PRESIDENT WILL RECAST CABINET

Not More Than Four or Five of the Present Members Will Remain

Globe Special Washington Service, 1417 G Street WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Several men who have been conspicuous in public life will be retired from the administration as a result of Mr. Roosevelt's election.

It is putting it a little too strong, probably, to say that the president will make wholesale changes in the personnel of the administration surrounding himself entirely with young men, although this statement was widely published a day or two after election.

Special to The Globe ST. PETER, Minn., Nov. 14.—Loyal citizens from all sections of the state of Minnesota journeyed to St. Peter yesterday afternoon, and last night joined in one of the grandest tributes paid to a man in these United States.

ST. PETER, Minn., Nov. 14.—The men who came to St. Peter—Democrats, independent Republicans and plain voters of the state—came not at the crack of the party lash but merely to pay homage to Citizen John A. Johnson.

ST. PETER, Minn., Nov. 14.—The Minnesota State band filed into the street leading to Minnesota avenue and the St. Paul delegation started the invasion of St. Peter.

THIRTY minutes later the Minneapolis special pulled in, and again the residents of St. Peter stood on the sidewalks and heard without cheering a delegation 200 strong declaring for John A. Johnson first, last and all the time.

FOLLOWING the Minneapolis train came the specials from Mankato and New Ulm. The Mankato special, made up of eleven coaches, brought fully 500 men to swell the crowds, and the New Ulm special, making stops at Sleepy Eye, Nicollet and Courtland, picked up enough to add another 500 to the throng that moved like a huge serpent up and down Minnesota avenue.

THE SPECIALS from the different points, though overcrowded, brought but a small portion of the people that crowded the streets in honor of John A. Johnson tonight.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Nov. 14.—Upon request of the county attorney, Judge Searle, in charging the grand jury today, called attention to the assault upon Thomas Scollan, of the Merchants hotel, by Postmaster H. G. Wire a week ago tonight.

from the moment of the arrival of The Globe special until 10:30 o'clock, when the tired and hoarse crowds started to return to the depot, St. Peter experienced the greatest sensation in the history of the city.

ST. PETER MAKES RECORD And the city of St. Peter was equal to the occasion. St. Peter expected a crowd of large proportions, but never anticipated the multitude.

ST. PETER, Minn., Nov. 14.—The program of the evening was announced. This included the big torchlight procession, the speeches and the banquet that followed.

THE TORCHLIGHT procession started from Broadway street at 8:30 o'clock. The firemen of the city acted as an escort for the governor-elect, and carrying white and green flares, marched beside the carriages of the guests of honor.

AT 8:40 o'clock the marchers swung into Minnesota avenue, the principal street of the city, and encountered the waiting thousands.

MISS RUSH last appeared in St. Paul a little more than a month ago. She became prominent first in the support of Roland Reed, and after his death played leading roles herself. She had many admirers in St. Paul, though her last vehicle was not an eminent success.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Nov. 14.—The grand jury today, called upon by the county attorney, Judge Searle, in charging the grand jury today, called attention to the assault upon Thomas Scollan, of the Merchants hotel, by Postmaster H. G. Wire a week ago tonight.
