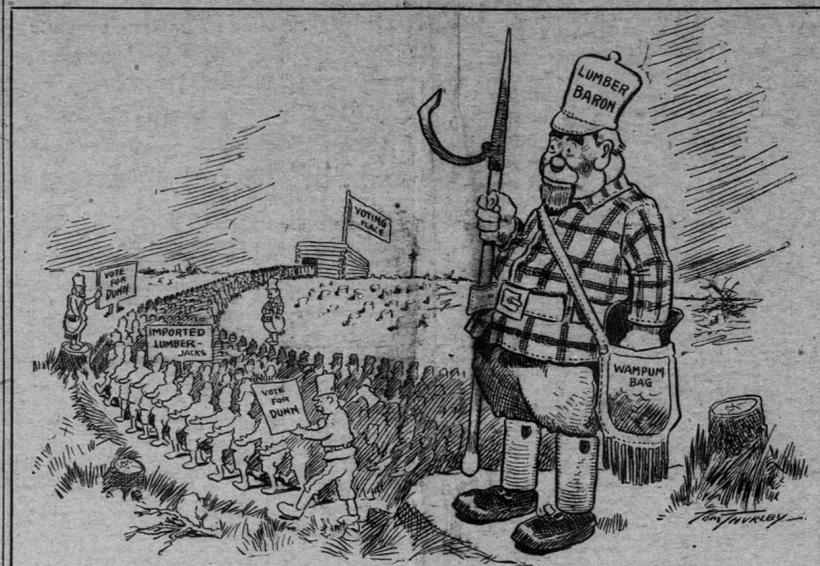

You will not, I know, accuse me of self-conceit if I assume that I am with those tonight who demand of me no explanation or apology for the manner in which I have served either my party or the business interests of my country and who will neither discredit nor distrust me when I avow my intense anxiety for the success in the pending political campaign of the principles and nominees of the reunited Democracy.

My attachment to the party which won my early allegiance has been intensified with passing years, because I have found in the principles from which genuine Democracy has derived its life and vigor safe guidance and constant inspiration, when, as a public servant, I owed to my fellow countrymen patriotic effort and unswerving devotion to the people's trust. But the principles and best traits of the Democratic party reach their highest importance and value at such a time as this, when our people are tempted by glittering delusions, and when they are offered the kingdoms of the world if they will but throw themselves down and worship the god of mammon. I believe we have fallen upon days when, more than ever, the enforcement of democratic doctrine and the reception of Democratic conservatism and steadiness are needed, if our national greatness and the well being of our people are to be put beyond jeopardy.

It is not for me to discuss on this occasion the Democratic creed or to deal at large with the issues involved in the present campaign. We are here to listen to one who stands in the front rank of those who expound the Democratic party faith.

There are, however, in my mind tonight some aspects and incidents of this campaign which seem to me so startling and so humiliating that they should arrest the attention of every thoughtful citizen.

JOHN LIND CALLS BLUFF AND DEMANDS A SERIES OF JOINT DEBATES ON DUNN

Congressman Declares He Has Stated Nothing but Facts He Can Stand By and Offers to Divide His Speaking Time With Dunn Men—Proposes to Meet Any Supporter of the Ex-Auditor in Minneapolis Exposition Oct. 29

Special to The Globe
REDWOOD FALLS, Minn., Oct. 21.—At a speech delivered by James A. Peterson at Clarkfield Thursday evening, the speaker made the following statement:

"If John Lind would only consent to a joint debate on Dunn's record with me nothing would suit me better. But Lind would not dare debate with me."

When Mr. Lind's attention was called to this statement at Redwood Falls today he immediately sent the following telegram to C. P. Lieberg, Clarkfield, Minn.:

"I will divide my time with Mr. Peterson to discuss Mr. Dunn's record at my meetings next week, or I will meet him or any other man to discuss Dunn's public record at the Exposition building in Minneapolis Oct. 29, or any day the following week."

Mr. Lind stated further that he never sought a political debate, and was not seeking one now, "but I do not propose to have Mr. Peterson or anyone else substitute bluff for argument. When I make statements of facts I do so deliberately, and always stand ready to defend them before anyone and in any place."

PARKER CONSIDERS GOVERNMENT COST

Gives Ample Specifications of Extravagance of the Roosevelt Administration

ESOPUS, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Judge Parker today addressed a delegation from Hudson county, New Jersey, on the subject of administrative extravagance, answering a speech made by Secretary of War Taft, in which the secretary called upon the Democrats to give a bill of particulars in connection with their charge that economy in government affairs had been forgotten in the years that the Republicans have been in control of national affairs. Judge Parker quoted a few items from official reports, which he asserted not only raised the presumption of extravagance, but proved it. A bill of particulars will be given, he said, when a Democratic administration gets a chance at the books.

Reaching Judge Parker's house the delegation surrounded the veranda. When Judge Parker stepped from the house he was greeted by cheers and handclapping. The delegation was presented to Judge Parker by Judge Allen Bellamy, of Bayonne. Judge Parker said:

The expenditures of the government—says the administration—have been managed in a spirit of economy as far removed from waste as from niggardliness. That the expenditures of the government have been free from niggardliness cannot, I

CHANGES IN CHARTER WILL COST $154,000

If All Amendments Are Adopted, Expenses for 1905 Will Be Increased

Fifteen amendments to the city charter will be voted upon at the election on Nov. 8. The total increased expense involved is $154,000 a year, which means that based on the present assessment, the tax levy will be increased 1.70 mills on the dollar. Most important are those pertaining to the fire department, the police department and the street and sewer fund, which carry with them additional appropriations of $109,000 a year.

The amendment pertaining to the fire department is:

That subdivision 4 of section 4 of article II of chapter V of said charter be amended so as to read as follows:

"To provide for the support and maintenance of the fire department of the city. The total expense of the administration of said department, including all expenditures for lands, buildings, rents, stores, fuel, horses, apparatus and appliances of every description, salaries, wages and all other outlay, whether of a temporary or permanent nature, shall not in any year exceed the sum of two hundred and forty-five thousand dollars, in addition to any unexpended balance remaining in said fire department fund from the preceding year."

The increase for the fire department is from $215,000 to $245,000. It is con-

DETECTIVES ARE SLAIN BY SUSPECTS

Two Officers Die and Three Others Are Seriously Wounded

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 21.—Two city detectives are dead and another is not expected to live during the night, while one train robber suspect is at the morgue and two others are in the city hospital, one probably fatally wounded and the other badly beaten up, as the result of a desperate battle today between five officers and three men whom they tried to arrest. The dead: THOMAS DWYER, detective. JOHN J. SHEA, detective. AL ROSE, suspect. James McClosky, detective, critical. C. C. Blair, fugitive, shot four times through the body.

Harry H. Vaughn, fugitive, badly beaten about the head by detectives when he sought to aid his friends in the battle.

The fight occurred in the front room of a house on Pine street and the men the detectives sought to arrest are suspected of being implicated in a train robbery at Centralia, Ill., a few weeks ago. The house had been under police surveillance. A few minutes before the fight occurred Vaughn left the house and started to walk down Pine street. After he had gone some distance he

JAPAN'S ARMY WILL ASSUME OFFENSIVE

BRISK ARTILLERY FIRE FROM RUSSIANS

Another Great Battle Is About to Open in the Valley South of the Hun River—Japs Are Studying Their Antagonists' Realignment Made Since Latest Engagement

Military operations in Manchuria are awaiting the drying of the roads and plains, rendered impassable for artillery, and even for infantry by the recent heavy rains. Gen. Kuropatkin is busy preparing for the next battle. Meanwhile the correspondents at the front have only desultory cannonading and unimportant skirmishes to record. The report that the railway station at Shakhe had been retaken by the Russians and that railway traffic between that place and Mukden would be restored at once was erroneous, the place still being in the hands of the Japanese. The Russian government is hastening the dispatch of troops to the far East to constitute the second Manchurian army; 20,000 have started.

GEN. KUROPATKIN

PRELIMINARY MOVEMENTS BEGIN

MUKDEN, Oct. 21.—Both armies have begun preliminary movements for another battle in the great valley south of the Hun river. Before sundown today there was brisk artillery fire along the right and center of the Russian divisions, and the Japanese, while not responding to this direct fire, were using their guns on the hills south of Shalandzy and on the ridges west of the railroad, near Linchenpo. These operations are for the object of determining what realignments have been made since the battle stopped Tuesday.

JAPS WILL BE THE AGGRESSORS
LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Times' Tokyo correspondent says that dispatches from Oyama's headquarters seem to indicate the Shakhe river as the immediate objective of the original advance, and that appearances suggest that another great battle is imminent in which the Japanese will assume the offensive.

WORK HARD TO GET GUNS
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 21.—After the Lone Tree hill rout the Japanese were unable to remove a number of cannon in addition to those left on the hill, and which remained midway between the Russian and Japanese trenches. As they lay these guns were so exposed to fire from both sides that it was impossible for either Russians or Japanese to get possession of them during daylight, and repeated attempts have been made by both sides to secure the guns under cover of darkness. Up to the present time Cossack detachments have succeeded in getting three of the cannon.

GUILMETTE DENIES SPIES ARE ALERT

Alleged Slayer of Joe Mongeon Surrenders

Special to The Globe
CROOKSTON, Minn., Oct. 21.—Sheriff Sullivan received a telegram tonight from Chief of Police Dodge, of Woonsocket, R. I., to the effect that Joseph Guilmette was arrested there this evening, and asking that the sheriff come at once and bring him back. Sheriff Sullivan will leave tomorrow for the prisoner, who, he is positive, killed Joseph Mongeon on Monday last, one mile east of Mentor. Mongeon's remains were photographed here today and will be held till after the arrival of Guilmette to see what effect the sight of the mutilated corpse will have on his nerves.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Oct. 22.—Joseph Guilmette, wanted by the police of Crookston, Minn., in connection with the death of Joseph Mongeon at Mentor, Minn., reached his home in his city today and later surrendered to the police. He was held, pending instructions from Minnesota officers.

Guilmette went from the train to his home, and after learning from his wife that he was wanted by the police proceeded to headquarters and gave himself up. He denied any knowledge of the crime and said that he did not know of his friend's death until told of it by his wife. In response to questions by Chief Dodge as to his movements last Monday, the day of the murder, Guilmette said:

"Mongeon and I worked together in the wheat fields of North Dakota and were the best of friends. On Saturday night last we went together to East Grand Forks to visit Fontaine. We left Fontaine Sunday and spent that night at a farm house. Monday morning we started out in search of work. We were unsuccessful and I decided to come home. I sold my gun to Mongeon and after saying farewell went across the country to Red Lake Falls, where I boarded a train for the East."

The local police do not know Joseph Mongeon. The fact that advices from Crookston indicated that the murdered man had a letter in his pocket bearing the maiden name of the wife of Guilmette, and that Guilmette was with Mongeon when he was last seen alive, is considered by the police as evidence that jealousy may have led to the murder.

SPIES ARE ALERT

Visit Railway Yards to See Japanese Torpedo Boats

HILLIARD, Wash., Oct. 21.—Men believed to be Russian spies have visited the railway yards here apparently seeking to trace the shipment of Japanese torpedo boats en route to the coast. Early in the evening a party of rough looking strangers believed to be Russians appeared at the yards making inquiries for these cars. The yard man refused to tell them, but they learned that the boats would arrive later. When the boats arrived the men reappeared, looked at the cars, took the car numbers and disappeared again. The boats were shipped west the same night. They are on flat cars covered with canvas and billed as machinery.

THE SUNDAY GLOBE

Goes into nearly every home in St. Paul and is immensely popular throughout the Northwest. Do you read it? Here is a partial list of the contents of tomorrow's Sunday Globe, which will include many new features.

- The Art Treasures of the Vatican—A superbly illustrated article.
- Fortunes in Pennsylvania Mussel Shells is the title of a most interesting news story, in text and pictures, telling a tale of treasure trove.
- A Page for Young Girls—Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick's department treats of numerous topics, and many inquiries are answered.
- Fall Fads and Fancies in Frocks is distinctly a new feature in a whole page of illustrated fashions, the pictures being really fine.
- A Boys' and Girls' Page, conducted by Dolly Evans, is another novelty. It is carefully edited, well illustrated and will appeal strongly to the little ones.
- Seumas MacManus on the Irish Reform Movement.
- Paupers Who Are Millionaires—A strange story of the Paris poor, who have millions invested for them.
- Choir Boys of New York—A descriptive illustrated article on the silver-voiced youngsters who sing in Gotham's temples.
- How Army Officers Fight Battles on Paper—A story of the garrison school of war.
- The Gates of Chance—Another ingenious tale in this remarkable series by Van Tassel Sutphen.
- H. M. Skinner on Home Rule for Britons—A new and little known propaganda that is being carried on.
- Scores of Striking and Exclusive Stories, Features and Pictures. The Globe's Great Sporting Department, Society Doings, All the News of the World and Four Pages of Comic Pictures.

TAKE CUSTOM HOUSE RAISES A NEW POINT

United States Credited With Seizure in Santo Domingo

ST. THOMAS, D. W. I., Oct. 21.—A steamer from Puerto Plata, Santo Domingo, which has arrived here, reports that the United States has seized the custom house at Puerto Plata. The Dominican consul here discredits the report.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—The reported seizure of the custom house at Puerto Plata, presumably arises from the already accomplished or contemplated occupation of that port by an American designated by the commission which awarded to the Santo Domingo Improvement company $4,500,000 damages against Santo Domingo. That award was automatically self-executing and provided that if Santo Domingo failed to pay the award the agent was to take charge of four of the customs ports of the island and apply 60 per cent of the revenues to the payment of the claims. The affair is not one in which the United States government is interested, except in the contingency that the government of Santo Domingo fails entirely to meet its obligations to the improvement company and then only to the extent of seeing that its interests shall not suffer through such neglect. The officials say no forcible intervention by the government of the United States is contemplated at this time.

Choate May Rise "If"
Special to The Globe
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—There will be important moves on the diplomatic chess board if President Roosevelt is elected. Ambassador Choate will return to the United States about inauguration day, it is reported, and will soon thereafter be handed the state portfolio.

Hurt in a Train Wreck
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22.—Seventeen persons are reported to have been injured by a head on collision of two Missouri Pacific passenger trains near Chetopa, Kan., tonight.

Thinks Roosevelt as Trust Buster Hits Democrats Only

Special to The Globe
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Charles Steckler, leader of the political organization bearing his name, and which has played an important part in many campaigns, said tonight:

We have decided to support the Democratic national and state tickets for many reasons. I will give you a few of them. First, as to President Roosevelt's attitude as an opponent of monopoly and friend of the people. He gained great applause when he prosecuted the Northern Securities, but why did he not continue this work? Why did he stop with the Northern Securities company? It strikes me as a strange coincidence that the president of the Northern Securities company, James J. Hill, and Daniel S. Lamont, vice president, are both Democrats, and that Roosevelt gave his undivided attention to this company. Why did he not give his attention also to trusts represented by J. Pierpont Morgan, the Rockefellers, George Gould and the Vanderbilts? Was it because these men are openly supporting him? Does he not look as if he had set out to punish Democrats?

MILITIA OFFICERS PAY FOR LYNCHING

Captain Is Dismissed From the Service and Lieutenants Are Punished

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 21.—By the verdict of the Stateboro court martial, which was signed by Gov. Terrell, Capt. Robert M. Hitch, who was in command of the troops when the negroes Reed and Cato were burned at the stake, was dismissed from the service of the Georgia state troops; Lieut. L. A. Mell, who was in command at the camp while Capt. Hitch was at the court house, was suspended for a year and will be publicly reprimanded; Lieut. Griner, who was in command of the reserves, will be publicly reprimanded. Lieut. Cone and Morrison were acquitted.
