JOHNSON WINS BY 22000

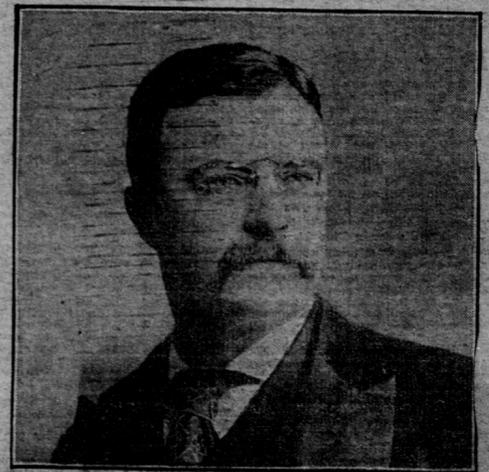

OVERCOMES 80,000 MAJORITY FOR ROOSEVELT IN THE NORTH STAR STATE

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS

JOHN A. JOHNSON

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

ROOSEVELT HAS A LARGE MAJORITY HE CARRIES EVERY STATE BUT THE SOLID SOUTH

Latest Estimates Place His Electoral Vote at 325 to 151 for Parker—Republicans Probably Have Fifty Majority in Congress—New York and Other States Give the President Immense Majorities—He Says He Will Not Be a Candidate for Re-nomination

NEW YORK, Nov. 9, 2 a. m.—If Maryland has gone Republican, as unofficial returns at this hour indicate, the Republican vote in the electoral college will be the unprecedented one of 325 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks to 151 for Parker and Davis. Not only is this far in excess of Mr. McKinley's vote, 292 in 1900, but Judge Parker's vote is four less than that given Mr. Bryan four years ago. It is practically certain that the Republican national ticket has carried every state in the Union outside of the so-called "Solid South." It may take the official count to decide Maryland. The Republican majority in the next house of representatives will be not less than fifty.

As a dramatic climax to the sensational majorities given him, came President Roosevelt's formal announcement that he would not be a candidate for re-election, leaving the only exciting aspect to an election so one-sided that it was impossible for even the victors to maintain that degree of enthusiasm that usually marks the occasion. Late in the night an announcement from Melvin G. Palliser, manager of the campaign for Thomas E. Watson, the candidate of the People's party, that as a result of the overwhelming Democratic defeat steps would be taken to form a new party. "By this and, according to the announcement given out, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Watson and William H. Hearst would hold a conference in New York in about a week. The period of suspense that followed the closing of the polls was not prolonged.

GOVERNOR-ELECT JOHNSON IS GRATEFUL

"I believe that the indications are in favor of my election. If the returns shall prove that I am elected governor, I sincerely hope that my administration of the affairs of the office will not prove disappointing to the people who have reposed their confidence in me. I cannot at this time convey my thanks to individuals for their generous support, but I hope to do this in a later statement. I want, however, to express my great appreciation of the splendid work done by Mr. Day, Mr. Rosing and Mr. Kain, the executive officers of the Democratic state central committee.

"I believe that in no campaign were affairs ever intrusted to better hands than in theirs. To Congressman John Lind I owe a debt of gratitude indeed. To the press of Minnesota, and especially to the St. Paul Globe, which did valiant service in the cause of the party, my hearty thanks are due. Partisan prejudice was laid aside in many instances by the state press and it gave my cause fine support. To the newspaper men of the state I am under a special obligation. I want also at this time to express my deep appreciation and convey my thanks to the traveling men of the state. They were loyal, unyielding in their support and devoted to my cause, and I assign no small part of the credit of the campaign to their good work.

"But to my old personal friends and neighbors of St. Peter and Nicollet county I am under a sense of the deepest obligation. The splendid endorsement given me by my home city and home county is a kindness which I can never forget. Had I not been successful in the canvass, the evidence of their faith in me by my home people would have been sufficient gratification to me to compensate for everything else."

—JOHN A. JOHNSON.

SECOND EXTRA 6:30 A. M. JOHNSON'S ELECTION IS NOW CONCEDED

MORNING PAPERS AGREE ST. PETER MAN IS SAFE

Winston Makes Immense Gains and Result Is Still in Doubt—Lovely Is Probably Elected, but There Is Apparently Little Hope for the Rest of the Democratic Ticket—Enormous Changes Are Made in Republican Strongholds

LOOKS BETTER THAN EVER

At 6 o'clock this morning Frank A. Day and L. A. Rosing said that the returns they were getting not only made good the earlier reports but gave evidence that Johnson's majority would be even larger than had been anticipated. Returns from Martin county, where Mr. Day lives and which had been bitterly contested by the Republicans and conceded to them by every authority but The Globe, indicate that Johnson carried the county by 200 and that the entire county ticket put up by the Democrats had been elected.

Complete returns from seventeen counties and partial returns from every other county in the state give these figures:

Johnson	52,189
Dunn	45,335

There were cast something over 310,000 votes, and the Johnson majority, assuming that the average is maintained in the balance of the state, should be between 21,000 and 22,000.

All of the morning papers in the Twin Cities with the exception of the Dunn organ in St. Paul admit that Johnson is elected. The Minneapolis Tribune, which was in line with Dunn, admits his defeat. The Pioneer Press says that Dunn is still confident of election.

At 1 o'clock this morning Mr. Dunn admitted that Johnson was elected. The Republicans have deserted their headquarters and given up hope.

Eighty-four precincts in Ramsey county gave Johnson 9,900 and Dunn 5,425. The same precincts gave Van Sant 8,128 and Lind 8,890. It is probable that Johnson will carry the county by something over 1,500.

Roosevelt has carried the county by a very large majority, probably in the neighborhood of 9,000.

John A. Johnson will be the next governor of Minnesota.
